

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2089

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2089-The palm of David's third clone was firmly printed on the center of Azul's back.

The Divine Power carried by the Air Crushing Slap went directly through his body, damaging Azul's internal organs.

"Pfft!"

Azul spewed out a mouthful of blood mixed with internal organ fragments before his body leaned forward.

The power of this palm attack was not great, and it was not as powerful as the Void Punch just now.

However, the place where it hit was different, so the effect produced was also different.novelxo

The Void Punch would cause external damage. The Divine body that was partly transformed had a strong defense, so the damage was naturally limited.

On the other hand, the Air Crushing Slap would damage one's organs.novexo

Whether it was the Saint's body or the Divine body, a person's weakest body part were the internal organs.

Therefore, the damage caused by this blow to Azul was far greater than that of the Void Punch, completely changing his injuries from minor to severe.

As severe pain swept through his body, Azul's energy weakened sharply.

Even he could not bear such an injury.

David backed away.

As he felt the drop in power from Azul's hand, he retracted his right hand that was holding the Evil-Splitting Sword.

At the same time, he turned and swung the sword in an upward arc.

"Ah!"

There was a scream.

Azul's right hand detached from his body as it was sliced off by David's Evil-Splitting Sword.

A figure suddenly appeared, grabbed Azul's severed right hand, took the Ice Soul Excalibur from it, and threw the arm away.

It was David's third clone, who had just attacked Azul.

The other two clones followed suit at this time.

Meanwhile, David's main form retreated into a distance.

Four figures stood in the front, back, left, and right of Azul, surrounding him in the middle.

Three of them were wearing masks.

At this time, Azul was in a horrible state.

His body was covered with blood and there was also blood flowing from the corner of his mouth.

His right hand which was holding the Ice Soul Excalibur was cut off by David and now, he only had one arm.

Azul's left hand held the stub where his right arm used to be as he gritted his teeth, a look of pain on his face.

His internal organs were shattered, and his right arm had been severed.

These two serious injuries caused Azul to suffer great pain.

As he was looking at David in front of him, Azul felt miserable on the inside.

'Four!

'Not three, but four!

'Four partial Pre-Deities are hiding in Star Kingdom!'

Even if he fought head-on and used all of his trump cards, he would not be able to fight four people by himself.

Not to mention that these guys would not follow the rules and would attack him sneakily.

In just one round, he was greatly injured and even lost the Ice Soul Excalibur.

This battle ended so quickly.

It only took a moment to go from start to finish.

Before the surrounding Saints had time to react, the battle was over.

An unbelievable scene appeared before their eyes.

The four partial Pre-Deities stood in four corners, with Azul in the middle. His body was wounded, and he was missing his right arm and sword.

What shocked everyone the most was that David was also a partial Pre-Deity.

No one expected this.

'He's clearly just a late True Saint, so how did he suddenly become a partial Pre-Deity?'

Everyone was so shocked that they were speechless.

All of their jaws dropped as they watched everything unfolding in front of them with wide eyes.

"Master!"