

Genius 1531

Chapter 1531

In the inner room there was a pale little girl, hobbling out holding the door.

The little girl was not yet ten years old, almost skinny and skinny, and even a bit scary to look at.

When the mouse saw the little girl, his face changed.

He hurriedly climbed up, "Timothy, why are you out?"

"You you hurry into the house to rest."

"Brother is fine, we are just messing around"

Yellow hair, however, kicked the mouse in the back and said angrily, "Who the hell is messing around with you?"

The mouse turned his head and winked at Huang Mao with a pleading face, trying to get him to play along with the drama.

But Huang Mao didn't care and slapped him in the face again.

The little girl, Timothy, shivered in fear, but she stumbled over and shielded the mouse behind her.

"You guys you don't hit my brother"

The mouse hastily pulled her away, "TenTen, behave and go inside quickly to rest."

"Brother is fine"

Yellow hair impatiently said, "Fuck, acting in front of Laozi?"

"Shit, even this stinking girl will be beaten up together!"

Several youths rushed up again and actually lifted their feet and kicked at Timothy.

The mouse screamed in fear, and he hastily held TianTian in his arms, using his own back to withstand the crowd's attack.

Liu Bo, who was sitting in the doorway, couldn't help himself, "Brother Long, TianTian is very sick!"

"You guys how can you hit a child?"

The yellow hair was furious and turned around and kicked the counter over, pointing at Liu Bo and cursing angrily, "Old thing, cut the fucking crap!"

"Do you believe I'll beat you up too?"

Uncle Liu was shivering with anger, but he really didn't dare to speak up.

Lin Mo stood outside the door, seeing this scene, and couldn't help but slowly shake his head.

He had seen land hooligans before, but he had really never seen such bad ones.

Huang Mao's group was no different from the group of human traffickers he had met in the provincial capital before, ah.

Bullying old people and beating children, not even sparing the sick, was this still something people did?

At this moment, a man had already retrieved a pile of money from the rat's pocket.

When Yellow Hair took a look, he was even more furious: "Fuck you, didn't you say you didn't have any money?"

"What the fuck is this?"

The rat's face suddenly changed and he said urgently, "Brother Long, Brother Long, I have this money for an urgent need."

"Brother Dragon, you give me back the money. The money I owe you, I I'll find a way to pay you back, this money I have to pay for Tian Tian's hospital bill"

"Brother Long, please, give me back the money, my sister will die"

Rat cried, hugging Huang Mao's leg and desperately begging for help.

Huang Mao kicked him over and pocketed the money, cursing under his breath, "This is just the interest!"

"For the rest, I'll give you another week."

"If you don't pay me back, I'll take your dog's life!"

With a wave of his hand, Yellow Hair prepared to lead the crowd away.

The rat's mouth and nose were bleeding, but he didn't care, and desperately ran over and hugged Huang Mao's leg, pleading loudly, "Brother Long, you can't take this money."

"This is my sister's life-saving money, please, give me back the money"

"As long as you give me back the money, I I'll do anything to repay you"

"Brother Long, please"

Yellow hair was extremely angry, pulled out a dagger from his body and put it on the rat's neck, "Fuck you, if you don't let go, believe it or not I'll kill you!"

The rat's face was pale, but he still clung to Huang Mao and kept begging.

At the back, TianTian was crying in fear, she rolled and crawled over, "Don't hit my brother you bad guys, don't hit my brother"

As she said that, she also hugged Huang Mao's legs and opened her mouth to bite him dead.

She is only a small child, there is no resistance at all, can only use this kind of attack technique.

Huang Mao was in pain, and his eyes were suddenly glowing: "Damn, are you a dog?"

"I'll kill you!"

With that, Huang Mao raised the dagger in his hand and stabbed it towards Tian Tian.

Chapter 1532

Lin Mo was at the door at this moment.

Seeing that Huang Mao had done this to a little girl, he could not help but be outright angry.

Without saying a word, Lin Mo rushed up and kicked the dagger out of Huang Mao's hand.

Both Rat and Liu Bo were dumbfounded, thinking that Tian Tian was dead.

But then a man suddenly rushed out and saved TianTian.

Mouse hugged TianTian, shivering with fear and tears pouring out.

Liu Bo, on the other hand, breathed a long sigh of relief, and then, he suddenly got up and ran away.

Over there, Huang Mao was kicked by Lin Mo and only felt that this hand was about to break.

He was furious and glared angrily at Lin Mo: "Who the fuck are you?"

"Dare to meddle in my business, are you fed up with living?"

Lin Mo said in a cold voice, "You can even do this to a little kid, are you still human?"

Yellow Hair said angrily, "I can do whatever I want, what the fuck do you care?"

"Fuck, you don't sound like a fucking local?"

"Where'd you come from, you trash, and you dare to meddle in my business?"

"If I don't kill you today, how the hell am I going to get around this area in the future?"

With that, Yellow Hair waved his hand and shouted, "Kill him for me!"

The youths around him immediately surrounded him aggressively.

Just then, Liu Bo suddenly rushed out from behind.

He was carrying a small gas can and holding a lighter in his hand as he hissed angrily, "All of you get out!"

"Or else I I'll die with you all!"

The lighter was close to the gas can's outlet, and he was about to light it up.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

Huang Mao pointed at Liu Bo and said angrily, "Old man, this matter has nothing to do with you, don't meddle in it, lest you get into trouble!"

Uncle Liu gritted his teeth, "This is my clinic, TenTen is here and is my patient, so this has something to do with me!"

"Are you guys leaving or not? If you don't leave, I I will die with you!"

With that, Liu Bo twisted the gas outlet away and rushed towards Huang Mao's few people carrying the gas canister.

The company's main business is to provide a wide range of products and services to the market.

"Old man, remember this debt, I'll settle it with you later!"

"And you, damn it, foreigner, I'll remember you."

"If you can get out of Fangchuan County alive, I'll take your name!"

Huang Mao dropped a harsh sentence and left in a huff with his men.

Liu Bo watched them walk away and sat down on his butt.

He had just fought for his life with his breath, but now he couldn't hold on any longer.

The rat hugged Tian Tian and thanked Lin Mo repeatedly as if he had survived the robbery.

Lin Mo looked at the rat and calmly said, "Don't you remember me?"

Only then did the rat get a clear look at Lin Mo, and in this instant, his face turned pale again.

"You you"

The rat was so frightened that he shivered and couldn't utter a single word.

Tian Tian, on the other hand, looked at Lin Mo with a curious expression, "Big brother, are you my brother's friend?"

The rat trembled, "TianTian, you don't ask so many questions."

"You go inside first and rest"

Saying that, he looked at Lin Mo with an almost supplicating gaze, hoping that Lin Mo would not expose him in front of his own sister.

Lin Mo smiled and nodded, "That's right, I'm your brother's friend!"

"TianTian, you're so good, big brother will award you a candy, okay?"

Lin Mo said, taking out a porcelain bottle from his body, he poured out a pill and handed it to TianTian.

The rat's face changed, he could see it for real, where was this candy? Did it mean that Lin Mo wanted to feed Tian Tian something bad?

He hurriedly blocked it, "Big brother, TianTian is not well, no TianTian can't eat sugar"

Chapter 1533

Lin Mo, however, ignored the rat as he placed the pill directly on the palm of TianTian's hand.

"TianTian, big brother this candy can stop the pain."

"If you eat this candy, you won't have any pain on your body!"

The mouse still wanted to stop, but was held down by Lin Mo, and directly could not even say anything.

Unsure of what to do, Tian Tian literally took the pill and stuffed it into his mouth obediently.

After chewing it for a bit, Tian Tian immediately turned his mouth away, "Big brother, this candy is so bitter!"

Lin Mo smiled, "It's alright, it will be sweet when you eat it!"

TianTian obediently swallowed the pill.

At this moment, Lin Mo only let go of his hand and let the mouse go.

The mouse hurriedly ran over and held TianTian in his arms, making her vomit while saying anxiously, "What did you you give my sister to eat?"

"How can you do that?"

"If you have anything to do with it, just come at me, why are you you rushing at a little child?"

However, at this time, the pills had already been swallowed by Timothy, so how could he spit them out?

No matter how much the mouse tossed and turned, the result was useless.

The mouse was furious and stared at Lin Mo angrily, "Say, what exactly did you give my sister to eat?"

Lin Mo laughed but did not answer.

Just then, Liu Bo suddenly threw a slap at the rat's head.

The mouse was stunned by the blow and said in surprise, "Uncle Liu, you Why are you hitting me?"

Uncle Liu said angrily, "It is you who I am hitting, you who do not know what is good for you!"

The mouse was bewildered, "Uncle Liu, how come I don't know what's good for me?"

Uncle Liu: "Why do you think you don't know what's wrong?"

"If this gentleman hadn't come to the rescue just now, your sister might have been hacked to death!"

"And now you still suspect this gentleman of doing harm to your sister?"

"If he really wanted to harm your sister, he would have just not done it just now, why waste his strength like this?"

The rat's face turned red, but when he thought about it, it was indeed the same thing.

Liu Bo then said, "Also, take a close look at your sister and see what changes she has made!"

The mouse looked blankly at Tiantian, and after a moment, he suddenly stared in awe and exclaimed, "Tiantian, you your face, why is it so red?"

He knew that TianTian's face was extremely pale, the haggard look of someone who had been ill for a long time.

And now, TenTian's face had more blood on it, and it didn't look like a sick person at all.

Even Uncle Liu was shocked, not to mention the mouse.

Timothy, on the other hand, was full of bewilderment, "I I'm blushing?"

"I don't know!"

Liu Bo immediately said, "TianTian, do you still have pain on your body?"

Timothy shook his head, "It doesn't hurt anymore."

The rat was greatly surprised: "No it doesn't hurt anymore?"

"It really doesn't hurt anymore?"

Liu Bo then looked excitedly at Lin Mo: "This gentleman, what kind of miracle medicine did you just give her?"

Only then did Rat remember that Lin Mo had said that when he had just given Tian Tian a pill.

After taking that pill, there would be no more pain on her body.

At that time, the rat thought that Lin Mo was lying to children, but to his surprise, it was actually true!

Lin Mo smiled gently, "It's not a miracle pill, it's just some special medicine that temporarily suppresses her condition."

Uncle Liu was full of shock: "TianTian has been sick for three years!"

"During these three years, one operation was performed, but she couldn't be completely cured then either."

"In these three years, she has been so sick that even the painkillers no longer have any effect."

"Even the famous doctors in the provincial capital couldn't help her with the pain."

"I didn't expect that you could stop her pain with just one pill."

"My old man has been practicing medicine all his life, but today, I've finally met a master!"

Rat even looked at Lin Mo with a shocked face, he was most familiar with Tian Tian's condition.

Lin Mo's move was truly miraculous!

Suddenly, the rat fell to the ground with a poof and said in a trembling voice, "Divine Doctor, Divine Doctor, please, save my sister"

Chapter 1534

Lin Mo didn't answer the mouse, but looked at TianTian with a faint smile.

"TianTian, I'm going out with your brother to do something, how about you go inside first and rest?"

TianTian nodded obediently, "Okay, big brother."

She went into the inner room alone.

Lin Mo glanced at the mouse kneeling on the floor: "Want to save your sister?"

"Come with me!"

The rat hurriedly climbed up.

Lin Mo looked at Uncle Liu again, "Uncle Liu, I reckon that yellow hair will come back for revenge."

"Why don't you take Timothy to find a place to hide first?"

Uncle Liu sighed helplessly, "That's fine."

"I'll close early today."

"You guys have to be safe too!"

Lin Mo nodded with a faint smile.

He led the rat out of the clinic and Uncle Liu immediately closed the door behind him.

The rat followed behind Lin Mo in an apprehensive mood, not knowing what Lin Mo was going to do.

It was only after he had walked out of the alley that Lin Mo stopped.

The rat stood not far behind Lin Mo, his head bowed and rubbing the corner of his coat, like a child who had done something wrong.

"Brother, I'm sorry, I shouldn't have stolen your things."

"Don't worry, I will pay you back that money as soon as possible"

The rat trembled and said.

Lin Mo smiled, took out a cigarette and handed it to the rat in passing.

He didn't intend to find out about the rat either.

Ever since the rat had left his wallet near the police booth, Lin Mo knew that this man was not bad in nature.

Seeing the way he treated his sister, Lin Mo couldn't help but think of himself once.

At that time, he was also almost desperate, but still tried everything he could to keep his sister.

The rat, and him then, were exactly the same!

Therefore, not only would Lin Mo not punish him, but he really intended to help him.

Moreover, Lin Mo had come to Fangchuan County on business this time, and had come quietly by himself to investigate.

He needed a local person to help him lead the way and help him investigate what was going on here.

Rat, the local pickpocket, was the most suitable guide.

"Do you want to earn some money?"

Lin Mo asked.

The rat froze for a moment and looked at Lin Mo in surprise: "Earn what kind of money?"

Lin Mo: "Help me do something."

"If you make it, the money you took before will be written off."

"I'll give you another three hundred thousand, and also help your sister cure her illness for free, how about that?"

When Mouse heard that, he was only so happy that he almost screamed out.

He hurriedly said, "Brother, you you don't have to pay me!"

"As long as you can cure my sister's illness, no matter what you do, even if it's a mountain of swords or a sea of fire, I definitely won't frown!"

Lin Mo laughed lightly, "No need for mountains of sword and fire, what I want to do is very simple!"

"It's my first time in Fangchuan County, I need a guide who can help me lead the way and also introduce me to the local situation in Fangchuan County by the way."

"Are you willing to be my guide?"

Mouse couldn't help but stare, he didn't expect that what Lin Mo wanted him to do would be so simple.

It was just being a guide, any local of Fangchuan County could do it ah.

He looked at Lin Mo in confusion, wondering what kind of medicine Lin Mo was selling in his gourd.

Lin Mo glanced at him, "What? Not willing?"

The rat hurriedly said, "Willingly willingly, willingly."

"Big brother, whatever you want me to do, I am willing!"

Lin Mo nodded in satisfaction, "Very good, let's go."

The rat was puzzled: "Where to?"

Lin Mo: "I'm hungry, find a place to eat something."

"Also, I've just arrived here, I need to find a hotel to stay in."

The rat suddenly realized and immediately said, "Brother, I know a hotel, it's very cheap, I'll take you there"

Lin Mo: "Cheap is not necessary, take me to the best local hotel."

The rat gave Lin Mo a shocked look, he didn't expect that this foreigner who came in a bus was still a deep-rooted tycoon, huh?

Chapter 1535

Under the guide of the rat, Lin Mo arranged a place to stay, after which he went out with the rat and ate some local specialties.

This trip over, Lin Mo also took it as a tour.

The rat took Lin Mo to a local restaurant that was not too big, but there were quite a few people inside.

The rat ordered some local specialties and Lin Mo ordered some beer.

The two of them seemed to be friends, sitting together to eat and drink.

After chatting for a while, Rat finally dropped his guard towards Lin Mo and told him a bit about himself.

Rat's real name was Wang Hao, but because he was skinny and had previously been in jail for theft, he was called Rat, and later mockingly called Mouse.

Over time, the name Rat spread and many people didn't know what his real name was anymore.

Rat's fate was tragic; when he was at school, his father died in an accident, leaving him and his mother and sister to fend for themselves.

Several of his father's brothers, in an attempt to hijack his family's homestead, went out of their way to expel the orphans and widowed mother from their home.

His mother, alone with him and his sister, who was still in infancy, struggled to make a living outside and became exhausted and sick.

In desperation, the rat dropped out of school and worked to support the family.

Three years ago, his sister contracted an extremely rare disease that could not be cured after spending a lot of money.

In order to cure his sister, the rat took the risk of burglary and stole more than 200,000 yuan to pay for his sister's surgery.

Who knows, just after his sister's surgery over here, the rat was arrested.

However, instead of being convicted of burglary, he was eventually jailed for a year on some other trivial charges.

Later, the rat learnt that the family he stole from at the time had the money from the wrong source and did not dare to make a big deal out of it.

Otherwise, he would have had to serve several years for stealing so much money.

Less than a month after Mouse was released from prison, his mother died and Mouse was left to look after his sister alone.

The previous operation did not completely cure his sister's illness.

Mouse had to scramble to earn money to buy medicine for his sister, and put her in the clinic on weekdays with an IV to keep her alive.

But every once in a while, she also had to be taken to the hospital for dialysis, otherwise she could become critically ill at any time.

Most of the time, the rat works as a labourer on construction sites to earn money.

But for his sister's illness, he has taken out too many external debts and owes too much money.

Seeing that it was time to give his sister dialysis again, he really had no money, so he had to do his old job again and run near the station to steal a handful of money, not expecting to run into Lin Mo.

The rat was holding a glass of wine, his eyes silky with tears: "Brother Lin, I'm sorry, I was really desperate, that's why I took your wallet."

Lin Mo smiled, in the rat, he saw too much of himself.

At the beginning, for the sake of his sister's medical expenses, why did he not think of going to desperate measures?

However, he was lucky, he had met Xu Hanxia and had the legacy of the family jade pendant.

And Mouse, he was unfortunate, he was just an ordinary man, yet he had to carry so much responsibility!

Lin Mo lifted his wine cup, clinked it with Mouse and laughed lightly, "There's no need to say these words."

"Since I promised to help cure your sister, I definitely won't go back on my word."

Mouse was overjoyed, he wiped away his tears and said urgently, "Brother Lin, you mean that my sister's illness, there is still help?"

"I've been to the provincial hospital before, and those famous doctors in the provincial city said so. My sister's illness, unless the divine doctor Xue of Guang Province is involved, otherwise, no one within this Guang Province can cure her!"

Lin Mo smiled lightly: "This famous doctor is also talking nonsense, your sister's illness, even if God Doctor Xue, cannot be cured!"

"She is suffering from congenital organ failure, even God Doctor Xue, can't cure congenital deficiency!"

The rat's face suddenly changed.

Lin Mo picked up, "But I can definitely cure her!"

Chapter 1536

The rat could not help but stare at Lin Mo in shock.

In that case, wouldn't Lin Mo's medical skills be superior to those of Divine Doctor Xue?

The rat swallowed his saliva and cautiously asked, "Brother Lin, you are what kind of divine being are you?"

Lin Mo also did not answer and casually asked, "By the way, that yellow hair today, how much money do you owe him?"

The rat sighed helplessly, "It's not much, just 20,000."

"But he's a loan shark, I owe this twenty thousand, only three months, and it's gone up to over three hundred thousand."

"This kind of loan shark, how can I afford to pay it back"

Lin Mo's brow furrowed: "Twenty thousand dollars, three months, up to more than three hundred thousand?"

"That's too high an interest rate, isn't it?"

"Even if you're a loan shark, you have to have some rules, how can you do things like this?"

"Is there no one to control this?"

Mouse waved his hand, "Brother Lin, you just don't know."

"This group of people, in Fangchuan County, no one dares to mess with them."

"When people see them, they can't even avoid them, so who dares to take care of them?"

Lin Mo: "Is that true?"

"Don't I think they're just a bunch of hooligans?"

"If you can't, you can also call the police."

Mouse sighed, "Brother Lin, if only it was that simple to deal with, then it would be good."

"But the problem is, Yellow Hair's group of people are all covered by big shots behind them."

"Even if the police are called in and arrested, the police usually can't find any witness evidence, so it's hard to convict them, and they'll be released again in a few days."

"When they get out, that's when the vengeance intensifies."

"Even if they can find evidence to convict them, they have other accomplices and will still retaliate against those who call the police."

"On this side of Fangchuan County, there are so many people I know of, who have had their families broken by them."

Lin Mo's face was slightly cold, this group of people, they were really lawless?

"What background do they have?"

Lin Mo asked.

Mouse gave Lin Mo a puzzled look, "Brother Lin, what exactly is it that you came to Fangchuan County for?"

Lin Mo: "What are you asking this for?"

The rat scratched his head, "Uh, I I just asked casually."

After a moment, the mouse said curiously, "You wouldn't have come down for a private visit, would you?"

Lin Mo laughed: "A private visit?"

"You've been watching too much TV, haven't you?"

"Do I look like a private visitor to you?"

Mouse laughed awkwardly and whispered, "Brother Lin, honestly, I don't look like you."

"However, regarding this group of people, I personally suggest that you ah, don't mind too much."

"I will definitely help you with whatever you want to do."

"But this kind of thing, it's none of your business, and you you try not to get into trouble!"

"I know, you're a big shot, you certainly won't be afraid of them."

"But, this people walking in the society, more trouble is better than less trouble, you think so?"

Lin Mo gave the rat a deep look and calmly said, "If I was afraid of getting into trouble, I wouldn't have helped you just now!"

The rat was at a loss for words.

Lin Mo said softly, "I once told someone a saying."

"A man may not be able to manage the affairs of the world, but he should at least manage the affairs in front of him."

"If you don't even have the courage to draw your sword when you see injustice on the road, what is the difference between that and a shrinking turtle?"

The words made the rat stand in awe.

He looked at Lin Mo respectfully, "Brother Lin, what you said is so right."

"I am really fortunate to have known such a great man like you, it's a blessing in three lifetimes, the ancestral graves are green with smoke!"

Lin Mo smiled and waved his hand, "All right, cut the crap."

"Say, this group of people, what exactly is their background?"

Rat took a deep breath and said in a deep voice, "Brother Lin, you must also be a big shot in Guang Province."

"I wonder, have you ever heard of Ma Tiancheng, the underground bigwig in the provincial capital?"

Chapter 1537

A brilliant light flashed in Lin Mo's eyes, this matter, it actually involved Ma Tiancheng?

Of course, Lin Mo was familiar with this underground big brother in Guangdong Province.

Previously in the provincial capital, Lin Mo had clashed with him, and in the end, Ma Tiancheng had submitted honestly.

However, Lin Mo never trusted him and was recently planning to have Tiger take Ma Tiancheng's place.

Unexpectedly, the matter on Fangchuan County's side was still related to Ma Tiancheng?

"Ma Tiancheng, I have heard of some of it."

Lin Mo casually said back, not saying too much, lest he scare the rat.

Mouse sighed, "If you've heard of him, then you definitely know how strong this underground big brother really is in Guang Province."

"And the backer of this group of us in Fangchuan County is Ma Tiancheng!"

Lin Mo frowned, "Really?"

"Does Ma Tiancheng's hand extend that far?"

"Mouse, have you made a mistake?"

"A small place like Fangchuan County, he would also put it in his eyes?"

Mouse waved his hand, "Brother Lin, you don't know anything."

"A small place like us, he certainly doesn't put it in his eyes."

"His wife, however, is a local of our Fangchuan County."

"Although his wife lives with him in the provincial city, her maiden family still lives in Fangchuan County."

"With Ma Tiancheng's background, that maternal family of hers, here in our area, that's really something no one dares to mess with."

"Especially his wife's brother Li Shun, in our Fangchuan County, that's a real underground big brother."

"Those people from Yellow Hair, they are the ones following him!"

Lin Mo suddenly realized, so it was this connection.

He couldn't help but smile slightly, earlier he was still wondering what method he should use to be able to settle Ma Tiancheng in name only.

It looks like he didn't come to Fangchuan County for nothing this time, so this is a good reason!

"Tell me more about this Li Shun!"

Lin Mo asked.

The rat obviously had a long-standing hatred for Li Shun, so he couldn't stop talking.

If you didn't hear it, you wouldn't know, but once you heard it, you would be shocked.

The bad things this Li Shun had done were beyond Lin Mo's imagination.

He was a bully, a bully of men and women, a loan shark, and a killer of old people and children.

Moreover, this Li Shun was particularly lustful.

As long as the women he likes, there is no woman who can escape his grasp!

Li Shun once boasted at a dinner party with his friends that he changed at least a hundred women every year.

Of these, only a small percentage were willing to stay with him.

The other majority were either for money or simply forced by him.

It was fine if it was for money, but those who were forced were really pitiful.

Even some young girls who had just gotten married would be forced by him.

In the past few years, every year, there would be girls who were forced by him and could not think of killing themselves.

But this Li Shun was shrewd and never left any evidence, and there were no witnesses who dared to testify.

With his background, connections and money, he was able to get the best lawyers to work for him, so many things could be easily settled.

Therefore, even the police could not convict him.

When Rat said this, he sighed and said, "By the way, two months ago, Li Shun had just done something appalling!"

Lin Mo was surprised, "What is it?"

Mouse said, "Two months ago, a young couple came to Fangchuan County to visit their relatives."

"The man's ancestry is from our Fangchuan County, and the woman, she's from over in Suzhou Province."

"After they came over, they were met by Li Shun by chance."

"When Li Shun saw that the girl was pretty, he went up and molested her."

"As a result, the two sides got into a fight."

"Li Shun broke the man's leg and snatched the girl back, insulting her severely."

"The girl was so unbearably humiliated that she directly jumped off the building and killed herself."

Lin Mo's brow furrowed, this Li Shun really deserved to die!

Chapter 1538

The mouse picked up, "Originally, this was a usual thing, Li Shun did this kind of thing all the time."

"But this time, the situation is a bit different."

"Because, that girl's family, it is said to have a very rich background, a rich family's daughter."

"When something like this happened, the next day, a group of people entered Fangchuan County, straight from Li Shun's house, and took him away."

"Seriously, we thought Li Shun was dead at the time, and everyone was overjoyed."

"Who knew that less than half a day later, Li Shun came back in one piece!"

"Not only that, he even proudly claimed to the public that the Ten Great Families of Su Province had personally come to his rescue and helped him settle the matter."

"What's more, the ten major families of Su Province all treat him as a friend. His network of connections already spans across both Guang Province and Su Province."

Hearing these words, a sharp aura flashed violently in Lin Mo's eyes.

How could the Ten Great Families of Su Province put a small person like Li Shun in their eyes?

There must be a reason for them to step in and save Li Shun.

Coupled with the matter of Wan Chun Tang, Lin Mo vaguely felt that this matter, I'm afraid, was somewhat related to the matter of the Recycle Pill!

After chatting for a while, it was already late at night.

Mouse got up, "Brother Lin, it's getting late, you should rest first."

"I will come and wait for you early tomorrow morning."

Lin Mo: "Where are you going now?"

"Yellow Hair's group, they're probably guarding outside your house right now."

Mouse scratched his head, "I I'll go to my friend's house to rest for the night."

Lin Mo waved his hand, "You'd better not toss and turn."

"Go to the front desk yourself and ask them to get you another room."

"Tomorrow morning, you take me to a place."

Lin Mo finished speaking and handed a pile of money to the rat.

The rat looked at the money and hesitated a little, this pile of money, almost ten thousand dollars.

Lin Mo shoved it directly into his hand, "Take it."

"What, do you see me as someone who is short of this amount of money?"

The rat was instantly filled with gratitude, "Brother Lin, this is really a big thank you."

"You have helped me so much and given me so much money, I really don't know how to thank you"

Lin Mo waved his hand: "Alright, don't be pretentious."

"Get a good rest, I have a lot of places to go tomorrow, you need to get your spirit up."

The rat immediately nodded: "Brother Lin, don't worry, I definitely won't delay you!"

Mouse ran downstairs, opened the cheapest room and went to sleep with excitement and apprehension.

On Lin Mo's side, he didn't rush to sleep, but called Tiger.

He asked Tiger to make a trip to the provincial capital and find a way to lure Ma Tiancheng and his wife out and bring them to Fangchuan County.

Taking this opportunity, Lin Mo wanted to settle Ma Tiancheng directly!

Before that, Lin Mo had to investigate whether there was any relationship between this Li Shun and Wan Chun Tang.

After breakfast the next day, Lin Mo asked the rat to rent a car and rushed directly to a small town below Fangchuan County.

The project manager from before lived above this town.

Lin Mo followed the address and eventually arrived near the project manager's home.

However, Lin Mo did not go directly to the project manager, but first asked the rat to go down and ask around to see if the project manager was at home, so as not to alert the snake.

The mouse went down and brought back a piece of news that shook Lin Mo to his core.

The project manager had been involved in a car accident a week ago and had died!

Hearing this news, Lin Mo was directly confused, this news was too sudden, right?

The project manager had died, so wouldn't the trail be broken when it got here?

How could Lin Mo tell if there was collusion between the project manager and Wan Chun Tang?

And how could he prove that the refining method of the Wanchun Hall Recycle Pill was stolen from Xu's Pharmaceutical?

Chapter 1539

Why was it such a coincidence?

Wanchun Hall had just obtained the refining method for the rejuvenation pills, and this project manager had just returned home and was killed in a car accident?

The first thing that came to Lin Mo's mind was to kill and destroy the evidence.

Lin Mo said in a deep voice: "Did you ask what happened in this car accident?"

Rat: "I asked, he was hit and killed by a drunk driver, the drunk driver also confessed, and his body was cremated."

Lin Mo pondered for a while and suddenly said, "Then what's the situation of his family now?"

According to the information Lin Mo had obtained, this project manager's wife's account had recently had an income of eighty million dollars in it.

The project manager had died, so how exactly was this 80 million divided?

Or, one could find out some clues from this 80 million ah.

Mouse sighed: "Brother Lin, I've just asked all about it."

"Ai, this man, he's a poor man too."

"Not long after he died, his daughter-in-law ran away with the family's property, leaving his elderly parents at home, unattended."

Lin Mo immediately said, "Where did his daughter-in-law go?"

Rat: "Uh, I don't really know about that."

Lin Mo vaguely felt that from this project manager's wife, he should be able to find out something.

He immediately explained to Mouse to go and investigate the matter of this project manager's wife.

The rat was good at doing these things, and after half a day of sneaking around the place, he actually let him find out some information.

According to the gossip of the villagers nearby, the project manager's wife was actually having an affair with Li Shun.

Two months ago, these two had hooked up somehow.

Some people said that the project manager's wife had run away with Li Shun with the money.

The project manager's parents even went to look for Li Shun, but they were beaten up by Li Shun's men, and eventually everything was left unsettled.

Hearing this news, Lin Mo basically concluded that Li Shun had an inseparable relationship with Wan Chun Tang, and the leakage of the Recycle Pill!

The Ten Families of Suzhou Province must have hooked up with the wife of that project manager through Li Shun.

Then, they used the project manager's wife to bribe the project manager to steal the refining method of the Recycle Pill.

After that, the project manager resigned and went home, thinking that with $80 million, he would be able to live the rest of his life comfortably.

But when he returned, he was killed and killed.

His wife, too, had run away with the money, so he was left with a basket of money!

Lin Mo had no sympathy for such people.

You should know that Xu's Pharmaceutical was already treated very well, and was very good to the employees below.

He deserved it for betraying the company's core secrets for his own benefit, and ultimately ending up in this situation.

The crux of the matter now lay with Li Shun and this project manager's wife.

Lin Mo gauged the time, Tiger and the others were already on their way, and it was estimated that they would arrive in Fangchuan County tonight.

When the time came, they would go and find Li Shun to clear up this matter!

After a busy day, Lin Mo took the rat back to the city and prepared to take a rest.

Who knew that just as the two of them returned to the county, Mouse received a phone call from Huang Mao.

Huang Mao had captured Tian Tian and Liu Bo and forced Mouse to go see him.

Not only that, Yellow Hair had an arrogant attitude on the phone and told Mouse to bring Lin Mo with him.

If not, he would have to wait to collect the corpses of Tian Tian and Liu Bo!

When he received the call, Mouse went straight to the ground.

His sister was now his only family, his only belief in living.

Uncle Liu was also the best person who had ever treated them.

If anything happened to these two, he wouldn't be able to live.

However, he also knew very well that if he took Lin Mo over there, Lin Mo would definitely die!

Just when the rat was in a dilemma, Lin Mo said directly, "Heh, I haven't even gone to them yet, and they're looking for me instead?"

"Just in time, save me the delay."

Chapter 1540

The rat gave Lin Mo a bewildered look, not knowing what Lin Mo meant by this.

Lin Mo also glanced at him, "What are you doing frozen?"

"Go!"

Rat: "Go where?"

Lin Mo: "Where did this yellow hair tell you to go?"

Rat's face changed and he said urgently, "Brother Lin, you are going to find them?"

"This can never be done!"

"Yellow Hair and the others are inhumane, the place they said, is an abandoned factory."

"That place, where they often find some dead bodies, is where they kill people."

"They told you to go there, just is to kill you, you must not go!"

Lin Mo: "Don't go?"

"Then what should I do?"

"Watch Timothy and Liu Bo die?"

The rat was at a loss for words, he was silent for a moment and gritted his teeth, "Brother Lin, it's better for me to go alone."

"This matter, I made it, so I should be the one to solve it."

"I have a rotten life, they may not kill me, they will probably just beat me up."

"Even if they kill me, at least, they can still save Timothy and Uncle Liu."

"Brother Lin, if I do unfortunately die there, you you help me to cure TianTian."

"I beg you, as long as you give TenTian a mouthful of food and can make her grow up, you are my family's benefactor, and I will definitely repay you in my next life by being a cow or a horse."

Lin Mo laughed: "Mouse, what are you panicking about?"

"It's okay, we'll both go together, Tian Tian will definitely be fine!"

Rat immediately said, "Brother Lin, you really can't go!"

"I'll go alone, I'll die alone, they'll be fine."

"But, if you go, we both probably have to die there, why is this necessary?"

Lin Mo patted his shoulder and said softly, "Both of us, no one can die!"

"Don't worry, I will definitely help you cure TianTian."

"However, you'll have to raise her up yourself."

"You are the only family she has left, do you want to see her all alone?"

Tears welled up in Mouse's eyes, he was most relieved to see this sister. However, how could he decide on the matters of life?

"Brother Lin, I know your good intentions, I appreciate them."

"But, we don't have to"

Mouse still wanted to persuade, but Lin Mo directly interrupted him, "Don't worry!"

"I wouldn't dare to speak casually without complete certainty!"

"Just these landlubbers, they can't kill me yet!"

"Drive on, don't waste time."

The rat gave Lin Mo a shocked look, and seeing his confident look, his heart was slightly relieved.

He started the vehicle and quickly ran towards the outskirts.

Half an hour later, the vehicle pulled up to an abandoned factory.

There were a few tattooed men standing at the entrance of the factory, and when they saw a vehicle approaching, they stopped it straight away.

Mouse poked his head out, "Brother Long sent us!"

The few men looked inside the car and saw that it was only Lin Mo and Mouse, so they waved their hands and gestured for them to go in.

The two men drove into the factory and kept coming to the warehouse at the back.

At this time, it was already completely dark.

Inside the warehouse, there were a few lights on and a few people standing at the entrance laughing and talking uncontrollably, and Yellow Hair was among them.

Mouse pulled up to the warehouse door and got out of the car together with Lin Mo.

As soon as Yellow Hair saw them, a grim look flashed across his face.

"Yo, Rat, you're really here!"

"I thought you, the shrinking turtle, wouldn't dare to come!"

"I didn't expect that you'd really impress me!"

Yellow Hair sneered and taunted.

Rat gritted his teeth and whispered, "Brother Long, I Where are my sister and Uncle Liu?"

Yellow Hair: "Want to see them?"

"Yes!"

"Throw them down!"

With a wave of Huang Mao's hand, the first floor window of the warehouse opened, and Tian Tian and Liu Bo were put directly into the window, looking like they were about to be pushed down.
