

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 3098

-When Hazel heard Lucas

say the word 'Siena', her eyes suddenly became hot.

Hazel: "Do you remember her?"

Lucas: "She is my nanny, of course I remember her. Judging from your tone, you seem to know her too."

Hazel nodded: "I've seen her before."

Lucas: "Just met?"

Hazel hesitated for a moment, and added: "I also talked."

Lucas: "You are a bit like her. She always loves to work."

Hazel couldn't help laughing out loud.

Lucas: "But she is completely different from you. Your family must be in good condition, you always laugh. But she is poor. She doesn't even have a decent dress. She won't laugh as loudly as you."

After hearing Lucas's words, Hazel's nose felt a little sore.

She couldn't even remember how she laughed before.

Hazel: "You still remember her, she must be very touched."

Lucas: "She's dead. Don't you know?"

Hazel: "Maybe she didn't die, she just went to another place."

Lucas: "Death is death. There is no need to comfort yourself."

Hazel: "Boss, if she is not dead, will you continue to ask her to work for you?"

Lucas: "She doesn't necessarily want to. She is very smart in her studies. If she is still alive, she will have a better future."

Hazel: "Boss, I remember she has an ugly scar on her face. If she didn't have such an ugly scar on her face, would you like her?"

Lucas was stunned by this question.

He stared into Hazel's eyes, fascinated.

Hazel lowered her head: "Boss, it's fine if you don't want to answer. I'm just asking casually."

"Why do you ask such a boring question?" Lucas frowned. "Do you have a grudge against her? Or against me? Do you find it interesting to make fun of us both?"

After Hazel realized that she had made Lucas angry, she immediately apologized:

"Boss, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to make fun of you. I will never ask such boring questions again."

Lucas: "I'm going to the hospital to see my mother. Where did you come from? I don't want to see you again."

Hazel: "Boss, don't drive me away. I really know I was wrong. I also want to go to the hospital to see your mother."

Lucas frowned: "Do you know my mother?"

Hazel shook her head: "I don't know."

Lucas: "You don't know her, why did you go to see her?"

Hazel: "Didn't you get to know each other after going to see her? I heard that she was seriously ill, so I wanted to visit her. Boss, I will never talk nonsense in front of your mother."

Lucas: "..."

Lucas had never seen such a familiar woman.

There were girls who pursued him in college before, but after he refused, no one else would stalk him.

It was the first time he saw someone like Hazel.

Lucas strode out the door.

Hazel followed behind him.

"Boss, do you think I buy fruits or flowers? Or both? What does your mother like to eat? What flowers does she like?" Coming out of the house, Hazel asked Lucas.

Lucas came out of the unit building, took the car key, opened the car, and got in.

Without thinking, Hazel immediately followed in.

Lucas turned her head to look at her: "You really want to go to the hospital with me?"

Hazel: "Well, I'll go see your mother."

Lucas: "What on earth do you want to do? Did I owe you anything before?"
