I am a quadrillionaire chapter 2222-“Basil, I’m telling you very seriously now. I don’t need to explain to anyone what I have done and your family is not qualified to question me. If you want an explanation, I don’t have it, but if you want to die, I can give you a hand.”

As David said that, he put Pebbles on the ground, stood, and looked coldly at the people from the Macee family in front.

Pebbles also obediently went behind David to stand with Beanie and Princess Evie.

She wanted to help David, but she knew that with her current strength, she would only be a burden.

The little girl swore secretly in her heart, ‘I will make sure to eat well and not be a picky eater so I can grow up quickly.

‘When I grow up, no one can bully Davey.’

“You scoundrel! You are so arrogant!” Basil shouted.

‘You will know if I’m arrogant if you try it. This is my private property and you broke in without my permission. You have violated my bottom line so now, I will give you ten seconds to get out, otherwise... I will send you to meet your direct descendant and reunite you as a family.’

Killing intent emanated from David.

Basil stared at David without saying a word.

The scene fell into silence as the two sides confronted each other.

The atmosphere felt extremely tense.

Maybe in the next second, an earth-shattering battle would start.

On one side was David with his small team while on the other side was the Macee family with a large number of people.

Although there were not a lot of people on David's side, their aura was no less imposing than the Macee family's.

All the powerhouses of the Macee family on the opposite side were also prepared. They were just waiting for Lord Basil's order to beat up that arrogant kid in front of them into thousands of pieces.

As for the five Elf women and the beautiful women behind David, they would be kept alive so that the powerhouses could enjoy them.

Elf women were very rare in The Spirit Cage.

No wonder Conway would lose his life for them.

In the real world, the Macee family had never been assigned Elf women because their strength was not qualified to be recognized by the Elves.

So, the Elves naturally would not send any Elf women to the Macee family.

'Ten!' David spat out a number.

"Nine, eight, seven..."

As the numbers came out of David's mouth one by one, soon came the last three.

The atmosphere was extremely tense.

Judging from what Conway's people said, Basil knew that the young man in front of him was very powerful and he could make them unable to resist with just one move.

He expected that the two sides might not be able to reach an agreement and have conflict, which was why he brought all the strong members of the Macee family.

It would be best if he could do to scare David.

If he could not, then he must take down David as soon as possible if there was a fight.

'Three!'

‘Two!’

“One!”

When David said ‘one’, suddenly, the wind started to blow violently in the small front yard and it was so strong that no one could open their eyes.

David had made the first move and the battle had begun.

Since the Macee family refused to leave and wanted to die, how would he not fulfill their request?
