I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2059-All nine chains pierced into Lorraine's body, and one of them went straight for her heart.

For a Saint who possessed the Saint's body, such an injury was nothing.

With the recovery speed of the Saint's body, Lorraine would soon be automatically healed.

However, Nova and others understood that these chains would not just hurt Lorraine.

Obviously, there were other effects.

As Lorraine's breathing grew weaker, everyone knew that the chains were absorbing the energy and blood in Lorraine's body.

Such a weird scene made all the seniors of the Iridescent Sect tremble with fear.

They had never heard of this.

Who could heal his injuries by directly absorbing the energy and blood in other people's bodies?

Was this some kind of sorcery?

Some of the Iridescent Sect's seniors standing behind could not accept such a terrifying scene, so they began to retreat slowly. After retreating to a certain distance, they quickly turned and fled into the distance.

'This is too damn scary!

'It seems I can't stay in the Iridescent Sect any longer.

'I should quickly find a place to hide!

'I don't want to end up like this one day.'

In fact, they were just overthinking.

Aside from the required physiques, Azul would not absorb the others even though they were right in front of him.

Although their bodies were heavily damaged and the consequences of casting Soul Blaze also started to appear, the smiles on Eira and her sisters' faces got bigger and bigger.

They were also extremely excited.

'Master is absorbing the alluring body, so it's almost time for him to wake up.

'After he's done, he will be fully awake.

'We didn't let him down and we completed the task.

'Even though we encountered some accidents, the result is still joyful.

'This is enough.

'The process is not important. Only the result is important.'

Lorraine was in debilitating pain, but this was still acceptable for her.

After all, the pain she endured while she was upgrading her strength was much worse than this.

Since she could endure that, this was nothing to her.

What truly scared Lorraine was that she was rapidly losing her vitality and blood. They were being sucked away by those hateful chains to serve as nourishment for others.

It would not be long before she would become a dry corpse.

Lorraine did not expect to end up this way.

'How embarrassing.

'I wonder if someone will come and collect my body.

'If possible, I hope that David could bring my body back to Earth for burial.

'That's my hometown.

'All things should eventually return to their source. That is the wish of every human being on Earth.

'No one wants to die in a foreign land.'

Inside the cold pool under the forbidden area, the energy and blood absorbed by the nine chains was continuously transmitted here.

The sound of a weak heartbeat began slowly grew stronger.

Other organs were also recovering gradually.

Suddenly, a pair of eyes opened, emitting a blue light that illuminated the entire cold pool.

Then, two beams of blue light shot out from the cold pool and went straight into the sky.

The sisters in the sky became even more excited when they saw the two beams of blue light.

They were even shedding tears of excitement.

“Master... Cough cough... Master... Cough cough... Master finally woke up.”

“Yeah! We... Cough cough... We... Cough cough... waited for this day for too long, too long.”

“It’s a pity... Cough cough... It’s a pity that we can’t... Cough cough... We can’t accompany Master anymore.”

“No... Cough cough... Master will not abandon us, he... Cough cough... He will definitely find a way to save us.”
