

His True Colour Chapter 831 - 840

Chapter 831

After a few chats between the two, Fang Zhan finally walked into the mountainside Villa.

Mary, Han Tianyang and others were sitting in the living room, but Amelia Su was not seen.

Since Amelia Su began to age, she didn't want to see people anymore, and even the mirrors at home had all been broken.

For a Fanghua Zhengsheng woman, suddenly encountered this kind of change. As long as normal people can't accept it, Amelia Su doesn't know how she should face George Han in the future, and she is even very afraid that George Han will suddenly return to Basin City.

She didn't want George Han to see her ugly now, and even thought of death.

But when she thought that Han Nian was still young, Amelia Su didn't dare to die. She didn't want Han Nian to lose her mother when she was so young.

“Mr. Fang.”

Several people stood up. The opponent shouted.

“Where is Amelia?” Fang Zhan asked.

Mary glanced at Han Tianyang, and said anything in this house. Both require Han Tianyang's consent, especially on the topic of Amelia Su, Mary even dare not speak at will.

“Mr. Fang, why are you here this time?” Han Tianyang asked.

“Didn't George Han come back with you?” Yan Jun asked immediately.

“George Han has a task, and it was ordered by Elder Yi himself, so I don't know where he is now. I am the only one who is going back to Basin City this time,” Fang Zhan said.

“Can't you contact him?” Mary said eagerly. Now this situation can only be solved by George Han's return. Even if Amelia Su's illness cannot be cured, he can stay with Amelia Su, perhaps to let him Amelia Su faces aging with a healthier attitude, and he is the only one. Only then was able to persuade Amelia Su to actively cooperate with the treatment.

Looking at the eyes of a few people, Fang Zhan felt even more guilty, but he still couldn't let them know that George Han was dead.

“Elder Yi personally ordered that you should know the status of his old man. I am not qualified to interfere.” Fang Zhan said.

Mary weakly sat back on the sofa again, and Amelia Su would remain autistic unless George Han returned. She rejected treatment, but her condition could not be controlled.

“Mr. Fang, I hope you can do me a favor. When I get the news of 3000, I must inform him of the situation at home as soon as possible.” Han Tianyang said.

Fang Zhan nodded and said without conscience: “Don't worry, I will tell him as soon as possible, Amelia. Can I see her?”

Han Tianyang sighed heavily and said, “No one wants to see Amelia. I hope Mr. Fang will understand.”

“She has locked herself in the room for several days, and no one sees except Han Nian.” Based on Fang Zhan’s identity, Yan Jun explained more. After all, this is a great figure of Tianqi. When facing him, you should Give a certain respect.

“In that case, I won’t bother me much.” Fang Zhan finished speaking, and left the mountainside Villa.

In Amelia Su’s room, the makeup mirror was already broken. Amelia Su leaning against the bed, besides her silver hair, she also had an extremely old face with vertical and horizontal wrinkles. She couldn’t see the style of the first beauty in Basin City before.

At this time, Amelia Su’s cell phone rang.

After connecting, Amelia Su asked: “What’s the matter?”

The phone call was from Shen Lingyao. She knew Amelia Su’s condition very well, and she understood how much this change would hit a woman, so she would call Amelia Su every day when she was free. Chat with her to ease Amelia Su’s mood.

“I can get off work early today. What do you want to eat, I will bring you over.” Shen Lingyao said.

“No, I don’t want to see anyone.” Amelia Su said a thousand miles away, even her best girlfriend. She doesn’t want to see it now.

“Amelia, I am your best girlfriend. You can never see anyone. How can you not see me.” Shen Lingyao pretended to be angry.

Before the change, Amelia Su might compromise, but now she will never give in. The closer the person is, the stronger Amelia Su's sense of rejection.

“Didn't you fall in love, don't waste time on me, go on a date.” After that, Amelia Su hung up.

Shen Lingyao in the office is like a frustrated ball. There are suitors around her, but for Shen Lingyao, how could Amelia Su matter to Shen Lingyao.

“Damn George Han. Where have you been, are you still waiting for Amelia to suffocate yourself?” Shen Lingyao gritted her teeth.

At this moment. The office door was pushed open, and the secretary walked in with a stack of contracts and said to Shen Lingyao: “Mr. Shen. You need to sign these contracts.”

“No time, let's let it go first.” Shen Lingyao said lightly. Now the company has been given full authority to Shen Lingyao. The operation of the company is very smooth. After all, Amelia Su is the real boss. Who dares to trouble Amelia Su's company? .

Therefore, for Shen Lingyao, whether or not to sign these contracts, and when to sign them, is just a free choice for Shen Lingyao.

After the secretary put down the contract and was about to leave the office, Shen Lingyao suddenly said, “Yang Meng, are you free tonight?”

Yang Meng was stunned for a moment and said, “Mr. Shen, do you have anything to arrange?”

“Someone asked me for dinner tonight. I have agreed, but I am not in the mood. Go and help me deal with it.” Shen Lingyao said.

Yang Meng looked terrified, but Shen Lingyao promised a date. How could she deal with this kind of thing.

“President Shen, this is not so good, how can you let me show up on your date.” Yang Meng said embarrassedly.

“What’s the big deal? Wouldn’t it be okay to let you eat a big meal? That’s the decision.” Shen Lingyao gave a final word and didn’t give Yang Meng a chance to refute.

Yang Meng smiled bitterly. She had never experienced this kind of thing before, and it was too bizarre. She helped the boss go on a date without knowing what the other party would think.

At this time, Yang Meng asked weakly: “President Shen, do you know what happened to Amelia Su?”

Shen Lingyao looked puzzled. The rumors about Amelia Su had been dispelled. Why would Yang Meng care about this matter.

“Do you want to know gossip, or are there other reasons?” Shen Lingyao asked.

“Actually, I know George Han.” Yang Meng said weakly.

Shen Lingyao’s eyes widened. George Han would actually know Yang Meng. Couldn’t it be George Han who got in trouble outside before?

“How do you know George Han, and what does it have to do with him?” Shen Lingyao asked.

“We used to be neighbors. As for why he rented a house, I don’t know. We are friends, so I boldly care about it.” Yang Meng explained.

Chapter 832

Shen Lingyao is still very clear about the reasons why George Han rented a house. At the beginning, George Han and Amelia Su had a false divorce, so they moved out of the mountainside Villa temporarily. However, they lived next door to Yang Meng and became neighbors. Shen Lingyao was a little strange. After all, Yang Meng is also a good girl, and I don't know if anything happened between George Han and her.

The outspoken Shen Lingyao asked Yang Meng directly to understand his doubts: "Nothing happened between you and him, right?"

Yang Meng waved her hands in a panic, and said quickly: "Mr. Shen, what do you think, of course there is nothing between me and him."

Shen Lingyao frowned. If she was magnanimous enough, how could Yang Meng appear to be flustered, and there was obviously some guilty conscience in her eyes.

"It's really nothing, but what do I think when I look at your eyes?" Shen Lingyao stood up. I walked directly to Yang Meng and looked directly at Yang Meng.

Yang Meng did not dare to look at Shen Lingyao's eyes. Although there was indeed no closeness between the two of them, during that period, Yang Meng had a good impression of George Han. Yang Meng knew very well what this feeling was. I just fell in love with George Han, if not for the true identity of George Han later. Maybe she will take the initiative to confess to George Han.

"Actually...actually."

Seeing Yang Meng's twitching, Shen Lingyao couldn't wait to ask: "Actually, what? You say it quickly."

"Actually, I liked him." Yang Meng gritted his teeth and revealed his heart.

Shen Lingyao smiled helplessly. What good things did George Han do in his life? In this life, he was able to get the likes of so many girls.

When he was cast as a waste by the entire Basin City, Amelia Su slowly fell in love with him, and even herself and Qi Yiyun fell in love with this man. Now, as his short-lived neighbor, Yang Meng is also right. He had this feeling.

Is it possible that George Han has a natural charm to attract women? Otherwise. Why do the women who appear next to him fall in love with him.

“Just like it, nothing else?” Shen Lingyao actually knows exactly what kind of man George Han is. Qi Yiyun can be indifferent even with the seduction of top beauties like Qi Yiyun, so how could he cheat on Yang Meng, but she still I want to ask if George Han is really so determined.

“No, really not, Mr. Shen. I can swear to heaven.” Yang Meng said.

Shen Lingyao nodded and said: “Don’t be afraid, I just talk about it casually. I know he won’t look at you.”

Yang Meng smiled bitterly, this sentence was very hurtful, of course. She also never expected any development between herself and George Han. After all, Amelia Su is the number one beauty in Basin City. What does she compare with Amelia Su?

“You don’t need to think my words are too much. Because I know a woman who is a thousand times more beautiful than you, even Amelia Su can’t match it, but George Han is still not tempted. His feelings for Amelia Su are so loyal. It makes people think that he doesn’t look like a normal man.” Shen Lingyao said with a smile. The reason why George Han does not look like a normal man is because in Shen Lingyao’s opinion, any man will fall when facing Qi Yiyun’s temptation. Du George Han can be as stable as a rock.

You know that Qi Yiyun who took off his glasses is a real stunning beauty. In ancient times, it must be a disaster for the country and the people.

“It would be great if I could find such a husband.” Yang Meng said with a look of envy.

“Who doesn’t want it, but George Han is such a strange flower. It is really rare, and I don’t think the world can find a second one.” Shen Lingyao sighed, as her status in Basin City became higher and higher. There are more and more suitors, but whenever Shen Lingyao compares these people with George Han, he will find that these men are really unsightly, even a single strand of George Han’s hair can’t match.

“President Shen, can you tell me how Amelia Su is doing now?” Yang Meng brought the topic back to his focus, because the entire Basin City was discussing this matter. She is also really curious.

“Actually, nothing happened, but you also know that Amelia Su’s current status is different. George Han is not in Basin City, so all the family members care about the slightest illness. Then there is a big battle. No other things, you Go out first.” Shen Lingyao said.

Yang Meng can understand that he is over-concerned. After all, Amelia Su’s identity is really important. However, it is an exaggeration to find famous doctors from all over the world for a small illness.

This kind of rhetoric was obviously because Shen Lingyao was unwilling to tell her the truth, and Yang Meng stopped questioning it.

“Mr. Shen. Call me if you have any orders.” After that, Yang Meng withdrew from the office.

Shen Lingyao sat on the office chair with a sad look, wondering how many women George Han had come into contact with when he went abroad, and how many of these women fell in love with him, saying that women attract bees and butterflies. Unexpectedly, George Han was a man, but he was even more exaggerated.

When it was time to get off work, Shen Lingyao, who had no interest in dating, simply called the other party and cancelled the appointment.

For the current Shen Lingyao, dealing with those playboys does not need to worry too much about each other's face. After all, she is now Amelia Su's external spokesperson. If she provokes her, it is equivalent to provoke Amelia Su, but anyone with a bit of a brain dare not do this. .

When he arrived at the underground parking lot, Shen Lingyao just got in the car, and suddenly felt that there were two people in the back seat of the car. From the rearview mirror, they were wearing caps and masks. They couldn't see their looks at all, but the dress was like a robbery. The banditry made Shen Lingyao nervous instantly.

I didn't even dare to turn back and asked, "You guys, what do you want to do? If you want money, I can give it to you, all to you."

The two in the back seat were George Han and Jiang Yingying. The reason for this dressing was that George Han was worried that Basin City had known the news of his death, and he was afraid that the sudden corpse would cause onlookers.

Originally, George Han was planning to go to the magic capital, but the gate of the magic capital was closed. In desperation, he could only find Shen Lingyao first.

But what he didn't expect was that Shen Lingyao actually regarded her as a robber.

"I don't want money." George Han changed his voice while suppressing his throat, and asked slightly madly.

“No money, then what do you want to do!” Shen Lingyao was so frightened that she wondered if the other party was attracted by her beauty? Today this is to be innocent.

“Seeing that you look good, I will let you go after playing with the brothers, how about?” George Han said.

Chapter 833

Shen Lingyao was so scared that her limbs were weak. For her, money can be lost, but her innocence must not be ruined. Moreover, she is not short of money and can solve the problem with money. That’s nothing.

“I can give you money, whatever you want.” Shen Lingyao said.

“But I am not interested in money. If you are willing to cooperate with me, I can make you eat less skin and flesh.” George Han said.

Shen Lingyao was frightened and cried, and said sobbing: “Brother, please let me go, I am not married yet.”

George Han didn’t expect Shen Lingyao to be so scared. He quickly took off his mask and hat and said in his normal voice: “Shen Lingyao, I’m just kidding you. You don’t need to be so exaggerated.”

Shen Lingyao was stunned for a while listening to this familiar voice.

Look in the rearview mirror. Only then did she see the familiar face, she was taken aback for a moment, and Shen Lingyao suddenly became angry.

“George Han, have you done nothing? I have no grudges against you, what are you doing to scare me.” Shen Lingyao said with a full face.

George Han looked at Jiang Yingying suspiciously, and Jiang Yingying also showed a strange look.

Logically speaking, based on the relationship between Shen Lingyao and Amelia Su, if news of George Han's death had been sent back to Basin City. She should know it, but looking at her performance, she doesn't seem to know this.

“When you see me alive, aren't you scared, isn't it weird?” George Han asked puzzledly.

“I'm afraid what you are doing, there is a kind of single-handedness, what a sneaky scare,” Shen Lingyao raised her fist and said to George Han.

Seeing Shen Lingyao's performance, George Han was even more convinced that the news of his death had not been leaked out. Could it be that the mountainside Villa deliberately failed to disclose this matter, or that the fundamental reason lies in Fang Zhan's body, he did not reveal it at all. This news informs the family.

“Shen Lingyao. Have you been to the Mountainside Villa recently?” George Han asked.

Speaking of Mountainside Villa, Shen Lingyao thought of Amelia Su's condition and said: “When did you come back, have you returned to Mountainside Villa?”

“Not yet.” George Han said.

Shen Lingyao was anxious and hit George Han's shoulder with a fist, and said, “Don't you hurry home, Amelia is sick, and Nangong Boring invited famous doctors from all over the world to be helpless.”

Amelia Su is sick!

And it's so serious!

George Han's expression sank instantly, and said to Shen Lingyao: "Drive. Back to the mountainside Villa."

Shen Lingyao quickly started the vehicle, and a group of three people headed towards the Yunding Mountain Villa.

Since Shen Lingyao is a frequent visitor to the mountainside Villa, the brothers who guard the gate under the mountain all know her car. Just let it go.

Seeing this kind of ostentation, George Han asked in confusion: "What is this situation and why are there so many people guarding it?"

"They are all from Moyang. Now the Yundingshan Villa area does not allow outsiders to enter and exit, and everyone has temporarily moved away to avoid malicious people who maliciously spread rumors to welcome Xia's illness in Basin City." Shen Lingyao explained.

Heard these words. George Han's heart mentioned his throat. It seems that Amelia Su is really very ill. Otherwise, Mo Yang would not do it to the extreme. After all, the Yundingshan Villa District is the home of many local figures in Basin City. Not letting them go home would definitely offend some people, but Mo Yang didn't care about it. This was enough to prove Amelia Su's condition.

"What disease did Amelia have?" George Han couldn't help asking before he got home.

"Aging syndrome." Shen Lingyao said.

senescence?

For some reason, George Han thought of the things in the stone house for the first time when he saw Fuyao. Fuyao was aging and air-dried at a very fast rate, and turned into dry bones, and also formed a condensed bead. Is it because of this incident that Amelia Su was affected?

If so. Reincarnation may be real.

Finally, when he arrived at the mountainside Villa, George Han couldn't wait to get out of the car. Both Moyang and Nangong Boling are in the front yard.

When the two of them saw George Han, they both froze for a moment. After all, they had just learned from Fang Zhan that George Han had an important mission and couldn't contact at all, but George Han came back so soon. .

“George, why are you back? Didn't Fang Zhan say that you have a special mission and he can't contact you?” Mo Yang asked George Han.

Special task?

When Fang Zhan returned to Basin City this time, he should have been informed of his death. How could he say that he had a special mission?

After looking at Nangong Boring, George Han understood everything. Fang Zhan should be worried that after the news of his death was passed back, Nangong Boring would stop helping him find his daughter. This was selfishness at work, so let Fang Zhan Concealed the facts.

But this is also good. Eliminates the need for George Han to explain the process.

“I'll go to see Amelia first.” George Han said.

Mo Yang nodded, making way for George Han.

Back home, Mary and Han Tianyang. Yanjun Wilson Su and He Ting all walked to George Han in the first place.

“Three thousand, you finally came back, Amelia has locked herself in her room for a few days, and no one wants to see him.”

“Three thousand, you must find a way to save her, I only have this daughter. There can be no accident.”

“Don’t worry, I’ll check it out.” After George Han sent a few people away, he walked to the door of the room.

Knock on the door.

Amelia Su’s voice came from the room: “I’m resting and don’t want to be disturbed.”

“Amelia, it’s me.” George Han said.

There were tears in Amelia Su’s eyes in the room. At this time, she was very fragile. She was able to hide her fragility in front of others, but she couldn’t do it in front of George Han because this was her favorite person.

But the person Amelia Su fears most now is George Han, because she doesn’t want George Han to see her ugly appearance.

After a long silence, Amelia Su said: “Three thousand, you can’t see me, I’m afraid my appearance will scare you.”

“Fool, what are you talking about, can we stay young forever? Will we not grow old in the future? No matter what you become, my love for you will never change.” George Han said softly.

After Amelia Su heard this, she sobbed. She was still young, but she already had the face of an old man. She didn’t know how to face George Han’s love, and she didn’t want to be in George Han. The image in mind has changed.

“But, but I don’t want you to see who you are now.” Amelia Su said.

“I can cure you, are you willing to believe me?” George Han said. When he got the Ningzhu, George Han thought about whether this Ningzhu would be involved with Amelia Su, but at that time he was worried. Fuyao’s memory would affect Amelia Su, but now, George Han had to do so, so he had no choice.

Chapter 834

As the footsteps approached, the door lock was unscrewed, but it was not opened.

George Han was not in a hurry either, he knew that Amelia Su needed a certain amount of psychological preparation, after all, she had become different now from before.

The door opened little by little. Amelia Su lowered her head, and George Han’s eyes were greeted with silver hair, which made George Han feel a little distressed.

Walking into the room, the first thing George Han did was to embrace Amelia Su in his arms. As he said, no matter what Amelia Su became, his love for Amelia Su would not change at all, even if she was really old. Now, George Han will always guard her.

Amelia Su felt this familiar body and couldn’t help holding George Han’s waist.

“I’m so scared, I’m afraid it will continue like this. I’m afraid of losing you, I’m afraid that Nian’er will lose her mother.” Amelia Su cried bitterly, and in front of George Han, she could no longer stand strong.

George Han gently rubbed Amelia Su’s back and said, “Don’t worry, I won’t let Nian’er lose her mother, and I will save you too.”

Holding Amelia Su's wrinkled hands, it is no longer the same. That kind of warm and jade feeling. But George Han was not at all suspicious.

After closing the door, George Han sat on the edge of the bed.

Amelia Su kept her head down, not daring to let George Han see her now.

George Han stretched out his hand, supported Amelia Su's chin, and slowly raised it.

Amelia Su gave up after struggling, slowly raising her head.

"I'm so happy." George Han said with a smile.

Amelia Su looked at George Han without knowing it, and asked: "What happiness?"

"My wife will be so old in the future, and still be so beautiful, can I not be happy?" George Han said.

Amelia Su broke her tears into a smile. Although she knew that George Han was deliberately making her happy, she still couldn't help laughing in her heart.

"What are you doing? How can you learn to have a glib tongue?" Amelia Su stared at George Han and said.

"What is greasy tongue? These words are from the heart." George Han said with a serious look.

"Really, even if I become like this, you will still love me? Su

Amelia said in disbelief. George Han supported Amelia Su's head with his right hand, slowly moved his head forward, and kissed Amelia Su's lips softly. Said: "Can there be fakes? In this life, I only recognize you as a wife. "

Amelia Su glanced at her mouth. This is probably her best day in the recent period.

" Qi Yiyun still misses you. Are you really willing to be such a big beauty?
"Amelia Su said.

George Han wrinkled his nose in embarrassment . George Han didn't forget the woman Qi Yiyun. Moreover, he did feel soft to Qi Yiyun several times. Impossible. After all, being soft is one thing, and true love is another.

"No matter what woman, she is not qualified to compare with you. "George Han said seriously.

Amelia Su Xiaoniaoyi is nestled in George Han's arms. This is her most secure chest and her most infatuated place.

"But you can bear to hurt such a beautiful woman. You should have seen Qi Yiyun after taking off his glasses. " Amelia Su said.

After Qi Yiyun took off his glasses, George Han had never felt it on anyone else. The difference between whether he wears glasses or not is too big for Qi Yiyun. They are completely different people. But even so, George Han was still able to restrain his desire for Qi Yiyun.

In the world, there are indeed no bad men, and George Han has not been indifferent to female s*x, but the key lies in whether he can restrain his evil thoughts. Some people can't restrain it. Become a scumbag, hooligan and erotic.

But George Han restrained this because of Amelia Su.

“Remember what I said to you before, find a polygamous country, after all, I am already like this now. You can’t drag you forever, as long as you don’t abandon me, I will be very satisfied.” Amelia Su continued.

George Han couldn’t help but slap Amelia Su on the thigh. Said: “Didn’t I say that, I can heal you.”

Amelia Su should be comforted by this kind of words, because Nangong Boring was helpless when recruiting famous doctors from all over the world. How could George Han cure her? .

“Don’t comfort me, hope is more terrifying than despair.” Amelia Su said.

George Han took a deep breath. George Han didn’t know at all about whether it would be effective for Amelia Su and whether it would have any sequelae. However, under the circumstances, he could only give it a try because he There is a strong feeling that Amelia Su’s mutation has something to do with Fuyao, if so. Not to mention the famous doctors around the world, even Hua Tuo is still alive, it is impossible to cure Amelia Su.

“What is this, so beautiful.” Seeing Ningzhu. Amelia Su asked obsessively.

Women, when they see beautiful things, they always show such a side.

George Han couldn’t explain the source of this condensed pearl to Amelia Su, and she didn’t necessarily believe it. She could only say: “This is the magic medicine I got from Tianqi, it can cure all diseases.” The magic medicine of Tianqi!

Amelia Su’s eyes instantly revealed a ray of hope. What kind of existence is Apocalypse? Amelia Su knew well that if this medicine was really obtained from Apocalypse, it might really cure her.

“It must be very expensive.” Amelia Su asked.

“Compared to you, it’s worthless.” George Han smiled.

” Since Yi Lao gave you such an important thing, I definitely hope you can use it at a critical time. How can you give it to me. “Amelia Su shook her head quickly.

“For me, now is the most critical time, nothing can compare with you.” George Han said.

Amelia Su lowered her head moved.

George Han continued: “Open your mouth, otherwise, I will take my daughter away and fly away, you don’t want to see our little cutie again in the future.”

Amelia Su raised her head and opened her mouth obediently.

As soon as George Han put Ningzhu to Amelia Su’s mouth, Ningzhu turned into a cloud of mist and directly entered Amelia Su’s throat, which made George Han more convinced that Fuyao and Amelia Su were involved.

“Hurry up and feed me.” Amelia Su didn’t feel anything in her mouth for a long time, and couldn’t help but remind George Han.

“You have eaten it.” George Han smiled.

Amelia Su looked at George Han in amazement, and said, “How could it be possible? Why didn’t I feel anything.”

“Since it is a miraculous medicine, it melts in the mouth, how could you feel it.”

Amelia Su suddenly felt her mind faintly, he said: “Three thousand, me, how do I suddenly feel.”

Before finishing speaking, Amelia Su fainted.

Chapter 835

Looking at Amelia Su, George Han’s heartbeat instantly accelerated a lot.

Because he didn’t know what would happen next, what kind of changes Ningzhu would bring to Amelia Su.

All these unknowns are challenging George Han’s fear limit. Even when he was in the Demon King’s Cave, George Han had never been afraid.

Because he had long believed that Amelia Su’s life was more important than his own, he would rather die by himself. He didn’t want Amelia Su to be in danger.

“Fuyao, if you really have a connection with her, you must guarantee her life so that I can know what you want to do.” George Han said in a deep voice.

At this time, Mo Yang’s excited voice suddenly came from the living room.

After learning that George Han had returned, Mo Yang rushed to the mountainside Villa for the first time. For him, he was reborn because of George Han, and it was also because of George Han that he could have today.

Before George Han left Basin City. He left everything to him, but he didn’t protect Amelia Su well. It was his responsibility to make Amelia Su so seriously ill in Mo Yang’s eyes.

When George Han walked out of the room, Mo Yang knelt directly in front of George Han.

“Three thousand, I didn’t protect the summer.” Mo Yang lowered his head and said.

“Mo Yang, what are you doing.” George Han walked quickly to Mo Yang, trying to help Mo Yang up, he didn’t blame Mo Yang, this matter has nothing to do with Mo Yang, Amelia Su’s Aging is likely to rise due to swaying, which is something that no one can control.

“Three thousand, don’t pull me, it will make me feel better.” Mo Yang said. At present, the famous doctors have discussed many ways to cure the disease, but the confidence that it can be cured is very low. Mo Yang feels guilty, and he feels that all this is his responsibility.

George Han smiled helplessly. This uncle just likes to take responsibility on himself, and it seems that he feels uncomfortable if he doesn’t carry it for a day.

“Mo Yang, I’ll let you get up. What qualifications do you have to kneel down?” George Han finished with a smile, grabbing Mo Yang’s clothes with one hand, and easily lifted Mo Yang up.

Mo Yang felt his body hanging in the air and was embarrassed for a while, thinking that this guy’s strength was too terrifying, he could even mention an adult so easily.

“Three thousand, you are too humiliating.” Mo Yang said speechlessly.

“If you don’t want to be humiliated, just listen to me honestly. This matter has nothing to do with you, and I never thought of blaming you.” George Han said.

“but.....”

Before Mo Yang finished speaking, George Han interrupted directly: “It’s nothing but, I probably guessed the reason for this, but I can’t tell you.”

the reason!

This sentence made Han Tianyang and Yan Jun a little surprised. George Han was in Tianqi. How could he know the cause of Amelia Su's death?

Moreover, the cause of Amelia Su, even if the world famous doctors have not found out, can he know?

Han Tianyang and Yan Jun glanced at each other, their eyes were full of doubts.

“George, come to the backyard with me.” Han Tianyang said to George Han.

George Han nodded, patted Mo Yang on the shoulder and said, “You don't have to blame yourself for this matter. It really has nothing to do with you. You just need to know that no one can stop it.”

Mo Yang was at a loss. I really don't understand the meaning of this sentence.

When he came to the backyard, Han Tianyang stared at George Han. After his grandson went to Apocalypse, it seemed that a lot of changes had taken place, but Han Tianyang couldn't tell what the specific changes were.

“Three thousand. How would you know the cause of Amelia's death?” Han Tianyang asked.

“Grandpa, there are some things, I can't tell you for the time being, because these are the rules of the apocalypse.” George Han said. Regarding Fuyao, even Yi Lao and He Qingfeng did not know. George Han concealed it because he didn't want to cause unnecessary trouble to Amelia Su because of this incident.

After all, his thoughts are all speculation now, and there is no way to verify the connection between Amelia Su and Fuyao.

Han Tianyang nodded. If the apocalypse is not strict, it is impossible to exist for many years and no information about the apocalypse has been circulated.

“This time I go to Apocalypse, is there any gain? Have you become stronger?” Jun Yan couldn’t help but ask, Apocalypse is the gathering place for real masters in the world, and the highest hall that every top martial artist wants to enter. Although Jun did not have this honor, it was also a comforting thing for him to see George Han enter the Apocalypse. If George Han can achieve something in Tianqi, Jun Yan will be even more happy.

“Grandpa Yan, Apocalypse has four levels: Heaven, Earth, Xuanhuang. Tianzi rank is the highest. Every year there will be a classification competition to give each apocalypse a promotion opportunity. This time I went to Tianqi. Just in time for the classification competition. , But the catch-up is not a coincidence, it should have been deliberately arranged by Yi Lao.” George Han said. These are not big secrets, so he can let Han Tianyang and Yan Jun know.

Hearing this sentence, the eyes of Han Tianyang and Yan Jun revealed a strong desire for knowledge. Since George Han just caught up with the classification competition, what level is he now?

“Have you been promoted to the Xuanzi level?” Jun Yan asked impatiently.

George Han nodded with a smile on his face.

Jun Yan clapped his hands and applauded, and said, “Okay, it is really a child of the Han family. Even if he went to Tianqi, he didn’t shame the Han family. It’s good.”

“Three thousand, remember that you can’t be arrogant. You have been promoted as soon as you arrive at Tianqi. Many people will regard you as a thorn in your eyes. In the future, you must act in a low-key manner.” Han Tianyang reminded George Han, although He can’t personally know what kind of place Apocalypse is, but he believes that as long as there are people, there will be disputes, and there will inevitably be open and secret fights, and if he is too good, he will naturally be jealous. Therefore, the current George Han must be low-key. After he had a solid foundation, he didn't need to put those villains in his eyes.

“Next year, can you participate in the second classification match?” Compared with these intrigues, Yan Jun cares more about strength. He wants to know George Han's situation next year and whether he can continue to be promoted.

George Han shook his head, smiling without saying a word.

Yan Jun looked puzzled. The classification competition is held once a year. Since George Han has been promoted this year, he can of course continue to participate next year. Why would he shake his head?

“Is it possible that there are other time rules for promotion?” Yan Jun asked.

“It's not the time rule, but I can't get promoted anymore, because now I'm already at the Tianzi level.” George Han said with a smile.

Tian... Tianzi level!

Chapter 836

The expressions of Han Tianyang and Yan Jun can no longer be described in words.

With his eyes widened and his mouth widened, George Han could even see the tonsils of these two people, and they were clearly visible.

“If you are promoted again, I'm afraid I will only grab the position of Yi Lao.” George Han continued.

Han Tianyang's breathing became heavier, and there were obvious violent ups and downs in his chest.

Tiandi Xuanhuang is at the fourth level, and George Han has only gone to Tianqi for less than a month. He even completed the quadruple jump, which in the eyes of Han Tianyang is really incredible.

“Three thousand, you...you didn't make a joke with us.” Yan Jun asked with a trembling voice. Apocalypse is the highest palace of warriors. Even if Yan Jun has never been there, he knows that there are masters like clouds. In his opinion, It was not easy for George Han to complete his first promotion. Unexpectedly, this kid would be so exaggerated, directly rising to the level of Tianzi.

“Of course not, I am indeed a Tianqi-level powerhouse of Apocalypse now.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang walked to George Han. Stretching out trembling hands, holding George Han's arms, said: “George, you...you...”

When it came to his lips, Han Tianyang didn't know how to say it. He wanted to praise George very much, but he didn't know how to boast, because the development of the matter was far beyond his imagination. The vocabulary in his mind is no longer enough to describe George Han.

“Grandpa, when I first arrived at Apocalypse, there were indeed people who wanted to disadvantage me, but now those unfavorable factors have all subsided. Apocalypse is a place that respects strength, and my strong strength can completely take those Xiao Xiaozhi's thoughts are killed in the cradle.” George Han said.

Both Lintong and He Xiaoxiao wanted George Han's life, and even deliberately made George Han more difficult in the classification competition. But all of this disappeared with George Han's strength.

In today's Tianqi, no one dared to think carefully about George Han. Even most people regard George Han as an idol, because he has achieved a miracle that no one dares to believe and has replaced Lintong's proud son. title.

“Good, good, good.” Han Tianyang, who didn't know what to say, even said three good words.

Yan Jun also walked up to George Han and asked curiously: “Apart from you, who else has achieved such amazing results?”

“Unprecedented.” After a pause, George Han continued with a smile on his face: “I guess, there will be no one to come.”

Yan Jun shook his head helplessly, and said: “I think you were a little kid back then and had to accept my training, but now, you are already the strongest person with the highest level of apocalypse, and I. But it's getting more and more. useless.”

“Grandpa Yan, how can you say that? In my heart, you are always the best.”
George Han said.

Yan Jun laughed and said: “With your words, Grandpa Yan will have a very happy life for the rest of his life, but Grandpa Yan still has a word to remind you that the tree attracts the wind and you must be careful in everything.”

Naturally, George Han understood this. This was also the reason why he could not bear it for so many years. When he wanted to establish his own influence in Yenching, George Han never appeared on any occasion because of his vanity.

Even when he came to Basin City, George Han was able to turn a deaf ear when he was scolded by thousands of people. This dormant heart was cultivated by George Han from his childhood. Although he can no longer hide his strength now, George Han's careful character will not change because of this.

“Grandpa Yan, I understand.” George Han said.

Han Tianyang and Yan Jun suddenly stopped talking. And there was a strange look in his eyes.

George Han knows that they have a strong thirst for knowledge about Tianqi. After all, this is a very mysterious place. Anyone who is curious will be interested in this place and want to know what kind of existence Tianqi is and what it is. Because of what exists.

It’s a pity, it’s about the secret of the apocalypse. George Han really couldn’t disclose it to them, and the news about the second world was too terrifying, and George Han didn’t want them to worry about it.

“Grandpa, Grandpa Yan, I know what you want to ask, but Apocalypse has rules, and grandson really can’t help you.” George Han said apologetically.

Han Tianyang shook his head and said, “It doesn’t matter. I’m just curious and won’t let you break the rules of the apocalypse.”

“Yeah, we just can’t control our curiosity. It doesn’t matter if we don’t say it.” Jun Yan said.

Seeing the gloom in the eyes of the two, George Han knew that they were a little disappointed, and couldn’t help saying: “I can only tell you that this world is not as simple as what you see.”

“Three thousand.”

At this time, Fang Zhan’s voice suddenly came from behind.

When George Han turned his head, Fang Zhan was already kneeling before him.

Fang Zhan was once one of the top ten masters of the Apocalypse, but now he is not a member of the Apocalypse, and George Han is already a powerhouse at the Apocalypse level, and the addition of the upper war is ashamed of him, so this Kneeling did not make Fang Zhan have any reluctance.

“Grandpa, go back first.” George Han said to Han Tianyang and Yanjun.

The two nodded. Back to the Villa.

George Han walked in front of Fang Zhan, squatted down and helped him up, and said: “People are selfish, I can understand why you do it. And I also want to thank you, if you didn’t treat me because of selfishness. The news of the death tells others that they may experience despair, and now it can be regarded as saving me trouble.”

Although that is the case. But Fang Zhan had violated Yi Lao’s order after all. After all, he returned to Basin City, but Yi Lao ordered it himself.

“I also thought about conveying truthfully, but I really can’t do it. Because without Nangong Boring’s help, I would never have a chance to find my daughter in my life.” Fang Zhan lowered his head and said, now Nangong Boring uses the method of finding people. Except for the Nangong family, no one in this world dares to do it this way.

The world is looking for people of similar age to do DNA comparisons. The financial and human resources required are unimaginable. Only the Nangong family has such connections and amazing financial resources.

George Han patted Fang Zhan on the shoulder and said, “I really don’t blame you, and I will ask Nangong Boring to send more people to help you find your daughter as soon as possible.”

Fang Zhan lowered his head in shame. Instead of blaming him, George Han continued to help him, which really made him ashamed.

But now Fang Zhan has a bigger doubt in his heart. How did George Han come out of the Demon King's Cave alive?

You must know that the movement of the day must be caused by George Han's encounter with a strange beast. From Fang Zhan's view, no one can survive a direct confrontation with the strange beast.

Chapter 837

Seeing Fang Zhan looking around, George Han knew what he wanted to ask, but he didn't take the initiative to mention it. After all, George Han didn't want others to know what happened in the Demon King's Cave.

It is George Han's biggest puzzle as to why that little white snake can overpower other strange beasts. And why it showed a state of intimacy to itself was also something George Han could not figure out.

"Three thousand, how did you come out of the Demon King's Cavern alive?" Fang Zhan asked softly, making sure that no one around knew.

"I came out while fighting." George Han said.

"Fight?" Fang Zhan looked at George Han in surprise.

Although George Han is very powerful, those alien beasts are more powerful. How can he survive the frontal confrontation with the alien beasts?

"You're not kidding me. Even if Yi Lao He Qingfeng is not an opponent of the power of those alien beasts, how did you fight?" Fang Zhan asked.

“Fit with your hands. How else can you do it?” George Han smiled.

This sentence is a bit too perfunctory, Fang Zhan is not a fool, so naturally he would not believe it, but since George Han was reluctant to say it, he didn't ask much.

But there was another thing he was curious about, what kind of strange beast George Han encountered.

“What did the strange beast you met, what did it look like?” Fang Zhan asked.

“A gorilla, huge, but heavy, can't run me.” George Han said.

“According to the secrets of the Apocalypse, there are a total of six strange beasts in the Demon King's Cave. The orangutan you have encountered is not the strongest among the six strange beasts. It seems that you are lucky.” Fang Zhan said.

Hearing these words, George Han became interested. Because he had seen all six strange beasts, although the little white snake showed inexplicable suppression, he didn't know whether the little white snake was really the strongest.

Since there are secret records, Fang Zhan must know who is the strongest monster in Demon King's Cave.

“What is the strongest?” George Han asked curiously.

“Red-eyed jade python, you are lucky if you didn't meet it.” Fang Zhan sighed.

Red-eyed jade python?

The eyes of the little white snake are indeed red, but it is only the thickness of the thumb. How can it be called a python?

Could it be an error in the secret book that exaggerated the strength of the red-eyed jade python?

“Red-eyed jade python, how big is it in the record?” George Han asked.

“The body is like a wandering dragon, one hundred feet long.” Fang Zhan said.

George Han laughed out loud, a hundred feet long, isn't this a joke? That little white snake is no more than a meter long.

“What are you laughing at?” Fang Zhan looked at George Han suspiciously, wondering why he laughed.

“No, nothing, it seems that I was really lucky. If I meet this red-eyed jade python, I am afraid I will really be dead.” George Han said.

Fang Zhan nodded his head in approval, with a body of one hundred feet, eating people without spitting out bones, if George Han met, how could he be able to come out alive.

“Unexpectedly, it took less than a month for you to become a Tianzi-level powerhouse. In the future, I am afraid that no one can surpass your achievements.” Fang Zhan said with a sigh, if someone said before It takes less than a month to be promoted from the yellow character level to the sky character level, he will definitely treat it as a big joke, but now. George Han actually did it, unbelievable, but he had to believe it.

“I hope that more people will surpass me.” George Han said with a sigh.

Fang Zhan didn't understand George Han's meaning for the first time. But soon figured it out, he should have been to the forbidden area, knew the existence of the second world, and also knew how much danger the second world would bring to the earth.

Only enough masters can resist the invasion of the Second World, which can explain why George Han thinks so.

“Has Yi Lao decided to go to the Second World?” Fang Zhan asked.

“No.” George Han shook his head.

Fang Zhan frowned. He was very clear about his previous plan. To train George Han to become the master of the four sects, he would go deep into the second world to find out. Now that George Han has become a strong power in the sky, he should follow The original plan was right, so why didn't you go to the second world suddenly?

Just when he wanted to ask why. George Han continued, “I will go personally.”

Fang Zhan stood blankly on the spot.

“You, are you going?” Fang Zhan asked in astonishment.

The second world is completely unknown. It is a situation of a lifetime of nine deaths. The reason why Yi Lao will go is because his life has not been too long, and he can give for it without worry.

But George Han was going, which Fang Zhan never expected, because once he died in the second world, what should Amelia Su and Han Nian do?

He cared about these two people very much, so how could he bear to leave them behind.

“I heard you right, did Yi Lao want you to go?” Fang Zhan asked.

George Han shook his head and said, “I am going to go by myself, it has nothing to do with him.”

“George Han. Are you crazy? Do you know what the second world is like? Do you know how likely you are to come back alive. Don’t you care about your wife and daughter?” Fang Zhan said.

George Han looked like a torch, and said calmly: “It is precisely because I want to protect them that I have to go personally. Because I can’t believe in Yi Lao.”

Fang Zhan carefully read what George Han said, and soon understood what George Han meant.

Once the war of invasion of the second world breaks out, the secular world will definitely be affected. At that time, his wife and daughter would be affected by the fish pond, so he wanted to solve this matter from within the second world.

But it was an unknown world, and the danger he had to face was unknowable. By doing so, he was equivalent to sending himself to hell. It was not a simple matter to want to come back again.

“Do you really want to face those unknown dangers?” Fang Zhan asked in a deep voice.

“For them, even if you lose your life.” George Han said firmly.

Fang Zhan suddenly smiled bitterly, and said: “You are really admirable. If you are me, I am afraid I can’t even think about it. People have an innate fear of the unknown, and you seem to totally ignore this.”

“I am also very scared, but I have no retreat. This is my home and my family. I will never allow foreigners to harm them.” George Han said.

“Yi Lao agreed?” Fang Zhan asked curiously. After all, whether George Han can go to the second world or not, he still needs Yi Lao’s consent. He can’t decide this matter himself.

“Do you think he has any way to refuse me? Even if he doesn’t agree, can’t I go by myself?” George Han smiled.

“Hey.” Fang Zhan sighed and said, “It seems that the four-sect master has no choice in front of you, but this is the attitude that the strong should have, George Han, I believe you.”

Chapter 838

In the matter of going to the second world, George Han’s attitude was very tough. Yi Lao really had no choice but to take him. Although he did not agree verbally, he had already acquiesced to this matter in his heart, and Yi Lao also had to admit that George Han went to the second world, perhaps more useful than him.

After finishing the conversation with Fang Zhan. George Han returned to the Villa.

“George, how is Amelia? Do you really have a way to cure her?” Mary asked George Han nervously, although she did not fulfill her responsibilities as a mother before, but now she is more than just I want to be good to George Han, but to make up for the past. Even Amelia Su has been regarded as his daughter.

Mary knew very well how George Han cared about Amelia Su, so Amelia Su must not have any accidents.

George Han couldn’t be sure what effect Ningzhu would bring to Amelia Su, so once he was cured, George Han could not be sure.

“Mom, don’t worry too much. Don’t disturb her during this period. The medicine I gave her needs to be slowly absorbed by her.” George Han said.

George Han couldn’t predict what would happen after Amelia Su ate Ningzhu, but during this period, Amelia Su could not be disturbed. This is certain, so George Han does not want anyone to disturb Amelia Su.

Mary nodded repeatedly and said, “Don’t worry, I will stay at home and will not let anyone into her room.”

George Han smiled. Now Mary cares about him and Amelia Su sincerely. George Han can feel this. Although he understands that Mary wants to make up for his previous mistakes, George Han never did. I thought about preoccupied with things in the past.

Because now George Han doesn’t have that much thought to care about what happened before.

The crisis of the second world is in front of him, and this is what he needs to spend his energy to solve. To George Han, any grudges he had had before were not worth mentioning.

At this time, the figure of a little girl suddenly ran into the Villa, with a ponytail, full of youthful breath.

“Brother, when did you come back.” After Tian Linger ran in front of George Han, he threw directly at George Han’s arms.

For this younger sister, George Han was still quite concerned about Tian Linger. There is a vitality that can infect others. After staying with her for a long time, you will feel a lot younger.

“Just arrived.” George Han said.

“What about my sister. How is she, can you save her?” Tian Linger said with concern.

“I just took the medicine and I’m resting, so I can’t disturb her.” George Han said.

Tian Linger nodded like garlic and said, “Brother, don’t worry. I’m behaved now.”

George Han smiled indifferently, Tian Linger's innocent side always made him forget a lot of troubles. Of course, as the daughter of the heavenly family, Tian Linger is more than naive.

"How is your grandpa?" George Han asked.

"The body is great, but since you left, Grandpa hasn't been fun." Tian Linger said with a narrowed mouth.

George Han smiled helplessly and said, "He is your grandfather. He is not for you to play."

"By the way, brother, I have to tell you one thing." Tian Linger finished the sentence. Secretly glanced at Wilson Su.

George Han understood the meaning and said, "Let's go, take you out for a stroll."

"Yeah." Tian Linger took George Han's hand, and had to say that if this scene was bumped into by someone who didn't know, it wouldn't be surprising to treat the two as lovers.

After walking out of the Villa, George Han said, "Is there anything I can't stand in front of Wilson Su?"

"Brother, do you know the rumors of Basin City?" Tian Linger asked.

"I just came back, how can I know the rumors, what's the matter?" George Han asked in confusion.

"Someone deliberately spread the news that my sister put a green hat on you, that's why you contracted a strange disease. It has been spread in Basin City two days ago, and almost everyone is discussing this matter." Tian Linger said.

A trace of murderous aura suddenly appeared in George Han's eyes, this kind of rumor that Amelia Su was seriously injured. There are people who dare to talk nonsense, and they are still on the territory of Basin City. This is because they want to die early.

“Look at you. It has been found out who did it?” George Han asked in a deep voice.

“Harry Su and Su Yihan, the news was deliberately disseminated by these two people.” Tian Linger gritted her teeth and said, thinking of these two people she became furious. Ruining Amelia Su's innocence, even if the two of them died, they would not be able to offset their fault.

George Han smiled coldly. He thought that after letting these two guys off last time, they should be very clear about the current situation. With the abilities of these two people, how could they fight him?

But what surprised George Han was. Even so, they still have not learned well, and it seems that they will not be taught a bitter lesson. The two will never see the truth.

“I will handle this matter.” George Han said.

Tian Linger stuck out her tongue. She didn't expect George Han to come back so soon, and her anger couldn't wait for George Han to come back. So she had asked Mo Yang to solve this matter.

“Brother, I have let Mo Yang evaporate their world.” Tian Linger said cautiously.

Evaporation?

George Han frowned slightly, no wonder Tian Linger had just glanced at Wilson Su deliberately. It turned out that she was deliberately avoiding Wilson Su. After all, Harry Su and Su Yihan were both descendants of the Su family.

At this point, George Han couldn't blame Tian Linger, after all, Harry Su and Su Yihan took the blame.

“It doesn't matter, since it has been done, so be it.” George Han said.

Seeing that George Han was not angry because of his decision, Tian Linger heaved a sigh of relief.

But the next sentence made Tian Linger afraid again.

“Unexpectedly, you seem to be harmless to humans and animals, but the methods are quite ruthless.” George Han said.

Tian Linger pouted unconvinced and said, “Brother, do you know that when I first heard about this, I almost exploded in situ, dare to slander my sister, how could I swallow this breath? “

“I didn't mean to blame you, but praise you.” George Han smiled.

“En?” Tian Linger was confused, she didn't feel praise from George Han's words.

George Han patted Tian Linger on the shoulder, and said, “There is only you in the heavenly family. Although you are a daughter, the inheritance of the heavenly family is only you. The stronger you behave, the more capable you are. Heaven, isn't it praise?”

“Brother, our family still has many relatives.” Tian Linger said.

“The Heavenly Family is the world your grandfather beats down. How can other relatives compare with you? I think the situation Thomas Tian most hopes to see is that you still want you to take over the Heavenly Family.” George Han explained.

Chapter 839

After hearing these words, Tian Linger fell into deep thought, because she never thought that she would undertake the great cause of the family inheritance. In her opinion, the cause of Tianjia might fall into the hands of her cousins in the future.

“Brother, does my grandfather really think so?” Tian Linger asked.

“His lifelong effort, if it is handed over to outsiders, do you think he will be willing?” George Han smiled.

Tian Linger felt that the words were reasonable, nodded, and said, “Brother, if grandpa really thinks so, I won’t let grandpa down.”

“Since you have such an idea. I will take you to meet someone.” George Han said.

“Brother, I also want to introduce someone to you, right at the gate of the Villa area.” Tian Linger said.

“Little girl, it seems that you are not only concerned about your sister’s arrival, but also for other purposes.” George Han smiled.

Tian Linger didn’t have to think about it in front of George Han, and she didn’t have any thoughts on this aspect, she said directly: “It’s of course the most important thing to care about my sister. As for this person. It doesn’t matter if you see it or not, it’s a big deal, I let him go. “

“Since it’s here, just see you and wait for me.”

George Han returned to the Villa and once again warned everyone that no matter what happened in the room or any movement, don't disturb Amelia Su.

Entrance of Yundingshan Villa District.

Chen Yi looked trembling. Tian Linger brought him here to show him George Han. This made Chen Yi unable to control his inner tension. After all, George Han is the first person in Basin City, and Chen Yi will inevitably be a little guilty when meeting such a big person.

The Chen family in Basin City is almost unknown to those first-line families. Moreover, Chen Yi himself knew this. For the real big man in Basin City, the Chen family was nothing, and no one even took the Chen family seriously.

But now, he was able to see a big figure like George Han. In the past, this was something that he couldn't even imagine.

Watching George Han and Tian Linger coming from a distance, Chen Yi suddenly felt a little at a loss and kept rubbing his hands to relieve his tension.

"Brother, he is Chen Yi. If it were not for him, the truth of my sister's rumors might not be clear now." Tian Linger introduced to George Han.

Chen Yi swallowed, and his throat was really dry and fiery.

"Han, Brother Han." Chen Yi shouted, lowering his head, not even daring to look at George Han.

On the way here, Tian Linger had already told George Han the process of solving the whole case. George Han already knew the things Chen Yi did to Su Yihan. This method was quite good. It not only made Su Yihan tell the truth, but also made Su Yihan feel the real despair.

But this is also Su Yihan's own humiliation. If she hadn't always wanted to marry a rich family, how could she fall into Chen Yi's gentle trap.

"Don't be so nervous, I am not a cannibal tiger." George Han said to Chen Yi.

tiger?

Even if it was a tiger's ass, Chen Yi dared to touch it, but in Chen Yi's mind, George Han was much more powerful than a tiger, and he was called a scourge. After all, a big man of his level can make Basin City upside down with a single word.

"Brother Han, I've never seen a big person like you, and I'm a little gagged. I'm sorry." Chen Yi said.

Chen Yi's directly caused George Han to laugh or cry. This guy seemed to be really nervous and at a loss, he didn't even know how to say it.

Tian Linger glared at Chen Yi. This guy is very comfortable in dealing with various occasions. Why did he meet George Han, but he couldn't even speak.

"Chen Yi, let's see how you are so promising and how you will do great things in the future." Tian Linger said with disdain.

Chen Yi heard this sentence. I buried my head deeper.

Upon seeing this, George Han said, "In this case, let's see you another day."

Another day?

Chen Yi knew that it was as difficult as ever to see George Han. If I missed this opportunity, I'm afraid I won't have another chance in my life.

Taking up the courage to raise his head, Chen Yi said: “Brother Han, I’m fine, give me another chance.”

“In this case, let’s go, follow me to the weak water property.” George Han said.

Chen Yi hurried to his car and opened the door for George Han.

After a few people got in the car. Then headed towards the weak water property.

The current weak water properties are under full supervision by Tang Long.

Since taking the position of Zhong Liang, Tang Long has transformed from a character ostracized by all companies to a hot character. Being pleased by countless people, countless people sharpened their heads and wanted to invite Tang Long to dinner.

However, Tang Long did not inflate because of this. He knew very well who gave his position today, and he also knew his instability in this position. Once he did something wrong, he only needed one sentence from George Han. He will lose his position.

Therefore, before doing anything, Tang Long would consider the consequences, and would never dare to mess around.

Once Tang Long hated George Han because of George Han and Amelia Su’s marriage, and even had trouble with George Han several times. But now, Tang Long recognized the gap between himself and George Han. After all, I am more grateful to George Han, because if it weren’t for George Han. How could he have today’s scenery.

Working with documents in the office, the door was suddenly opened.

A pretty secretary came in and said to Tang Long, “Mr Tang, someone wants to see you.”

“There are many people who want to see me. Let him go, no time.” Tang Long said without raising his head.

“Tang Long, the shelf is not small.”

A familiar voice came from the office door, and Tang Long suddenly tightened his muscles.

When he raised his head and saw George Han coming. His mind was blank, and he stood up subconsciously.

“Mr. Han, I didn’t know it was you who came, I’m sorry.” Tang Long said quickly.

George Han smiled. Said: “Isn’t it okay to come and see Mr. Tang’s power?”

Tang Long was panicked. He didn’t have any prestige, but there were too many people who wanted to please him. Tang Long wanted to avoid going astray, so he would not meet those people. If he knew that the person was George Han, how dare Tang Long? There is such an attitude. I was already waiting at the door.

“Mr. Han, I thought...”

Before Tang Long finished speaking, George Han waved his hand and interrupted: “I know what you want to say. I don’t really care about this, so I don’t need to explain it.”

Tang Long breathed a sigh of relief and said to the secretary: “You go out first and close the door.”

Since George Han is here. There must be things to order him, and these things cannot be disclosed casually.

Chapter 840

At this time, Chen Yi's mentality was very subtle. He thought he was a little embarrassed by his nervousness, but now it seems that his performance in front of George Han just now is nothing.

Tang Long is now a well-known big figure in Basin City, and countless first-line families want to make friends, but his performance in front of George Han is not calmer than himself, and he is also too nervous to even speak clearly.

If you think about it this way, your performance is nothing.

At this moment, Chen Yi couldn't help but envy George Han in his heart. To achieve this status, casual appearances would make people like Tang Long nervous and overwhelmed, and he didn't know when he could reach such a height.

"Mr. Han. Do you have anything to order?" Tang Long asked George Han on his own initiative.

George Han didn't have anything special to explain, but just came to Weak Water Real Estate to take a look. After all, this belongs to his property. Although he doesn't care about these things now, he doesn't want to look at them if they are handed over to Tang Long. Arrive at Tang Long.

More importantly, the weak water real estate was developed by Amelia Su, other industries. Even Hillwood City's Fengqian Company George Han can ignore it, but the weak water property is not.

"Tang Long, you can be considered to be in a good mood now, have you done nothing extraordinary?" George Han asked.

Tang Long has a clear conscience in this matter. He has struggled for a long time, because now he is fully qualified to use his power and position to make money. Just giving gifts to those who want to please him is not a small sum. Of wealth.

But Tang Long didn't dare to ask for one, because he knew better than anyone how the status he had now came from and how easy it would be to lose.

“Mr. Han, I have never done anything sorry for you, nor have I abused my power to collect money for myself. I can guarantee this with my life.” Tang Long said.

George Han nodded. Based on his knowledge of Tang Long, this guy used to do everything for money. However, Tang Long is very smart. He knows what money he can and cannot take, and for him now, money is something that he can grab at his fingertips. As long as he can stabilize his current position, he will naturally get rich in the future.

“His name is Chen Yi, let's get to know him.” George Han said.

“Hello, my name is Tang Long.” Tang Long took the initiative to walk in front of Chen Yi. Since George Han introduced him himself, he naturally did not dare to neglect.

Chen Yi was flattered. With the strength of the Chen family, he was not qualified to meet Tang Long, but now Tang Long took the initiative to greet him.

“Hello, Mr. Tang.” Chen Yi took the initiative to bend over and made a respectful gesture.

“For the development of Basin City, you will work together in the future. But there is one thing I want to remind you, what I can give you, I can naturally get it back. Before doing anything, carefully consider my words.” George Han said.

“Mr. Han, please rest assured, I will take this sentence as the motto of life and always keep it in mind.” Tang Long said.

“In some time, there will be someone who will come back. His position in my mind is much higher than you, but I will not deprive you of your position. He comes to Basin City without real power, but as long as it is his decision, you have to implement it according to his decision.” George Han continued.

To say that George Han has been the most loyal person around all these years. In addition to the people around Mo Yang, there is another indispensable figure, that is, Tang Zong. Whether in Bin County or in the United States, Tang Zong’s loyalty to George Han has never changed.

“Mr. Han, I took it down.” Tang Long nodded and said, although he had no real power. But Tang Long knew very well that the identity of this person was actually higher than him, but this was not something Tang Long dared to care about.

“His name is Tang Zong. With the same surname as you, he can be regarded as his own family. From now on, Basin City will be his retirement place.” George Han said.

Upon hearing this, Tang Long was able to perceive that Tang Zong and George Han’s relationship was unusual. Otherwise, how could George Han find him a place for retirement.

Tang Long remembered this sentence in his heart. When Tang Zong came to Basin City, he would definitely be his guest.

After explaining these things, George Han and Tian Linger left the weak water property.

Tian Linger looked at George Han dumbly before leaving the door of the company.

George Han was uncomfortable with this look and said, “What are you doing looking at me like this.”

“Brother, you’re really amazing. A casual sentence changed Chen Yi’s life. The Chen family used to be in Basin City and it was just a humble family, but after today, the Chen family is a first-line family in Basin City.” Tian Linger said with a smile.

“Miss Tianjia said this to me, isn’t it right? Isn’t it just a sentence for you?” George Han smiled.

Tian Linger pouted and said, “How can the Heavenly Family compare to you? Ever since you became more powerful, even Grandpa said that the Heavenly Family can’t compare to you.”

“It’s been a long time since I saw my apprentice. Let’s go and visit your house.” George Han said.

Tian Linger cheered. The thing she looked forward to most before was that George Han went to Tian’s house, although Tian Linger had no idea about George Han now. But she was still very happy that George Han could go to her home.

George Han showed up in Basin City, and the news of his return soon spread to the big clans in Basin City, and those clans gave orders to their children in the first place. During this period, you must not cause trouble. If you don’t have long eyes and touch George Han’s head, it will be the result of a disaster. After all, there have been lessons in this area before. No one dares to underestimate this kind of thing.

Tianjia Villa area.

Now Tianjia’s status is not as good as before, and there are fewer visitors to the door, but this makes Thomas Tian a lot of leisure. Without entertainment, Thomas Tian can enjoy life more comfortably.

“Dad, Linger seems to have brought George Han to our house.” Tian Honghui arrived at Thomas Tian’s study as soon as he received the news.

Thomas Tian was taken aback, and without a word, he walked to the door of the Villa and greeted George Han.

Within a few minutes, Tian Linger appeared holding George Han’s hand.

When Thomas Tian smiled, his old face was full of wrinkles.

“Three thousand. When did you come back?” Thomas Tian greeted enthusiastically.

George Han sighed and said to Tian Linger next to him: “Linger, in this world, people’s hearts are not ancient. You can’t even respect the teacher and respect the Tao.”

Tian Linger nodded with approval and said, “Brother, do you want me to punish him, I think the effect of pulling a beard is the best.”

Thomas Tian subconsciously protected his beard. This little girl turned her elbow so badly that even his grandfather was pitted.
