

Read I Am A Quadrillionaire Chapter 2213

I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2213-“What is the meaning of you all coming here uninvited?” David asked calmly.

There was no expression on his face.

The intelligent life in The Spirit Cage came from mind power that is the embodiment of the soul.

So, David could not use his mind power to detect the surrounding situation like in the real world.

Therefore, David lost one of his powerful aids.

Otherwise, the elite guards of the Nacht family would not have died.

Fortunately, his mind power was strong so he was still strong in The Spirit Cage.

Relying on instinctive deduction, he discovered the movement outside.

To ensure everyone’s safety, he knocked on every door to wake them and follow him.

This was not the real world.

In the real world, David could rely on his powerful mind power to control the situation around him at any time, and he could take immediate measures when he found something wrong.

In The Spirit Cage, he could only control the situation around him.

Conway saw David come out and stopped walking.

Looking at the child in his arms and the five Elf women, he could already confirm the identity of this person.

It was the person who bought the Elf women at an underground trade fair for 250 billion L Dollars.

'I found him.

'Great!

'I was worried that I would get the wrong person and not be able to vent my anger.'

Conway did not answer David's question, but instead asked, "Are you David Lidell?"

"That's me."

"Alright! You're so brave. How dare you steal from me at the underground fair? Do you know who I am?" Conway pointed at David and asked arrogantly.

"I don't care who you are! This is my private residence and you broke in without my consent and killed my people.

Tonight, you should just leave your lives here and become a burial sacrifice for my people," David said casually.

He was furious and a murderous intent seeped from his body.

He could smell the strong metallic smell of blood the moment he stepped out of the door.

Then, he saw the elites of the Nacht family all over the courtyard.

From that, he could figure out what happened.

Those people came in and killed everyone without making a sound. It was clear that they did not come in peace.

Hence, David did not need to be kind to these people.

If he did not want to know the identity of the other party and why they came, he would have killed them immediately.

They were just a bunch of ants.

Those who died were the guards of the Nacht family, but they were working for him.

So, David still needed to take some responsibility for their deaths.

There was a moment of silence.

Immediately afterward...

“Hahaha!”

There was a sudden burst of hearty laughter.

It was from Conway.

He had been in The Spirit Cage for so many years and this was the first time someone said that to him.

David wanted to bury him with those ants? How hilarious!

Unbeknownst to him, he was also an ant to David.

Sole was a second-tier city, but there were no first-tier cities next to it, and it was surrounded by all second-tier and third-tier cities.

The nearest first-tier city Wier was quite far from here.

Basically, no powerful figures would come here.

Even the ones who would go back and forth between Wier and Sole were all businessmen.

Conway had been in The Spirit Cage for so long, and he had never seen a powerful figure from Wier.

So, this created a misunderstanding among the people in Sole.

No powerful figures from Wier would come to such a remote place.

Even if there were strangers in the city, they were only from a third-tier or second-tier city around them.

Anyway, they would not be from Wier.

Since David was not from Wier, he would be from other cities.

No matter whether second-tier or third-tier city, anyone who came here would have to bow to the Macee family.

The reason why Conway smiled so happily was not because he was happy, but it was because he was making fun of David.

As the direct descendant of the Macee family at the height of their power in Sole, he had the right to be so arrogant.