

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2000

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2000-Unexpectedly, the Fellowes family member who broke in said again, "Grandmaster, this time it's not from the Palmore family."

'Not from the Palmore family?

'Who would that be?'

Cedar was somewhat baffled.

Then he asked, "Who is it then?"

"The Saint Association's law enforcement team!"

'What?'

Upon hearing the name, all the cores of the Fellowes family present were shocked.

Including Cedar, the True Saint grandmaster.

The Saint Association law enforcement team were the elites of the entire Saint Association.

Among them were countless powerhouses.

There were even a few Saints.

'Why did they come to the Fellowes family?

'Did Zenon, the new head of TSA, send them?'

'Probably!'

'So does it mean that Zenon has completely taken control of the Saint Association?'

'Otherwise, how can he command the law enforcement team?'

'What about Sid, the previous head?'

'Why didn't he come forward to stop it?'

'With his prestige in TSA, even if Zenon becomes the head, he will not allow Zenon to take control of TSA in such a shortperiod.'

“Are you sure it’s the Saint Association law enforcement team? Are you sure you’re not mistaken?” Cedar asked calmly.

In fact, he was also very nervous.

If it was really the Saint Association law enforcement team, it meant that the Palmore family would be taking action soon.

However, the only hope for the Fellowes family, David, had not yet arrived.

At this time, Cedar did not dare to display any trace of panic like everyone else.

Once he did, the confidence he just built for everyone just now would collapse in an instant.

The little bit of cohesion that the Fellowes family finally formed was about to disappear.

“Grandmaster, I’m sure it’s the Saint Association law enforcement team because on every ship is the word ‘Law Enforcement’ that’s exclusive to them. Other forces dare not use that title.”

After getting an affirmative answer, everyone at the scene felt their hearts sinking.

The arrival of the Saint Association law enforcement team indicated that the Palmore family was about to take action.

The Palmore family’s Sacred Saint Grandmaster Zenon might just be among them.

‘What should we do?’*

Then, everyone turned their attention to Cedar.

‘Didn’t the grandmaster just say that there is still a backup?’

After being stared at by the cores, Cedar could only bite the bullet. He stood up and said, “Don’t worry too much. Just do your own thing and leave the rest to me. The Fellowes family will definitely not fail.”

“Yes, Grandmaster!”

“Vai and Alba, you should stay. Everyone else can leave.”

The seniors of the Fellowes family left the meeting room one after another with heavy hearts.

It was hard to tell if what the grandmaster said was true or not.

However, they had no choice but to believe him now.

Soon, there were only three people left in the room.

“Alba, you heard it too. The Saint Association law enforcement team is approaching quickly, so the Palmore family will soon attack us. You should contact David to see what he will say,” Cedar said with a sigh.

He did not wish to put the fate of the entire Fellowes family on a young man whom he just met.

‘Yes, Grandmaster! I understand, I’ll contact David right away.’”

Alba was also very anxious.

She believed that David would definitely come back.

‘But what if he’s late?’

‘The Fellowes family will suffer such injustice if that’s the case.’
