I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2102-The clone that had lost control could not withstand Azul's attack.

Snap!

One of his arms was ripped off by Azul.

Then...

Chop chop chop!

Azul directly chopped the clone into pieces.

However, there was no blood or gore since the clone was made of just a drop of blood.

The severely injured clone finished his mission and disappeared from in front of Azul.

'Huh?

'What happened?'

Azul noticed something was wrong.

He opened his blood-red eyes and stared at his hands.

The person who had been in his hands a moment ago had just disappeared.

He quickly looked at the other parts that he removed and saw that they had all disappeared too.

'Where is he?

'Why is he gone?'

A series of questions appeared in Azul's mind.

He even wondered if everything he saw just now to just be an illusion.

At this time, Soul Blaze had come to an end.

If he did not have a second big explosion, he could still last a little longer.novel.xo

Now, Azul's soul power was almost exhausted.

The energy in his body was also rapidly weakening.

David's main form could tell this at a glance.

Time was up for Azul's forbidden technique.

'Here's my chance!'

He swung the Evil-Splitting Sword and the red sword light flashed before reaching Azul.

At the same time, the other two clones appeared in front of David's main form in an instant, blocking and protecting the body in case Azul decided to play another dirty trick.

David was still wary of this guy from a level 9 civilization, even though he was already exhausted.

It would be fine for a clone to die, but David could not let anything happen to his main form.

Azul watched helplessly as the red sword light swung across his body cut him in half.

At this moment, he could no longer feel the pain.

His soul was about to disappear, so how would there still be pain?

Looking at the two masked figures in front of David, Azul recalled what happened just now.

He was stunned.

It turned out that these three masked people were nothing more than three puppets.

No wonder there was no blood.

No wonder they would obey David's every word.

No wonder they would immediately rush to the front of all the conflicts.

No wonder they never said a word the whole time.

No wonder David was always at the back.

The person he worked so hard to kill was just a puppet.

Thinking of this, Azul felt sad.

'David Lidell!'

He deeply remembered the name.

'What a good trick.

'What an amazing trick.'

Since David could control three partial Pre-Deity puppets, it would mean that he was much more powerful than a partial

Pre-Deity.

If his opponent was not a Pre-Deity, they would not be able to defeat David in a one-on-one battle.

Even the best geniuses in Leila would not be David's opponent.

David was a genius among geniuses.

Azul was puzzled.

He still had some energy left, should he send the message back to his family?

'Would it bring catastrophe to the family?

'No.

'Impossible.

'No matter how powerful David is, he's just a partial PreDeity.

'He only has three puppets and I've already destroyed one.

'If they send a Pre-Deity over, we can annihilate Star Kingdom.'

Azul was not ready to die like this while his murderer could run free.

Therefore, in the end, he still used his last ounce of energy to send the message back to his family.
