I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1974-Normally, the greater the strength, the fewer the number of people.

However, when it came to the Iridescent Sect, it seemed to be different.

In the entire Iridescent Sect, there were only four reputable elders of True Saint Rank, and there were no Pre-Saints at all.

Obviously, this was very unreasonable.

Could it be that the Iridescent Sect had no geniuses?

Obviously not!

How was it possible that no one broke through Saint Realm in a sect with such a long history and four True Saint reputable elders as mentors?

Nova continued, "Actually, according to scattered records in the secret history of the sect, at least twenty Saints have been cultivated since the establishment of the Iridescent Sect, but these Saints have all disappeared without exception!"

'Disappeared?'

David froze for a moment.

Obviously, he did not expect this.

"How?" David asked curiously.

"After breaking through Saint Realm, one will have to enter the sect's forbidden area to practice. After that, they never came out again," Nova replied.

"Maybe they are just living in seclusion in the forbidden area. This is not considered disappearing, right?" David said.

"David, have you ever seen someone living in seclusion for tens of millions of years straight? The Saints who first entered the forbidden area of the sect have not come out for more than a million years, and the only active ones in the sect are only the four True Saint reputable elders. Do you think this is normal?"

'Um...'

David was also taken aback.

Dozens of Saints had entered the forbidden area of the Iridescent Sect, but they had not come out since. The earliest ones were even millions of years old.

Anyone would know that this was certainly not normal.

“Nova, have you been to the forbidden area?” David asked.

“No! No one is allowed to enter the forbidden area unless they have permission or if they reach Saint Realm, but none of the Saints can come out,” Nova shook her head and said.

“Nova, judging from what you said there must be something strange in the forbidden area. No wonder the Iridescent Sect has never had a Pre-Saint.” David was stunned.

“David, these are the conclusions that I came up with after secretly reading through countless materials. Because too much time had passed, it didn’t attract anyone’s attention. I was curious because a very talented Saint Realm grandmaster of mine never came out after entering the forbidden area of the sect. The reason why I became the head of the Iridescent Sect was to find out what secrets are hidden in the forbidden area, but unfortunately, I haven’t found anything yet,” Nova sighed.

She wanted to know the secrets in the forbidden area of the sect and also wanted to know if her grandmaster was still alive.

All members of the Iridescent Sect who entered the forbidden area would also bring their life plaques with them.

Therefore, the people outside would not even know whether the people who entered were dead or alive.

David was lost in thought.

Nova’s words aroused his curiosity.

‘Should I send a clone to visit the forbidden area of the Iridescent Sect?’

‘So many Saints went in, so they cant have disappeared for no reason.’

‘Saints have an infinite lifespan, so as long as there is no accident, they will surely still be alive even after a million years.’

‘Even if there is any danger in the forbidden area, the clone should be able to save himself as a partial Pre-Deity.’

‘Even if he can’t, I’ll just lose one of my clones.’

'But just to be on the safe side, it'll be better to wait until I rescue Celeste and take care of Celia and the others properly. After that, I'll go and explore so that it won't affect them if anything happens.'
