I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2070-The vast majority of people on Earth lived to be no more than a hundred years old, and there were very few people who could live up to two or three hundred years old.

As they grew older, their bodies also became older, unlike these humans from a higher civilization.

They might look the same from dozens of years old to hundreds of thousands of years old.

There were some rare treasures of heaven and earth which could also make people age backward and stay young forever, but there were no such things on Earth.

“How many years have passed since I fell asleep?” Azul asked aloud.

“Master, ten epochs have passed since you fell asleep.” It was Eira who spoke this time.

“Ten epochs! Has it been this long?”

“Master, please punish us. We have failed to quickly find all the physiques you needed for the sacrifice, so that’s why you couldn’t wake up earlier.”

“That’s enough. I am not unreasonable. You have done a good job. The rest are fine but alluring bodies are really hard to find. Even in our hometown, they rarely appear.”

“Thank you for understanding! It is indeed as you said, we have been looking for an alluring body for millions of years, but we have failed. Just when we were all feeling hopeless, we finally found one two thousand years ago. However, it was damaged not long ago. Fortunately, she brought back another person. In order to avoid any accidents with this one, we used the forbidden technique to forcibly promote her to become a Saint.”

“So, you haven’t found an alluring body in the previous one million years, but in the last two thousand years, you have found two alluring bodies, and the former one was damaged? Was the one I absorbed just now the latter one?”

“Yes, Master!”

Azul was lost in thought.

The alluring body was an extremely rare physique in the universe.

Despite this, in just two thousand years, two of them appeared in this level 7 civilization.

This was very abnormal.

Was Star Kingdom going to advance?

“I see, you should rest first! After I go back, I will find a way to replenish your body.”

‘Thank you, Master!’ The four said excitedly.

They knew that the master would not give up on them.

Azul looked at David.

“You should be the strongest person in Star Kingdom! You are so courageous. Not only did you stop me from absorbing the alluring body, but you even dared to threaten me. If I kill you now, will Star Kingdom become a mess?”

“You can try,” David replied calmly.

“Very good! You can still be so calm in front of me, so it’s no wonder you’re regarded as number one.”

After Azul finished speaking, he suddenly shouted.

“Sword!”

‘Hmm?’

He felt that something was wrong.

‘Where is my sword?’

‘Why is it not coming?’

‘I can’t even feel where it is.’

“Where’s my sword?” Azul frowned and asked in an unfriendly tone.

Eira and her sisters trembled when they heard this.

The master was angry.

However, Marin replied with a trembling voice, “M-Master, t- the Ice Soul Excalibur was discovered not long ago, and then forcibly stolen. That person is very powerful and we’re not his opponent. Back then, we were afraid of affecting your awakening, so we could only watch helplessly, There was nothing we can do.”

“What? Who has the guts to touch my sword?” Azul asked sharply.

The Ice Soul Excalibur was a weapon that had accompanied him in battles for many years.

Aside from how precious this sword was, no one was allowed to touch the sword based on the relationship between it and its owner.

Now, someone had forcibly stolen it?

Azul felt a fire burning in his heart.

Whoever stole his Ice Soul Excalibur had to die!

“Master, the person who took the Ice Soul Excalibur was the master of the person in front of you. They came together at that time.” Eira pointed to David in front of her.

Azul once again cast his eyes on David and asked through gritted teeth, “Did your master steal my sword?”

“We didn’t steal it. Instead, we took it brazenly. The sword is not on you, so how can you say it’s yours? When my master took it, it didn’t have an owner,” David admitted magnanimously.

“Ask your master to return it and I will let you die quickly.”

“Are you stupid, or am I stupid? Since I’ll die no matter what, why should I give it back? Also, are you sure that you can kill us?” David sneered.
