Chapter 1561

Yunan City, the provincial capital of Suzhou Province.

This is where the ten largest families in Su Province gather, and at the same time, it is also the location where the headquarters of the Wanchun Hall in Su Province is located.

The situation in Su Province was completely different from that in Guang Province.

The strength of the Ten Great Families of Guang Province could be said to be the weakest among the entire six southern provinces.

Because of Nanba Tian's presence in Guang Province, the ten families in Guang Province had been unable to lift their heads.

Over the years, the development of the top ten families in Guangdong Province had been very poor, and they could not compare with the other provinces at all.

Previously, the Wang Family, the leader of the ten families in Guangdong Province, was the strongest among the ten families in Guangdong Province.

However, even if the Wang family's strength is placed in the top ten families in Suzhou Province, it is only a medium level.

The strength of the top three families in the top ten families in Suzhou Province is simply terrifying and not comparable to that of the Wang Family!

The Wanchun Hall, on the other hand, was jointly established by the top ten families in Suzhou Province.

The medical industry on this side of Suzhou Province was itself very developed, and the income from the medical industry ranked among the top three in the country.

Wanchun Hall is a huge enterprise in China, with a market value of nearly 200 billion yuan, and it is the enterprise that the ten major families in Su Province attach the most importance to.

Two days ago, Wan Chun Tang announced to the public that they had developed a new drug that could cure three types of cancer.

When this news came out, the share price of Wanchun Hall shot up.

Before the drug was even released, Wanchun Hall's share price had increased by 30%.

The top ten families in Suzhou Province were all overflowing with money from this, and were overjoyed.

For this reason, Wanchun Hall, held a special launch event for the new drug.

They invited famous doctors from all over the country, big medical institutions, and major pharmaceutical companies to launch this new medicine in public.

Not only that, they also invited cancer patients from all over the country to be treated in public to prove the efficacy of Zeng Zhuan Pill to the public.

Wanchun Tang is making a big deal out of all this, firstly, to push up its share price to another level.

Secondly, they wanted to announce in public that they were the developer of the Recycle Pill, so as to overwhelm Xu Pharmaceutical from the point of view of public opinion, and completely break the back of Xu Pharmaceutical!

Lin Mo had just arrived in Yunan City when Li Tiezui sent these messages.

There was no doubt that the top ten families in Su Province, already knew about what had happened in Fangchuan County.

They also knew that Lin Mo would definitely have to fight with Wan Chun Tang for the ownership of this Recycle Pill next.

Therefore, the Ten Families of Su Province directly came to make the first move. They intended to put an end to this matter before Lin Mo could make a move!

Lin Mo didn't care about these news matters either.

Before entering Yunan City, he had separated from Mouse.

The rat had entered Yunan City in advance to help him scout for information.

Doing so was also something Lin Mo had planned long ago.

Although Li Tiezui's spies were all over the six southern provinces, the ten major families in Suzhou Province were not vegetarians either.

On normal days, when the Ten Families were not on Li Tiezui's guard, he was indeed able to find out some information.

However, once the Ten Families began to take full precautions, it was basically impossible for Li Tiezui's spies to find out any useful information.

This was the case with the Reconstruction Pill.

Li Tiezui's spies were unable to find out any useful information.

Therefore, Lin Mo had brought the rat over, and he intended to let the rat help spy out some information.

The rat himself was an ordinary person without any background and had never been to Su Province, so the ten major families in Su Province would not even notice him.

Moreover, Rat acted cautiously and was himself from a pickpocket background, so he could also do some rather secretive things.

Let him investigate the information, it might work wonders!

As for Lin Mo, he circled around in Su Province before he took a bus and entered Yunan City without anyone noticing.

Chapter 1562

Lin Mo entered Yunan City disguised as a tourist and found a not-so-conspicuous hotel to stay temporarily.

At half past seven in the evening, Mouse arrived at the hotel.

He had already arrived in Yunan City for two days.

Just after entering the room, Rat handed a file bag to Lin Mo: "Brother Lin, this is the information you want."

Lin Mo smiled, "So soon?"

"How did you get this information?"

Rat laughed, "Brother Lin, you gave me so much money for my activities, so it was much easier to do things."

"I bribed one of the cleaners at Wanchun Hall, worked a day's shift for him, and sorted out these things from that bin at Wanchun Hall."

Lin Mo couldn't help but smile, this rat was quite resourceful.

Opening the file bag and looking through it, inside, it was basically all about the test data of the Recycle Pill.

And within it, Lin Mo saw a very important name – Qian Yong'an!

According to the data, Qian Yong'an was the real developer of this Re-creation Pill.

According to the information, Qian Yong'an was the real developer of the pills, and all the herbs needed for the pills were personally mixed by Qian Yong'an.

Qian Yong'an also designed and personally supervised the subsequent production.

Not only that, but when Wan Chun Tang first wanted to develop the Re-creation Pill over ten years ago, Qian Yong'an was the head of research and development at that time!

This shows that Qian Yong'an was the main person who stole the recipe for the Recycle Pill.

Lin Mo asked, "Do you have any information on this Qian Yong'an?"

The rat hurriedly said, "I've inquired about him."

"This Qian Yong'an is a member of the Qian Family, one of the ten largest families in Su Province."

"He is the last head of the Qian family and the illegitimate son of the current Qian family's old master outside."

Lin Mo frowned slightly, "An illegitimate son?"

Rat immediately nodded, "Yes, he is the Qian family's elder son's illegitimate son."

"Originally, to these large families, such bastards are not allowed to be on the stage."

"But Qian Yong'an's situation is different, he has an extremely high status in the Qian family, second only to the Qian family's old master and family head."

Lin Mo said curiously, "Why?"

Mouse said, "Because, this Qian Yong'an is a famous divine doctor himself."

"Until he was twenty-five, he had been wandering outside to study medicine."

"At the age of twenty-five, he returned to the Qian family, and originally had little status in the Qian family, and was even ostracised by many people in the family, and was very unpopular in the family."

"For the sake of being his own son, the Qian family's master sent him to Wanchun Hall, which was on the verge of bankruptcy at the time, and gave him a job to make ends meet."

"Unexpectedly, this Qian Yong'an went to Wanchun Hall, and within half a year, he developed three miracle medicines one after another, which sold out nationwide, causing Wanchun Hall to turn over in a flash, with its assets doubling dozens of times in succession."

"Qian Yong'an, since then, has been heavily used by the Qian family!"

"After that, the Qian family used the shares of Wanchun Hall to draw in the ten major families in Suzhou Province, causing the ten major families in Suzhou Province to skyrocket in strength."

"And the Qian family, as a result, became a top three existence among the top ten families in Su Province!"

"Qian Yong'an, also became a renowned divine doctor in Su Province, that is, the family heads of the top ten families in Su Province were also on an equal footing with him!"

A fine aura flashed in Lin Mo's eyes, this Qian Yong'an really didn't look simple.

Lin Mo asked, "What are the three divine medicines that he has developed?"

The rat pulled out a bag, "Brother Lin, I guessed that you would definitely ask."

"I bought some of all three medicines back, so you can take a look."

Lin Mo took the three pill boxes, and looking at the names alone, there was nothing special about them.

He opened the boxes and took out the medicines inside.

The first one, was a black pill sealed by wax.

Seeing this black pill, Lin Mo's brow furrowed, this pill, it was a bit like the small Peiyuan Pill he had refined before, ah.

Chapter 1563

He sniffed it and the smell was a bit similar.

However, when he tasted it, he found that this pill, and the Little Pill, were very different.

To put it simply, this pill, was similar to the Little Cultivation Pill, but the medicinal effect, however, was less than one hundredth of the Little Cultivation Pill.

However, to an ordinary person, this would already be a miracle pill!

Lin Mo opened the other two pill boxes, which contained a capsule, and a packet of punch respectively.

These two medicines, too, were similar to the Little Peiyuan Pill, and were very similar to the two remedies inherited from the jade pendant, except that their medicinal effects were far less than those two remedies.

Seeing this, Lin Mo already had a rough guess in his heart.

These medicines were all from the Lin family's ancestral jade pendant.

In other words, only someone from the Lin family could refine these medicines.

This Qian Yong'an, there must be some involvement between him and their Lin family.

Otherwise, it was impossible for him to know so many of the Lin Family's secret recipes for refining medicines.

Lin Mo: "This Qian Yong'an, what exactly was he doing before he returned to the Qian Family?"

Mouse shook his head, "No one knows about that."

"What he was doing before he turned twenty-five, I've never even heard anyone talk about it."

Lin Mo frowned slightly, there was no doubt that Qian Yong'an was deliberately hiding what happened before he was twenty-five, he was afraid of what others might know.

Lin Mo immediately took out his mobile phone and called Li Tiezui to ask about this Qian Yong'an matter.

However, the answer from Li Tiezui's side was the same.

No one knew anything about Qian Yong'an before he was twenty-five years old.

Even the Qian family didn't know about it, Qian Yong'an was twenty-five years old, a complete blank.

Lin Mo was even more surprised in his heart, this Qian Yong'an, was he so cautious?

Even people from the Qian family didn't know about it, so I guess there were really not many people who knew about it.

In the midst of his doubts, Lin Mo suddenly remembered something.

He hurriedly took out his mobile phone and called Lin Zhao.

In order to prevent people from finding out, Lin Zhaoge had gotten a new mobile phone card.

This mobile phone number was only known to Lin Mo, and only Lin Mo could be contacted.

When Lin Zhaoge heard about Qian Yong'an, he was obviously bewildered as well: "Qian Yong'an, I haven't heard of this person."

"On our side of the Lin family, there is no such person either."

Lin Mo couldn't help but freeze, could it be that Qian Yong'an had developed all these methods of refining pills by himself?

But, how was this possible?

If he had completely developed a new medicine, then Lin Mo would definitely not suspect him.

But the problem was that the medicine he developed came out from the basis of the Lin family's medicine, so how could he not be involved with the Lin family?

Being puzzled, Lin Zhao suddenly said, "Young master, do you have a picture of Rich Yongan?"

"Send me one, I'll take a look."

Lin Mo immediately asked the rat.

Luckily, Rat's side was really prepared, and he immediately sent Qian Yong'an's photo to Lin Mo's phone.

Lin Mo sent the photo to Lin Zhaoge, and after less than a minute, Lin Zhaoge called over and said excitedly, "It's him! It's him! It's him!"

Lin Mo was surprised: "Who is he?"

Lin Zhaoge: "It's the one who helped your father clean the potion furnace and guard the alchemy room!"

Lin Mo's face changed violently, he finally knew what was going on.

This Qian Yong'an, indeed, had spent some time in the Lin family.

Not only that, he had also helped Lin Xiao clean the pellet furnace and guard the alchemy room.

This was the place where Lin Xiao made his pills, so he might have stolen from it, thus being able to refine these medicines!

In other words, this person had, indeed, stolen his mastery from the Lin family.

Only, he had later returned to the Qian family, weakened the medicinal properties of these pills and refined them again, before he had become what he was today.

For these three medicines, Lin Mo did not care.

But the problem was that he was now trying to snatch the Reclamation Pill, which was too much!

Chapter 1564

Lin Mo said in a deep voice, "This man, what exactly is his identity?"

"How did he get into our Lin family?"

Lin Zhaoge: "Back in the early years when big brother went out to practice medicine, he saved a small child who had fainted on the road, and it was this Qian Yong'an."

"At that time, he was still called Zhao An, a vagrant child."

"Big brother took him home, treated him carefully and took good care of him, and he later recovered."

"Seeing that he was pitiful, big brother kept him at home and put him in charge of cleaning the alchemy room, and even taught him some medical skills."

"However, when he was twenty-three years old, a deceased person came to big brother to seek medical help."

"That deceased person had cancer, and big brother made a furnace of rejuvenation pills to treat him."

"However, on the very night he was guarding the alchemy room, three of the reclaimed pills were missing."

"Big brother didn't pursue the matter too much, however, he still sent him out of the Lin family."

"Unexpectedly, he was actually Qian Yong'an of the Qian family in Su Province!"

"In that case, it seems that back then, that Recycle Pill, was the one who stole three of them from him!"

Hearing this, Lin Mo finally knew what was going on.

His father, Lin Xiao, was a kind person, so he should have seen that Qian Yong'an had stolen the Recycle Pills, but did not pursue him, but just sent him away, and that was all.

This Qian Yong'an, however, was a sinister and cunning villain.

When Lin Xiao saved him, not only did he not think of repaying him, but instead, he deliberately stole the pills in secret and stole them, wanting to reap huge profits from them.

Qian Yong'an was twenty-three when he left the Lin family. He did not go straight back to the Qian family, but spent two years wandering around outside before returning to the Qian family.

This shows that this man was thoughtful and worried that the Lin family's people would track him down, so he deliberately wandered around outside for two years to dispel the Lin family's suspicions.

Later, when he returned to the Qian family, although he developed those three drugs, he controlled their effects to the weakest.

In this way, even if the Lin family knew about it, the sky was the limit and they might not come looking for him.

He, on the other hand, used the medical skills he had learned from the Lin family's side, as well as the method of alchemy, to become the premier divine doctor on the Su Province side, as well as gaining huge money and status.

However, at that time Qian Yong'an still had scruples in doing things.

Before the death of Lin Xiao, the King of the Northern Realm, Qian Yong'an could only make a small fortune in secret.

However, more than ten years ago, when Lin Xiao, the King of the North, was killed in battle and the Lin family was destroyed, Qian Yong'an immediately began to develop the Re-creation Pill, which shows the viciousness of this man's mind.

The only thing is that the refinement of the Recycle Pill is rather troublesome, and more than ten years ago, Wan Chun Hall spent a lot of money, but failed to develop it successfully.

It was not until Xu's Pharmaceuticals started the development of the Recycle Pill that Wan Chun Tang took the opportunity to steal the formula from Xu's Pharmaceuticals, thus refining the Recycle Pill.

Immediately afterwards, Wan Chun Tang used its powerful influence to openly seize the ownership of this Recycle Pill.

It had to be said that this Qian Yong'an was really an extremely sinister villain!

When Lin Mo figured out these things, the fire in his heart also surged straight up.

Qian Yong'an had been saved by his father, Lin Xiao, and, basically, it was the Lin family that had raised him.

As a result, when such a thing happened to the Lin family, not only did he not think about taking revenge for the Lin family, but instead, he went to develop a reconstructive pill at the first opportunity and wanted to make a fortune out of it.

Such a person, with his despicable methods and ingratitude, was simply disgraceful!

Lin Mo clenched his fists, this time, it was no longer just about the ownership of the Recycle Pill!

Qian Yong'an was so ungrateful, how could Lin Mo allow him?

This time, Lin Mo wanted to let him know: the Lin family had not yet died out, no one would ever want to take away the Lin family's things!

What belongs to the Lin family, he, Lin Mo, will definitely take back with his own hands!

Chapter 1565

Lin Mo went through those experimental data again and found that Qian Yong'an, with this reconstructive pill, the medicinal effect did not actually meet expectations.

After all, what Qian Yong'an had stolen from Xu's Pharmaceutical was only the general step.

The core step, however, was still in Lin Mo's hands.

The potency of the pills refined from Wan Chun Tang's side was, compared to the real rejuvenation pills, at least 90% worse.

Moreover, Lin Mo vaguely felt that there should still be some problems with the rejuvenation pills refined by Wan Chun Tang.

Lin Mo put the file bag down and said in a deep voice, "Mouse, can you think of a way to get a finished pill of the Recycle Pill out of the Wanchun Hall?"

Mouse scratched his head, "Brother Lin, I'll try my best."

"Wanchun Hall has very strict control over the finished pills, so it's not easy to get the finished pills!"

Lin Mo nodded, "It's fine."

"Do your best, just forget about it if you can't get it!"

"Safety first!"

Mouse nodded vigorously and whispered again, "Right, Brother Lin, I've also found out about that Chen Baiyu that you asked me to inquire about."

Chen Baiyu, was a young master who had passed by this side of Su Province when Lin Mo and the others had gone to pick the Nine Leaf Fire Lotus earlier.

The Chen family was one of the top three among the top ten families in Su Province, with a status similar to that of the Qian family.

Chen Baiyu's father was the head of the Chen family, with a high status.

At that time, in Wu Zhai, Lin Mo had helped Chen Baiyu and even saved his life later on, so Chen Baiyu was very grateful to Lin Mo.

This time, Lin Mo came to Su Province to do something, and he was thinking about whether he should go and talk to Chen Baiyu.

Lin Mo was unfamiliar with this side of Suzhou Province.

If Chen Baiyu was willing to help him, then this matter would be much easier!

However, before that, he had to find out Chen Baiyu's attitude.

If Chen Baiyu was the kind of person who was ungrateful and betrayed him outright, then it would be troublesome.

Lin Mo said in a deep voice, "What about Chen Baiyu?"

"What's his opinion on this Recycle Pill thing from Wan Chun Tang?"

Mouse waved his hand, "What opinion can he have?"

"Brother Lin, this Chen Baiyu ah, now in Su Province, is simply a joke!"

Lin Mo frowned slightly, "Why?"

"His father is the head of the Chen family, he is the heir to the Chen family, how could he be a joke now?"

Rat: "The Chen family head, has long since changed!"

"His father, was killed by someone."

"And this Chen Baiyu, now in the Chen family, is similar to a side branch son, and has no status to speak of at all."

Lin Mo was surprised, "Why is that?"

Mouse whispered, "I heard that it seems to be some big family over in the capital that has a problem with the Chen family."

"That big clan came with a big shot and raised hell with the Ten Great Families of Su Province."

"In order to put this matter to rest, the people from the Ten Great Families of Su Province forced Chen Baiyu's father, the Chen family head, to cut himself off in public to put an end to this matter once and for all."

"The people of the Chen family didn't dare to say anything at all, instead they even treated that big family with respect."

"In the end, the Chen family changed its head of family before this matter was put to rest."

Lin Mo's face was cold, of course he knew who that great family in the capital was.

The last time he had gone to snatch the Seven Leaf Fire Lotus, a thousand-year-old Miss Xie Qingyue from the Xie family in the capital had also gone over.

However, on that occasion, the Xie family had not been able to take advantage of anything, but instead had suffered numerous deaths and injuries.

Chen Baiyu was very respectful to Lin Mo at that time, and did not help the Xie family.

Probably, it was because of this incident that the Xie family ran after the Chen family, leading to the tragic death of Chen Baiyu's father.

As for Lin Mo, he had been in Guangyang City, and under the shelter of Nanba Tian, the Xie Family didn't have the guts to go to Guangyang City to look for trouble with him, so Lin Mo didn't even know about these things.

Lin Mo took a deep breath, he already knew what to do.

After what Chen Baiyu had gone through, he must have become desperate for the Ten Families of Su Province, he would definitely help Lin Mo!

Chapter 1566

It was 10pm at the Dynasty International in Yunan City.

This was one of the several most luxurious nightclubs in Yunan City, and it was also the nightclub that those dudes from the ten major families liked to come to most on a regular basis.

A black car drove up to the entrance of Dynasty International, but was directly stopped by a few black-clad men at the entrance.

“Sorry, the car park inside is full, foreign vehicles, are strictly forbidden to enter!”

The man in black, who was leading, said with a leathery smile.

The other few people, too, were all looking at the car playfully.

These few people, all knew the owner of this car, none other than Chen Baiyu of the Chen family.

Chen Baiyu, who was sitting in the driver’s seat, had a blue face.

Of course he knew what these people meant.

The car park inside this Dynasty International was huge, and, on weekdays, only half of the cars would be parked.

The remaining half of the parking spaces were for emergencies, mainly reserved for those big shots to park.

Two months ago, when Chen Baiyu drove over, even the general manager of Dynasty International would personally come out to greet him and respectfully invite him into the car park.

Even if there was no parking space here, the manager would definitely find a way to vacate a parking space for Chen Baiyu!

However, the times are different now.

With Chen Baiyu’s father dead, Chen Baiyu’s status in the Chen family was in ruins, and even the security guards who were watching the venue didn’t take Chen Baiyu into account anymore.

They even stopped Chen Baiyu at the entrance, which really made Chen Baiyu experience the warmth of human feelings.

However, Chen Baiyu did not dare to confront these security guards.

He was very clear about his current situation.

Although he carried the name of the Chen family, in fact, after the Chen family head had changed, no one in the Chen family cared about him anymore.

If he were to get into trouble with these security guards, the Chen family would not stand up for him.

In the end, the one who would suffer would definitely be himself, and this matter would even become a joke in Yunan City.

Therefore, he could only swallow his anger.

Chen Baiyu opened the car door and stepped down, handing the car keys to the man in black.

He couldn't drive the car in, but he could let these people park the car for him, and just give a little tip when he came out.

After all, this was a nightclub and was in the service business.

It's a status symbol to be able to drive your car into the car park inside.

If you can't drive in, this place also provides valet parking, which also allows the guests to enjoy the best convenience.

However, when Chen Baiyu handed over the car keys, the man in black did not take them at all.

He looked at Chen Baiyu with interest and smiled, "Yo, isn't this young Chen?"

"Young Chen, I heard that you haven't come out for many days at home, why are you so interested today that you have come to Dynasty International to play?"

"Hey, brothers, look, it's Young Chen!"

"Do you still remember? In the past, when Mr. Chen came here, our general manager had to come down to greet him personally!"

Those other men in black immediately gathered around and joked around.

It seemed like they were greeting Chen Baiyu, but in fact, these people were simply mocking Chen Baiyu.

This once top young master of Su Province had now fallen to this state, just like the saying, "A tiger in a flat sun is bullied by a dog!"

Chen Baiyu's face looked ugly, he finally couldn't help himself and said angrily, "I told you to park the car, didn't you hear me?"

A cold smile wiped across the face of the leader in black: "Yo, Young Chen, what do you mean by that?"

"What's the matter? Lost your temper?"

"Our brothers admire you and want to say hello to you, what's wrong with that?"

"You've lost your temper with us, what's wrong with that?"

"Even if you are the young master of the Chen family, you don't have to bully people like this, do you?"

"What, do you look down on us as security guards?"

The others were also staring at Chen Baiyu intently, looking at the situation, if Chen Baiyu said something wrong, they might have to come up and beat Chen Baiyu up.

Chapter 1567

Chen Baiyu was furious, he really didn't expect that after his fall from grace, anyone would dare to climb on his head to sh*t and P*ss on him.

He didn't know that these security guards were the type of people who would always hold him in high esteem.

In the past, when Chen Baiyu was in power, these people always supported him.

Now that he had fallen on hard times, these security guards wanted to trample him to the bottom of the mud, so of course they were looking for trouble by all means.

However, when faced with such a situation now, Chen Baiyu did not dare to really tear his face off with them.

Now he really had nothing left, he couldn't even fight these security guards!

Forcibly holding back the anger in his heart, Chen Baiyu finally chose to bow his head.

"A few big brothers, sorry, I don't mean to look down on you."

"I ..... have some business inside, if you guys don't have time to help me park, I'll park myself, is that alright?"

When Chen Baiyu said these words, he only felt that he had completely lost his face as well.

As the former young master of the Chen family, he had to bow down to these security guards, what was the point of living?

The men in black laughed loudly, and the man at the head snorted, "Young Chen, you're too polite to say that."

"Brothers, did you hear that? Young Chen has apologised to us!"

"Since Young Chen is willing to bow down, let's forgive him for once, how about that?"

The crowd roared their approval.

The man in charge snatched the car keys from Chen Baiyu's hand and casually threw them to a youth next to him, smiling, "Young Chen, you're a guest when you're here."

"And the car, we will park it for you."

"But the tip, can you pay for it first?"

"As you know, it's not easy for the brothers to make money!"

Chen Baiyu was almost mad, it was the first time he had seen someone who had to give a tip when parking a car.

Everyone else tipped when they came out to pick up their cars, but these people looked down on him!

But what could he say now?

Taking out a few hundred yuan from his body and handing them over, Chen Baiyu said in a deep voice: "Is that enough?"

The man at the head of the group laughed loudly, "Young Chen is very generous!"

“Come on, young Chen, please come inside!”

Chen Baiyu gritted his teeth and walked into Dynasty International with his head bowed.

Outside, those security guards once again laughed loudly.

One of the security guards approached the head man and whispered, “Captain, how come you let him tip first? Are you afraid he won’t have the money to pay?”

The man in charge glanced at him, “You kid, what the hell do you know!”

“You still don’t understand why Chen Baiyu came here today?”

Several security guards shook their heads in bewilderment.

The man at the head said in a deep voice, “You bunch of lackeys!”

“After what happened to the Chen family, Chen Baiyu has been cowering at home and hasn’t left the house.”

“For the first time in such a long time, he went out and came to our Dynasty International, don’t you guys understand what’s going on?”

The crowd shook their heads again.

The man at the head was speechless: “Let me put it to you this way!”

“Tonight, Qian Shao from the Qian family, brought Xue Yuting from the Xue family to play with him.”

Several security guards looked at each other, and one of them exclaimed, “Xue Yuting from the Xue family?”

“Isn’t that the Xue family’s Missy?”

“She’s gone with Young Qian like that?”

The man at the head of the group sneered, “It’s none of our business what other young masters and young misses do.”

“But, you guys need to know one thing.”

“This Xue Yuting, in the past, was Chen Baiyu’s girlfriend!”

“And, the two of them have been engaged for a long time.”

At this statement, several security guards suddenly realized and all laughed.

“So, Xue Yuting is planning to kick Chen Baiyu and follow Qian Shao, huh?”

“Hahahaha, Chen Baiyu, not willing to be a green-headed prince, so he ran to find trouble?”

A security guard laughed.

The man at the head of the group laughed, “Does that even need to be said?”

“That’s why I asked for this tip first!”

“Once this goes in, if this unlucky man Chen Baiyu dies, who are we going to ask for money?”

Chapter 1568

Several of the guards laughed loudly and praised the captain for his foresight.

While the crowd was talking, they didn’t notice that not far away from them, there was a youth wearing a duck-tongue cap, who had listened to everything they said.

This youth was none other than Lin Mo.

He had received news that Chen Baiyu would be coming to Dynasty International tonight, so he planned to come here to meet him.

After listening to these security guards’ conversation, he also knew the purpose of Chen Baiyu’s visit here.

However, it was no wonder.

Chen Baiyu had died of his father and had fallen into such a desperate state, so he had probably lost all his thoughts long ago.

Now, his girlfriend, his engaged fiancée, was hooking up with someone else, so could he not be angry?

It seems that Chen Baiyu is planning to fight to the death tonight, not to die!

Lin Mo pretended that everything had nothing to do with him and walked straight into Dynasty International.

He walked into Dynasty International and saw Chen Baiyu from afar.

Chen Baiyu was much more haggard than before, and his entire body was estimated to have lost more than twenty pounds.

His eyes were bloodshot and he was going upstairs.

Lin Mo followed quietly behind him, not letting him discover himself.

Chen Baiyu arrived at the third floor, here, was where those fops from the ten families often came.

Along the corridor, he walked to the private room at the end.

Chen Baiyu took a deep breath and violently pushed the door and walked in.

In the room, there were a dozen men and women who were partying.

On the main seat of the sofa, there was a man and woman cuddled together, kissing pa*sionately.

Chen Baiyu smoothly turned on all the lights in the room, and turned off all the sound from the stereo.

At this moment, the revelry of the people inside the house immediately stopped and everyone looked towards the door.

These people inside the house, Chen Baiyu knew all of them, were none other than the fops of the ten families.

In the past, Chen Baiyu was also one of them, and moreover, the one with the most exalted status.

When these people in the room saw Chen Baiyu, they all had to respectfully call out to him as Young Chen.

Now, when these people saw Chen Baiyu, a hint of disdain and even mockery wiped across their faces.

Chen Baiyu did not care about these people, his gaze was fixed on the man and woman on the main seat of the sofa.

The man was none other than Qian Liangwen of the Qian family, the current young master of the Qian family, the heir to the Qian family!

The woman, on the other hand, was none other than Chen Baiyu's fiancée, Xue Yuting!

Chen Baiyu and Xue Yuting are considered childhood friends, his father and Xue Yuting's father are close friends and they grew up together.

Chen Baiyu is the kind of man who is particularly devoted to his family, and as the youngest of the Chen family, he is surrounded by many beautiful women.

But Chen Baiyu had never even looked at another woman in the eye.

In his heart, there was only Xue Yuting.

The two of them were childhood sweethearts and were very close, and from the very beginning, Chen Baiyu was sure of Xue Yuting in his heart.

He had never touched Xue Yuting for so long, out of respect for her.

But he never dreamed that the woman he loved, whom he could not even touch, was now sitting in the arms of another man, kissing him passionately.

Moreover, the most crucial thing was. A month ago, Xue Yuting was still making out with him.

It had only been a short month, but Xue Yuting had immediately fallen into the arms of another man? What's more, it had developed so quickly?

Chen Baiyu only felt that his heart was about to split open, this pain could almost be compared to the pain he felt when his father died!

After a moment of silence, Qian Liangwen spoke up first, "Aiyo, so it's Young Chen?"

"What's up? Come here for something?"

When he spoke, Xue Yuting was still sitting in his arms. And his hand, too, recklessly reached inside Xue Yuting's clothes, stroking her important parts over and over again.

Xue Yuting had no intention of stopping it, but on the contrary, she was still hugging Qian Liangwen tightly, as if she was enjoying the feeling.

Chapter 1569

Seeing this scene, Chen Baiyu was even more distressed.

Gritting his teeth, he rushed forward and grabbed Xue Yuting's wrist: "Yuting, come with me!"

However, Xue Yuting directly flung his hand away.

"What are you doing?"

"Why should I go with you?"

Xue Yuting said in a cold voice.

Chen Baiyu was anxious: "Why?"

"Why do you say?"

"You are my fiancée, you ..... how can you be with another man like this?"

Xue Yuting smiled outright at her words, "Chen Baiyu, didn't your Chen family's people inform you?"

"We, the Xue family, have already broken off our engagement with your Chen family."

"The marriage contract that we both made before, no longer counts."

"I, and you, no longer have any relationship!"

Chen Baiyu's face changed sharply.

"This ..... this can't be! This ..... how is this possible?"

"Yu Ting, you ..... you are lying to me, you must be lying to me, right?"

"You said that the person you love most is me, in this life, you will only marry me alone."

"You ..... How could you possibly break off your engagement with me?"

"Yu Ting, Yu Ting, did someone force you? Did someone from your Xue family force you?"

"You tell me, you tell me ....."

Chen Baiyu grabbed Xue Yuting's hand and asked in a trembling voice.

Xue Yuting struggled hard but was unable to break free, so she couldn't help but say anxiously, "Let go of me!"

"I'm not lying to you, and no one is forcing me!"

"I was the one who wanted to break off the engagement with you!"

“Chen Baiyu, I don’t love you at all!”

“Can you stop pestering me in the future?”

Chen Baiyu’s face was pale as he looked at Xue Yuting incredulously with an expression of disbelief.

“It won’t happen!”

“It won’t happen!”

“Definitely not!”

“You said, you said you loved me!”

“You ..... said it yourself .....”

Chen Baiyu said excitedly.

Xue Yuting sneered, “So what if I said it?”

“I was just saying that for fun!”

“Chen Baiyu, do you really think that I would like an uncomprehending punk like you?”

Chen Baiyu’s face was pale and he stood frozen in place, his whole body dumbfounded.

Xue Yuting flung her hand again, “Let go of me!”

Chen Baiyu was in a daze, still clutching Xue Yuting’s hand as if he was holding on to his last shred of hope.

At this moment, Qian Liangwen stood up.

He suddenly clasped Chen Baiyu’s wrist and twisted it with his hand. Chen Baiyu was in pain and involuntarily let go of his hand.

But Qian Liangwen did not let go of his hand, instead he twisted it so hard that Chen Baiyu was twisted to the point of bending down, one more step away from almost falling to his knees.

Qian Liangwen said in a cold voice: “Young Chen, we have known each other for many years. There’s a word of advice, I still have to advise you!”

“To be a man, you have to have some manners!”

“The girl has already said the obvious, so why do you have to stalk her like this?”

“How dare you put your hands on a girl like that, aren’t you ashamed of yourself?”

The crowd around roared in approval, and the eyes of the people looking at Chen Baiyu were full of mockery and contempt.

Qian Liangwen was even more smug as he looked at Chen Baiyu in a condescending manner, “Young Chen, Yu Ting is now my girlfriend, I hope you can treat her with a little more respect!”

“For the sake of friends, I’ll give you a chance.”

“Now, kneel on the ground and say sorry to Yu Ting.”

“How about I can pretend that what just happened never happened?”

Xue Yuting hugged Qian Liangwen’s arm and leaned on him, her face full of smugness, “Honey, you’re too good to me!”

“Love you to death!”

She said, and gave Qian Liangwen a strong kiss on his cheek.

Then, she looked at Chen Baiyu smugly again, as if she was waiting for Chen Baiyu to kneel down.

Chapter 1570

Chen Baiyu’s face was pale, Xue Yuting’s actions had made him completely desperate.

Originally, he still had a slight illusion about this childhood sweetheart, but now he realised that everything Xue Yuting had done for him was a lie.

He had offered her up like a goddess, while she had never given him even the slightest hint of her true heart.

Chen Baiyu suddenly gritted his teeth and shouted, “Who am I to apologise?”

“It was her Xue Yuting who wronged me first, I didn’t do anything wrong, why should I apologise?”

“The one who should apologize is you, Xue Yuting!”

Chen Baiyu hissed as he struggled desperately to break free from Qian Liangwen’s grip.

However, his strength was far less than Qian Liangwen’s. With Qian Liangwen holding his wrist, he was unable to break free.

Seeing Chen Baiyu in this state, Xue Yuting’s face was filled with disgust.

Qian Liangwen, on the other hand, smiled coldly, “Young Chen, I know that recently, the Chen family has undergone a great change, which has caused you to suffer a considerable blow.”

“But I really didn’t expect that you would be struck like this, even your spirit is misplaced!”

“Ai, how pitiful!”

The crowd around them all burst into laughter, Qian Liangwen’s words were clearly saying that Chen Baiyu was insane.

Chen Baiyu was furious: “You are the one who is mentally deranged!”

A sharp look flashed in Qian Liangwen’s eyes as he increased the force in his hand, twisting Chen Baiyu’s wrist so hard that it creaked.

Chen Baiyu was in pain and his body bent down little by little.

Qian Liangwen kept increasing his strength, and with a sharp aura in his eyes, he shouted, "Kneel down for me!"

With that, Qian Liangwen violently increased his strength, twisting Chen Baiyu's wrist as hard as he could, trying to force him to kneel on the ground.

But Chen Baiyu was now clenching his teeth and carrying on, just not kneeling.

Qian Liangwen was annoyed and twisted with all his might.

This time, if Chen Baiyu didn't kneel, he would have to break his arm!

Chen Baiyu was also a man, and even though he was suffering from such pain, he held on and did not kneel.

With a click, Chen Baiyu's arm was directly dislocated.

Chen Baiyu's face was so distorted by the pain, but he still stood, not kneeling even though he was dead!

Qian Liangwen could not help but be even more furious!

In his opinion, Chen Baiyu was nothing but a waste.

To him, Chen Baiyu was just a waste of time. To hold on like this and not kneel down was to make him lose face.

"D*mn, you're still tough!"

"I'll see how long you can be tough!"

Qian Liangwen kicked Chen Baiyu in the knee and shouted angrily again, "Kneel down for me!"

Chen Baiyu's leg was almost broken by the kick, but he held on to the table next to him and continued to carry on.

Qian Liangwen was furious, "Chen Baiyu, you really have some f*cking balls!"

"Not kneeling, are you?"

"Fine, I have plenty of time to play with you!"

"Today, if I don't let you kneel down, my name is not Qian Liangwen!"

With that, Qian Liangwen grabbed the bottle on the table and smashed it directly on Chen Baiyu's head, roaring, "Kneel down for me!"

Chen Baiyu's head was bleeding from the smashing, but he still held on and did not kneel down.

At this moment, Xue Yuting also grabbed the chair next to him and slammed it onto the bend of Chen Baiyu's leg, "My husband told you to kneel down, are you deaf?"

This smashed Chen Baiyu, causing him to stagger and almost fall to his knees.

However, he still pressed the table with a deadly grip and stood up stiffly.

He looked at Xue Yuting and his eyes turned fierce.

“I really didn’t expect that you would turn out like this!”

“Xue Yuting, from now on, between you and me, there will be no more half entanglement!”

Chen Baiyu said through clenched teeth.

Xue Yuting laughed outright, “Chen Baiyu, are you sick in the head?”

“Do you think I want to have any entanglement with you? You’re the one who keeps stalking me, okay?”

“I’m telling you, your father deserved to die! And you deserve to be in this situation!”

“God is so lucky that I was able to get rid of you so I could find a husband as good as Liang Wen, do you understand?”
