

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1988

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1988-Then, her alluring body was damaged, i

Back then, she even wanted to kill David.

Next, everything had surpassed Celeste's imagination.

This kept on repeating just so she could control her alluring body.

Every time it happened, Celeste could feel her mind power increasing rapidly.

From the initial resistance to slowly letting herself go, accepting, and finally even gradually enjoying the whole process, the activation of her alluring body slowed down Celeste's cultivation speed, but it also allowed her to find a way to quickly increase her mind power. 1

Maybe because David had become stronger, but her mind power suddenly increased a lot in the ice cavern just now.

Celeste believed she would surely reach Saint Realm.

It would not be long before she could cross this hurdle with David's help.

The four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect noticed how David addressed Celeste.

'He actually called Celeste by name?'

'Is he not as old as Celeste?'

'This is impossible, right?'

'Does such a young True Saint exist?'

"My friend, Celeste did violate the rules of the sect, so that's why I sent her to the ice cavern. As her teacher, I have taught her for so many years and I am crushed that I had to do that as well," Eira said.

"Oh? Then tell me, what did Celeste do wrong? Weren't you afraid of offending Nek the Saint, which is why you banished Celeste to the ice cavern? You also put some trumped-up charges on Celeste," David's clone sneered.

"What a joke! Nek is a guy who has just entered Saint Realm. He is just an ant so do you think we would be afraid of him? Even if Sahar himself came, he would not dare to act so recklessly in the Iridescent Sect." This time it was Ursa who spoke.

“Then why on earth did you send Celeste into the ice cavern?”

“Celeste, as the head of the seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect and the successor trained by the sect, was not allowed to have contact with any man. This is because of her special physique. Once in contact with a man, her physique would be damaged. Her speed of cultivation would drop sharply, and she would be reduced from a genius to just an ordinary person. Celeste’s physique was damaged after she came back from a mission outside. She has failed the sect’s cultivation for so many years and wasted the sect’s resources. There is no hope for her becoming a Saint now! That’s why I sent her into the ice cavern to face the wall and think about what she’s done,” Eira explained.

If it were not for the great strength of the masked man, she would not even bother to explain herself.

Now that she was in the face of the absolute strength of a strong Sacred Saint, any other approach from her seemed so weak and powerless.

Therefore, she could only give in first and try to find a way to keep the Ice Soul Excalibur.

It would be worth it no matter the price.

After the sisters’ task was completed, they would seek revenge against the master and disciple.

‘When the time comes... Heh, he’s just a Sacred Saint.’

After listening to Eira’s explanation, David fell into a brief silence.

The man who damaged Celeste’ alluring body was him, right?

He did not expect it to bring so much disaster to Celeste.

Even so, what happened at the beginning was not David’s fault either.

He could not control it.

Inexplicably, he was drawn into the fantasy.

David turned around and glanced at Celeste.

He saw that the other party was blushing. She then shifted her eyes, not daring to look at him.

Then, David turned around and stared at Eira with unfriendly eyes. He said coldly, “Old hag, I just said that even if Celeste was wrong, you can’t punish her.”

“My friend, isn’t it a bit unreasonable for you to say that? Celeste is my disciple and an elder of the Iridescent Sect. Since she has accepted the training of the sect, she should abide by the rules of the sect and should be punished according to the same rules.” Eira frowned.

“I don’t care about other people in the Iridescent Sect, but you cannot punish Celeste. I don’t care if you are her master. You can’t go against her wishes even if you are her mother.”

“You...” Eira was rendered speechless.

If only David was alone, then the sisters could have taken David down long ago.

However, this kid’s master was keeping an eye on him.

So, who would dare to do anything?

Recommended Novels