Married at First Sight Chapter 2230-After all, Dr. Carden had a great reputation, and those who hadn't seen Dr. Carden himself would think that she was famous. Dr. Carden, known as the little genius doctor who was both good at medicine and poison, was a middle-aged doctor.

"Dr. Carden, this is my fiancée, Camryn."

Callum introduced his fiancée to Lilian.

When Lilian saw him helping a strange woman come in, she knew it was her patient.

"Miss Newman."

Knowing that Camryn relied on hearing to identify the opponent's location, Lilian greeted Camryn first.

When Camryn came in, her face was facing the direction of the stairs.

When Lilian spoke, she looked in Lilian's direction, with a smile on her pretty face, "Hello, Dr. Carden."

"Miss Newman, come and sit down, I'll take your pulse first."

Lilian was not polite, and directly asked Callum to help Camryn sit beside her, and she helped Camryn feel her pulse.

Callum hurriedly helped his fiancée over.

The old ladies sitting next to Lilian gave up their seats and asked Camryn to sit next to Lilian.

Lilian helped Camryn feel her pulse, then looked into her eyes and said, "Miss Newman is blind due to poisoning."

Lilian: "Miss Newman, you have received treatment before, and it is the treatment that suits the remedy to the case. Miss Newman, you can see the light now, right?"

Camryn nodded and said: “After I lost my sight, my aunt took me everywhere to seek medical advice. I have seen many ophthalmologists and received countless treatments, but most of them had no effect. The only one I met was really powerful famous doctor, he treats my eyes, and I think it works.

Unfortunately, the doctor passed away before my eyes were healed. After that, I saw several doctors, but there was no progress. I gave up on restoring the light. I was blind for ten years and lived in darkness for ten years. Now I’m used to it.”

In the end, she had given up hope.

Even if the aunt found a new doctor for her, she didn’t want to go to the doctor anymore, and felt that whether she saw it or not was the result.

Everyone knew that her blindness was caused by poisoning.

Without the toxin, she would not be able to see the light again.

Camryn: “After those effective treatments, I can see some light, but not often, but occasionally, even if I see the light, I can’t see the characters clearly, it’s blurry.”

Lilian: “That’s because the treatment was interrupted. If the treatment hadn’t been interrupted, you would have recovered by now, and there is no need for your fiancé to repeatedly go to FC Manor to invite me here.”

Lilian felt that she had picked up on her senior’s mistakes by coming here.

If senior hadn’t passed away, Camryn’s eyes would have been healed long ago.

That senior’s medical skills were also superb, but it’s a pity that he had passed away, otherwise she would like to visit and exchange ideas with everyone.

“I’ll prescribe you medicine for one month. After you finish taking it, I’ll see what’s going on before prescribing medicine.”

Camryn was startled, and asked, “Dr. Carden, do I not need to operate?”

Lilian: “If you had to use a knife for surgery, your aunt would have asked a doctor to do the surgery for you. Your eyes were already cured to the point of improvement, but after the doctor passed away, no one could take care of you afterwards, causing you to be blind until now. I picked up on that senior's mistake. It doesn't take much effort to cure your eyes, just prescribe some medicine for you, so that you can see his appearance before your wedding with Second Young Master York."
