

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2158

Married at First Sight Chapter 2158-Zachary said anxiously: "Mrs. Grandma Johnson, please ask Fourth Young Mistress to help my Serenity feel the pulse. I'm dying of anxiety."

They were still in the mood to chat and laugh, but they didn't know how anxious Zachary was.

Jane smiled and said to Lilian: "Lilian, help Serenity feel her pulse quickly to see if she is pregnant. She vomited very badly just now. I think she has morning sickness."

Serenity blushed.

It was because of her man's anxious look that made her blush in embarrassment.

The people in the children's room at the moment were all distinguished young wives.

When Lilian took Serenity's pulse, everyone fell silent.

Zachary was very nervous.

Serenity had a smile on her face, but she was also very nervous inside.

If she was happy for nothing, she would be very sad.

After a while, Lilian smiled and said to the young couple: "You're pregnant. If you are afraid that I may not be able to get the pulse right, you can go to the hospital for a checkup."

Hearing this, Serenity smiled and nodded repeatedly, and said, "Thank you Dr. Carden, I will go to the hospital for a check-up after I get back."

Zachary also nodded side by side, and said trustingly: "I trust Dr. Carden 100%, Serenity must be pregnant, haha, I'm going to be a father!"

Zachary laughed a few times, and the next moment, he hugged Serenity into his arms and hugged her tightly, "Serenity, we are going to be parents!"

Serenity was finally pregnant.

In the past year, she had endured too much pressure, and she felt extremely stressed.

No matter how Zack comforted her, Serenity still felt a lot of pressure in her heart.

Zack could help her with other things. In terms of pregnancy, he couldn't help her get pregnant.

Well, Serenity was pregnant and Zachary was ecstatic.

Serenity was held in his arms, smiling but her eyes were red.

In front of people, she acted like she didn't care, but she was really under a lot of pressure.

She even thought wildly, if she couldn't get pregnant all the time, would her marriage with Zachary be able to go on?

When Zachary comforted her, he said that if they never had children, then dink.

Anyway, it's fine if the husband and wife didn't have children.

He said to himself, Seren is more important than the child; if there is Seren, it's fine, child, whatever happens.

However, Serenity didn't think that way.

She loved him. She wanted to have their love crystallization.

Regardless of their children, they all wanted to have a child that belongs to them. With children, she felt that their marriage and their life were perfect.

She sometimes wondered, Was it because she was so lucky, blessed by nature, got Zachary's affection, flew on a branch, and turned into a phoenix, so it was very difficult for the child?

Thinking too much, Serenity almost collapsed, which is supported by the words of the master invited back by grandma.

In fact, Serenity didn't believe in fortune-telling, or gods and ghosts.

But when people feel lost, they can't help but believe in fortune-telling, believe in ghosts and gods, and hope that it will be as the fortune-telling said.

The master said that she and Zachary were compatible, and the marriage belonged to the top match, and they could be loving as husband and wife, grow old together, and have both children.

Now, Serenity was finally pregnant.

The boulder hanging high fell, and her tense nerves were finally relieved.

It's just that the tears couldn't stop.

Sensing that Serenity was crying, Zachary quickly let go of her and gently wiped her tears away while asking nervously, "Serenity, is it uncomfortable? Did I use too much force just now? It hurts you?"

Serenity shook her head, plunged into his arms again, choked with sobs: "I'm so happy, I was so excited that I shed tears."

Recommended Novels