Married at First Sight Chapter 2138-They also had a swimming pool at home, but the daughter had not been in the water for a long time, because she was afraid that people would know that she was a girl.

“She didn’t go into the water at first, but she stood by the pool and watched me swim. Later, she said that she would go in vain if she didn’t go into the water. She thought for a while before going into the water. I prepared women’s clothes for her, but she refused to change.”

When it came to the end, Kevin looked shocked, and said: “I haven’t seen Hayden’s beauty in women’s clothing.”

He looked at the family of three in front of him.

Hugh said: “You don’t have to look at me, my brother and I have been brothers for more than 20 years, and now I am used to calling him brother, anyway, I have never seen my brother wearing women’s clothing. Ask my parents Let’s see if they have any impression.”

Mrs. Queen said: “Hayden has been raised as a man since she was a child, and her clothes used to be the same as Hugh’s, and she didn’t wear girls’ clothes.”

Donald also said: “I used to think that raising a daughter as a son is like raising two sons. It’s fun. Fun is fun. If you play too much, you can’t end it.”

Therefore, the eyes of the three of them finally fell on Kevin.

They just hoped Kevin could win Hayden’s heart, see if Hayden would agree to restore her female status for him, and then show them wearing women’s clothes a few times.

Donald and his wife obviously gave birth to a son and a daughter, but as biological parents, they had never seen their daughter in women’s clothing.

Hugh said with a smile: “If my brother doesn’t want to wear women’s clothes all the time, and he will marry Kevin in men’s clothes in the future, then the wedding will be a sensation, haha.”

Just thinking of that scene, Hugh found it very interesting and funny.

He dared to say that when his sister was dressed in a suit, handsome and cool, and held a wedding with Kevin, it would definitely cause a sensation in the city, and it would also attract media reporters to report.

The report must have been a wedding of two men.

With his sister's personality, he wouldn't clarify, and Kevin spoiled his sister, so he probably didn't bother to explain.

Everyone would think that it was two gay men holding a public wedding, which is very rare.

Many people still find it difficult to accept homos*xuality.

When his sister is pregnant in the future, she will have a big belly, and she will probably scare everyone.

Everyone must be: D*mn it! Men can get pregnant too!

It can carry the history of human progress, hahaha!

"Hahaha..."

Hugh actually laughed out loud when he thought of the funny plot.

The other three looked at him and laughed.

Realizing that he was really laughing out loud, Hugh hurriedly suppressed his laughter and said, "I just thought of something funny, so I couldn't help laughing. You guys talk, keep talking. Kevin, you and my sister can't help it. Is there any substantial progress? For example—"

Hugh made a kissing gesture.

Then he was slapped on the arm by his mother.

Kevin said seriously: "Hugh, although I have a thick skin, your sister always calls me shameless, but in fact I am an honest gentleman. If your sister is not willing, I will never force her."

When he pursued Hayden, he could be shameless, but he still had to get Hayden's consent before he dared to proceed with any intimate actions.

Otherwise, Hayden would beat him up every minute.

In Hayden's anger, he had worked hard for so long, and he might return to before liberation.

The old road that his second brother Callum walked, even if he was killed, he would not walk.

When Callum kissed Camryn forcibly back then, Camryn was so angry that she almost made Callum go back to the original place. He had to ask his sister-in-law for help and begged her to intercede for him, but she scolded him like a dog Bloody.

Kevin learned it. He would not do that kind of thing.

He respected Hayden.
