Married at First Sight Chapter 2121-It showed that Matriarch Farrell was not an idiot, and she would not do anything that was not good for the Farrell family.

“Hayden is right, Miss Farrell will come whenever she wants, and our whole family welcomes Miss Farrell very much.” Mrs. Queen welcomed Kathryn over because she wanted her daughter to learn how to be a woman from Kathryn.

Although there was little hope, Mrs. Queen had some hope.

Oh, sorry.

A daughter should not have been raised as a son in the first place.

When the child was young, she thought it was fun.

When she went out with two children, they were all dressed up as male dolls, making people think that she gave birth to a pair of twins.

When the child went to kindergarten, the daughter still insisted on dressing up as a boy doll. She thought that the child was still young and would be fine, so she let her do it.

When she got to the back, she realized that her daughter was going to black out on the road of pretending to be a man. It was too late for Mrs. Queen to turn around.

Her daughter always called herself Mr. Queen, and everyone thought she was a man.

After the child grew up, she had her own thoughts and was very independent. As a mother, she could no longer control her and could only let her go.

She thought that if her daughter met a man she liked, her daughter would restore her identity as a woman by herself.

The appearance of Kevin gave her this hope.

Even if the revolution had not yet been successful, Kevin was still required to work diligently.

“Kevin, shall we still go fishing?” Donald asked Kevin.

He said to Kathryn again: “Miss Farrell rarely visits our home for dinner; when she does, Kevin and I go fishing and then grill the fish; Miss Farrell must try Kevin’s grilled fish; it is very tasty.”

Kathryn smiled, looking very embarrassed again, she said: “This, this is not very good.”

“If there’s anything wrong, just stay and eat.”

Hayden also tried to keep Kathryn, and she looked at her brother again.

Hugh was terrified by his sister.

His sister didn’t want to see him well?

“Uncle still wants to go fishing, so I’ll take care of him.” Kevin didn’t care so he said.

Anyway, Hayden couldn’t escape these two days, so she had to stay in the old house honestly for the weekend.

Kathryn said with a smile: “I heard that all the brothers in Mr. York’s family are good at cooking, and Mr. York’s cooking skills are the most exquisite. It is my honor to be able to taste the grilled fish of Mr. York, and it is also a blessing for me.”

Kevin said modestly: “My cooking skills are not bad, as long as the dishes I cook can be liked by the people I like.”

When he said this, he looked at Hayden affectionately, but Hayden didn’t look sideways, and didn’t even look at him.

Donald smiled and said: “Miss Farrell wants to try Kevin’s grilled fish. Kevin, let’s go fishing.”

“Dad, I’ll go too.” Hugh was afraid that his sister would cheat him if he stayed at home, so he hurriedly followed his father to go fishing.

Just relying on the fish caught alone, not many fish can be grilled. When the butler heard that Donald was going fishing again, grilled fish was still disposable tonight, so he ordered the kitchen to prepare more ingredients.

Soon, Donald and his son and Kevin went out.

Only Mrs. Queen and her daughter, and Kathryn were in the room.

Mrs. Queen said to her daughter: “Hayden, Miss Farrell is here for the first time, you can take Miss Farrell out for a walk.”

Kathryn wanted to say something, but Hayden said something before her, “Okay, Mom, Kathryn stays at our house for dinner, and you ask the kitchen to cook more dishes.”

Kathryn: “Mr. Queen, I’m not picky eaters, I can eat whatever I have.”
