

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2191

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2191-David and Beanie did not sit long before the service staff came over with food and drinks.

Seeing that the two were a man and a woman, and they were holding a child, it was obvious that they were a family.

Putting down the food, she said politely, "Hello, enjoy."

Then, she turned and left.

If it were not for Beanie and Pebbles, the beautiful waitress would surely have flirted with David.

They dressed scantily to attract the attention of guests attending the trade fair, and everyone knew this very well.

Those who could participate in this underground trade fair were all Sole's rich and powerful.

If they could seduce any, they would get huge benefits.

Once someone could not stand the temptation and wanted something more, they would need to rent a separate room. The price of renting a room was very expensive, indeed the prices were sky-high.

That was why these waitresses dressed in revealing clothes and allowed the guests attending the trade fair to take advantage of them.

They were just trying to arouse the desire in a man's heart.

If one succeeded and rented a room, they would get huge benefits.

Women here were free, and the guests could do anything to them as they pleased.

However, individual private rooms need to be rented.

They were also costly.

Anything beyond the line was not allowed in the hall, so what else could they do?

They could only rent a private room.

One must admit that the organizers of this underground trade fair had a very deep understanding of men.

They knew that when many men were taking advantage of women, they would not be able to control themselves and would need a separate room to do anything further.

Those who participated in the trade fair were not short of money.

Just this alone would make the organizer a lot of money in one day.

“Master David, why does this place not feel like a trade fair at all, but rather a place for men to vent their desires?” Beanie asked.

If she weren't wearing a mask at the time, Beanie's red face would be very obvious.

She was not young anymore.

If they were back on Earth, she would not just be a spinster, but a spinster's grandmother.

However, Beanie was still a virgin.

The most important reason was because of her high self-esteem.

If she were not a woman, she would surely be the head of the Nacht family of this generation.

So, it was reasonable that no men could catch her eye.

She had not met someone she was attracted to, and not wanting to put up with just anyone, so she stayed unmarried.

However, it was not possible for Beanie to feel nothing after seeing so many exciting scenes in the hall.

“Didn’t Mr. Rivers tell us that this is how it is during the day and it will only be a trade fair at night? It’s not night yet, right? So let’s wait until then. If this is not what we want, then we can leave,” David replied.