

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4076 -

One point at the helm of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.

The tall ring is made of ink meteorites, and the surface is thick, solid and smooth.

Moreover, this ink star meteorite has a very strong gloss, and standing on it can completely see its own reflection on the ground, which is no different from a mirror.

There are four observation platforms around the arena, among which sit the core elders of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall.

As the judges of the Holy Maiden Qualification Competition, they are paying attention to the cultivation talents of the female disciples of various sects who came to participate in the screening.

There was a surging crowd under the arena, and there were hundreds of sects who came to participate in the Trials for the Holy Maiden. Of course, most of them were small sects.

In the past, these small sects had no access to sects of this scale at all, but now they are all thinking of turning a pheasant into a phoenix.

Even if she couldn't become the saint of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, and showed enough talent to enter the Sun Moon Divine Fire Academy, it would be a qualitative leap.

"The Holy Maiden of the Floating Cloud Sword Sect passed the first test and became a candidate for the Holy Maiden of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple."

"The saintess of the Blood Sea Alliance is slightly lacking in talent, so she can enter the Sun Moon Shenhua Academy for further study."

"The Holy Maiden of Qingyanzong is mediocre in talent, and she is specially given five pieces of top-quality spirit crystals to encourage her."

An elder from the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall announced loudly.

The sect that was announced as the candidacy of the Holy Virgin rejoiced.

The sect chosen to enter the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is also quite happy.

Even the rejected sect won't return empty-handed after receiving the top-grade spirit spar reward. Of course, regret is inevitable.

But for small sects, a few top-quality spiritual spar is also a top-level cultivation resource, and I am grateful to the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple.

This is naturally also the purpose of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple's generous cultivation resources.

"Next, I will invite Qianqiu of Taixu Shenzong Palace to come to the stage to show it."

As the voice of the elder of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall sounded, Gong Qianqiu leaped onto the ring.

"Show your cultivation talent!"

The elder's voice was low, but there was a flash of hope in his eyes, because this was the person who the deputy hall master told him to pay attention to.

He also wanted to see what was so special about Gong Qianqiu?

Gong Qianqiu first saluted, and then he didn't say much, and directly operated the swallowing exercise.

In an instant, a huge energy vortex was formed centered on Gong Qianqiu's body.

The aura of heaven and earth in the surrounding area seemed to be summoned by some sort of summons, and madly poured into the energy vortex.

It was then extracted by Gong Qianqiu's quenching chain and finally inhaled into the body.

And because the power was too violent, the entire ring vibrated violently, and even had a tendency to collapse.

In an instant, the power of the formation around the arena surged, constantly impacting this force, which prevented the arena from being destroyed.

This is also the back-hand of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple, in order to avoid the destruction of the arena during the competition, and this is why a defensive and stable formation is established.

"It turned out to be devouring talent?"

"It seems that she should have the ability to devour spiritual roots and bones, otherwise she will explode and die sooner or later if she swallows the spiritual energy of heaven and earth."

"There is actually such a character in Taixu Shenzong, I haven't heard of it before!"

“Isn’t it ignorant? This is Gong Qianqiu, the future leader of the Taixu Shenzong. How could his talent be poor?”

In an instant, there was a lot of discussion under the stage, and everyone was amazed.

The palms of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall on the high platform are also quite satisfied, and swallowing the spiritual roots and bones is extremely rare even in the Kunlun Ruins.

“Gong Qianqiu is very talented, and after negotiation, it was decided to be the chief candidate for the new saintess.”

The elder announced loudly, once again making many sect members amazed and envied.

Looking at the envy and jealousy of the people below him, Gong Qianqiu enjoyed it very much, and a sense of accomplishment came out spontaneously.

“Have you seen Levi Garrison? Even in Kunlun Ruins, this sect leader can be honored!”

Gong Qianqiu said secretly in his heart.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4077 -

Gong Qianqiu is full of pride, and now she has finally become the focus of attention.

Especially this is the Kunlun Ruins, and the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is not an ordinary large-scale sect.

“The so-called sweet girls of the sky in those sects before are just a group of rabble, how many can be the opponents of this sect leader?”

Gong Qianqiu sneered in her heart. She had paid close attention to other candidates before and did not pose any threat to him at all.

Even if there are a few saintesses from medium-sized sects, they are not bad, but they are far from their own, and there is no pressure.

It can be said that the saintess of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Temple finally belonged to the hands.

At that time, it will gradually climb to the absolute top of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, even if it is a real high-level class entering the Kunlun Ruins.

Even using the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall as a springboard, it would be a hundred times stronger than the Taixu Shenzong.

“The Sun and Moon Divine Fire Palace is still not the end. The background of that gangster is probably the pinnacle of the Kunlun Ruins sect.”

“But it’s not too far away. The new saint of the Sun and Moon Divine Fire Temple is none other than this leader.”

“Levi Garrison and Xiao Feng are not even worthy to carry shoes for the leader.”

The more Gong Qianqiu thought about it, the more excited he became, and he was full of confidence and yearning for the future.

the other side.

Buried Dragon Valley Hantan leyline flames.

A blade in the shape of a Tang knife is completely formed, but the blade of this knife is obviously much wider than that of the Tang knife.

The azure blue blade light is eye-catching under the sunlight, making people dare not look directly.

Compared with Burying Dragon, the breath carried by this knife is less sharp and sharp, and more heavy and domineering.

Levi Garrison held the knife in his hand, and displayed a knife against the thunder that poured down from the far end.

The violent sword gang roared out, and the three-color Tianlei that was surrounded by several people was cut off in an instant, and the Tianlei could not be merged again for a long time.

“You can cut off the thunder with a wave of your hand, so let’s call it cut thunder!”

Levi Garrison is also very satisfied with these two masterpieces.

Just because Levi Garrison forged top-level magic weapons twice, Tianlei became more manic and restless.

After all, continuously mobilizing the nine-colored Tianlei to temper the magic weapon is to continuously change the energy balance.

Frequent search for a new energy balance can make the various elemental energies very manic.

Coupled with the fact that the two peerless divine weapons have attracted the vision of heaven and earth, the power of many elements in the surrounding area naturally gathers to the location of the divine weapons.

So the entire Dragon Burial Valley has undergone earth-shaking changes compared to before.

Gongsun Yueying and the two were also deeply attracted by the two peerless divine weapons suspended in the void.

Clap clap!

The thunder kept falling on the two divine weapons, emitting strong energy fluctuations.

Although Dragon Burial and Thunder Slaying have been successfully forged, Levi Garrison still allows Tianlei to continue smashing the quenching chain and continue to enhance the energy and charm of the peerless divine weapon.

“Burying the dragon is light and agile, which perfectly fits the power of Tianlei; Slashing Thunder is heavy and steady, which is more in line with the power of the earth’s veins.”

“The two peerless weapons can complement each other perfectly. If they are used in combination, they will show even more powerful power.”

Gongsun Yueying said with emotion.

Murong Qingxue was too excited to speak, she had never seen such a level of magic before.

Especially at this time, the area near the Dragon Burial and Thunder Slashing was almost an independent space.

The two divine weapons floated slowly, and during the period, the thunder fell, making them shine, making people dare not look directly at them for a long time.

Especially during the period when the two divine weapons were floating, they seemed to have merged with that piece of heaven and earth, forming a unique Dao rhyme.

Not long ago, the scene of slashing the thunder and breaking the thunder of the sky was still vivid in my mind. At that time, Levi Garrison also did not urge any exercises.

“Tian Lei can still be cut off without urging the cultivation technique, aren’t other things even more unable to stop the thunder’s sword gang?”

Murong Qingxue had already begun to long for the two peerless divine weapons to shine in the outside world.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4078 -

Outside the Dragon Burial Valley.

Groups of bounty hunters obsessed with chance still roam around.

Not long ago, everyone discovered that the power of the thunder in the core of the Buried Dragon Valley had become restless again.

Even just now, a thunderbolt struck the top of a towering ancient tree on the periphery.

In the end, more than ten people surrounded the thick and thin ancient trees and turned them into ashes. Fortunately, many bounty hunters were far away at that time, otherwise they would be directly chopped into coke.

Even so, several people with lower cultivation bases were also internally injured by the aftermath of Tianlei’s energy.

This shocked the bounty hunters, knowing that this has never happened before.

And this is not the end, as if it is just another beginning, everyone also found that the sky above the core area of Buried Dragon Valley is full of splendor.

Those sky thunders were like colorful fireworks, bursting in groups in the void, but did not fall to the ground.

At the same time, the ground of the entire Dragon Burial Valley was shaking slightly, and it was quite rhythmic, like the beat of a drum.

This series of heaven and earth visions made everyone realize that the situation had changed.

“What exactly is this?”

“We have been active near the Buried Dragon Valley all the year round, and we have never seen such a vision of heaven and earth!”

“Do you think someone is doing something important in the Dragon Burial Valley?”

I don’t know who said such a sentence, the atmosphere at the scene instantly became weird, and everyone didn’t even dare to breathe too hard.

And a thought involuntarily appeared in everyone’s mind: Could it be that the madman before died and the movement was caused by him?

Just as the bounty hunters were about to overthrow this bold idea, a group of people passed by far outside the jungle of Buried Dragon Valley.

These men will then be dressed in black robes and embroidered on their chests with the emblem of a crossed axe in purple and gold.

The Zijin Chamber of Commerce is active in the more central area of the Kunlun Ruins, and its comprehensive strength is somewhat stronger than that of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce.

The caravan leader suddenly waved his hand to stop the team. He was the first to discover the vision in the sky.

If it was in the past, the caravan leader would definitely not have any interest in the Dragon Burial Valley.

After all, this level of secret realm belongs to a large group in the slightly core area of Kunlun Ruins.

Moreover, this place is too remote, and the labor, material, and financial resources of labor and teachers traveling far away are huge, and the gains outweigh the losses.

In addition, there is also the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce in this area, so there is no need to come over to compete.

This time, they also escorted some cultivation resources to pass by by chance, and they did not plan to stay for a while at the beginning of the period.

But now the phenomenon of heaven and earth appears frequently, obviously something big is happening, especially in the core area of Buried Dragon Valley, there are two very strong auras.

“These two breaths are extremely terrifying and special. Could it be that there are peerless treasures in the world?”

The caravan leader looked solemnly towards the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley.

“Leader, since you said it might be a treasure, can we send some people to investigate?”

“Yeah, leader, our caravan masters are like clouds, and we are not afraid of these bounty hunters doing little tricks.”

“I like to use various top-level cultivation resources to quench my body, and I have never tried the taste of Tianlei’s body quenching. I request to investigate.”

There are many experts in this caravan. Although the visions of heaven and earth appear frequently, they really don’t take the Dragon Burial Valley seriously.

Naturally, it doesn’t even look down on the bounty hunter organization.

“Don’t act rashly, this force is beyond our ability.”

“What’s more, this batch of supplies cannot be lost. How to explore the Dragon Burial Valley still needs to be considered in the long run.”

“Let’s do this, let’s go back to the Zijin Chamber of Commerce in Wandao City to report this matter, and let the branch president decide!”

“Anyway, Wandao City is not far from here, and it won’t take long to travel between the two places.”

The caravan leader said in a serious tone.

“The leader is too cautious. What danger can there be in a barren land in the backcountry?”

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4079 -

“To be honest, our sect’s forbidden area in the back mountain is more terrifying than the Dragon Burial Valley. Isn’t this seat free to come and go?”

“And there may not be any treasures in this broken place. It may be that the long-term thunderstorm has caused a vision, and there is no need to investigate.”

“Only an organization like the bounty hunter, who is not in the mainstream, regards the Dragon Burial Valley as a feng shui treasure.”

“Such a place dares to call it the Dragon Burial Valley, and the Snake Burial Valley is almost the same, so let’s continue on our way!”

Some of the sect powerhouses employed by the Zijin Chamber of Commerce had expressions of contempt on their faces, and they did not take the Dragon Burial Valley in the slightest.

As a large trading consortium, the Zijin Chamber of Commerce will pay high prices to hire top experts as escorts in each sect to escort resources.

Among them, there are many strong men from large sects. It is not necessary to say that they are well-informed, and they are extremely arrogant when they speak.

“Don’t say a few words, everyone, hurry up!”

The caravan leader still insisted on his own opinion, and did not rashly enter the Dragon Burial Valley to investigate the situation.

And for some unknown reason, he always felt that the phenomenon of heaven and earth in the core area of the Buried Dragon Valley was caused by the appearance of top-quality heaven and earth treasures.

the other side.

Levi Garrison was also very happy when he saw one sword, one sword and two peerless weapons.

“Sect Master, won’t you take a break?”

“Yes, master, are you ready to forge magic weapons day and night?”

Murong Qingxue asked in succession.

Levi Garrison said with a smile: "It doesn't take much effort to forge a magic weapon, and there is no need to rest at all."

"And based on the total amount of materials, I can also forge fifty divine weapons at the level of peerless weapons."

"As for the quasi-magic weapon, more than 200 handles should be easy. This is just forging with god bones as the main material."

Levi Garrison didn't finish what he said later. If you count other treasures, the core members of the base camp can equip them all over again.

When Murong Qingxue and Gongsun Yueying heard the words, they were so shocked that they were speechless.

Fifty peerless gods and more than two hundred quasi-peerless gods. If this is equipped with peak combat power, it can be a large sect in an instant, right?

You must know that it is only the two peerless divine weapons of Burying the Dragon and Slaying Thunder that can burst into extraordinary combat power without urging the cultivation technique.

In other words, if someone is only the core elder of a small sect, he can deal with the Heaven's Chosen Son of a large sect, or even a powerhouse at the level of deputy sect master, just by virtue of the peerless divine weapon.

And a saint from a middle sect like Murong Qingxue could even fight against the top three elders in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall as long as she held a peerless divine weapon.

"If I have a peerless magic weapon, I can completely challenge the deputy hall master with all my strength."

Gongsun Yueying was very emotional.

A peerless magic weapon is equivalent to the cultivator's leapfrog combat power, and even the capital to leapfrog his opponent.

Moreover, the peerless divine weapon forged by Levi Garrison is much more powerful than almost any weapon that has become a peerless divine weapon.

"Even if it is a quasi-magic soldier, it is equivalent to equipping the core combat power of the top large-scale sects."

Murong Qingxue also screamed in surprise.

Both women are well-informed, and even peerless divine soldiers are popular in Kunlun Ruins.

No matter what level of sect, they all flock to the peerless gods.

It is no exaggeration to say that if Levi Garrison took out two or three peerless weapons as a bargaining chip, he would definitely be able to hire enough powerhouses to destroy ordinary large-scale sects.

"Get rich, get rich!"

Gongsun Yueying and the two girls were screaming wildly in their hearts, and it really was the right choice to follow Levi Garrison.

And Levi Garrison has other plans at the moment. In addition to forging a quasi-peerless magic weapon that can equip his henchmen, there are still many treasures left.

These things can't be wasted in the slightest, and all kinds of resources can be exchanged in Kunlun Ruins.

The Return of the God of War [The Protector] Chapter 4080 -

Even if it is a divine weapon forged from the low-level heaven and earth treasures in the Buried Dragon Valley.

They are also dozens of times stronger than the magic weapons traded in the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce before. After all, those are only forged from ordinary materials found in the Xingyue Divine Sect, of course, the best ones that the Xingyue Divine Sect can find.

Moreover, Wei Shu had previously stated that if he wanted to upgrade the badge of the chamber of commerce, he would only do it according to the size of the contribution or as the transaction volume continued to increase.

Although the Xingyue Divine Sect has been used as the foundation, Levi Garrison felt that it was not enough.

It is best to befriend a force at the level of the Taiyi Chamber of Commerce, which can be regarded as contributing to the cause of gaining a firm foothold in the Kunlun Ruins in the future.

"Sect Master, the power of Tianlei in the Buried Dragon Valley is getting more and more arrogant. How long do you have to stay here?"

Murong Qingxue asked tentatively.

Levi Garrison pondered for a moment and said, "I have probably calculated that it will take about two months to forge all the heaven and earth treasures into divine weapons and quasi divine weapons."

"The key is that refining the divine bone is the most time-consuming. Even if the earth vein flame and the nine-color sky thunder are used to exert pressure together, the progress is very slow."

Even Levi Garrison can't do anything about this, because the divine bone itself has been quenched by the bombardment of the sky and the power of the cold pool for many years.

So to a certain extent, the divine bone has developed a good resistance to the sky thunder and the earth vein flame.

This is also something that can't be done. You can't leave such a top-level forging environment unutilized, right?

"No need to say more, don't disturb me for the next time."

After Levi Garrison gave the order, he went directly into the forging magic weapon.

the other side.

The selection of saintess in the Sun Moon Divine Fire Temple is still in full swing.

It has to be said that the influence of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall is really not small. The candidates who came to the election one after another ranged from the initial small and medium sects to even the Tianjiao of the large sects.

As more and more people joined the campaign, Gong Qianqiu also felt a little pressure.

So Gong Qianqiu asked the Seven Holy Sons to go to various places to explore the super spiritual veins, especially the dragon veins.

Gong Qianqiu made up his mind that he must win in the final competition of the Holy Maiden Trials.

This is related to Gong Qianqiu's future plans, and there is no room for failure in any case.

At the same time, Gong Qianqiu was still using the Great Holy Son as a breakthrough, using the power of the entire Taixu Shenzong to help him improve his strength.

Especially the cultivation resources, Gong Qianqiu is asking for too much.

But being able to hug the thigh of the Sun Moon Divine Fire Hall, Yin Xuejian as the leader also supported Gong Qianqiu very much.

Yin Xuejian even issued a death order, no matter what request Gong Qianqiu put forward, it was only satisfied within the scope of Taixu Shenzong's ability.

It is also in this process that Gong Qianqiu's foreshadowing of both sides played a major role.

Taking this opportunity, Gong Qianqiu has cultivated his cronies endlessly, and now Taixu Shenzong is almost in the hands of Gong Qianqiu.

Before he knew it, Yin Xuejian was about to be completely overridden by Gong Qianqiu.

"Actually, as long as you hold the Seven Holy Sons in your hands, the Taixu Shenzong is equivalent to fish on the chopping block in front of this sect master."

Gong Qianqiu said very proudly.

The ability of the Seven Holy Sons to detect the spiritual veins is very important, especially for the Taixu Shenzong.

However, now the Seven Holy Sons have been leading the way for Gong Qianqiu.

With endless cultivation resources, Gong Qianqiu has no worries about anyone following him.

At this moment, Duguxiao found Gong Qianqiu.

"Master, the task you explained has been completed, and you have recruited a loose cultivator who is regarded as the elder level of the Taixu Shenzong."

"Only with your order, these loose repair swords and seas of fire will rush in."

Duguxiao said respectfully.

The smile on Gong Qianqiu's face became more and more obvious, and then he said: "Well done, now you can teach them the simplified version of the swallowing method."
