

I'm A Quadrillionaire

Chapter 2021

Chapter 2021

However, what happened next was far beyond Lorraine's expectations.

David soared into the sky like he was riding a rocket after the grand event of the chosen ones.

It did not take long for him to become the strongest on earth.

Then, he even went to the Milky Way to have fun.

While he was at it, he became the Master of the Milky Way.

Lorraine accepted her fate and was prepared to spend the rest of her life with a shattered self-esteem.

What Lorraine did not expect was being discovered by Celeste.

Then, she came to Star Kingdom, joined the Iridescent Continent, and became the disciple of the four reputable elders.

At that time, she was still a little high-spirited.

She thought she still had a chance to fulfill her wish.

As long as she trained hard with the four reputable elders, she would eventually catch up with David and be able to proudly stand in front of him.

However, that was not the reality.

Slowly, Lorraine realized something was wrong.

Sure enough, her teachers were as selfish as she had expected.

However, she had no way to resist.

Honestly, even though Lorraine did not want to admit it, she envied Selena and the other women in her heart.

That was why on the way to Star Kingdom together, she treated everyone coldly.

It was because she could not figure out what the difference was between them was.

David could accept so many women, but rejected her.

Except for Selena, Lorraine did not think she was inferior to any of the women around David.

She even felt that she would not lose to Selena.

At most, they were evenly matched, and they each had their own strengths.

However, why did David reject her?

Lorraine still brooded about it to this day.

She really wanted to confront David face to face, but she did not want to embarrass herself.

This answer was actually very simple.

If Lorraine and Selena and others got along, she would have already found the answer from these people.

All of David's women were allowed to stay by his side because of their constant stalking and pestering and all of them had been rejected before.

Even though they stuck around, they were not recognized by David.

He only acknowledged one girlfriend—Celia.

Even so, everyone did not care as they would be fine as long as they could stay with David.

David's soft heart, together with Celia adding fuel to the fire, created the current chaotic situation.

Meanwhile, Lorraine had been a woman who was loved by thousands of people since she was a child, which then contributed to her proud character.

She would never be able to humbly beg a man to accept her.

David was even less likely to take the initiative to do this.

As far as the current situation was concerned, he was already hard-pressed.

He could not even reject the women so how would he dare to provoke them again?

The personalities of the two destined them to be two parallel lines that were never far apart. They could see each other, but they would never intersect.

With her willpower getting weaker and weaker, Lorraine's consciousness started to become a little fuzzy.

Eira and her sisters' voices were turning hoarse from shouting outside.

They all widened their blood-red eyes.

As they watched Lorraine gradually falter and start to faint, the four sisters trembled with anger.

This was a process they had spent countless resources and painstaking efforts on. They even made huge sacrifices to create this opportunity.
