

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 2018

Chapter 2018

"Based on your peak Sacred Saint strength, you are not qualified to tell me to shut up." Sid was not afraid of the other party's threat at all. 1 "Really? I didn't enjoy myself last time, so today I will let you know what it means when they say that the strongest person is the one who makes the rules." Zenon's heart had already ignited boundless anger.

Originally, he wanted to complete the plan without anyone noticing.

However, Sid directly exposed him.

Now, his plan would be more difficult to implement in the future.

How could Zenon not be angry?

He wanted to kill Sid, but Zenon knew he could not.

Even so, he still wanted to teach Sid a lesson and let this old man know that he could not just say anything he wanted.

Before Sid answered, David's clone spoke.

"Our fight is not over yet! Have you asked my permission to change opponents?" David pointed his long sword at Zenon.

Extreme cold air filled the air.

The chill also made Zenon temporarily calm down.

'I almost forgot.

'There is also an old monster whose strength is comparable to mine.'

If a fight broke out, Zenon would be suffering a disadvantage in this one- against-two battle.

He could not beat them, but he would not be reconciled if he left just like this.

Zenon was caught in a dilemma.

When David's clone appeared with Zenon, Sid had been watching him secretly.

However, because David's clone was wearing a mask, he could not gather any useful information.

Sid seemed to have recalled something when David's clone waved the Ice Soul Excalibur in his hand.

He felt as if he had seen the information on this sword from somewhere.

However, it had been too long that he could not remember.

The three stood facing each other, but no one did anything.

Inside the Iridescent Sect's forbidden area.

A special enlightenment ceremony was going on.

Lorraine, who was gone for a long time, sat in the middle of a small puddle.

She was naked and the water beneath her was bubbling.

The four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect sat cross-legged in four different directions with her in the middle.

All four of them were pale.

Lorraine gritted her teeth tightly, her face scrunched as if she was in great pain.

The energy emitting from her body was also very unstable.

"Lori, hold your ground. You must hold on as this is your best chance to be reborn. If you miss this chance, you will never have it again. The longer you hold on, the more you will get," Marin said loudly.

"Lady Marin is right. Lori, you must persevere. As the head of the seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect, you are already far behind. Many people were eying this position, so you must seize this opportunity if you want to shut them up," Eira also said.

"Lori, you're doing great, but this is far from enough. Do you know how much we have spent and sacrificed for this enlightenment? I hope you will not let us down." Ursa was the one who spoke this time.

"Lori, I know you are suffering and in great pain, but if you persevere, you will immediately have a meteoric rise and be above everyone else. You will reach a height that others can't reach in a lifetime of hard work. Don't faint, otherwise, everything will be in vain. If all previous efforts are wasted, our painstaking efforts will be in vain too," Giada said at the end.

The sisters spoke one after another as they all begged Lorraine to persevere.
