

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2161

Married at First Sight Chapter 2161-Tania: "...From your point of view, your son has no merit at all."

Zachary was the oldest son and direct grandson, who grew up beside her in-laws.

At that time, Tania was a new mother and didn't know how to take care of the baby. Her parents-in-law were willing to take over the baby-raising, so she was happy and relaxed.

Her husband had just taken over the York Corporation and was very busy.

She also often accompanied her husband to socialize.

The parents-in-law took care of the eldest son personally, and also treated the eldest son as the successor of the York family.

Of course, the oldest son was brought up by his parents-in-law, so he naturally got close to his parents-in-law and listened to his parents-in-law the most.

Later, the father-in-law passed away, and the only person who could take care of the oldest son was the mother-in-law.

Tania, a mother, couldn't control the oldest son.

Fortunately, the parents-in-law were very good elders, whether it was Zachary or other children, they were all well educated.

It could be said that she and her sisters-in-law were all shopkeepers.

Liam: "It's not that there are no advantages, but that there is no cute daughter."

Tania yelled at her husband: "Do you have a daughter? How do you know that your daughter is cute? Your home is a monk's temple. I married you, but I couldn't get a daughter after three births. I dreamed of having a daughter. I bought so many beautiful dress was finally given away."

Liam smiled and said, "Maybe we could have a daughter if we had four children."

Tania: "I'm afraid of giving birth to the Four Great Vajras."

Liam: "..."

Also, their family had not had a daughter for several generations.

“Look forward to your granddaughter.” Tania sighed and closed the album, “I don’t know when I can hold my grandson. I dare not say it in front of Serenity. Now that the couple are not at home, I dare to say it. When Zack reached the marriageable age, I was looking forward to his marriage. When he got married, I was looking forward to holding a granddaughter. Now, whether it is a grandson or a granddaughter, it is enough to have a grandchild. “

Liam: “What are you worried about? Your son and daughter-in-law are in very good health. Sooner or later, your pain of holding grandchildren will be cured. When you are like my mother, holding grandchildren one after another, you will have a headache again.”

People were always insatiable. They wanted a granddaughter if they had a grandson.

When Liam thought about it, he thought there were too many grandchildren and the noise would make his head spin.

But the child was not at home, and the house was too quiet.

Suddenly a maid came in quickly and told the couple: “Sir, madam, the young master and the young mistress are back.”

It is said that the husband and wife looked at each other.

The maid: “The young master got off the car with the young mistress in his arms.”

“Ah? Did something happen to Serenity?”

As soon as Tania heard that her son was holding her daughter-in-law off the car, she became anxious, worried that something might happen to her daughter-in-law.

She put down the photo album, got up and walked out, and said as she walked, “No wonder he came back early, what happened?”

Liam followed suit.

The couple had just walked to the gate of the courtyard, and Zachary had already returned to the gate of the main house in the center with his beloved wife in the car driven by the housekeeper.

“Serenity.”

Tania walked over quickly, opened the car door and leaned in, asking with concern: “Serenity, what’s wrong with you?”

Zachary got off the car.

“Mom, let Serenity get out of the car first. We just came back from the car and Serenity is a little tired. I’ll take her in and lie down for a while.”

Zachary wanted to hug Serenity and get out of the car.

Serenity blushed, and said helplessly: “I don’t need you to hug me anymore, I’m fine, I’m just sleepy, I’ll go by myself.”

“How is this going?” Liam also asked.

Zachary grinned, “Good thing, Dad, you are going to be a grandfather.”

“Serenity is pregnant?”

Both Liam and his wife asked in surprise.

Recommended Novels