

Genius 1861

Chapter 1861

Xie Qianshan was extremely shrewd and instantly saw what Lin Mo had in mind.

He said in a cold voice, "Surname Lin, my brother's death has not yet been investigated."

"This announcement, there is no way I can issue it!"

Lin Mo sneered, "Then do as you please."

"If you don't want to send it, then let's have a fish death!"

"Oh, by the way, Xie Qishan, let me advise you."

"If all these people from your Xie family die here, then it's hard to say whether you can bring me out of the Southern Six Provinces."

"Master Xie, do you really intend to use the lives of so many people in your Xie family to wager on an uncertain future?"

Xie Qianshan's brow furrowed as a cold aura continued to flicker in his eyes, his heart simply hating to the extreme.

However, in the end, he forced down the anger in his heart.

"This matter, I have to go back and discuss it!"

Xie Qianshan said in a deep voice.

Lin Mo smiled faintly, "No problem!"

"You can go back and discuss it properly."

Xie Qianshan said in a deep voice, "These people, I want to bring them back."

Chen Wuyuan said directly, "Are you dreaming?"

"These are now called hostages, do you understand?"

Xie Qianshan ignored Chen Wuyuan and just stared deadly at Lin Mo.

Lin Mo smiled lightly, "Master Xie, want to find someone to detoxify them?"

"No problem, whatever you want."

"All these people, you can bring them back."

"However, let me advise you, you only have three days!"

Chen Wuyuan was a little anxious: "Divine Doctor Lin?"

Lin Mo waved his hand, "Elder Chen, don't worry."

"I have confidence!"

Chen Wuyuan looked at Lin Mo's confident look, and stopped speaking.

Xie Qianshan, on the other hand, was clenching his teeth, the more confident Lin Mo was, the more panicked he became instead.

He took out his mobile phone and called the people at the bottom of the mountain, asking them to come up and pick him up.

Lin Mo, on the other hand, took out a porcelain bottle from his body and handed it to Xie Qianshan: "By the way, Master Xie, you take this bottle of medicine."

Xie Qianshan's face turned cold: "Lin, what other tricks do you want to play?"

Lin Mo smiled lightly, "Family Head Xie, at this point in time, what kind of tricks do I have to play?"

"This is just an insurance for you."

"I know that you want to hire someone to cure them of the poison."

"But, as I said, if you get it wrong, it could kill someone."

"Let me advise you, if you find that they are not well, give them a pill in a hurry."

"This medicine, it won't cure the poison, but it will save their lives."

"Master Xie, I just don't want to be an enemy of the Xie family, I don't mean to get your Xie family members killed."

"If someone from the Xie family dies this time because of this, then this matter, I'm afraid, will really be unending!"

"I don't want any of you to die because of this until the last possible moment, don't you think so?"

Xie Qianshan looked at the porcelain vase with a grimace, and finally took the vial of medicine.

He had no choice now that things had come to this point.

Not long after, people from the Xie family ran up and took away all these senior members of the Xie family and the offering experts.

Xie Qianshan's face was ironic as he followed the Xie family's people and withdrew back.

On this side, Chen Wuyuan and the others watched the Xie Clan's people walk away and breathed a long sigh of relief.

Zhao Tianying gave Lin Mo a thumbs up and said excitedly, "Divine Doctor Lin, it's still your scheme that works!"

"It seems that this time, the Xie family's matter can really be resolved smoothly!"

The others beside him were also full of joy.

This time, they had all come to help Lin Mo with the determination of certain death, and that was because they were grateful to Lin Mo.

However, even if a mole were to live, these people would not want to die!

If Lin Mo could settle this matter without bloodshed, it would be great news to the people.

This way, the threat of the Xie family would be gone, and the crowd would have Lin Mo's support, which would really be a great profit!

Chapter 1862

Looking at the crowd's expressions, Lin Mo also smiled gently, "I'm just trying it out too."

"This time, I still have to thank everyone for their support."

The crowd laughed loudly, everyone's mood happy to the extreme.

A huge stone that had been weighing on the hearts of the crowd for so long had finally fallen down.

Next to him, the Tang family head was still a little worried and whispered, "Divine Doctor Lin, is it true that they can't cure the poison?"

"As far as I know, the number one divine doctor in China, Sai Hua Tuo, is in the capital."

"This person's medical skills, that can really be said to be out of this world."

"It is said that a dead person was brought back to life by him!"

Several other people also had worried faces, the name of this number one divine doctor in China had really been passed down for decades, it was really unknown to everyone!

Lin Mo smiled faintly, "Don't worry."

"This poison of mine, it's not difficult to cure, but it's tedious to refine the antidote."

"Even if I knew the ingredients of this poison, it would still take at least five days to refine this antidote."

"I'll only give them three days, what do you think?"

The crowd breathed a sigh of relief, while Chen Wuyuan said worriedly, "Five days to refine the medicine?"

"Then if the Xie family issues an announcement later, how are we going to give them the antidote?"

Lin Mo smiled, "Old Chen, this antidote, I have refined it a long time ago."

Chen Wuyuan dawned on him and immediately laughed, "Aiya, I almost thought these people were dead, hahaha"

The crowd laughed once again, with Lin Mo's words, the crowd was completely free from worry.

.....

The outskirts of Guangyang City.

After Xie Qianshan brought these people out, he immediately contacted the old man of the Xie family and told the old man about this matter.

Master Xie was also quite shocked when he heard these things.

He had thought that Lin Mo was an easy person to deal with, but he had never expected that such an accident would happen.

After pondering for a moment, Elder Xie still told Xie Qianshan to immediately send a few Xie family members back to the capital.

He, on the other hand, personally went out to get help from Sai Hua Tuo to cure the poison.

Xie Qianshan also did not dare to delay and chartered a plane to send the few poisoned Xie family members directly to the capital.

The whole process took no more than five hours, and these members of the Xie family arrived in the capital.

However, after these people arrived in the capital, it was only two hours before Elder Xie's call came back.

Xie Qianshan had been waiting anxiously and when he saw the call from the old man, he immediately answered the phone excitedly, "Dad, how is it? Can Sai Hua Tuo cure them?"

Master Xie sighed, "Sai Hua Tuo has said that there is no help!"

Xie Qianshan was instantly confused, "What?"

"Hopeless?"

"This how is this possible?"

"Sai Hua Tuo, that's the number one divine doctor in China!"

"He can't even cure this poison?"

Elder Xie sighed helplessly, "Sai Hua Tuo said that the poison could be cured, but the problem is that it would be too tedious to refine the antidote, and it would take at least five days to do so."

"But, the way these people are poisoned, within three days, the poison will definitely flare up."

"The antidote he refined would be too late to save the people at all!"

Xie Qianshan sat down directly on the sofa.

Sai Hua Tuo, was the last hope.

Even Sai Hua Tuo had said this, so what else could be done about this matter?

"Dad, then then what now?"

"Does it mean that we really have to send out this announcement as Lin Mo said?"

"Once this announcement is sent out, we, the Xie family, can no longer take action against Lin Mo!"

"Otherwise, when the time comes, everyone in this world will laugh at us for not keeping our word."

“It would be impossible for us to enter the Top Ten Families of China again!”

Xie Qianshan said in despair.

For his part, Elder Xie sneered, “What are you panicking about?”

“This matter, it’s not over yet!”

Chapter 1863

Hearing this, Xie Qianshan instantly came to life and said excitedly, “Dad, there is another way?”

Elder Xie calmly said, “It’s easy to hide from a clear shot, but it’s hard to defend against a hidden arrow.”

“This Lin is extremely cunning, it’s probably not too easy to fight him head on.”

“However, for us, the most important thing is to capture him back to the capital.”

“We don’t necessarily have to come in openly, we can also send someone to sneak up on him and capture him back!”

Xie Qianshan froze for a moment, “Sneak attack him?”

“Dad, this is not very easy, is it?”

Elder Xie: “What’s not easy?”

“I’ve already sent someone to contact your fifth uncle.”

“Your fifth uncle is a bit stronger than you.”

“The two of you joining forces, capturing a mere Lin Mo shouldn’t be a problem!”

Xie Qianshan smiled, a brilliant aura immediately flashed in his eyes as he excitedly said, “Dad, Fifth Uncle is out of the gate?”

“Great!”

“Fifth Uncle was a half-step Little Grandmaster before he went into seclusion, his strength is no worse than any of the Ten Great Families of China’s family heads!”

“This time, with Fifth Uncle helping me out, it’ll be too easy to capture Lin Mo!”

“Fine, I’ll wait here for Fifth Uncle to come over and directly capture the one surnamed Lin back.”

Elder Xie: “This matter, there’s no rush.”

“You should first send out an announcement like the one surnamed Lin said.”

“No matter what, we have to get him to detoxify these people in our family first!”

“When this matter is over, you guys go back to the capital first and pretend to stay for a while.”

“Then, find an opportunity to sneak over and capture Lin Mo back, won’t that be enough?”

Xie Qianshan came back to his senses and immediately nodded, "Right, right, detoxify the poison first, detoxify the poison first."

"Hahahaha, this Lin surname, probably wouldn't even dream that we are hiding a backhand too!"

"Hmph, when the time comes to capture him back to the capital, I'll see if he still dares to be so hard-headed!"

Elder Xie: "Alright, go ahead and contact Lin Mo and do as he says."

"First, let him detoxify these people in our family, then you guys go back to the capital first."

"Let's talk about the rest after a while!"

Xie Qianshan immediately nodded his head and went to contact Lin Mo first, as Elder Xie had instructed.

On the Guang Yang City side, Lin Mo was also waiting for news from the Xie family.

When they received Xie Qianshan's call, all the people in the crowd breathed a long sigh of relief.

As long as the Xie family was willing to issue this announcement, then this matter was completely resolved, and the people no longer had to be afraid.

Chen Wuyuan sat beside Lin Mo and smiled, "Divine Doctor Lin, it's still your brilliant idea!"

"These people from the Xie family have really bowed their heads honestly."

"Hahahaha, just this is still a candidate member of the upcoming Top Ten Families of China, it's no better than that!"

"Compared to Divine Doctor Lin, what are they worth?"

Several other people also nodded their heads, and the crowd was in an extraordinarily happy mood.

Lin Mo also smiled and chatted with the crowd, however, there was still some imperceptible worry between his brows.

In fact, this time, Lin Mo knew that the Xie family would definitely compromise.

However, he did not expect that the Xie family would compromise so quickly.

Given the Xie family's arrogant character and their coveting of the Recycle Pill, it was reasonable to say that the Xie family would definitely try to deal with this matter in any way possible.

For something like this, they would at least choose to compromise only when they were really desperate.

According to Lin Mo's estimation, the Xie family would have to toss and turn for at least two days.

Even, during this period, the Xie family might even find a way to capture the people around Lin Mo, in order to force him.

Lin Mo had also arranged for people to guard against the Xie family.

However, he did not expect that the Xie family would compromise so quickly.

It had only been less than a day, and the Xie family had simply conceded?

No matter how Lin Mo thought about it, he felt that there was something wrong here!

Chapter 1864

Lin Mo did not trust the Xie family at all.

Especially the Xie family's senior, this man was known for his cunning, and Li Tiezui had told Lin Mo about him before.

The history of the Xie family's old man was one of the more unique among so many large families.

In those other large families, the old man who was able to take charge of everything in the family must have been the head of the family.

The Xie family senior, on the other hand, had not been the head of the family at all.

Even his origins, in the Xie family, were not considered direct, but merely a member of a branch.

The Xie family senior was originally named Xie Xingguo, and his parents, who had no status or contribution among the family, were just ordinary family members.

In his case, he would have been able to earn some money and live a wealthy life thanks to the shade of the Xie family.

It was unlikely that he would be involved in a family power struggle!

However, this Xie Xingguo, against the odds, had to go against the odds.

Before he turned fifty, Xie Xingguo did not show his face and was like a transparent person in the family.

He didn't have any hobbies in his daily life, he just played in the mountains, played chess and teased the birds, and lived as if he was a playboy.

However, when he was fifty-one years old, the Xie family was hit by a terrible disaster.

At that time, the Xie family had offended another, more powerful family in the capital and the two sides clashed, killing and injuring dozens of people on both sides.

Eventually, with the intervention of the Nalan family, the two sides came to a truce.

However, that family, demanded that the matter be settled by way of a martial competition.

At that time, the Nalan family had no relationship with the Xie family either.

In order to avoid killing each other, the Nalan family agreed to this match.

However, at that time, the Xie family's old man, as well as the head of that Xie family, were both injured by people from the other family.

The Xie family's strength was already inferior to others.

The Xie family could not even find anyone who could fight in the tournament, not to mention whether they could beat them.

Just when the Xie family was about to lose face, Xie Xingguo stepped forward and wanted to fight instead of the family.

Everyone in the Xie family had no hope for him, thinking he was just messing around.

However, Xie Xingguo was resolute enough to run off and participate in the tournament.

And, most crucially, Xie Xingguo actually defeated his opponent, saving face for the Xie family!

This incident made Xie Xingguo's reputation and made everyone in the family look at him with great admiration.

Everyone in the clan supported Xie Xingguo, and he finally became one of the senior members of the clan.

There were even quite a few voices among the Xie family that were clamouring for Xie Xingguo to become the head of the Xie family.

Naturally, the then Xie family senior and the Xie family head were not willing to let a branch member take charge of the Xie family.

Therefore, they made things difficult for Xie Xingguo at every turn.

As a result, all their difficulties were easily resolved by Xie Xingguo.

Not only that, Xie Xingguo also showed his strong connections.

He seemed to be playing chess and walking the birds over the years, but he had also met a large number of important members of other families.

Ultimately, these people supported Xie Xingguo.

Coupled with Xie Xingguo's own management, he finally ousted the then Xie family head from his throne and pushed his own son Xie Qianshan into the position of Xie family head.

As for the previous Xie family head, he was also ousted from his throne due to some family a*set issues that led to his disgrace.

Xie Xingguo, then, logically became the Xie family's old master and took charge of everything in the Xie family.

For the next twenty years, the Xie family flourished under Xie Xingguo's leadership.

From an originally unranked family, it had gone step by step to the ranks of the top-ranked families in the capital, and even had the chance to enter the top ten families in China, and his means could be considered extremely strong.

Such a person, no matter his heart or strength, made Lin Mo have to be wary.

Ever since what happened to Xie Qianjun, Lin Mo had been very clear: his opponent was not Xie Qianshan, but the Xie family's old man!

Chapter 1865

Lin Mo could be certain that Xie Qianshan's agreement to his request so readily must have been directed by Xie Xingguo, the old man of the Xie family.

Xie Xingguo, on the other hand, was an extremely deep and scheming person, and there was absolutely no way he would be able to rest in peace after this incident.

Therefore, Xie Xingguo must have some other plans, and this is what really gives Lin Mo a headache.

As the saying goes, it was easy to hide from the open spear and hard to defend against the dark arrow.

If the Xie family came in with real weapons, Lin Mo could still find a way to defend himself.

However, if the other party came in with a conspiracy, it would be difficult to say.

However, Lin Mo could not tell Chen Wuyuan and the others about such a situation.

These matters were not something that they could solve, and Lin Mo did not want them to worry along with him.

Not long after Xie Qianshan contacted Lin Mo, he issued an announcement in the name of the Xie family head, making it known to the world that the Xie family had investigated clearly and that Lin Mo had nothing to do with Xie Qianjun's death!

After this announcement was made, it could be said that everyone was confused.

In particular, those who had previously taken advantage of the opportunity to cast stones at Lin Mo were on the verge of tears.

What was this situation?

The Xie family had come on a rampage to clean up Lin Mo.

As a result, it was only a short time ago that the Xie family said that this had nothing to do with Lin Mo?

What is this? Is this a joke?

Amongst them, the most devastated were the dozen or so people from the families in the Guang Province of Su Province.

Chen Wuyuan and Zhao Tianying had come to Lin Mo's aid, but there were still many people left behind in their families who were unwilling to help Lin Mo.

They had previously felt that to help Lin Mo was to make an enemy of the Xie family, and that they were seeking their own death.

Therefore, not only were they unwilling to help, they also blocked Chen Wuyuan and the others from coming over.

Moreover, after Chen Wuyuan and the others had come over, these people had even started to fight for power in the family and were in the midst of an uproar.

As a result, they now got the news that Lin Mo was fine.

This time, they were really close to tears!

If Lin Mo's side was fine, then they would be finished!

If Lin Mo had his hands free, he would definitely not let them go.

Therefore, the first time they received this announcement, countless people came to say goodbye to Lin Mo.

On the surface they were saying goodbye, but in fact, they all came to apologise to Lin Mo and beg for forgiveness.

To these people, Lin Mo didn't even pay attention to them and directly handed them over to Tiger Chen Wuyuan and the others to deal with.

Naturally, Lin Mo would not put these wallflowers in his eyes.

However, the necessary punishment, that must still be there.

Those who had not done anything out of the ordinary during this period could keep their lives, but they would also have to pay a great price.

And those who had moved behind Lin Mo's back, needless to say, would have to at least have their hands and feet broken.

This time, Lin Mo was also going to take this opportunity to completely overhaul the forces in these two provinces!

That evening, Xie Qianshan brought the Xie family's people and rushed to Wangjiang Garden.

The Xie family's announcement was sent out, so naturally Lin Mo had to keep his word and directly gave these people from the Xie family the antidote to the poison.

Xie Qianshan stood by and watched all this, and only when Lin Mo had detoxified everyone did he give Lin Mo a deep look.

"Divine Doctor Lin, I really underestimated you."

"You are indeed resourceful and unguardable!"

"However, you should know that the matter between us is not over yet!"

Xie Qishan said in a cold voice.

Lin Mo smiled lightly, "Master Xie, you are welcome to visit Guangyang City anytime!"

Xie Qianshan sneered and didn't say a word as he led the Xie family members straight away.

Looking at Xie Qianshan's back, Lin Mo's brow furrowed even tighter.

Xie Qianshan had dared to threaten him directly like this, so it was clear that Xie Qianshan already had a plan on his side, and he must have been very confident in this plan, thinking that this plan would definitely be able to catch Lin Mo.

In other words, Lin Mo's current situation was already very dangerous!

Chapter 1866

After settling the matter of these people from the Xie family, Chen Wuyuan and the others all left separately.

They still had to go back and clean up those messes of their clans.

However, now that the Xie family had withdrawn from the six southern provinces, those people from their family, wouldn't dare to resist.

At night, Lin Mo sat alone in his villa in Wangjiang Garden, still calculating in his mind how the Xie Family would actually come against him.

Because of the threat from the Xie family, he did not even dare to bring Xu Hanxia and the others back.

It was absolutely safe for Xu Hanxia and the others to stay in Hai Cheng.

Once they were picked up, it would be difficult to say.

While Lin Mo was frowning and pondering, the door to the room was suddenly opened.

Lin Mo looked up, only to see Li Tiezui smilingly entering through the doorway.

"Old Li?"

"Where have you been these past few days?"

Lin Mo couldn't help but stare.

In the past two days, Li Tiezui had been like a shadow, not showing his face at all, and he was still curious as to where this old fellow had gone.

Li Tiezui laughed: "I went to do a very important thing!"

Lin Mo was surprised, "What is it?"

Li Tiezui smiled and mysteriously placed a box on the table in front of Lin Mo: "You'll find out in a moment!"

Lin Mo was puzzled, this Li Tiezui, what was he up to with his godly ways?

"What's in the box?"

Lin Mo said curiously.

Li Tiezui waved his hand and did not say anything, but looked in the direction of the door, as if he was waiting for something.

"What are you looking at?"

Lin Mo asked again.

Li Tiezui: "Waiting for someone!"

Lin Mo: "Waiting for someone? Waiting for who?"

Li Tiezui waved his hand, "Don't worry, he'll be here soon."

Lin Mo looked outside in confusion, his heart full of amazement.

This old man, Li Tiezui, looked very lewd, but he was very reliable.

He had come to Lin Mo to wait for someone, so that meant that the person who had come must not have a simple identity.

After about ten minutes, a man in sportswear walked into the courtyard.

With his hands in his pockets, the man walked all the way in, as if he didn't see the luxury around him, and walked straight to the house.

He looked at Lin Mo, then at Li Tiezui, and frowned: "Is he the man you're talking about?"

Li Tiezui: "Yes!"

The man said in a cold voice, "Old liar, I'll give you one more chance!"

"If you lie to me, tell me now and I can spare your life."

"Otherwise, this box is open, if I find out that you lied to me, then I will absolutely make you die without a burial place!"

Lin Mo frowned, this man's fury was too heavy, wasn't it?

Li Tiezui, on the other hand, smiled heatedly, "Do you still need to say that?"

"This box is open, if I make a mistake, then I won't have the face to live myself!"

"Alright, just trust me."

"Come, come, sit here and watch, the time to witness the miracle has come!"

The man gave Li Tiezui a deep look and walked to the table to sit down, but his hands were already clenched into fists.

The moment this man sat down, Lin Mo felt a suffocating sense of oppression.

In this instant, Lin Mo only felt as if the sweat hairs all over his body stood up.

This was a kind of alarm from the bottom of his heart!

He couldn't help but give the man an extra glance and was quite shocked in his heart.

Who the hell was this man? Why could he give him such a sense of oppression?

Lin Mo gave a questioning look towards Li Tiezui, who was just about to speak when the man spoke first, "Cut the crap and get started!"

Li Tiezui shrugged helplessly, "Alright."

"Little Linzi, let's begin."

Lin Mo looked confused, "Start what?"

Li Tiezui nudged his mouth, "Here, this wooden box, open it and you'll know."

Lin Mo was full of doubts, "What's inside this?"

Li Tiezui didn't say anything, he just pushed the wooden box in front of Lin Mo.

Lin Mo had no choice but to open it, who knew that what met his eyes was a decaying skeleton!

Chapter 1867

Lin Mo had thought of countless possibilities, but never in his wildest dreams could he have imagined that inside this wooden box was a skeleton!

This skeleton, it was not known how long it had been buried underground, emitting an aura of decay.

And underneath this skull, there were also some bones piled up, which should be other bones from this deceased person's body.

Lin Mo drew a breath of cold air: "Old Li, you what are you doing here?"

Li Tiezui did not speak.

At this time, the man opposite, however, his fists had clenched, his eyes had become red, and his body was trembling slightly, as if he was ready to strike at any moment.

Lin Mo was even more puzzled, what were these two people playing dumb?

Could it be that there was something wrong with the bones?

He couldn't help but take another look, and with this glance, he really found the problem.

He fiercely clenched his fist and looked at Li Tiezui: "Old Li, this bone, where did you get it?"

Li Tiezui did not speak, but the man opposite spoke first: "What's wrong with this bone?"

As he spoke, his voice was trembling and his fists were clenched tightly, looking extremely excited.

Lin Mo took the skull out and carefully examined it for a long time, his brows furrowed, "This man, he should have died a long time ago!"

If someone else had heard such words, they would have laughed outright.

The bones had rotted away, so he must have died a long time ago.

However, the man opposite did not laugh, instead, a brilliant aura flashed in his eyes.

He looked at Li Tiezui beside him, who shrugged, "I didn't say any of those things."

"I've lied to you a few times, but, on such matters, would I dare lie to you?"

The man didn't say anything and looked at Lin Mo again, "Go on."

Lin Mo picked up a few other bones inside, looked at them once more, and said in a deep voice, "This man's bones, they have all been soaked through with severe poison."

"According to this poisoning, he should have died through a long time ago!"

"However, someone used medicine to forcefully seal these poisons inside his bones, preventing the poison from emanating into the bloodstream, thus saving his life."

"Who on earth, could have such miraculous medical skills?"

The man's eyes shone even brighter as he looked at Li Tiezui once again.

Li Tiezui shrugged his shoulders once again, "You don't need to look at me, if you doubt, let him continue to talk!"

"Hey, Little Linzi, can you say something that will shock people even more?"

"Look at this kid, he looks like he doesn't believe it!"

Lin Mo scratched his head, "What's more shocking?"

Li Tiezui: "It's the kind of thing that ordinary people can't see, or something that only you can see."

Lin Mo thought about it and said in a deep voice, "According to the condition of this bone, this person, should have died seven years ago."

"And he was poisoned, it should have been twenty-three years ago."

"In other words, he should have died twenty-three years ago."

"However, someone hardened him to live for sixteen more years!"

"Is that shocking?"

Li Tiezui immediately let out a loud laugh, "No problem!"

"Absolutely shocking!"

"Hey, surnamed Wu, do you believe it now or not?"

"When was he poisoned, when did he die, all these things, outsiders don't know."

"Think about it yourself, have you told anyone?"

"Anyway, I don't know anything about it."

The man's face became grave as he stared straight at Lin Mo, as if he was pondering something.

However, it could be seen that his eyes and attitude had changed a lot, and there was no longer any disdain or hostility towards Lin Mo.

After a long time, the man said in a deep voice, "If you see this patient, do you have any way to cure him?"

Lin Mo thought about it and nodded, "There is a way, but, it may not be possible to do it!"

“Because, the medicine needed to cure him, is too rare!”

Chapter 1868

Hearing these words, the man’s body shivered.

He looked at Lin Mo with a deadly look and said in a trembling voice, “What kind of medicine do you need need?”

Lin Mo said softly, “Purple Manju.”

The man’s eyes immediately widened: “What is Purple Manju?”

Lin Mo: “A rare type of Manzanita.”

“The Manzanita we commonly see, also known as the other side flower, is all red.”

“The Purple Manzanita, is an exotic species within the Manzanita.”

“The Purple Manzanita is extremely poisonous, yet it can attack poison with poison and lift the poison within this bone.”

“However, if you want to find the Purple Manju, that is simply impossible.”

“This Purple Manju will only be born in places where the miasma is the heaviest.”

“For so many years, the only place where the Purple Manju has ever appeared is Miaojiang, and no one has ever seen it anywhere else.”

“The rarity of this Purple Manju is even rarer than if you saw ten thousand-year-old ginseng plants growing together at the same time!”

Hearing this, the man’s clenched fist finally loosened, and his eyes couldn’t help but redden.

He took a deep breath and looked to Li Tiezui next to him, “Alright, arrange a place for me to stay!”

Hearing this, Li Tiezui jumped straight up in joy.

“What, I told you I didn’t lie to you, right? Hahahaha

“Can you guarantee the safety of this kid?”

Li Tiezui said excitedly.

The man’s expression was calm as he said, word for word, “I will protect him with my life!”

Li Tiezui was laughing even more.

Next to him, Lin Mo was full of confusion, “Old Li, what the hell is going on here?”

Only then did Li Tiezui remember and laughed, “Oh, I forgot to introduce you guys.”

“Come, come, let me introduce you ah.”

“This one, named Wu Xuan, is the heir of Wu’s Wing Chun.”

“His father, who was the Wing Chun King thirty years ago, walked the world with a pair of iron fists.”

“From now on, he will be your personal bodyguard!”

Lin Mo couldn't help but stare in disbelief.

Although he didn't know exactly what Wu Xuan's identity was, he could sense that this Wu Xuan was by no means a weakling.

The pressure Wu Xuan gave him alone almost made him suffocate ah.

Such a supreme powerhouse, staying here to serve as his bodyguard?

“Uh, is this this suitable?”

“Brother Wu, I'm here.”

Lin Mo had an embarrassed look on his face.

Wu Xuan directly interrupted him, “Divine Doctor Lin, there is no need for you to say anything.”

“I won't pry into your secrets, I just need to know those just now and that's enough.”

“Just remember, what's in this box, is my father's corpse bones.”

“Back then, there was a man who used the method you mentioned to seal the poison in his bones and save his life.”

“Now, I'm here to return this favour!”

Lin Mo couldn't help but stare as a matter suddenly came to his mind.

Could it be that Wu Xuan was talking about his father, Lin Xiao?

Could it be that it was Lin Xiao who had sealed the poison in Wu Xuan's father's bones and saved his life?

When one thought about it, it was extremely likely.

After all, this kind of treatment was not something that could be done by ordinary people.

Lin Mo and Lin Xiao, both of whom had received the inheritance of the jade pendant, were the only two people who knew about these methods.

Therefore, the person who saved Wu Xuan's father in the first place must have been Lin Xiao.

And for Wu Xuan to run to protect him was to repay the kindness he had shown back then!

Thinking of this, Lin Mo also finally knew what was going on, and was no longer wary of Wu Xuan.

At the same time, he looked at Li Tiezui who was next to him.

In fact, before, Lin Mo had suspected that Li Tiezui should have known his identity and that was why he had helped him.

And this time, it had completely proven the matter.

Li Tiezui, was really aware of his identity.

Moreover, Li Tiezui should also know a lot of things about Lin Xiao.

Otherwise, how could he have invited Wu Xuan?

Only, Lin Mo was somewhat unsure in his heart about how strong this Wu Xuan was, how strong was he?

Chapter 1869

Next, Lin Mo arranged a place for Wu Xuan to stay, in a villa right next door.

After Nanba Tian left, he transferred the entire Wangjiang Park's assets to Lin Mo.

Now all the properties in this Wangjiang Park were being done by Lin Mo's people.

The unsold houses in Wangjiang Park also belonged to Lin Mo.

Lin Mo did not intend to sell the remaining houses, after all, they were all things left to him by Nanba Tian, so how could he sell them at will?

Therefore, inside this Wangjiang Garden, there were still dozens of villas left vacant for people on Lin Mo's side to live in.

Lin Mo showed Wu Xuan the villa next to him and asked him if there was anything he was not satisfied with.

This Wu Xuan, on the other hand, didn't seem to be fussy about where he lived, as if he didn't see the lavish decoration inside.

Although Lin Mo had given him the whole villa to live in, in fact, Wu Xuan had only picked one of the bedrooms downstairs and a gym inside here.

Not only that, after Wu Xuan had moved in, he also cleared out all the things inside the gym, and he himself walked in carrying a long cloth-wrapped object.

"What's this?"

Li Tiezui wondered.

Wu Xuan didn't say anything, he flicked the cotton cloth wrapped around the outside and a puff of smoke and dust popped up.

Li Tiezui immediately fanned his hand by his nose, "Aiya, how long has it been since you took this out?"

Wu Xuan didn't bother with him and ripped off the outside cotton cloth, revealing a wooden stake.

There were several sticks sticking out from the top of the stake, and the sticks were stuck inside the holes on top of the stake, looking as if they were the arms and legs of a standing person, sticking out.

The holes were through and the sticks could be passed from one side of the holes to the other.

Li Tiezui's eyes widened, "Wow, this thing, you have to move it over?"

"It's just a wooden stake, we can just buy another one later."

"Don't you feel tired carrying such a big thing around?"

Wu Xuan glanced at him, not even bothering to say anything.

Next to him, Lin Mo was shocked and said softly, "This wooden stake is not easy to buy!"

Li Tiezui: "How come it's not easy to buy?"

"Although it is said that there are not many people practicing wooden human stakes nowadays, but this thing, if you go online and search, you can definitely buy it."

Lin Mo shook his head: "The wooden man pile you're talking about is completely different from this one."

Li Tiezui was surprised: "What's different?"

"It's just a few wooden sticks!"

"What, he can still be a huanghuali pear?"

"Even if it is huanghuali, look at the condition, what else could be missing for you?"

Wu Xuan glared at him, "Can you stop talking."

Li Tiezui had a disgruntled look on his face, "Hey, you, how can you still cross the river and tear down the bridge?"

"I brought you here, what's wrong with saying a few words."

Wu Xuan was completely speechless, beside him Lin Mo was also helpless, this Li Tiezui was sometimes just unbeatable.

"Old Li, you don't know this stuff, so don't get involved here!"

"This wooden man-pile, and the ordinary wooden man-pile, is really different, and you definitely can't buy it."

"This wooden man-pile is called the Nine Man-Pile."

Hearing this, Wu Xuan couldn't help but glance at Lin Mo in surprise.

Li Tiezui was full of bewilderment, "What nine-person pile?"

"What, this one wooden pile can hold up to nine people, huh?"

Lin Mo then said, "Look at the wooden sticks on it, and these holes, it's completely different from the design of ordinary wooden stakes."

"When these sticks reach a certain position, they can be lowered or raised."

“And each time this rises or falls, it is impossible to estimate, and you naturally cannot predict what to do next, thus making it more difficult to practise the wooden man-pile.”

“Therefore, this kind of wooden man pile is not something that ordinary people would use at all.”

Chapter 1870

Wu Xuan’s eyes were even more shocked when he looked at Lin Mo, knowing that not many people knew the mysteries of this nine-man pile.

Li Tiezui was still unconvinced, “So what?”

“It’s just the Nine Men’s Pile!”

“If you practice it well, you can beat nine people at once?”

Lin Mo smiled, “The so-called nine man pile doesn’t mean nine people either, it means to describe a large number of people.”

“Nine in the ancient language is the extreme number, with nine describing many.”

“This kind of nine-man pile, when practised to the extreme, is like facing a thousand armies and horses, it is the highest level of Wing Chun!”

Li Tiezui’s eyes widened, “No way?”

“Practicing such a thing is the highest level of Wing Chun?”

Lin Mo waved his hand, “Each school has its own way of practicing.”

“The kind of wooden pile that is being circulated out there is just a simple version, it can still be used to strengthen the body, but it is very difficult to practice to the extreme.”

“You should know that chivalry is forbidden by martial arts. The so-called kung fu is a killing technique, and how can an ordinary person, how can he practise such a killing technique?”

“Therefore, the real martial arts techniques can only be passed down by those big powerful families.”

“This kind of nine-man pile, unusually outside, you can’t even see it, let alone go and buy it!”

Li Tiezui scratched his head, unwillingly: “If you can’t buy it, then order it.”

“A few sticks and a few holes, that’s not so bad, is it?”

Lin Mo shook his head again, “You just don’t think about it.”

“For those who practice Wing Chun, one person has one pile, that’s the rule.”

“This nine-man pile of his is also tailored to his height, leg length and arm length, and only he can use it.”

“Anyone else who gets this nine-person pile will also be unable to practise it because their height and length do not match.”

“It’s hard to order this kind of nine-person pile!”

Li Tiezui's eyes widened, "It can't be?"

"A wooden pile, so complicated?"

At this moment, Wu Xuan couldn't help himself.

He looked at Lin Mo and said in surprise, "Divine Doctor Lin, you know Wing Chun too?"

Lin Mo smiled and nodded, "A little bit."

Lin Mo had received the inheritance from the jade pendant, and in terms of Wing Chun, he himself was at the master level.

When it came to Wing Chun techniques and kung fu, Lin Mo could definitely be said to be superb, after all, it was all inherited from his ancestors.

Lin Mo's biggest problem is his lack of internal strength, which is nothing if he meets someone who is slightly stronger than him.

If the difference in internal strength was not too great, the strength of the martial art could change the battle.

However, if he encountered someone with much stronger internal strength than him, it would be a problem.

As the saying goes, even if your martial arts skills are high, you can't resist the force of a thousand kilos in one strike!

To put it most simply, the battle between Lin Mo and Xie Qianjun.

Lin Mo clearly blocked Xie Qianjun's fist, however, Xie Qianjun's internal strength was so strong that he broke through his defence in one go, pushing his arm away and still landing a punch on him, this was the result of the internal strength gap.

Wu Xuan shook his head, "To know about the Nine Man Pile, and, to understand it so clearly, is no longer as simple as a slight understanding."

"Divine Doctor Lin, you must have practiced Wing Chun systematically, right?"

Lin Mo: "I have sort of practiced some."

Wu Xuan was immediately energised and smiled, "Divine Doctor Lin, how about a sparring session?"

Lin Mo hesitated for a moment, "Brother Wu, you are the heir of the King of Wing Chun, I don't want to show off my skills in front of you."

Wu Xuan, on the other hand, smiled, "I don't have many hobbies in my life, I just like to practice boxing."

"When I meet a real expert, I just want to give it a try."

"Don't worry, I'll keep my strength in check, let's stop at the point."

Lin Mo thought about it and eventually nodded his head in agreement.

He also wanted to see how strong Wu Xuan was, really!

However, those who could practise the nine-man pile were certainly not simple in strength.

Lin Mo took his jacket off, and the two of them walked to the open space and began to spar.
