I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1981-A ray of light shot out from the forbidden area of the Iridescent Sect and reached the top of the ice cavern in an instant.

At the same time, the ice cavern also exploded. After that, a figure emerged in the air, confronting the light coming out from the forbidden area of the Iridescent Sect.

The light then turned into an old woman.

It was Eira, one of the Iridescent Sect's four reputable elders.

The figure rushing out of the ice cavern was naturally David's clone.

An old woman and a young man stood opposite each other.

Eira stared at the young man in front of her. He seemed a little familiar and she felt as if she had seen him somewhere before, but she could not remember.

When Nek was making trouble in the Iridescent Sect, she glanced at David when she showed up to suppress Nek.

However, at that time, David was just an ant who had just entered Eternal Realm, so Eira did not take him seriously at all.

So much so that she could not remember David at all now.

"Who are you and what are you doing in the ice cavern of the Iridescent Sect? If you don't give me a reasonable explanation today, you won't be able to leave," Eira snapped.

She could sense that the young man in front of her was very powerful, so she did not act immediately.

On the contrary, she just wanted to know the truth of the matter.

"You don't have to worry about who I am. Can't I just hang out here?" David's clone replied casually.

During the conversation between the two, Nova arrived with a group of core seniors of the Iridescent Sect.

When she spotted David confronting Reputable Elder Eira, she felt a little nervous.

"Nova, do you know this person?" Eira turned to look at Nova.

“Reputable Elder, I don’t know him,” Nova shook her head and replied.

Now she could only say that she did not know David.

Otherwise, the reputable elder would definitely uncover everything.

Even if the reputable elders found out about this in the future, she would have ways to justify it.

After all, he was a young man who had just entered Eternal Realm, and the other was a powerhouse who could make reputable elders afraid.

Who would have thought they would be the same person?

“What about the others? Does anyone know him?” Eira asked again.

All the core seniors of the Iridescent Sect behind Nova collectively looked at David’s clone and then replied loudly, “Reputable Elder, we don’t know him.”

After hearing everyone’s answers, Eira turned to David again.

“If you don’t tell the truth now, don’t blame me for being merciless to you.”

“I just want to experience the strength of the Iridescent Sect’s reputable elders. Don’t blame me for not reminding you in advance if I decide to take action here and destroy your Iridescent Sect.” David’s clone was still arrogant, and he was not scared of Eira at all.

Of course, he would not be nice to the person who locked Celeste in the ice cavern.

He did not make a move immediately because he was afraid of affecting other people in the Iridescent Sect.

After all, Celia and the others were still in the sect!

Boom!

The violent shaking continued.

Eira glanced at the ice cavern and felt the vibration coming from inside.

Suddenly she was horrified, and she seemed to recall something deep in the ice cavern.

She could not let anyone steal that treasure. Otherwise, how would she explain this to her sisters in the future?

Leaning down, Eira rushed to the ice cavern to see what was going on inside.

She wanted to know if someone was stealing that treasure.

However, David's clone was not weak. How would he allow that to happen?

While Eira was leaving, the clone also moved and stopped in front of Eira, preventing her from going forward.

Boom!

The two collided against each other.

The two sides retreated separately, and neither could do anything to the other.

"Hey, old lady, where are you doing? Aren't you going to fight? Why are you leaving before the fight starts?" David's clone joked. 1

The clone's impasse made Eira more convinced that there was something going wrong in the ice cavern.

She immediately shouted anxiously, "Marin, Ursa, Giada, come out quickly! Someone's trying to steal the Ice Soul Excalibur!"

After she said that, there was an instant response in the forbidden area.
