

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2109

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2109-After Zenon and the gang left, only David and Lorraine were left at the scene, as well as several seniors of the Iridescent Sect, including Nova.

“Nova, now that the four old women are dead, I believe that no Saints will ever disappear again in the future. You’re in charge of the Iridescent Sect now and I hope you can lead everyone to restore the glory of the Iridescent Sect,” David said.

‘Thank you, Master David!’ Nova bowed to David.

This was a heartfelt thank you, and it was not because she was scared of David’s strength.

If not for David, she might never have learned the secrets of the four reputable elders, what would happen when the four reputable elders’ master woke up, or where the Iridescent Sect would end up.

They would all be mysteries.

‘Thank you, Master David!’ Several other seniors said.

They did not know as much as Nova.

However, the Iridescent Sect had been established for so many years, but except for the four True Saint reputable elders, there were no other Saints, which was obviously unreasonable.

Unexpectedly, it was the four reputable elders who secretly led these Saints to the forbidden area and sacrificed them to their master.

How many seniors of the sect spent their entire lives getting into Saint Realm with great difficulty? They thought that the future would be bright, but in the end, they became nourishment for others.

How unwilling would they be when they were dying?

The truth was out now, and the Iridescent Sect could finally get back on track again.novel.xo

All thanks to David.

“Nova, you don’t need to be courteous with me. In truth, I should be the one thanking you. If I hadn’t made an agreement with you, I wouldn’t be here today. Once Azul completely absorbed the alluring body and returned to his peak, no one can say for sure what would have happened. You have a lot of credit for being able to nip the threat in the bud.”

Lorraine also stepped forward at this time. She then bowed and thanked, ‘Thank you, David! Thank you, Nova!’

She was able to survive because of these two people in front of her. If not for them, she would have become someone else’s nourishment.

“You’re welcome, Lori. I didn’t expect it to be like this. It was all by mistake and we were saved all thanks to Master David’s strength. If I had known the truth, I wouldn’t let Master David come to take risks. Fortunately, Master David was strong enough, otherwise, the consequences would have been unpredictable,” Nova said, feeling terrified in her heart.

Who would have thought that a partial Pre-Deity from level 9 civilization was sleeping in the forbidden area?

If she had known, she would never have told David.

At the same time, Nova was also horrified by David’s true strength.

He still remembered when David was brought back by Elder Red, he was just a kid who had just entered Eternal Realm.

How long had it been?

Now, he even killed a partial Pre-Deity.

He was truly blessed by the Gods.

He was sent from heaven to save Star Kingdom.

Nova was not even worried about the Feather family coming three hundred years later.

She knew that David would definitely protect Star Kingdom.

Three hundred years was enough for David to get over the obstacle faced by partial pre-Deities and become a true Deity.

“David is my savior, and Nova, you also indirectly saved me. So, I have to thank both of you,” Lorraine said with a smile.

“Master David, why don’t we get out of here first? Let’s go back to the Iridescent Sect while Lori can tell us about your experience in the forbidden area and how you discovered that the four reputable elders had ulterior motives,” Nova suggested.

“Okay, let’s get out of here!” David agreed.

Naturally, no one would object the moment he opened his mouth.

The group left the forbidden area and returned to the living area of the Iridescent Sect.

Nova found a room and the three sat together.

Lorraine began to recount what happened after she entered the forbidden area.

From the normal practice at the beginning to the forbidden technique performed by Eira and her sisters to help her improve her strength.

Then, when Eira and her sisters were in a weak state, she followed them into the depths of the forbidden area and discovered its secrets.

Recommended Novels