I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1989-David's unreasonable remarks angered the four sisters.

However, they did not dare to say anything even though they were mad.

On the contrary, this made the cores of the Iridescent Sect feel envious.

Since they could become the seniors of the Iridescent Sect, it meant that these women had top-notch talent and appearance in Star Kingdom.

Even if most of them looked slightly older, they were still charming.

They were so many times stronger than young and ignorant girls.

As an older woman, who would not want a good home?

If they had a man like David who would make his way through the Iridescent Sect to get them, they might wake up with a smile even after they fell asleep.

"You old hag, I'm not in the mood to waste my time talking to you. Celeste said that from today onwards, she will leave the Iridescent Sect and will no longer be your disciple, so don't bother her anymore. Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude to you," David's clone warned.

Eira looked at the other three people. She saw that they all nodded slightly, so she replied, "My friend, Celeste grew up in the Iridescent Sect since she was a child, and she has consumed a lot of resources of the sect. Don't you think it's inappropriate for you to just take her away like this?"

"Then what do you want? Do you want to fight? I can do that."

"Your master is a strong Sacred Saint, so us sisters are naturally no match for him."

"Yeah, since you can't beat me, I'm going to take Celeste away. What can you do to me?" David's clone sneered.

"You can take Celeste away, but..." Eira hesitated to speak.

"But what?" David wondered.

"But you have to leave the Ice Soul Excalibur. This is the treasure of the Iridescent Sect so you can't take it, but I can satisfy all your other requirements."

A horse voice sounded just after Eira finished speaking.

“So it’s called the Ice Soul Excalibur, huh? What a good name! Haha! What a good name!” David was the one who spoke.

He deliberately changed his voice so that he would sound a little different from the clone.

“Old hag, if you want the Ice Soul Excalibur back, you have to ask my master. I can’t decide for him, but I have to remind you first that my master never returns any treasure he gets his hands on, so you have to be mentally prepared.” David smiled.

Eira knew that the other party was just being perfunctory.

However, she had no choice.

The importance of the Ice Soul Excalibur to the sisters was self-evident.

Therefore, she could only look at David.

“My Lord, the Ice Soul Excalibur is the treasure of my sect, so please return it to me. If you have any other requests, we will try our best to satisfy you.”

“You are not qualified to negotiate terms with me. Didn’t you hear what my disciple said? I never return a treasure in my hands, and even if I have other requests, do you think I need to exchange this sword for them? If you dare not agree, I’ll just kill you, how simple is that?” David replied in a hoarse voice.

His words completely crushed Eira and her sisters.

The four of them could only stare at David.

Their eyes were full of anger, but there was nothing they could do about it.

If their glares could kill, David had no idea how many times he had died.

“What? Do you want to fight me?” David joked as he looked at the angry eyes of several people.

“My Lord, you must be joking. We dare not do that. If you like the Ice Soul Excalibur, you can take it away! You can take everything here as long as you like it,” the youngest reputable elder, Giada, replied.

The Ice Soul Excalibur had fallen into the hands of a Sacred Saint, so they could not do anything other than admit defeat.

They could not enrage David.

If David took action, the consequences would be unimaginable.

“Hmph!” David looked at the four in disdain through the mask.

If it was not for the sake of Celeste and Nova, he would have taught those old women a lesson.

‘What a disrespectful woman.

‘As a teacher, she didn’t protect her disciple but helped others.’

“David, let’s go.”

“Yes, Master!” David’s clone replied respectfully.

David took a step forward to go to the clone and Celeste. Then, he ripped the space apart and walked in.
