

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1991

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 1991-After David's main form entered the space crack with his clone and Celeste, he directly tore apart numerous space barriers and went to the eight-dimensional space.

This was a place only Sacred Saints could reach.

In the eight-dimensional space, the clone dissipated, and the main body also took off the mask.

"Celeste, let's go pick up Celia and the others before we leave," David said.

"Okay!" Celeste nodded.

From now on, she had nowhere to go, so she could only follow David.

Wherever David went, she would follow.

However, Celeste had one more thing to do.

That was to settle the problem of her alluring body.

If she did not, David and her would never be able to...

When she thought about this, Celeste's face was burning.

When a woman put all her focus on a man, she would forgo all of her reservedness and aloofness.

David did not notice the changes in Celeste. He took Celeste to the courtyard where Celia and the others lived, tore apart the space, and walked out.

The women were gathering in the courtyard.

When they felt the pressure just now, they knew something had happened to the sect, but they did not know what it was.

It was also not something they could ask about.

Thus, they could only stay here obediently.

They would ask Master again when they had a chance.

The sudden appearance of space cracks startled everyone.

Selena, Mia, and Astrid, the three most powerful ones, quickly stood at the front, protecting the others behind them.

Their eyes were fixed on the space crack in front of them.

The three of them knew that anyone who could tear apart the cracks in space would be at least in Eternal Realm. So, how would they deal with them?

The rest of the women were also very nervous.

They were very afraid that the enemies of the Iridescent Sect had come and would take them all away.

What if David could not find them when he came back?

However, when everyone saw the person coming out of the space crack, they broke down immediately.

“David!”

“Dave!”

“Master!”

Everyone was screaming and squealing.

They rushed to David’s side together.

Then, tears welled in their eyes and soon, they started bawling.

During this time, they had been very worried about David.

They were afraid that David would encounter any accidents outside.

Now that he had returned safely, everyone could finally rest assured.

“Sorry, everyone! I’m late!” David said with a smile.

Tears also welled up in his eyes.

If there was anything in this world worthy of his concern, it was these women, aside from his aunts on Earth.

Strength, identity, and status were not important to David.

The reason why he strived to improve his strength was so that he could protect those around him from harm.

“It’s good that you’re back safe,” Celia murmured while hugging David and leaning on his chest.

David caressed Celia’s head and held her quietly like this.

Just ten seconds later, Celia raised her head, glanced at David with red eyes, and then pushed him away.

Recommended Novels