I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1994-“Pfft!”

The two spat out a mouthful of blood almost at the same time.

After they did that, they finally had their injuries under control.

Looking at each other, they could see the fear in each other’s eyes.

The Sacred Saint was indeed terrifying.

As peak True Saints, they could not even resist the opponent’s energy burst.

Of course, David targeted them, which led to such consequences.

A True Saint would surely not be able to resist an attack from a Sacred Saint that was targeted at them.

If David wanted to kill them, it would be as easy as pie.

A Sacred Saint, Star Kingdom’s strongest combat power, was no joke.

To them, everyone below Sacred Saint Rank was like an ant.

The two late True Saints, Eira and Giada, still had not woken up.

Their strength was relatively weak.

Naturally, it would take longer for them to recover.

Marin and Ursa came up behind them and healed them.

Not long after...

“Pfftr

Eira and Giada also spat out a mouthful of blood.

All four stabilized their injuries.

However, if they wanted to recover, it might take a little thought and time.

‘The Sacred Saint is too strong! We can’t resist him at all,’ Giada shook her head and sighed.

“Of course! Even in the ancient era when all heroes competed for the throne, a Sacred Saint was like a warlord, let alone in this era,” Marin responded.

That traitor!” Eira cursed in a low voice.

At the end of the day, she was the one who caused this.

If she did not banish Celeste into the ice cavern, how could she have attracted the strong Sacred Saint?

Now, they had even lost the Ice Soul Excalibur.

Eira still could not understand how Celeste had met such a young True Saint.

She even attracted a Sacred Saint hiding in the dark.

“Eira, I asked you back then not to do that to Celeste, but you didn’t listen. Although Celeste made a mistake, she has made up for it. If she hadn’t found another alluring body, we’d have no idea when we would have finished our task! We’ve spent a lot of effort to find Celeste,” Ursa complained.

“I was also very angry at the time. We spent so much time, so much energy, and so many resources to train Celeste to be a late Sovereign Ranker.

When she finally had hopes of becoming a Sacred Saint, her alluring body was damaged in the last step. Now, we have to start all over again,” Eira retorted.

“But that’s not Celeste’s fault! Celeste is obviously still a virgin.”

“It doesn’t matter if she is or not. The important thing is that her body was damaged. She wasted our time.”

“Okay! Ursa, Eira, stop arguing. We should discuss what we should do next!” Giada stopped.

All three looked at the eldest sister, Marin.

“What do you think?” Marin asked.

“Let’s risk everything. Even if we have to use forbidden techniques, we can’t hesitate. We must help Lorraine break through Saint Realm as quickly as possible,” the three of them replied at the same time.

The four of them had been together for millions of years, so they could reach a consensus easily.

They could basically reach a unified opinion on such an important matter.

“Since you all think this way, I will naturally not object. The current situation is indeed not optimistic. Now, we must first recover from our injuries. After all, performing forbidden techniques will do us great harm. Once we are healed, we will use forbidden techniques to improve Lori’s strength,” the eldest sister Marin said.

“Yes, Marin!”
