

The Mans Decree Chapter 2246 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2246

A Man Like None Other Novel

After the group got a night's rest in the forest, Godrick managed to recover most of his strength. Hence, Kai planned to continue his escape with Flaxseed and Godrick at the first break of dawn.

Just as they were about to leave, the arcane arrays set up by Flaxseed were suddenly triggered. The continuous firing of infernos was quickly followed by screams of men.

"Kai, someone's here. We have to move," Flaxseed suggested frantically, to which Kai nodded in acknowledgment. Just as they were about to leave with Godrick, they heard someone swearing. "Who the f*ck has set up arcane arrays in the middle of the forest?"

The voice caused Kai to stop in his tracks and sped toward the direction of the arcane array. Flaxseed and Godrick, too, followed behind him.

By the time Kai arrived, he saw Archer and Skyler burnt by Flaxseed's arcane array. Despite their strength, both of them were not experienced in dealing with arcane arrays.

Without a moment's hesitation, Kai dispelled the arrays with a wave of his hand. At the same time, Archer and Skyler hurried up to Kai once they spotted him. "Why are both of you here?" Kai asked in surprise.

"Mr. Chance, Master has tasked us with leading you away by the sea. Now that the entire surroundings are saturated with your pursuers, it would be impossible for you to escape," Skyler explained.

"By sea?" Kai was stunned..

"Yes. Once we go over this mountain, we'll be able to see a vast ocean from where you can leave," Skyler elaborated. "Why have I not heard any of you mention this before?"

Kai was surprised to learn for the very first time that one could leave the hidden realm by sea. "Very few use that route because demon beasts roam the seas. Anyway, there's no time to talk now. I'll tell you more once we leave," Archer reminded.

Upon nodding in agreement, Kai and his Gompanions left together with Archer. As Archer and Skyler grew up in the area, they were extremely familiar with the lay of the land. Thus, the group arrived at the seaside before they knew it.

Staring out at the sea, Archer casually waved his hand. Countless trees were suddenly broken and fell into the ocean. As the group leaped into the sky, they easily landed on top of the floating logs. Warriors of their skill could travel across the sea without the need for boats.

"Let's pray this goes smoothly." Archer looked ahead with a concerned expression. "Mr. Loulland, considering your skills, there's no need for you to fear demon beasts. In the event you encounter them, you can just kill them and obtain their beast core," Kai commented.

"You know, the demon beasts aren't that scary. What I'm afraid of is that old monster. I hope we won't run into him, or we'll be in big trouble!" Archer lamented. "Old monster?" Kai was stunned to hear Archer mention such a thing.

"That's right. Legend has it that an old monster lives on one of the islands here. All the demon beasts in the seas are supposedly raised by him. No one knows when that old monster started to inhabit the island. Whoever passes it would never return. There have also been rumors of them being eaten by him," Archer explained fearfully.

Finding it hard to believe, Flaxseed sneered, "A man-eating monster? I'm sure it's just a legend. It's impossible for someone like this to exist. There's no way he can tame demon beasts in the ocean as if it's his backyard!"

"It's up to you whether you want to believe it or not. I just hope we don't run into him."

Without another word, Archer stared ahead with a grim look on his face. He had no idea where the island was, as he had never been there before. As a result, all he could do was pray that they didn't pass through the island and weren't noticed by the old monster.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2247 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2247

A Man Like None Other Novel

Kai and the others sailed across the endless sea rapidly. There were not any small islands in sight, and everything was calm and serene. Finally, Archer could heave a sigh of relief.

Suddenly, the tranquil sea became stormy. Rogue waves repeatedly hit Kai's vessel, which was made out of a tree trunk, forcing them to change direction. "Why are there waves when there's no wind at all? Skyler asked curiously.

Kai, on the other hand, announced solemnly, "Be careful for the demon beasts are here."

Instantly, his words made everyone nervous. At the same time, they also saw a dozen huge figures squirming in the sea. Those waves were apparently created by the demon beasts!

The beasts constantly leaped above the seal and then slammed hard on its surface, stirring up huge waves that put Kai and the rest into a chaotic predicament. "Demon beasts that have reached the cultivation level are too terrifying..." Flaxseed stared at them, dumbfounded.

He had never seen such powerful demon beasts before. Moreover, there were more than a dozen of them! Suddenly, Godrick lost his balance and fell into the water while being pursued by a group of demon beasts.

Even though he was a Martial Arts Saint, he was no match for the demon beasts who were Martial Arts God, especially when they were all battling in the sea!

As soon as Kai saw Godrick falling, the former tiptoed and swiftly made a leap into the sky. Like an eagle spreading its wings, Kai got hold of Godrick and immediately pulled him up. "You leave first, Mr. Flaxseed. I want to kill these beasts," said Kai.

"Be careful, Kai! There are lots of demon beasts here, and we're on the sea now," reminded Flaxseed. "Don't worry. Since the demon beasts have invited themselves here, I'll take this opportunity and obtain their beast cores."

Those words had barely left Kai's mouth when he plunged into the sea. Meanwhile, Flaxseed, Archer, and the others quickly moved forward. After entering the sea, Kai purposely released his aura to attract the demon beasts' attention and made them go after him.

Soon, one by one, the demon beasts with a piercing cold aura started besieging Kai from all directions. Clearly, the beasts worked in a pack. Each of them assumed its own position, leaving no gap for Kai to escape.

Roar! Just then, a demon beast about the size of a killer whale widened its bloody maw, ready to devour Kai.

Upon seeing so, Kai's body exuded beams of golden light. The draconic essence in him subsequently unleashed the Power of Dragons and formed a series of bubbles around him, enabling him to move about freely.

Kai then landed a ferocious punch on the demon beast who was about to attack him with an opened mouth. Kai's terrifying spiritual energy burst forth, stirring up waves that were several meters high! Unfortunately, his powerful blow failed to kill the beast. It merely delayed its attack.

Surprise gripped Kai. A punch from me is sufficient to beat the demon beast to a pulp, but how come I couldn't kill it? As the demon beast approached him, Kai threw punches at it again, but to no avail. Besides, he also felt strenuous with each punch unleashed.

It did not take Kai long to have it all figured out. Fighting his enemy in the water consumed a great deal of his energy. Therefore, the power of his punches was weakened when it was offset by the seawater, leaving very minimal impact on the demon beasts.

The only exception to that would be to fight against a demon beast lower than his martial arts level. However, the one he was battling with was a Martial Arts God. It was almost impossible for Kai to defeat it with just one punch.

Since he was unable to end the fight as quickly as he could, Kai plunged into the depths of the sea at lightning speed while they continued to chase after him.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2248 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2248

A Man Like None Other Novel

Soon, another demon beast gnashed its teeth and caught up with Kai swiftly. Desperate times called for desperate measures. Kai put his fingers together, and a blinding golden light flashed past his fingertips.

He then pointed his fingers at the demon beast, and a golden beam shot out simultaneously. Instead of being dissipated in the water, it pierced through the demon beast in the blink of an eye.

At that moment, a realization dawned on Kai. Only by gathering the spiritual energy in one place can I better work against the resistance felt in the sea.

Once Kai had that wrapped around his head, he continued releasing a couple more golden beams and perforated the demon beast's body, creating multiple bloody holes in it. Soon, with a howl, the demon beast began to fall.

Kai hurried over and landed another punch on its body. He then obtained its beast core and placed it in the Storage Ring right away.

After defeating his opponent, Kai became more confident. On the heels of that, he slowly raised his hand, gathered the martial energy at his fingertips, and launched a series of attacks at the other demon beasts charging toward him.

Kai directed his fingers at each one of them as he released his martial energy to all the beasts.

Pop! Pop! Pop! Not one part of that particular demon beast's body was spared by the intimidating martial energy. Blood gushed out of its body, dyeing the sea crimson red.

Roar! When the other demon beasts saw that one of their own kind was killed, they growled, opened their bloody maws, and lunged at Kai fearlessly. Despite facing a group of vicious demon beasts, Kai was not afraid but was instead excited about it.

To him, those beasts were exceptional resources for cultivation! Right when Kai was about to strike again, he heard a deep rumbling sound in the water, similar to those produced by a drum. Ripples were also formed on the surface of the sea.

When those beasts that were initially attacking Kai heard the sound, they turned around quickly and swam in one direction, leaving Kai behind. The latter was completely baffled. Could it be that these demon beasts are controlled by someone?

Kai went after the pack of demon beasts upon obtaining the beast core from the one he had just defeated. He had no idea how long he had been swimming. Suddenly, a small island appeared before his eyes; on it was a lush forest of green trees filled with cheery sounds of chirping birds and the sweet scents of beautiful flowers. Meanwhile, the demon beasts arrived at the island too and started circling it.

Kai ignored them. He wanted to explore the place and check if it was the fishing island mentioned by Archer. He wanted to see for himself if any monsters inhabited there. Just when he was about to go ashore, he felt his body lighten and then raised up mid-air. Shortly after, his body fell onto the island!

At that moment, the panic-stricken Kai thought that someone was controlling his body because he did not utilize any spiritual energy to move about. In fact, he was not able to control his movements at all. Next, he was miraculously lifted from the sea!

Thud! Without any warning, Kai crashed heavily onto the ground, causing a crater to form. As he gradually propped himself up, he realized that Flaxseed and the others were there on the same island too.

"Mr. Flaxseed, why are you here?" Kai asked in confusion. However, Flaxseed said nothing. He just kept winking at Kai to give him a signal. The latter looked in the direction that Flaxseed had indicated, only to notice an elderly man with a full head of white hair sitting on a big rock, fishing.

"I just wanted to catch some fish, but I caught a person instead," remarked the old man in a slow manner with his back facing Kai and his gang. It was then that Kai realized he was actually caught by the old man. There's no wonder my body was beyond my control.

"Sir, may I know where this place is? We're just passing by, and we didn't mean to intrude your peace." Kai took a few steps forward and explained himself to the elderly man.

Kai could not feel the slightest aura fluctuation originating from the old man. If he's just an ordinary folk, how could he fish me out of the sea?

The Mans Decree Chapter 2249 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2249

A Man Like None Other Novel

Hence, Kai was certain that the old man must be an expert, not to mention the kind whose aura even he couldn't detect.

"You're just passing by, yet you killed two of my demon beasts. You should know that I raised these beasts as food. Since you killed my demon beasts, I'll have to eat you instead. You can start a fire and decide who among you should be roasted first," the old man uttered without looking back.

Listening to that old man saying he wanted to eat them, Kai furrowed his brows. Meanwhile, colors drained from Archer's face. He knew they must've encountered the legendary old freak.

"Sir, I didn't mean to kill your demon beasts. I can compensate you. I'll give you however much money or items you want. The few of us are friends, and we won't leave anyone behind." Kai wasn't going to allow anyone from his party to be sacrificed and eaten by the old man.

"Since you're so loyal to one another, no one should leave, then. Five people should be enough to feed me for a few days," the old man replied slowly. Sensing the old man's stubbornness, Kai frowned, and murderous intent flashed across his eyes.

"Sir, I can reimburse you for killing your demon beasts. However, if you insist on keeping us, don't blame me for being ruthless!" Kai's tone grew cold. "Hahaha! Although I'm of advanced age, I do enjoy a life full of challenges. You all don't need to go easy on me!"

The old man still sat with his back facing Kai and the others as he laughed heartily. "In that case, don't blame me for what happens next!"

Kai unleashed his aura to its limit because he knew he had to defeat that kind of person with one strike. Otherwise, he would lose the opportunity to win.

"Sacred Light Fist!" Kai swung his fist with all his might at the old man's back. Terrifying spiritual energy spread outward. Ear-splitting noise reverberated as the punch tore through the sky, causing even the formation of huge tidal waves on the sea surface.

However, the old man didn't budge an inch even as Kai brought his fist down at him. The trees in the surroundings were broken in half, and Kai felt a tremendous countershock which sent him staggering backward and almost fell to the ground.

At that moment, he gazed at the old man in utter astonishment and disbelief. He knew his own strength better than anyone, but he didn't expect his punch to be entirely ineffective to that old man. Not to mention, he was even sent stumbling backward by the recoil.

At that moment, even Flaxseed and the others gaped in stupefaction and were rendered speechless. If even Kai can't harm that old man, we most likely can't survive today.

"You're the first person who dared to attack me in so many years. Since you killed my demon beasts, I shall let my beasts devour you as compensation!" said the old man as he flicked his fishing rod lightly.

A few demon beasts emerged from the sea and landed on the island as if they were being pulled out from the depths of the ocean by the old man's fishing rod. There were a total of five demon beasts, including sea turtles, octopuses, and one strange-looking fish with four legs.

All those demon beasts possessed the strength of a Martial Arts God, each one incredibly ugly and revolting to look at. The old man recast his fishing rod into the sea and sat quietly, never bothering to turn his head around the whole time.

Roar! The four legged peculiar fish bellowed and charged at Kai and his gang. The other demon beasts attacked as well, leaving Kai and the others with no choice but to fight. As Flaxseed and Godrick were weaker, they had to face one demon beast together.

Meanwhile, Kai dealt with two demon beasts on his own. He brandished Dragonslayer Sword. The sword's radiance lit up the sky, spreading formidable martial energy in all directions.

Soon, Kai and the others were engaged in a fierce battle with the demon beasts, while the old man remained rooted to his spot not far away, seemingly not hearing or seeing the fight as he stared serenely at the sea surface.

The Mans Decree Chapter 2250 -

A Man Like None Other Chapter 2250

A Man Like None Other Novel

Kai let out a bellow. Instantly, Dragonslayer Sword in his hand erupted with dazzling light, and the Power of Dragons circulated continuously on the blade.

"Slash!" He swung the sword forcefully at one of the turtles' backs. The hard turtle shell emitted a flash of light. Then, Kai noticed Dragonslayer Sword merely left a faint white mark on the surface of the shell.

Roar! When Kai slashed Dragonslayer Sword at the turtle's back, another demon beast lunged at Kai, attempting to bite him with its spine- chilling fangs. Kai's body shone with golden light as he activated Golem Body. Instantaneously, sparkling golden scales covered his entire figure.

At that moment, Kai resembled a golden dragon. When the demon beast took in his outward form, it was dazed and didn't dare to approach him. Seizing that period when the demon beast was stunned, he merged with Dragonslayer Sword and slashed at it..

Limitless Power of Dragons engulfed Kai, turning him into a razor-sharp blade as he slammed into that demon beast. The incredibly sharp martial energy instantly pierced that demon beast, leaving a hole the size of a human on its body. Consequently, the demon beast dropped to the ground with a loud thud before it could even shriek.

With that, Kai killed a Martial Arts God-level demon beast with one hit. The sea turtle lugged its heavy body along and opened its mouth, spewing blazing fire at Kai. He leaped up, avoided the flame attack, and landed on the turtle's back. Then, he clenched his right fist, and a golden dragon entwined his arm.

"Sacred Light Fist!" Kai punched that turtle's back ferociously. The sea turtle yelped in agony after getting hit by Kai's fist. It thrashed in desperation, wanting to throw Kai off its back.

However, Kai stood steadily on its back as if he had anchored himself on the turtle's shell. Immediately afterward, he brought down his fist again. After thrusting three consecutive punches, the hard turtle shell finally cracked open. The turtle let out a mournful cry and died as its internal organs ruptured.

Kai hastily rushed toward the next demon beast without even sparing time to retrieve the beast cores. Eyes bloodshot, Kai fought like a bloodthirsty devil. In the end, all five demon beasts were slain by Kai..

He stared at the old man's back impassively while uttering to Flaxseed and the others, "Mr. Flaxseed, go and retrieve the beast cores. These are gifts given to us, so don't let them go to waste."

Flaxseed and the rest of the party began to extract beast cores from the dead demon beasts. Finally, the old man put down the fishing rod in his hand, slowly got to his feet, and turned around to gaze at Kai.

Only then could Kai clearly see his appearance. Although the old man had white hair, his face had no wrinkles. His skin was in optimal condition, and he looked no different from a middle-aged man in his forties.

"You're equipped with such remarkable skills at such a young age. No wonder you exude that air of arrogance. Unfortunately for you, I'm the only ruler across this stretch of sea. Anyone who set foot here must yield."

With that, the old man gently waved his palm. Abruptly, a massive force buffeted Kai and the others as if a hurricane had broken out. Kai took a deep breath, exerting his aura to its limit, wanting to resist the incoming attack.

Regrettably, in the face of such overwhelming power, Kai was instantaneously sent flying backward like a piece of leaf. Flaxseed and the others, as well as the carcasses of the demon beasts, were also blown away by the force.

Kai's body crashed heavily into a massive rock. The boulder disintegrated, and Kai's Golem Body also shattered. He got up slowly, feeling a sharp pain in his chest. His internal organs churned, and he spat out a mouthful of black blood.

Kai looked at the old man, who was standing far away, in surprise. Before he could do anything else, the old man, who was initially a hundred meters away, suddenly appeared before him.