

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2160

Married at First Sight Chapter 2160-Avah was really likable.

After Jane hugged Enzo, Serenity hugged Fabian.

Lilian and Tim also came in together, Lilian hugged her son from Serenity's arms, turned around and gave it to Tim, saying: "Hurry up and coax your little ancestor, he cries loudly and loves to cry, when he cries, The roof can shake a few times."

Fabian: ...I have the ability to roar a lion in the east of the river?

Tim hugged his son and coaxed him up.

The little one was hungry.

The dad couldn't coax him, and finally returned to his mother's arms.

The news of Serenity's pregnancy did not spread, only the Johnson family knew about it.

Zachary was impatient and also worried that there would be too many people at the banquet and he would run into Serenity.

He decided to take Serenity back to Wiltspoon immediately.

Serenity didn't want to go back to Wiltspoon too soon, but couldn't help but agree to her husband.

Zachary said apologetically to Ben and his wife: "Ben, Serenity is just pregnant and needs to rest. I want to take her back to Wiltspoon first, and make an appointment when I am free. You are also welcome to visit Wiltspoon. "

Ben understood and said: "Okay."

Serenity reluctantly said: "Jane, take the baby to Wiltspoon when you are free."

Jane: "Sure, you and Young Master York's wedding will be coming soon, and my husband and I will definitely go over to have a wedding wine."

Zachary and Serenity were going to get married soon. It was thought that the wedding would happen sooner now that Serenity was pregnant.

Wedding dresses were made to order in advance.

When the wedding dress was ordered, Serenity was not pregnant yet, so the size must have been smaller.

“Okay, see you then.”

Before Serenity left, she still couldn't help hugging Avah, and said to Jane: “I hope I can have a daughter as lovely as Avah.”

Jane smiled and said, “I wish you all your wishes come true.”

After kissing Avah's little face, Serenity reluctantly followed her husband and left FC Manor.

The couple left FC Manor in a hurry, who knew that not long after they left, Callum came again.

Callum came mainly for Dr. Carden, seeking medical treatment for his fiancée.

hours later.

Wildridge Manor.

In the luxurious lobby of the main house in the center, Tania was sitting on the sofa, flipping through a photo album. In addition to the one in her hand, there were several photo albums on the coffee table.

The husband next to her was reading the newspaper.

“Husband, look at how cute Zack was when he was a child.”

The albums that Tania flipped through were all old albums.

She had no grandchildren to hug, so she enjoyed looking through photos of her sons when they were young.

Liam just glanced at it twice, then returned to the newspaper, and said with disgust: “Zack was not cute at all when he was young, he always had a small face, and he was serious like a little old man at a young age. He doesn't smile, and looks at me like an idiot.”

He still remembered many things from his oldest son's childhood.

Tania: “...”

That's the nature of the oldest son.

intrinsic.

“Zack didn’t like being with us when he was a child. Whenever he woke up, he would look for his grandpa or grandma. After going to kindergarten, every day when he came home, he would ask where his grandparents were, never where his parents were.”

Liam continued to complain about the oldest son.

Recommended Novels