

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2162

Married at First Sight Chapter 2162-Zachary nodded, "During FC Manor, Serenity vomited and asked Dr. Carden to take her pulse. Dr. Carden said that Serenity is pregnant, so I hurriedly took Serenity back to rest."

"Really, great, great!"

Tania was so happy that she hugged her husband and said with a smile, "Husband, I'm going to be a grandma."

Liam was also very happy.

The next moment, Tania pushed her husband away, and also pushed Zack who was about to help Serenity get out of the car, while she carefully helped Serenity get out of the car.

Serenity was extremely embarrassed.

"Mom, I'm really fine, not tired, not tired at all."

She was sleepy on the car and just wanted to sleep.

Zachary said that she was tired.

To take her off the car.

Then everyone freaked out and thought something happened to her.

Now mother-in-law's cautiousness was not inferior to Zachary's.

"You are just pregnant, the tire is not stable, and you have been on the car for several hours. You will be tired after coming back from such a far place. Mom will help you in, no, let Zack carry you in." Tania was so happy that she didn't know what to do.

She wanted to help Serenity, but she also thought it would be better for her son to carry his daughter-in-law in.

So, she went to pull back her son who had just been pushed aside by her, and said to her son: "Zachary, hold Serenity in, be careful."

Zachary: "..."

He was pulled and pushed aside by his mother, and he was in a daze, not knowing what he had done wrong.

Before he could react, he was pulled back by his mother.

Shouldn't the happiest person be him who is going to be a father?

He felt that his mother was happier than him.

ten minutes later.

"Serenity, drink some water."

"Serenity, eat fruit."

"Serenity, let's drink some soup."

"Serenity..."

Serenity, who was forced to lie on the sofa, was surrounded by her mother-in-law's seniors, who either told her to drink some water, eat fruit snacks, or make her drink soup.

Everyone just hand-feeds her.

Zachary, the husband, has long been squeezed into a corner by the elders to bite his fingers.

He muttered: "Without me, Serenity would not be able to conceive. Now that Serenity is pregnant, ignore my contribution and push me out. That's my wife."

He just muttered a few words now.

The elders were ecstatic, he could understand.

In fact, he and Serenity were also ecstatic for several hours.

On the way back to Wiltspoon by car, the couple were still worried that it was just a dream. They pinched each other and knew the pain, so they believed it was the truth.

"Oh, I forgot to tell my sister."

Zachary remembered that he hadn't told Liberty or the Stone Family the good news yet.

So, Zachary, who couldn't get close to his wife, started calling to announce the good news.

He told Liberty: "Sister, I have good news for you. Serenity is pregnant. Dr. Carden helped her take the pulse. It is absolutely unmistakable, but Serenity said that she should go to the hospital for an examination. She is always worried that it is just a dream. I'll take her to the hospital for a check-up early tomorrow morning. Dr. Carden is a master student of a miracle doctor. Her medical skills are very good, and she can't get her pulse wrong."

After Zachary finished speaking, he hung up the phone.

He was talking completely on his own, without giving Liberty a chance to reply.

Liberty froze on the phone for a while before digesting the meaning of her brother-in-law's words.

Recommended Novels