

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2132

Married at First Sight Chapter 2132-Shiloh thought that if the man she loved was bent by Kevin and became gay, she would go crazy.

“What do Donald and his wife think? Is it to climb up to the York family? No matter how powerful the York family is, it is far away in Wiltspoon. Even if the York family has business in Jensburg, is it comparable to Queen’s? Donald There is really no need to curry favor with Kevin.

Kevin, who killed a thousand swords, is too annoying. How many women in Jensburg don’t hate him so much? If killing people is not against the law, he would have died countless times.”

Shiloh wished to cut Kevin into pieces.

After a long silence, Matriarch Farrell said: “We outsiders can’t say for sure about this kind of thing. It depends on what Mr. Queen thinks. If he really likes Kevin and is willing to break the mundane and be with Kevin, no one can make him pull back.

Donald and his wife have always herded their children and are very open-minded. No matter what the two sons do, the couple will not interfere too much.”

Shiloh: “Hayden...it’s possible, he’s always been gay.”

Matriarch Farrell said in a low voice: “There are so many women who admire him, which one is not good? He didn’t like any of them. He used to think that his eyes were on the top of his head. Now that he thinks about it, he has a problem with his possibility orientation, so he doesn’t accept women’s pursuits.”

Hearing this, Shiloh asked anxiously: “Mom, what should I do? I love Hayden so much, I can’t accept that he is gay? How can he be gay? It’s all Kevin’s fault, mom, can you find a way to force Kevin to leave Jensburg?”

Matriarch Farrell stretched out her hand and poked Shiloh on the head, “You think Kevin is an ordinary person? Mom has to be courteous when she sees him. On the surface, behind him is the York Corporation, but In fact, behind him is the entire Wiltspoon’s business leaders.”

“His elder brother, Zachery and his friend, Josh, are good friends, and Josh is the chief assistant of the York Corporation, who has won the trust of Zachary. Behind Josh is the entire Bucham family. In the past, there was a Stone Group and York Corporation. Since Serenity became Mrs. Stone’s niece, the relationship between the two groups has eased a lot.

Those who can figure out those relationships, who dares to touch Kevin? Isn't he looking for death? The York family has a good relationship with the Johnson family in Annenburg. Behind the Johnson family is the Houston family, and there is the Lafayette family far away in Meadspring. The natal family of the fourth young lady of the family are all seniors who were famous in Jensburg decades ago."

Shiloh: "..."

She didn't think so much, thinking that there was a York family behind Kevin.

It was impossible for Matriarch Farrell to offend so many people because of Shiloh, a fake daughter.

Let alone Shiloh, even Kathryn, her own daughter, would not do.

Fortunately, Kathryn was a sensible person.

Knowing that Hayden wasn't suitable for her, she immediately turned off the fire, unlike Shiloh who knew she couldn't do anything but still refused to give up, she wasn't as straightforward as Kathryn who could afford to let go.

This was the difference between Farrell family blood and outsiders.

Even if Shiloh has been loved and taught by her as her own daughter for more than twenty years, she has never been like Kathryn.

She was considered a successor.

Before knowing that Shiloh was not her own daughter, Matriarch Farrell actually had a hidden worry deep in her heart. She felt that Shiloh could only be a conservative master and could not carry forward the Farrell family.

She thought it was her retribution for killing her elder sister's family and younger sister decades ago.

It had been decades since the oldest sister's whole family was killed, and her younger sister was also killed. Whenever her dreams came back in the middle of the night, Matriarch Farrell could always dream of her elder sister and younger sister coming to settle accounts with her, which made her terrified, and guilty again.

She was most sorry for the elder sister.

The elder sister raised her as a daughter, but she took advantage of the fact that her elder sister was in poor health after giving birth, and took the opportunity to seize power and kill her...

The immortals in the family secretly sent people to look for the elder sister's two daughters. When Matriarch Farrell found out, she naturally intercepted them and warned those immortals.

Not to mention that the oldest sister's two daughters didn't know life and death, even if they were still alive, they couldn't remember their life experience.

Back then, the person sent her the message that the two children were sent to an orphanage, which was far away from Jensburg. How promising would the children who grew up in the orphanage be?

Recommended Novels