

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1999

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1999-Inside the Fellowes Residence's meeting room.

"Grandmaster, are you saying there is still hope for our Fellowes family?" Finally, a senior member of the Fellowes family asked.

Except for Valerio and Alba, everyone else present immediately looked over expectantly.

This was related to their survival, so they had to pay close attention.

Grandmaster Cedar was clearly making arrangements for the family's future when he was saying all those things.

If the Fellowes family was exterminated, how would they have a future?

Therefore, this showed that the grandmaster still had a backup plan.

Everyone hoped the family could escape this disaster, but no matter how much they racked their brains, they could not figure out where this sliver of hope came from.

After all, the enemy was the number one force in Star Kingdom.

"What? Do you think we will surely get wiped out and that there is no hope?" Cedar asked calmly.

"Grandmaster, it's not that we want to think this way, but the enemy is too powerful. As members of the Fellowes family, we naturally hope that the family can survive this. After much deliberation, we can't think of any way for the Fellowes family to fight back against the Palmore family."

"That's right! Grandmaster, you can't blame us either. The difference in strength between the enemy and us is too great. We can only prepare for the worst and meet our fate with the family."

"Grandmaster, if you have any backup plans, please tell us so that we are mentally prepared. Those who betrayed the family all chose this path because they felt hopeless. Even if there is a glimmer of hope, I'm sure they would not have resorted to such acts."

The seniors of the Fellowes family present expressed their thoughts one after another.

"Okay, you don't have to defend those traitors. Since they chose to betray the family at the most critical time, they must be punished with the crime of treason. As for a backup plan, of course, we have one, but it's not yet time to make it public. You just need to know that the Fellowes family is far from being exterminated. It's the same even if the enemy is the Palmore family," Cedar said confidently.

Looking at Cedar's confident expression, the seniors of the Fellowes family sitting there felt a little relieved.

It did not matter if the grandmaster was telling the truth or was just trying to appease everyone, they still saw a glimmer of hope in the most desperate time.

"Don't worry, Grandmaster! We will all live and die with the Fellowes family," Valerio said loudly.

"We will live and die with the Fellowes family!"

Other voices followed suit.

Cedar nodded.

The purpose of this meeting was achieved.

How long had it been and 10% of the family had already betrayed the family and turned to the enemy?

If Cedar did not do anything, it would not take long before the Fellowes family would collapse by itself. The Palmore family did not even need to do anything.

The Palmore family was so slick.

They only laid siege but did not attack.

They started by dismantling the power of the Fellowes family from within.

Then, when they finally took action, they could defeat the Fellowes family without breaking a sweat.

At this moment...

Boom!

The door of the meeting room was knocked open.

A member of the Fellowes family stumbled into the meeting hall before staggering and falling to the ground while shouting loudly.

"Grandmaster, my Lord, bad news!"

“What’s going on? Stand up and tell us,” Cedar said, frowning.

The Fellowes family member who broke in suddenly struggled to stand up, and continued in panic, “Grandmaster, bad news! A large number of enemies are coming.”

“How many people are there?”

Cedar thought it was the Palmore family who had increased their manpower.

“The exact number of people is not clear, as only a fleet has been seen quickly approaching the Fellowes family.”

“Okay, I see. You should go first. Remember to knock on the door next time you enter the meeting room. This situation was special, so I won’t hold you accountable, do you understand?” Cedar said seriously.

It was too unruly to just barge in and interrupt a senior meeting of the Fellowes family without even knocking on the door.

No matter what the occasion was, this should not be allowed.

It seemed that Cedar had to reorganize the family.

During this period, the Palmore family had frequently sent additional manpower, and the Fellowes family had become used to it.

Hence, Cedar did not take it to heart either.

Recommended Novels