

His True Colour Chapter 841 - 850

Chapter 841

Seeing Tian Linger walked in towards him, Thomas Tian was still able to judge the situation and hurriedly shouted to George Han: “Master, I am so old, do you still bear to see me being tortured?”

George Han smiled faintly, this old naughty boy was still in his original appearance, the master of the dignified heavenly family, without the majesty of the elders at all. Not to mention the courage of a family leader.

“That’s right, how can you not call someone after seeing the master?” George Han said with a smile.

Tian Honghui on the side couldn’t laugh or cry. Although this kind of scene seemed like a farce, others would mistakenly think that George Han did not respect people, but such treatment was not something ordinary people could enjoy.

Tian Honghui once looked down on George Han, and didn’t even think that George Han could develop much in Basin City. But now, even he is very fortunate to have such a relationship with George Han.

One mentor and apprentice, one sibling. These two relationships can guarantee the Heavenly Family’s current position in Cloud City.

“Master, I heard you went to a far place this time. Why did you come back so soon?” Thomas Tian asked George Han. The external news is that George Han left Basin City, like Thomas Tian. This kind of person didn’t even know that George Han had gone to Tianqi, let alone what kind of place Tianqi was.

“If you haven’t seen it for a while, your mind is getting worse and worse. When I come back, what else can it be except for Amelia.” George Han said.

Thomas Tian nodded again and again, and said, “How is the situation with the teacher?”

Speaking of Amelia Su’s situation, George Han’s expression became more serious unconsciously, because he was still not sure what Amelia Su would become.

He should have been with Amelia Su originally, but he was afraid that his worry would affect the development of the situation, so he simply left the mountainside Villa.

“I believe she will get better.” George Han said.

Seeing the change in George Han’s expression, Tian Linger immediately said: “Grandpa. Your question is really nonsense, of course my sister will get better.”

Knowing that he had made a mistake, Thomas Tian simply changed the subject and asked: “Will you go back this time?”

“Go.” George Han said without thinking: “When Amelia is over, I will leave immediately.”

The second world has now become a major concern for George Han. If this matter is not resolved as soon as possible, the safety of Amelia Su and Han Nian cannot be guaranteed. Therefore, he hopes to go to the second world as soon as possible, even if it is the second world. The unknown gives people a feeling of going deep into hell, and George Han is not in the slightest fear.

When faced with something that cannot be chosen, facing it calmly is the best choice, because hesitation cannot change the result.

“I don’t know if there is a word, I should say it inappropriately.” Thomas Tian said.

“Go ahead, don’t pretend to be.” George Han said.

“I always think of you...” Thomas Tian’s expression slowly became unsmiling, and continued: “You bear a great responsibility. For you, this matter may even involve Amelia and Nian. Your child’s safety.”

George Han’s eyes condensed, this old fox is really smart. Without knowing the Apocalypse at all, there is no basis to figure out this idea. This is definitely not something ordinary people can do.

George Han was very curious about how he guessed it.

“What is your basis?” George Han asked curiously.

Thomas Tian smiled faintly, and said: “Nian’er is still young now, and her growth rate is the same every day. It is when you need your father to be with her, and you would rather give up this company. Isn’t the matter serious enough?”

George Han has multiple emotions, and Thomas Tian knows it well. For three full years in Zuo Su’s family, he endured humiliation and suffered a lot of infamy. What is this for? Isn’t it just for Amelia Su?

This kind of feeling has gone beyond what Thomas Tian can understand. After all, he is the young master of the Han Family. Why should such an identity be humiliated in the Su family?

But now, George Han’s identity is exposed, and he is overwhelming Tianjia. Becoming the first person in Basin City, logically speaking, he should be with Amelia Su and Han Nian at this time, but he still chose to leave. If it wasn’t for the safety of Amelia Su and Han Nian, Thomas Tian couldn’t think of any reason.

“You old fox, really good enough.” George Han sighed, these clues are not even clues at all. But Thomas Tian can still figure out these things, it is really not simple.

Thomas Tian shook his head and said, "It's not that I'm good enough, but I know that you attach great importance to Amelia Su and Han Nian. Maybe you can't even notice it. In the eyes of others, there are only these two people in your world. It is worth your time to leave. There is no other possibility except for them."

"Really?" George Han touched his nose, but he didn't realize this, but he didn't expect Thomas Tian to see it so thoroughly.

In fact, it is not only Thomas who thinks this way, people like Mo Yang will have the same thoughts. In the game, George Han may not be able to really notice how much he values Amelia Su and Han Nian, but others do. Can see clearly.

In his world, there are only these two people. This sentence may be exaggerated, but it definitely makes sense.

"If I say I want to save the world, do you believe it?" George Han smiled.

Thomas Tian frowned, the words "saving the world" were too heavy, but they came out of George Han's mouth. It's not like a joke.

"I believe it." Tian Linger replied without thinking about it. For her, this world is worthy of complete trust. The person who doesn't need the slightest doubt is George Han, so no matter what George Han says, she will believe it.

"Then this matter is very dangerous for you?" Thomas Tian asked.

"Nine deaths for a lifetime." George Han said calmly.

Tian Linger suddenly became nervous, walked to George Han, just grabbed his arm, and asked: "Brother. What are you going to do, how can it be so dangerous! No way."

George Han patted Tian Linger on the shoulder and said: "I'm just kidding, you are too serious, with my current position, can anyone else threaten me?"

Tian Linger's mind was relatively simple, and based on her trust in George Han, she quickly let go, and directly punched George Han, saying: "Brother, don't frighten me again. I'm timid, if I get caught I have a heart attack, and you will never have a sister like me anymore."

Tian Linger took George Han's remarks as a joke, but George Han's sudden change of attitude made Thomas Tian's heart worried, because in his opinion, George Han's words were true, absolutely nothing joke.

Chapter 842

George Han and Thomas Tian played a game of chess, which ended in Thomas Tian's defeat.

After George Han left the Tianjia Villa, Thomas Tian called Tian Honghui to his study.

"Dad, do you have anything to explain?" Tian Honghui asked.

Thomas Tian shook his head and said, "How did you feel about what George Han said before?"

"Didn't he say it all. Just kidding, saving the world is something that superheroes can do in movies. This is real life, not a movie." Tian Honghui said with a smile, watching his attitude. Obviously he did not take this matter seriously.

However, for ordinary people, it is indeed impossible to believe what George Han said, how important is the word to save the world. Who can do this kind of thing? Besides, it is not the outbreak of a world war. How can the world need to be saved?

“You think he is joking, but you think that he is only joking to hide the truth.”
Thomas Tian said solemnly.

Tian Honghui smiled helplessly, George Han said casually, and Thomas Tian went online like this, which is too exaggerated.

Although Tian Honghui knows how much Thomas Tian values George, and he admits that George Han is indeed very good, is it really necessary to get to this level?

“Dad, don’t think too much, don’t hurt your mind because of one of his jokes.”
Tian Honghui persuaded.

Thomas Tian glanced at Tian Honghui, rolled his eyes, and said, “I know you are forced to admit that George Han is excellent. Because the facts are in front of you, you have to believe it, but you have a heart for George Han. There is still a gap, but what do you think will allow George Han to leave Basin City at this time?”

Tian Honghui did not refute. In his heart, he was indeed somewhat dissatisfied with George Han. This dissatisfaction probably originated from jealousy and the last bit of struggle in his heart. After all, he was not optimistic about George Han before. It shows that there is a big problem with his vision.

“Dad, don’t think about it. If something really happens, you will know it sooner or later. It’s no use guessing now.” Tian Honghui said.

Thomas Tian sighed. Human curiosity is very powerful, and even he wants to investigate this matter. It’s a pity that the energy of Heaven is only in Cloud City. It is very difficult for Heaven to investigate things outside of Cloud City.

“If this world is so different, I hope I can see it before I die.” Thomas Tian said.

After George Han left Tianjia, he didn't rush back to the mountainside Villa, but wandered through the streets and alleys of Basin City. He had no special purpose, just to see this familiar city.

Yi Lao has clearly informed the danger of the second world. And George Han himself knew that this was a journey of a lifetime of nine deaths, the reason why he insisted on going. Because of the safety of Amelia Su and Han Nian, he had to go.

George Han's current mood is like saying goodbye to the familiar city of Basin City, in case he has no chance to come back, he can still remember it before dying.

When he came to Moyang's former canteen, George Han lighted a cigarette unconsciously.

I think when I first arrived at Su's house. George Han would look at Amelia Su's back here every day. During this time, there were too many infamy of George Han in Basin City, but George Han felt that his life was very plain and happy. The outside world would not think of him at all. Affected George Han's mood to pick Amelia Su to and from get off work.

After smoking a cigarette, George Han just threw away his cigarette butts. Then I heard a familiar woman's voice: "Throwing cigarette butts everywhere is a fine. It is everyone's responsibility to care for urban hygiene."

George Han watched in astonishment as the woman approached him, then picked up the cigarette butt and threw it back into the nearby trash can.

"What's wrong, didn't you think I would come back?" Qi Yiyun walked up to George Han again and looked directly at George Han's eyes.

"I really didn't expect, when did you come back?" George Han asked in confusion, seeing Qi Yiyun in Basin City, this is something that George Han never expected, and she could appear here, perhaps already following For a while. George Han didn't even notice this. It seems that he was too devoted to remembering the past. If anyone kills him at this time, George Han has no chance to resist.

Qi Yiyun did not speak, but directly plunged into George Han's arms.

"Don't move. Let me lean on it." Qi Yiyun said.

George Han stood in place like a wooden stake, and the two could almost feel each other's heartbeat.

It was so still for five minutes before Qi Yiyun released George Han.

Qi Yiyun, whose eyes were obviously moist, said to George Han: "Actually, I have already returned to Basin City. I wanted to see her, but I didn't know how to face her."

What Qi Yiyun calls her is naturally Amelia Su.

She returned to Basin City, probably because Amelia Su was ill. After all, Nangong Boling mobilized major doctors from all over the world, and Qi Yiyun knew about such a big battle without deliberate investigation.

"Why?" George Han asked knowingly.

"I betrayed our girlfriends, I actually fell in love with her husband, do you think I can face her calmly?" Qi Yiyun bit his lip and said.

With such a straightforward performance, George Han has experienced countless times with Qi Yiyun, and Qi Yiyun never hides his feelings in front of him.

However, every time George Han refused, it was also very happy, and this time was no exception.

“Since you know you were wrong, you still have a chance to look back now.”
George Han said.

Qi Yiyun’s tears burst out instantly, shaking his head like a rattle, and said: “I don’t want to look back, why should I look back, I just like you, I like you out of control, how can you make me look back.”

George Han took a deep breath, then spit it out heavily, and said, “Isn’t it important that your girlfriend’s feelings are not important?”

“Important.” Qi Yiyun said without hesitation. In her heart, liking the girlfriends between George Han and Amelia Su is equally important, but the two relationships cannot coexist. This is what makes her most painful.

This time when she returned to Basin City, Qi Yiyun had been entangled for a long time. She had originally planned to give up returning to the United States, but at this time, she heard that George Han had returned to Basin City, so she did not leave directly.

For Qi Yiyun, which of these two feelings is more important, she has a certainty in her heart, but it is a pity that her choice has not received any feedback from George Han.

“I have told you countless times that it is impossible between me and you.” George Han can’t remember how many times he has said this.

Chapter 843

Such refusal has become accustomed to Qi Yiyun, but this time her reaction was completely different.

Wiping away the tear marks on his cheeks, Qi Yiyun’s expression slowly became firmer, and asked George Han: “What if Amelia agrees?”

George Han was shocked, how could Amelia Su agree to this kind of thing.

Although Amelia Su once joked that he wanted to settle in a polygamous country, in George Han's view, this was Amelia Su's trap. George Han didn't get the set.

How could a woman be willing to share her husband with another woman?

Thinking about changing positions, it is impossible for George Han to share Amelia Su with another man. This is absolutely impossible.

But Qi Yiyun suddenly said this, indicating that she must have some plan.

“What do you want to do?” George Han looked at Qi Yiyun warily, he didn't want Qi Yiyun to mess around.

Qi Yiyun shook his head and said: “Don't be afraid, I just talk about it casually. I didn't want to do anything.”

“Qi Yiyun, I warn you, don't mess around.” George Han said solemnly.

Qi Yiyun felt a pain in her heart. She gave all her feelings to George Han. But George Han didn't feel anything for her. For a woman, this was undoubtedly a blow to the sky.

But Qi Yiyun is a person who will not give up, she will not give up lightly.

“I am satisfied to see you.” After Qi Yiyun finished speaking, he turned and left.

Seeing Qi Yiyun walking away from the back, George Han let out a suffocating breath.

For this woman, he sometimes feels soft. After all, it is very difficult for a woman to do this for him.

Thinking that George Han was in danger of life and death in the United States, Qi Yiyun did not hesitate to stand beside him, completely ignoring the serious consequences that might be brought to the Qi family.

It's a pity that George Han really couldn't bear this love, he wouldn't do anything to sorry Amelia Su.

“Sorry, if there is reincarnation, I will use my next life to make up for you.” George Han said lightly.

After being disturbed by Qi Yiyun, George Han was not in the mood to continue shopping. How could he get a mountainside Villa after a taxi.

After getting on the bus, George Han reported his destination. The uncle driver was stunned.

What is going on in the Villa area of Yundingshan? All the people in Basin City know that those big families are now unable to return home, and this young man actually took a taxi to the Villa area.

Is it possible that he is a foreigner and doesn't even know the situation in the Yundingshan Villa area?

Out of kindness, the driver's uncle reminded George Han: “Young man, what are you doing in the Yundingshan Villa area? You may not know the situation there yet.”

“Uncle, I'm going home.” George Han said with a smile.

“Your home is in the Villa area. Didn’t your family tell you that you can’t go back recently?” the driver uncle asked puzzled.

“Uncle, I live in the mountainside Villa, so feel free to send me there.” George Han said.

Mountainside Villa!

Even the three-year-old kid in Basin City knew whose home it was.

The uncle driver suddenly became nervous.

Although he had never seen a big person like George Han, he knew that George Han was very young and should be about the same age as the passenger in front of him.

If he lives in a mountainside Villa, wouldn’t he be the deity of George Han?

The driver’s uncle was so dry that he even forgot how to put in gear, shaking his hands. At a loss.

Seeing this situation, George Han smiled helplessly. Obviously, the driver had already guessed his identity, but his performance was too exaggerated. He wasn’t a scourge. Is he so scary?

“Uncle, it’s almost time to leave, I have something urgent to go back.” George Han said.

“Oh, okay, okay, let’s go, let’s go.” The driver stammered.

On the way back to the Villa area of Yunding Mountain, the uncle driver kept quietly looking at George Han with his rearview mirror. This is the most powerful figure in Basin City. He can take a look at him, but there will be no such opportunity in the future.

at last. When I arrived at the gate of the Yundingshan Villa area and saw the blocked gate, the driver finally knew what was going on here, although he had heard about it a long time ago. But it was still not shocking to see it in person.

After all, all the wealthy families live in the Yundingshan Villa District, even the former Heavenly Family would not dare to stop those people from letting them go home.

“How much is it?” George Han asked.

“No, no, it’s my honor to be able to carry you.” The uncle driver said quickly.

George Han is not a lack of money, and the driver makes a living on this, he certainly won’t sit in vain. However, George Han, who took out his pants, suddenly discovered that he didn’t carry any money at all, which made him a little embarrassed.

“Uncle, do you have any children in your family?” George Han asked.

“I have an unsatisfactory son. This year is almost 20.” The driver uncle didn’t understand why George Han asked, but since he asked, he must answer honestly in front of such a big man. There is no need to hide it.

“It just happened to be out of society. In this case, if you ask him to report on Weak Water Real Estate tomorrow, it is said that George Han arranged it. I believe he can get a good job in Weak Water Real Estate.” George Han said. He opened the door and got out of the car.

The uncle driver was stunned for a long time, his expression of astonishment delayed.

Weak Water Real Estate, this is George Han's company, and Basin City's most powerful company right now. Countless people want to sharpen their heads and enter this company to work but they have no choice. Now his son has got this kind of heaven. Great opportunity.

After the driver came back to his senses, he hurriedly got out of the car. Although George Han had already entered the Villa area and walked far, he was excited. Still knelt on the ground.

"Thank you, President Han, thank you, President Han, I will definitely let my son do things for you."

"Three thousand, what's going on. Then why did the driver kneel down?" Mo Yang, who was traveling with George Han, asked puzzledly when he saw this situation.

"I forgot to bring the money. He happened to have a son. I asked his son to report to Weak Water Real Estate tomorrow. You help me remind Tang Long." George Han said.

Mo Yang laughed. No wonder the driver was so excited that he was appointed by George Han himself, which showed that his son had already skyrocketed in Basin City. If he has some ability, it will not be difficult to become a celebrity in Cloud City in the future.

"This is destiny. Some people can only live their lives hard, and some people are lucky and can carry big people, and their destiny changes instantly." Mo Yang smiled.

"Mo Yang, are you teasing me, have you itchy recently?" George Han said coldly.

Mo Yang jumped three meters away, looking at George Han with a vigilant expression, and said, “George, I’m just kidding, just kidding, don’t take it seriously.”

Chapter 844

Back in the Villa, everyone was there, and the expression on his face was extremely nervous.

Before George Han left, he explained that no one could disturb Amelia Su, which caused them to feel extremely nervous. In addition, there was no movement in the room, and they were even more worried.

Wilson Su stood up first, walked to George Han and asked: “George, how is Amelia’s situation. Can you go in and have a look?”

“Dad, don’t worry, I promise you that there will be nothing wrong.” George Han said.

Even if George Han said that, Wilson Su still couldn’t rest assured, because Amelia Su was his only daughter. It was Wilson Su’s biggest concern left in his life, and he didn’t want Amelia Su to have any accidents.

Of course, Wilson Su also understands how much George Han attaches importance to Amelia Su, so since George Han has said so, he can only wait quietly without asking more questions.

“Why don’t you go in and take a look?” Mary said to George Han tentatively. Although she is the mother of George Han, she did not dare to order George Han to do things easily, because Mary knew she didn’t. This qualification.

“Wait again.” George Han said. As for what to wait, he himself didn’t know. Perhaps it was the fear in his heart that made George Han not dare to face Amelia Su’s situation easily.

When night fell and the sky was full of stars, He Ting had already cooked a table full of dishes, but when everyone gathered at the table, no one had the appetite to lift the tableware.

He Ting wanted to persuade them to eat, but even she herself had no appetite. Although she and Amelia Su did not have any blood relationship, in He Ting’s heart, Amelia Su’s status was no different from that of her daughter.

He Ting now regards the Mountainside Villa as her home. Everyone in the Mountainside Villa is her closest person. He Ting will suffer in her heart if something happens to anyone.

“Brother George, let’s eat first.” Jiang Yingying said to George Han.

“You eat quickly, I’m not hungry yet.” George Han said.

No one still picked up the bowls and chopsticks, everyone’s thoughts were entangled in Amelia Su’s room.

Another period of silence passed, and it was ten o’clock in the evening without knowing it.

He Ting coaxed Han Nian to sleep, and the little girl was not noisy and very well-behaved, as if she felt the atmosphere at home.

Until eleven o’clock. George Han stood up suddenly and walked towards the room.

He was afraid to face it, but he knew it. There is no choice but to face it, and there is no point in delaying like this.

Pushing open the door gently, the room with no lights on, but there was a soft white glow, which shocked George Han's heart.

This white light is emitted from Amelia Su's body. When George Han walked to the bed, he found that Amelia Su, who was sleeping, was no longer full of gray hair. And the old face was restored as before, which made George Han both happy and worried.

The happy thing is that Amelia Su has finally returned to normal, but the worry is whether the condensable beads left by Fuyao will have other side effects on Amelia Su.

Squatting by the bed, George Han didn't dare to easily alarm Amelia Su. Just look at her quietly.

Amelia Su is not the most beautiful, compared to Qi Yiyun's peerless beauty, but in George Han's heart. Her position is irreplaceable.

At this time, Amelia Su suddenly opened her eyes, the white light flashed in her eyes, and then the white light on her body quickly faded.

"What's the matter?" Amelia Su didn't understand what happened, and asked George Han with a puzzled expression on her face.

"With such a beautiful wife, I must have done a lot of good things in my last life." George Han said with a smile.

Amelia Su was overjoyed for a moment, and then her face turned gloomy again. She may have been able to get such an evaluation before, but now she is no longer qualified.

"I'm so old, I miss the word 'beautiful'." Amelia Su said.

George Han stretched out his hand and touched Amelia Su's face. Smiling and said: "Your skin is almost catching up with Nian'er, it's so tender."

Amelia Su was stunned. Only then did he touch his face, and his eyes became horrified.

"I, am I all right?" Amelia Su asked incredulously.

"Look at the hair." George Han said.

Amelia Su sat up. Lifting the hair in front of him, I realized that my gray hair had returned to the previous bright black.

George Han let out a long sigh. Although it is not known whether Ningzhu will bring side effects to Amelia Su, at least for now, the effect is very good, and Amelia Su's aging has at least returned to normal.

"Mirror, mirror." Amelia Su asked excitedly.

"It has been smashed by you." George Han said helplessly.

Amelia Su hurriedly ran out of the room, ignoring the disbelieving look of others. Ran directly to the bathroom in the living room.

When she saw her appearance in the mirror, Amelia Su reached out her hand in disbelief and stroked her cheek.

All right!

It turned out to be really good.

Stumped the aging of famous doctors all over the world. It was restored within a day.

This is something Amelia Su could not imagine.

When George Han fed Ningzhu before, Amelia Su was just trying to give it a try. She had never expected it to be effective.

but now. The facts told her that all of this was to be believed, and George Han had never let her down.

After being shocked, everyone in the living room became excited.

“Okay, welcome the summer.”

“Unexpectedly, she would be better in one day.”

“The quack doctors still boast that they are world-famous doctors, there are no three thousand powerful.”

Not long after, Amelia Su, who had accepted the reality, walked out of the bathroom, her cheeks were red, obviously pinched herself, probably to test if she had dreams.

When Amelia Su saw George Han, she threw herself directly into George Han’s arms.

“Husband, I’m fine, thank you.” Amelia Su said excitedly.

George Han smiled and said to Mo Yang on the side: “Help me book the best hotel. I won’t stay at home tonight, lest there be too much movement.”

Everyone was stunned by George Han's words. No one thought that George Han would express his meaning so straightforwardly.

Mo Yang smirked and said, "Okay, I will prepare now."

When Amelia Su understood what George Han meant, she flushed with shame, and pinched George Han's waist.

Although George Han suffered terribly, the smile on his face remained undiminished. He whispered in Amelia Su's ear: "Wife, this is a good opportunity for Wen Chun, do you want to reject me?"

Amelia Su lowered her head and was born as a husband and wife. This kind of thing was natural. How could she reject George Han, but she still couldn't accept it when she mentioned it in front of so many people.

Chapter 845

The others looked at George Han with a smile and without a word. Amelia Su was well, and their hanging heart was relieved. As for what the couple will do next, it is not something they can manage.

"I have to go to bed. I'm getting older and can't stay up late." Han Tianyang was the first to return to the room.

Yan Jun also said: "Get a break earlier, and I will go to bed too."

Immediately after Mary, Wilson Su. And He Ting, Jiang Yingying, mother and daughter, both went back to the room.

Amelia Su and George Han were left in the living room.

Without outsiders, Amelia Su's shy mood was gradually suppressed.

“Are we really going to the hotel?” Amelia Su asked George Han with her head down.

“Of course, there are many people in the family and it is not convenient.” George Han smiled.

Amelia Su did not agree, but did not refuse either. Obviously he intends to follow George Han’s arrangement.

The two left the Yundingshan Villa area overnight, and Moyang’s work efficiency was also very high. In less than half an hour, the best hotel in Basin City was emptied.

After Nangong Boring received the news, he couldn’t calm down for a long time. He had communicated with the famous doctors in private. He was almost helpless about Amelia Su’s condition. After George Han came back, Amelia Su was well, which shows that George Han probably brought back some kind of magical medicine from Tianqi.

Nangong Boring has always wanted to go to Tianqi, but the reason has never been told to George Han. It was because he couldn’t be sure that what he was thinking in his heart was true before.

Nangong Boring, who has huge rights, has the heart of Qin Shihuang. The reason why he squeezed his head and wanted to go to Tianqi for so many years is because he knows some secrets of Tianqi, and even thought about this mysterious place. There are some secret recipes for longevity, he fears death, so he is willing to devote all he can to find this possibility.

Amelia Su’s condition improved, so Nangong Boring saw this hope.

Nangong Boring, who had been unable to sleep for a long time, began to plan his chance to go to Apocalypse. Of course, he knew very well that the current George Han was not threatened, and he could not use secular power to intimidate George Han. Otherwise, it will cause unexpected and serious consequences.

And George Han had promised him before, as long as George Han was qualified, he would take him to Apocalypse. Now Nangong Boring only needs to find a way to bring up this topic.

The next day, Amelia Su's good news spread throughout Basin City. After all, she had already appeared outside the Yundingshan Villa area, and all kinds of rumors would naturally not be broken.

When the group of doctors received the news, they immediately gathered at the gate of the Yundingshan Villa area. They didn't just want to prove this matter. I want to know how Amelia Su got better.

For a time, the sights of the famous doctors were all focused on George Han. They even treated George Han as a genius doctor.

Early in the morning, Mo Yang called George Han.

George Han and his wife hugged each other, enjoying a quiet time, when they were suddenly interrupted by the phone. It is conceivable how bad George Han's mood is.

“Mo Yang, are you so uninterested now. Call me now?” George Han said coldly.

Mo Yang naturally knew that it was not the time, but he had to inform George Han to avoid George Han going back to the mountainside Villa unprepared.

“Three thousand. Those famous doctors are now blocked at the entrance of the Villa area. When you go back, be careful not to be discovered by these people.” Mo Yang said.

George Han frowned and asked puzzledly: “What are they doing?”

“The good news of Amelia has spread all over Basin City. Those guys now treat you as a genius doctor, probably want to ask you how to cure Amelia.” Mo Yang explained.

George Han couldn't help laughing.

Genius doctor?

He is a shit doctor. If it wasn't for the Ningzhu left by Fuyao to cure Amelia Su, he would have nothing to do.

“Let Nangong Boring come forward and drive these guys away. I don't want to deal with them.” George Han said.

“Okay, I will inform Nangong Boling.”

After hanging up the phone, Amelia Su lay on George Han's arm and said, “Now you are a genius doctor, and you are getting better and better.”

“Wife, I'm not very good when you tease me, I am energetic now, but it's not easy to mess with.” George Han said with a threatening expression.

Amelia Su's expression changed, and she quickly said: “I was wrong, will you let me go?”

“By the way, do you feel uncomfortable, or feel strange?” George Han knew that Amelia Su had been tortured long enough, so naturally he wouldn't be able to make an inch. What he cares more about now is whether Amelia Su will have side effects from that condensed pearl.

“No, what’s the matter? Does the magic drug have any side effects?” Amelia Su asked.

“I’m just asking casually, since it’s a miraculous medicine. How can there be side effects?” George Han pretended to be indifferent. Although there is no special situation for the time being, George Han believes it. In the future, Amelia Su will definitely have some changes because of Ningzhu, after all, Ningzhu has survived.

His skull had an impact on Jiang Yingying. How could Ningzhu just cure Amelia Su?

“When are you leaving?” Amelia Su asked suddenly. Although she was unwilling to face this matter, she knew very well in her heart that George Han came back this time because she was ill, not because she would stay here forever.

“Only these two days. But don’t worry, I will be back right away after I finish everything,” George Han said.

Parting is for Amelia Su. It was already a common occurrence. Since George Han’s identity was exposed, he didn’t have much time in Basin City. And Amelia Su also understood the things that George Han had to do. After all, people couldn’t help themselves in the arena and it was impossible for everything to be satisfactory.

“Nian’er and I will be waiting for you, so you must take care of yourself.” Amelia Su said.

Entrance of Yundingshan Villa District.

When Nangong Boring appeared, he unceremoniously told all the doctors to get out.

But none of these world-famous doctors planned to leave. For them, Amelia Su's condition can be relieved. This is a medical miracle. They all want to know how George Han did it.

“Patriarch Nangong, let us see the genius doctor. We promise that after meeting him, we will leave Basin City as soon as possible.”

“This is a medical miracle. If he is willing to share his treatment plan, it will benefit many people.”

“This will be the biggest breakthrough in medical history. Let us wait.”

Nangong Boring looked at the group of people in disdain. The treatment plan they wanted was just for their own benefit, and it was nothing but shit to benefit many people.

“I will give you ten minutes. If anyone stays here, his family will be a dead end.” Nangong Boring said strongly.

Chapter 846

The doctors knew what Nangong Boring did. After all, they were able to come to Basin City because they were coerced by Nangong Boring, so they knew that if Nangong Boring could say this, they would definitely be able to do it.

This threat and intimidation directly dispelled many people's thoughts of staying, and many people began to leave one after another. But there are a few in the end, for the sake of profit, it seems that even the lives of their family members are ignored.

“Since you have to die, you can't blame me.” Looking at the remaining people, Nangong Boring took out his phone with a cold face.

Several people hurriedly walked to Nangong Boring.

“Mr. Nangong, we want to see the style of a magical doctor. I hope you can give me a chance.”

“Yes, we just want to see this genius doctor, there is no other meaning.”

“Mr. Nangong, this is very likely a genius in the medical field. We would like to exchange a few words with him.”

A genius in the medical world?

Nangong Boring smiled faintly. George Han is not in the medical world, but his abilities are superior to those in the medical world. Apocalypse is the supreme martial arts hall and hides the greatest secret in the world. In Boring’s view, George Han is likely to become the master of the four sects.

Such an identity that can only be looked up. How can these ordinary people say that they are qualified to meet?

“You haven’t known me for a long time and don’t know my methods, but you will see it soon. If you violate my words, you will only end up with death.” Nangong Boring said coldly.

The few people looked at each other, Nangong Boring’s attitude was tougher than they thought, and he didn’t even give a chance to meet.

No one would antagonize his own life, so the few people who remained in the end, after a moment of hesitation, also planned to leave.

“Mr. Nangong, in that case, I will leave. I hope I can still play for Mr. Nangong in the future.”

“Mr. Nangong, I’m leaving too.”

“I will go too.”

A few people slid away at their feet.

Nangong Boring sneered, and then dialed Mo Yang’s number to tell him that the Villa area had been handled.

At this time, George Han and Amelia Su had just woke up. After washing, Amelia Su still looked reluctant. After all, she and George Han had not been together for a long time like this, and George Han was about to leave the cloud again. city. I don’t know when I will meet again, Amelia Su’s inner reluctance cannot be expressed in words.

“If you have any requirements. I can satisfy you if you ask them now.” George Han said. He knew that he was sorry for Amelia Su, so he could only choose to make up for it at the right opportunity. This time, it doesn’t matter if he comes back one more day. So accompanying Amelia Su is not a problem.

Amelia Su thought for a while and said: “Come with me to go shopping, I haven’t bought clothes for a long time.”

“Okay. No problem.” George Han answered.

After leaving the hotel, the two went straight to the most famous commercial street in Cloud City. Although Cloud City is a small city, all kinds of famous brands are readily available. This is also where the young people of Cloud City gather, even if it is not a holiday. The popularity here is also very high.

Walking into a brand-name store, Amelia Su was addicted to the process of fitting in an instant. She is a woman after all. It is a woman’s nature to love shopping.

George Han accompanied him all the time, answering Amelia Su's same questions tirelessly.

"Does it look good?"

"good looking."

Amelia Su was full of enthusiasm, and George Han was always happy. In less than a while, Amelia Su had tried no less than ten clothes, and even the salesperson on the side felt a little impatient, but George Han still kept a faint smile on his face. .

This kind of carefree time is very precious to George Han, and he doesn't know if he will have the opportunity to enjoy such time in the future, so George Han cherishes it very much.

One shop consumed nearly two hours. After Amelia Su changed her clothes, she took George Han's hand and asked, "Are you tired?"

"Of course I'm not tired, go shopping with my wife. Just right, how can I be tired?" George Han smiled.

"Then we continue to the next store?" Amelia Su asked tentatively.

George Han nodded and walked towards the cash register.

"Pack up all the clothes I tried just now. Please send me to Yundingshan Villa Area, Mountainside Villa." George Han said to the cashier.

A bunch of salesmen thought that Amelia Su was here to try it out, and they were already impatient. After hearing George Han's words, everyone was stunned.

Amelia Su tried dozens of sets of clothes in the past two hours. I have to buy all of them!

And the delivery address makes the cashier feel incredible.

Almost no one in the entire Basin City knows who lives in the mountainside Villa in Yundingshan Villa District. If he reports this address, George Han is equivalent to revealing his identity.

“Please... please say the delivery address again.” The cashier stammered to George Han, afraid that he had misheard the address.

“Yundingshan Villa area. Mountainside Villa.” George Han said again with a smile.

The cashier took a deep breath to make sure that he heard it right.

Next, swipe the card to sign, after seeing the three words George Han. The cashier only confirmed the identity of George Han.

The first person in Basin City, George Han, actually accompanied his wife to go shopping for clothes, a big man like him. How can you not let other women be envious if you love your wife so much?

As soon as George Han and Amelia Su walked out of the store, the salesmen gathered together.

“I didn’t expect George Han to be so handsome, but I really envy Amelia Su.”

“Amelia Su is the number one beauty in Basin City. Of course George Han is not bad, but it is enviable and true. Just how many years of work we have to buy for this pile of clothes.”

“Sure enough, she is the most enviable woman in Basin City, if only I had a husband like George Han.”

“Stop daydreaming, quickly tidy up the clothes, and I will send it to the mountainside Villa later.” The sales manager said to several employees.

The same situation happened several times in the following. Every time Amelia Su enters a store, as long as it is the clothes she tried on her upper body, George Han will buy it without hesitation. He is not enjoying the pleasure of shopping, but being able to see Amelia Su’s satisfied expression is what he wants.

The day passed quickly.

In the evening, George Han set down the crystal restaurant on the top floor of the Mingzhu Building. This is the place where he made a sensation in Cloud City for the first time. Even so far, many people in Basin City remember that the roses in the Crystal Restaurant were falling that day. This is also worthwhile. A day that people envy.

“Do you remember our wedding anniversary?” When she came to the Crystal Restaurant, Amelia Su asked George Han with a happy face.

Chapter 847

The bits and pieces of being with Amelia Su are all worth remembering to George Han. How could he forget such an important thing?

“Of course, you are crying like a tabby cat.” George Han said.

Amelia Su pouted her mouth and said with a dissatisfaction: “It’s not all to blame you, the surprise almost turned into a fright.”

George Han smiled.

At this time, the manager greeted him.

The last time he faced George Han, he was still a useless person among Basin City's population, but this time, George Han was already the first person in Basin City.

“Mr. Han. The position is ready for you, please follow me.” The manager bent over and said.

The location next to the window has the best view and the night view of Basin City. This is the best viewing platform, and you can almost see the whole view of Basin City.

Generally speaking, the person who wants to reserve this position must be a big figure in the cloud city to be eligible. For example, today, this location was reserved by someone, and it is not a small person in Basin City. However, after George Han called and informed the Crystal Restaurant, they immediately cancelled all the positioning and made room for George Han and Amelia Su. Up space.

Originally, the man was very angry about this matter, and even planned to talk to the boss about it. However, as soon as he heard that the person who was positioning was George Han, the man instantly froze and didn't even dare to let go. George Han's influence in Basin City.

No matter how big it is, as long as he hears the three words George Han, he must be a cat that has become sick.

“Mr. Han, this is the menu.” The manager personally greeted the two and took out the menu.

George Han pushed the menu to Amelia Su and said to the manager: “Don't you know the reason why a wife is a big deal? How can you leave it to me?”

The manager was ashamed, and then he quickly apologized.

Amelia Su was happy, and said to the manager again and again: “Don’t pay attention to him, he is a fool.”

When the manager heard this, cold sweat broke out on his forehead, and Amelia Su dared to say such words, but he didn’t dare to talk casually.

Said George Han was a fool, unless he didn’t want to hang out in Basin City.

“Wife, there are outsiders here, so you have to show me some face.” George Han said with a smile.

Amelia Su suddenly asked the manager: “Do you say I want to give him face?”

The manager was so aggrieved that he almost cried. The gods of the two husbands and wives were fighting, and he was qualified to participate. If he said something wrong, he would be dead.

“Miss Su, you’d better order. I’ll go to the side and wait. You can call me anytime.” After saying this, the manager ran away quickly.

Amelia Su covered her mouth and smiled, and said to George Han: “Look at you, it’s you, scared the manager to speak.”

“This can also help me, you are too much, be careful I can’t spare you tonight.” George Han threatened.

Amelia Su spit out her tongue and said, “I won’t go to the hotel tonight. I’m going home. I miss my daughter. You have to be honest tonight. Coax my daughter to sleep.”

George Han nodded. He will return to Tianqi tomorrow. He doesn’t know when he will see Han Nian again. He also hopes to spend some time on Han Nian.

I ordered the dishes. The two couples started to sprinkle dog food, you feed me a bite, I feed you a bite, the envy of the waiters make their eyes red.

“I don’t know who said that Amelia Su was cheating some time ago. Look at the feelings of others, can it look like cheating?”

“This is malicious rumors, don’t say such things anymore, if he hears it, we will be over.”

“The appearance of a talented woman is really enviable.”

Mountainside Villa.

When He Ting and Jiang Yingying were washing the dishes in the kitchen, He Ting asked Jiang Yingying: “I’m back this time, do I have to leave?”

“I will leave soon.” Jiang Yingying said. She knew what George Han wanted to do, so she knew very well that George Han would not be delayed too long in Basin City.

He Ting sighed, looked at Jiang Yingying reluctantly and said: “Although I can’t bear to leave you, but you can go and take care of 3000, I can rest assured, remember, don’t let him do it, he has Wife and daughter. Before doing anything, the first thing to consider is your own safety.”

Jiang Yingying smiled bitterly in her heart. George Han was about to go to the second world. The danger this incident brought was immeasurable.

of course. This is not what George Han can do, Jiang Yingying knows very well why he did it.

“Mom, don’t worry, I will remind him, but your concern for him seems to have overshadowed me, are you not afraid that I will be jealous?” Jiang Yingying said with a deliberately unhappy expression.

“His kindness to our family cannot be repaid in this life. It is only natural for me to care more about him. Without him, the two of us might still be sleeping on the street.” He Ting is a grateful person. She would chant sutras sooner or later. Recite the Buddha and pray for God to bless the Han family. This is something she can do within her ability.

“Yeah, if it wasn’t for Brother George, we still don’t know where it is.” Jiang Yingying said.

“Yingying.” He Ting suddenly turned around. Looking at Jiang Yingying solemnly.

Jiang Yingying knew that He Ting had suddenly become serious, and she must have explained something important to herself, listening quietly.

“If Three Thousand is in danger, are you willing to stand in front of him?” He Ting asked.

Jiang Yingying nodded without hesitation. Said: “Mom, I won’t be afraid.”

He Tingon timed with tears in his eyes and said, “I know this is unfair to you, but you have to be a good man. We have no other way of repaying. If there is a day, I hope you will die and you will also ensure his safety. .”

Jiang Yingying walked to He Ting. He wiped away the tears from He Ting’s cheeks and said, “Mom, don’t worry, if there is such a day, I will do what you say.”

“I hope in the next life, I can make up for the debt I owe you in this life.” He Ting’s tears are falling more and more. After all, this is her daughter, how could she not feel sorry for Jiang Yingying.

But she didn't even want George Han to be in danger. The kindness is as heavy as a mountain, and since I can't pay it back, I can only repay it in this way.

“Mom, you don't owe me anything. In the next life, I will be your daughter and I will be filial to you.”

The mother and daughter hugged each other and wept bitterly. But the tears kept falling.

Mary at the kitchen door rubbed the corner of her eyes. She was originally washing the baby bottle for Han Nian, but she was very moved when she heard these words.

This kind of sentiment was something Mary had never felt in the Han Family Courtyard. The ordinary mother and daughter actually regarded kindness as so important. Compared to the Hillwood City Shopping Mall, which only has benefits, this It is the real warmth.

Chapter 848

It was nearly nine o'clock when George Han and Amelia Su returned to the mountainside Villa, and Han Nian was still in the stage of eating and sleeping. For most of the day, he was in the stage of sleeping.

George Han and his wife hugged Han Nian back to their room, watching the little girl fall asleep, both of them had an infatuated smile on their faces.

A family of three, staying together in such silence, seems to be the happiest thing in the world.

George Han held Han Nian all night and was reluctant to let go, but he was still full of energy the next day, who stayed up all night.

Early in the morning, George Han was called to the backyard by Han Tianyang, and Amelia Su's current condition had recovered. The situation in Basin City had come to an end, so Han Tianyang wanted to ask when George Han would leave.

"Today." Faced with Han Tianyang's question, George Han quickly gave the answer. In fact, he didn't want to leave so soon, but Yi Lao said that the Second World has become more and more volatile and time waits for no one. George Han did not dare to delay any longer.

"So anxious?" Han Tianyang asked with a frown.

"There are still things that I need to deal with. It is urgent." George Han said.

"Dangerous?" Han Tianyang asked.

"Yep."

"Life endangered?"

"Yep."

Han Tianyang sighed. He didn't persuade George Han because he understood George Han's character. If it was something decided early in the morning, George Han would not make any changes.

"Be careful, no matter what danger you encounter, you must remember that there are Amelia Su and Han Nian waiting for you in Basin City." Han Tianyang said.

"Grandpa, I will come back alive." George Han said firmly.

Han Tianyang patted George Han on the shoulder and said, "Grandpa believes in you, we are all waiting for you in Basin City."

After George Han and Amelia Su bid farewell, they didn't stay for too long. Originally, he planned to let Jiang Yingying stay, but Jiang Yingying insisted on going with him. There was no room for discussion. Helpless George Han. So she could only bring Jiang Yingying again.

Apocalypse.

Four fields.

Yi Lao was uneasy during this period of time, his plan was broken by George Han, and George Han had to go to the second world by himself, which made him unable to settle down even more, although he knew that George Han went to the second world. A good choice, but in the eyes of Yi Lao, George Han has shown such a strong strength at such a young age. His upper limit is definitely not only that. If he can be given a few more years, he will definitely become stronger. , In the future is likely to become the pillar of the entire apocalypse.

Once George Han went to the second world, Tianqi would have a high probability of losing this talent. This was something that Yi Lao didn't want to see.

“Yilao, in my opinion, according to George Han's character, you can't change his decision anyway. Why worry?” the assistant said to Yi Lao. Although he and George Han have been in contact for a short time, George Han's strength in some aspects is beyond doubt. Since George Han has decided to go to the second world, it is useless for Yi Lao to struggle with this matter.

“Yes, but how can I not worry about it?” Yi Lao said with a sigh. The reason is the same as the assistant said. He himself understands it, but understanding does not mean it is acceptable.

“In fact, I really admire George Han. The younger generation of Apocalypse now dare not even go to the Demon King's Cave, but he dared to go to the Second World. This courage, even I don't have.” The assistant sighed.

“Courage is not invincible, courage alone is useless.” Yi Lao said.

The assistant smiled faintly and said: “Yi Lao. You are not right. George Han is not only courageous. Does anyone dare to question his strength? In less than a month, he completed his promotion. , To become a strong person at the Tianzi level, no one before, no one afterwards. Can you guarantee that there is a second person to achieve such an achievement?”

This left Yi Lao speechless. The miracle that George Han has created is indeed incomparable to anyone. If you want to replicate the glory of George Han, I am afraid no one can do it.

But it is precisely because of his excellence. Yi Lao didn't want him to die in the Second World.

“You said, how did he escape the attack of the monsters in the Demon King's Cave, is it really as simple as he said?” Yi Lao asked. He had thought deeply about this matter many times. After all, George Han said it. Too perfunctory and full of loopholes, people have to wonder what happened in the Demon King's Cave.

“He doesn't want to say. Just let him go. It's not necessary to go deep into this matter.” The assistant said. It is inevitable for George Han to conceal something, but since he wants to conceal it. From the assistant's point of view, there is no need to get to the bottom.

“When did you become his person, how do you speak for him everywhere?” Yi Lao glared at his assistant and said.

The assistant smiled and said: “Yi Lao, he is so powerful, of course I have to speak for him. Shouldn't a young man like him be given special treatment? Look at He Qingfeng. The door is facing each other, now dare to say George Han half a sentence, don't you?”

Elder Yi laughed. Since George Han came out of the Demon King's Cave, the people in the entire Three Halls have become much more honest, and they dare not make trouble with the Four Doors inexplicably. He Qingfeng, the lord of the Three Halls, has done so several times. To praise George Han, this was impossible in the past.

“This is true. George Han made the entire Apocalypse a lot of harmony.” Yi Lao said.

“It's just that Lintong has been hit now, and I don't know when he will be able to cheer up.” The assistant sighed. The former Lintong was hailed as the proud son of heaven. Mingguan Tianqi, but now, everyone talks about George Han, almost forgetting Lintong. This is a very serious blow to Lintong, and it is very likely that he will be devastated by it.

“He has been poisoned by the four words of the proud of heaven for many years, and it is time for him to recognize reality. For him. It is not a bad thing. Only by recognizing reality can he make a breakthrough, and he does not need us now. Concern, in my opinion, he will soon be involved in He Qingfeng's door.” Yi Lao said.

The assistant smiled. He used to be very angry at Lintong's behavior. After all, Lintong's growth is closely related to Simen. His betrayal was as shameful to Shimon, but now, the assistant would not think so, and there was no wave in his heart. Because George Han's appearance has completely replaced Lintong, he wants to stay in Simen or join Sandian. None of it matters.

“Yes, where he is, it doesn't matter anymore. The entire Apocalypse is now focusing on George Han. Who cares about where he is going.”

Chapter 849

Two days later.

George Han returned to Tianqi, and the first time he returned, he dropped a blockbuster on Tianqi.

He wants to enter the Demon King's Cave again.

As soon as this news came out, the whole apocalypse was blown up like a bolt from the blue.

Especially those strong people at the Tianzi level, they know how dangerous the Demon King's Cave is, and it is pure luck to be able to come out alive, but George Han wants to go again. In their opinion, this is a very irrational behavior. They even couldn't figure out why George Han did this.

Even Yi Lao, faced with George Han's death-dealing behavior, refused.

"No, you should be very aware of how dangerous the Devil's Cave is now. You are lucky enough to escape once. Do you really think you can be so lucky every time?" Old Yi Yi said to George Han angrily. He felt that George Han was so swollen that he would go to the Demon King's Cave to find his death a second time!

"Yilao, don't get too excited. Since I am going, I am sure to come out alive." George Han said to Yi Lao with a pleasant expression.

The Devil's Cave is indeed very dangerous to others. It is a place of life and death, but for George Han, it is almost 100% safe with the protection of the red-eyed jade python, and he has a purpose this time.

Why didn't the red-eyed jade python hurt him? George Han didn't know, but if he could bring this guy in the second world. It will be able to guarantee the safety of George Han more.

Moreover, the red fruit in the Demon King's Cave was also one of the reasons why George Han entered. This thing can improve his own abilities and is likely to come in handy at critical times.

“Shit, you can grasp those strange beasts, George Han, are you crazy?” Yi Lao walked in front of George Han, his expression almost distorted.

George Han shrugged helplessly.

At this time, He Qingfeng ran to the Four Gate Hall.

When seeing George Han, He Qingfeng walked to George Han for the first time.

“Are you crazy, you still want to go to the Devil's Cave, really think that it is a place for fun?” He Qingfeng asked George Han.

“Hallmaster He. This is a matter of the four gates, has nothing to do with your three palaces?” George Han said.

He Qingfeng looked at Yi Lao with angrily eyes, and said, “This is your person, don't you care about it? He is going to die.”

Before Yi Lao spoke, George Han said firmly: “This time, I have to go, no one can stop me, you can try.”

“Boy. Your tone is so big now, dare to provoke us?” He Qingfeng said coldly.

When George Han walked outside the hall, He Qingfeng stood in front of him directly.

George Han threw a punch without hesitation.

He Qingfeng smiled lightly. Said: “Boy, although you are now a strong at the Heavenly Word level, don’t be too swollen. I am the lord of the Three Halls, and my strength is above the top ten masters, so you dare to attack me?”

He Qingfeng’s voice just fell. George Han’s fist is even stronger.

He Qingfeng calmly raised his right hand, preparing to force George Han back.

But when the two fists collided, He Qingfeng retreated three steps. But George Han stood still as a mountain!

The whole hall was silent for an instant, and the needle drop could be heard.

Yi Lao and his assistant stared at the scene in disbelief.

He Qingfeng’s chin almost fell to the ground.

George Han’s punch was able to force him back!

And the reaction force caused his right hand to tremble.

This made He Qingfeng’s heart beyond horror.

Although he didn’t use his full strength, in his opinion, interrupting George Han’s attack should be easy.

But the fact is that he was forced back by George Han!

“I said. You can’t stop me.” George Han said calmly.

When the voice fell, George Han had already walked out of the hall.

Looking at George Han's back, Yi Lao's breathing suddenly became hurried.

In his opinion. George Han's strength has indeed become much stronger, but he didn't expect that George Han could actually force He Qingfeng back with one punch.

Tianqi has four levels of Heaven, Earth, Xuanhuang, and the strength of the top ten masters is above the Tianzi level, and the strength of him and He Qingfeng is even above the top ten masters.

The blow of George Han just now was enough to prove that his current strength was at least among the top ten masters, which made Yi Lao unable to imagine.

After all, he came to Apocalypse in less than a month!

Walking to He Qingfeng, Old Yi asked in a deep voice: "How much effort did you use?"

"Five points." He Qingfeng said without changing his face.

"What is it?" Yi Lao gritted his teeth.

He Qingfeng was embarrassed, and after gritting his teeth, he said, "Eight."

Yi Lao took a deep breath. He Qingfeng's eight-point strength was already terrifying, but he didn't stop George Han, instead he was forced back by George Han.

This is proof that even if he uses all his strength. It may not be able to stop George Han, which is incredible in Yi Lao's eyes.

"This guy. Is it a pervert?" He Qingfeng was hit, and for the first time he felt that he should re-examine his strength.

Elder Yi trembling hands, said: “It seems that my guess is good. He is indeed the savior.”

“But no matter how powerful he is, going to the Demon King’s Cave again, wouldn’t it be the same to die?” He Qingfeng said.

Yi Lao was very opposed to George Han going to the Devil’s Cave, but now, he shook his head and said: “Since he is sure, there will be no accidents. Although I don’t know where he is, I believe him. .”

Will George Han go to death for no reason?

This is obviously impossible.

Yi Lao knows the importance he attaches to Amelia Su and Han Nian. George Han, who seems not afraid of death, is actually very afraid of death because he does not want Amelia Su and Han Nian to lose himself. So he will pay more attention to his life.

Since he made such a decision, it must be sure.

At this time, Jiang Yingying outside the hall smiled and asked George Han: “Brother George, I didn’t expect that even He Qingfeng, the master of the three halls, could not stop you. How much strength did you use?”

George Han smiled and said, “Eight points.”

“Really?” Jiang Yingying looked at George Han suspiciously.

George Han touched his nose and said, “If I said five points, would it be too much.”

Jiang Yingying smiled like a silver bell, and said: “Of course not too much, but if He Qingfeng knows about it, he will probably be very injured. He will not be able to stop your five-point strength. If you use all your strength, the punch just now will be useless. Up.”

“It’s true, but you have to be low-key. He is also the lord of the Three Halls, so let him save some face.” George Han smiled.

Jiang Yingying nodded in agreement, her face was already smiling.

Fortunately, these words were just a private conversation between the two of them. If Yi Lao He Qingfeng heard them, I don’t know how they would feel.

Chapter 850

George Han and Jiang Yingying came to the entrance of the Demon King’s Cave. The others did not understand why George Han had to return to the Demon King’s Cave, but Jiang Yingying was very clear in her heart.

At the beginning, the little white snake insisted on leaving with George Han in the Devil’s Cave, but George Han was worried that it would bring danger to Apocalypse after it left the Demon’s Cave, so he dragged the little white snake with a slow strategy.

And now. George Han is about to go to the second world, obviously intending to bring Xiaobai snake with him.

“Brother George, do you really want to take it with you? After all, it is a cold-blooded animal. What if it regains freedom and turns against you?” Jiang Yingying asked George Han worriedly.

It's not that George Han had never thought about this, but he had a feeling that Little White Snake would not hurt him. And if it was taken to the second world, even if the white snake rebelled, it would only pose a threat to the second world.

“The second world has too many unknown dangers. If it is willing to help me, it may be able to reduce our danger in the second world, it is worth a try.” George Han said.

Although Jiang Yingying was worried, she never interfered with what George Han decided, because she trusted George Han 100%.

The two of them didn't hesitate too much and walked directly into the entrance of the Demon King's Cave.

Not long after George Han and Jiang Yingying entered, Lintong stood where they were just now, and the expressions on their faces were very hideous.

As the former favorite of heaven, Lintong looked down upon the entire younger generation of Tianqi, but since George Han came, his name was no longer mentioned by anyone. Everyone only remembered the name of George Han. He was once the proud son of heaven.

Although Lintong was dissatisfied with this, he could only swallow his breath. After all, what George Han has achieved is not something he can do. Numerous geniuses have fallen into the Demon King's Cave. Although Lintong wanted to prove himself, he was afraid that he would lose his footing and become the soul of the Demon King's Cave, which comes from death. Fear made him have no courage to face the challenge of Demon King's Cave.

“Lintong, you, the proud boy of heaven, are really crushed by him. He has entered the Demon King's Cave for the second time, but you can only look at the door.” He Xiaoxiao's voice came from behind.

Lintong turned his head coldly and said, “He Xiaoxiao, if I remember correctly, you have been demoted to the yellow character level. You are not qualified to come here.”

After all, He Xiaoxiao is He Qingfeng’s daughter. On the surface, she is indeed not qualified to come to the Demon King’s Cave, but she insists on coming, who is willing to forcibly stop it? If you accidentally offend He Qingfeng, you will be sad in the days of Tianqi.

And the reason why He Xiaoxiao came here was to see if George Han really wanted to go to the Devil’s Cave.

She thought that George Han was only deliberately using this method to build momentum for her own fame. It might even be the conspiracy and tricks of Simen to increase Simen’s influence in Apocalypse, but she did not expect that she really watched. George Han entered the Demon King’s Cave again.

“Lintong, I am not qualified, and you have no courage. We belong to the same kind, why should you show off in front of me? You have the ability to compare with George Han.” He Xiaoxiao said disdainfully.

“He Xiaoxiao. I didn’t expect you to change your attitude towards George Han. When will the person you hate Miss He change his attitude?” Lintong sneered.

“Fart.” He Xiaoxiao snorted and said: “I haven’t changed my opinion of him, he is still a waste in my eyes.”

Lintong looked up to the sky and laughed.

waste?

What a waste!

In just one month. He was promoted from the yellow character level to the sky character level, and now he entered the frightening Demon King's Cave for the second time. It was ridiculous that He Xiaoxiao even treated George Han as a waste.

“He Xiaoxiao, you screamed in trash, have you ever thought about it. What is you?” Lintong said.

He Xiaoxiao's face was pale, and then she laughed and said to Lintong: “Unexpectedly, you were robbed of the limelight, and you still have to speak for him. It seems that you, the proud man of heaven, were really suppressed by him.”

“If your strength is not as good as a person, you should recognize the reality.” Lintong was dissatisfied, but the strength that George Han showed made him irrefutable. He knew very well that stubbornness was nothing more than the work of the incompetent. If you want to regain the title that belongs to one's proud son of heaven, you must prove yourself with strength, but this is a pity. Not what he can do now.

He Xiaoxiao was slightly surprised, Lintong was able to say such a thing, she had never expected it. She was still thinking about working with Lintong to find a way to deal with George Han, but now it seems that Lintong will not do it anymore.

“Are you really willing?” He Xiaoxiao asked tentatively.

“He Xiaoxiao. I advise you to be honest. In the face of absolute power, conspiracy and trickery will not be of any use. Your thoughts are of no use to George Han, unless you can surpass him in strength, not just It is Yi Lao who values him, even your father,” Lintong said.

He Xiaoxiao took a deep breath. The four gates and three halls have always been at odds, but now even He Qingfeng values George!

“Lintong, I will not confess my fate like you trash, I will find a way to kill George Han sooner or later.” He Xiaoxiao said through gritted teeth.

Lintong smiled indifferently. Hearing these words now makes him feel ridiculous from the heart.

Kill George Han.

Why?

Is it because He Xiaoxiao is not as good as the yellow character?

It’s so ridiculous.

“I went back to retreat, and good luck.” Lintong left this sentence and turned to leave.

He Xiaoxiao clenched his fists with a hideous expression. If it weren’t for George Han, she would not be demoted to the yellow character level, and she would not be insulted because of George Han.

For this Princess of the Three Palaces, the more powerful and outstanding George Han is, the more anger in her heart will be, but no matter how powerful George Han is, she will always feel that she has a chance to kill George Han.

After all, she is the daughter of the Lord of the Three Halls, and this identity is definitely not something George Han can compare.

“George Han, my people are about to arrive in Basin City. I want them to live unless I kneel down in front of me and kowtow to admit their mistakes.”

In the Devil’s Cave.

The mentality of George Han and Jiang Yingying this time no longer has any tension or fear, after all, with the little white snake accompanying, other strange beasts don't even have the guts to show up.

However, George Han looked at the little white snake with a strange look. From Fang Zhan's mouth, he learned that the red-eyed jade python in the Demon King's Cave was the most terrifying monster, but George Han looked at this little thing and couldn't see it. What's so special that you can't eat a full meal even after you scrape it, and you can still be called reckless. Is it possible that the information of the apocalypse is wrong?
