Leon mustered up the courage and said all of that, but his heart was beating frantically. His greatest wish the past few days was to drive Iris around in that beloved motorcycle of his. The chance was finally here, there was no way he could pass it up! “That’s all?” Iris was surprised. Leon refused any rewards and was just concerned for her body, not wanting her to overwork herself. She could not help but be touched by that. At that moment, she felt like it was amazing having someone care for her.

Of course, she did not know that, while Leon truly was concerned about her on one hand, he was plotting something on the other.

If she knew of Leon’s dirty thoughts, she would probably not be happy at all!

“Iris, will you do it?” Leon asked with a look of hope, incredibly worried that Iris would refuse.

“Yes, I agree!” Iris nodded with a smile.

The partnership was already confirmed anyway. There was nothing wrong with giving herself two days of rest.

As for the planning, she already arranged things. The planning department would have to work a bit harder during the weekend and pull overtime work, but the other departments would all have both days off.

The next morning, after having breakfast, Leon and Iris arrived at the villa’s garage. They prepared to go on a ride together like what was promised the day before to relax.

Leon got on his bike and happily said, “Iris, come. Get on.”

“Your motorcycle is way too small. Let’s just drive my car,” Iris pointed to her beloved car and said. “How could we do that?!” “It’s so hot today. It’d be too stuffy in the car!” Leon said indignantly.

Iris thought he was being serious, and smiled before she said, “It’s fine. I have some convertible sports cars among all my cars. If you think it’ll be stuffy, we can take one of those.” “That...” Leon was taken aback, and he had a look of awkwardness on his face. He did not know what to say at that moment. It was so hard for him to get a chance to get closer to Iris, there was no way he would give up on it.

“Iris, you know how the traffic is nowadays. It’d be so inconvenient if we meet a traffic jam after we drive out. Also, I want to bring you on the bike this time. Didn’t you agree to it?” Leon said stubbornly.

“Oh, alright then,” Iris thought about it for a moment. She did not think too much about it, and agreed with Leon quickly, getting on the bike.

Leon was incredibly happy as he started the gas, riding the bike out.

At a red light, Leon did an emergency brake and Iris fell forward onto his back. He felt her soft chest on his back.

It was so soft and it felt so good! It felt a lot better than he thought! Leon groaned silently, and his blood started to boil. He experienced it with Lily before, but for some reason, Lily and Iris felt completely different to him. It was probably because he treated Lily as a normal friend, so he did not have many thoughts of that nature when it came to Lily. Even if he had some thoughts at the time, it was just a natural bodily reaction from being a man. However, Iris was different. Iris gave him a sense of excitement and longing. It was not just his body that was happy about it; even his spirit was invigorated. In truth, Leon knew that it was possible that he liked Iris a bit, but he also knew very well that Iris and himself were from different worlds.

He was also a divorcee without anything remarkable about himself. He was in no way worthy of a goddess as pretty and noble as Iris!

He was satisfied as long as he could stay by Iris’s side every day, getting close to her when he got the chance.

He would not dare to dream of anything else!

“Leon, the light’s green. Hurry up and start the bike, why are you in a daze for?” Leon heard Iris’s beautiful voice.

Leon immediately snapped back to reality and sped up quickly.

Initially, Iris did not realize anything, but as it happened more and more, she quickly realized that something was wrong. Her cheeks suddenly turned red.

“Leon, a—are you doing this on purpose?!” Iris said angrily. “O— of course not...” Leon’s face reddened as well, and there was some guilt in his heart. It was an accident with Lily. However, it was difficult to say when it came to Iris. His heart told him not to do it, but his body acted differently. It kept on wanting to slam the brakes at every moment. He could not control it.

“No wonder you insisted on riding your bike, you had ill intentions...” Iris’s face was half-red as she forcefully pinched the soft part of Leon’s waist.

Leon hissed in pain, but he felt quite happy.

“Iris, where do you want to go to relax? I’ll go with you,” Leon hurriedly changed the topic. “I’m fine with anywhere.” “Why don’t we go watch a movie?”

“Wouldn’t that be a date? Dream on. I won’t go!” Iris rolled her eyes at Leon.

Leon was a bit disappointed as he said, “Why don’t I go shopping for clothes with you?”

“I don’t need any clothes, and what’s the point of a man like you going shopping with me? Other than help me carry my bags, you won’t be able to give me any opinions:”

Leon was getting a little frustrated, “Then where do you want to go?”

Leon was speechless. His face darkened as he lamented that women were all the same in his heart! Even Iris was no exception. She was the same as Ariel. It was impossible to guess what they thought! After that, Leon decided to stop asking Iris for her opinion. He rode the bike and brought Iris to the outskirts.

Mistcloud Mountain was a tall mountain that was full of lush greenery.

It was also a famous tourist attraction in Springfield City.

Leon heard of Mistcloud Mountain before, but never went there. Since this was a rare chance, he decided to hike up the mountain with Iris to relax.

When they got near the mountain, a blue Cadillac turned to the right, suddenly blocking Leon’s bike. Leon was caught off guard as he hurriedly stopped the bike, almost flying into it.

The window wound down, and a young man with colorful hair and earrings on his ear poked his head out.

“Watch where you’re going, didn’t you see someone next to you?” Leon shouted angrily. “You’re just driving a motorcycle, so stop trying to act like you’re something! I can drive how I want. What do you have to say about it?!” The man looked at Leon with disdain. After that, he looked toward Iris behind him before he smiled, “Pretty girl, are you planning on hiking up the mountain?” “You look so pretty, and you have such a nice figure. It must be demeaning sitting on a bike!” “Why don’t you get in my car? I’ll bring you up...” “Shut your filthy mouth!” “I’ll give you another chance, get lost right now!” Leon shouted angrily. His face darkened in a terrifying manner. He was not dumb, it was obvious that the man deliberately stopped his bike because Iris caught the man’s eye.

Iris was his weak point. He was furious that the man teased Iris!

He already showed a lot of restraint by not blowing up on the spot!

“What? How dare you talk to me like that?! Do you want to die?! Say that again if you have the guts to!” The man got angry.

Right after he said that the window at the back of the car dropped. Two men dressed like hooligans looked out. Another man sat in the passenger seat in front as well. A total of four of them glared at Leon fiercely.

“I can say that again if you want. I asked you to get lose...” Leon was calm and not scared at all. Before he could finish, Iris suddenly pulled his arm and stopped him.

“Leon, forget it. Just ignore them. Let’s not let our good mood get ruined because of them,” Iris shook her head.

She would always illicit strange looks wherever she went because she was too pretty. She was already used to it...

Furthermore, there were four of them. Leon was only one person. If a fight broke out, Leon would not be at an advantage.

“I guess you’re lucky today!” Leon sneered. It was incredibly difficult for him to get the chance to be alone with Iris, and he did not want a few pieces of trash to ruin his mood. So, he drove the bike around the car and headed right to the entrance of Mistcloud Mountain.

“Crap, he sure knows how to run away fast!” The man with the earrings slammed the steering wheel angrily. “Joe, this guy is too much!”

“Let’s go. Follow them and look for a chance to teach him a lesson!”

“That’s right. I don’t know how he got so lucky, but that girl with him was way too pretty. I’ve never seen a woman as beautiful as that!”

“Once we teach him a lesson, let’s snatch that girl over and give her some drugs. Then, we’ll have a good time!” The three other men had cold smiles on their faces.

At the mention of Iris’s good looks, the three of them were incredibly excited. All of them had predatory looks in their eyes. “Good idea!” “That guy only had a bike, he’s no one special. Even if we play with his woman, he won’t be able to do anything about us!”

The man with the earrings immediately stepped on the gas. When they walked into the scenic area, it was a large road made of large stones, going past the foot of MistCloud Mountain. Both sides of the road were full of greenery. The trees were green and lush, and flowers were everywhere. It was an absolutely beautiful sight. It was a Saturday, so there were a lot of people at Mist Cloud Mountain. There were young couples and groups of friends and families. It was bustling. Looking at Leon’s dejected expression, Iris could not help but smile as she said, “Leon, what is it? Are you still angry about what happened just now?” “Don’t bring it up anymore. Those pieces of trash dared to speak to you like that. If you didn’t hold me back, I would’ve taught them a lesson!” Leon said angrily. He was still dwelling on the matter. “Alright, don’t brag so much! There were so many of them, could you have beaten them alone?!” Iris rolled her eyes at Leon. “I wasn’t bragging!” “If this happened before, I would’ve been no match for them, but right now, they wouldn’t be able to touch me!” Leon sniffed. With his current level at the middle stage of energy refinement, he would not even be bothered with eight people, let alone four!

“Alright, I'll admit that you're stronger. Is that enough?” Iris said with a smile.

She saw Leon's skills before. The first time she met Leon, he was almost killed by two thugs by the river to save her. The second time, he was badly beaten up by Brody's bodyguards and pressed to the ground. Leon was lucky she appeared just in time to save him. After those two experiences, she knew that Leon was just a very ordinary man, outside of having some courage and ruthlessness. It would be hard for him to stand up against four people, so how could he make an enemy out of those people?

However, men were very particular about their dignity. Even if she did not believe him, she could not expose him.

“Let's forget about that. Let's go hike up the mountain!” Leon took a deep breath and composed himself before heading up the mountain with Iris. The foot of the mountain was the most well-decorated part of the scenic area, and it was the place with the most people as well. There were plenty of things to eat and play with.

There was a street of stalls comprised of a lot of food and snacks, and there were also some entertainment facilities like merry-go-rounds and bumper cars.

The moment Iris appeared, her amazing looks and noble air immediately garnered a lot of attention. Quite a few guests, whether they were men or women, shot looks of admiration over.

Thankfully, most of the people in attendance were either couples or families.

On top of that, Leon was like a protector next to Iris, so no one dared to walk forward and try to flirt with her.

In truth, Iris was used to being alone since she was young. She was a little caught off guard by how many people there were here.

Only, she did not actually like being alone, so she hoped that she would be able to merge into the crowd. With Leon, the two of them walked around everywhere, buying some accessories and souvenirs. The scenery was incredibly beautiful, and there was laughter all around. It was a contagious atmosphere, and Iris quickly got used to it. She had a pure smile on her face. The happier Iris was, the happier Leon got. The two of them were never so relaxed and comfortable before.

“Iris, there’s some ice cream over there. Just wait for me here, I’ll go get some,” Leon said with a smile.

“Leon, it’s fine. I...” Iris opened her mouth to speak but stopped there.

“What is it? Do you not like ice cream?” Leon asked curiously. “That’s not it, it’s just that I don’t eat these things much,” Iris said after some hesitation.

Leon just walked over when a young couple walked over as well.

The girl looked quite good. She seemed to be a traveling streamer. She was recording all the scenery on the phone as she walked.

Behind Iris was a rockery with flowing water. There was also a fountain that shot out half a meter high. The streamer walked in Iris’s direction as she talked about the scenery with her fans. The camera happened to brush past Iris, and the fans immediately started to talk about her in shock! “Look!” “That girl looked so pretty just now!” “Yeah, I’ve never seen someone so beautiful before. Even a lot of celebrities seem ugly compared to her!” “Jess, point your camera over there. We want to see her!” The fans were in an uproar and started to give her various gifts. The streamer, Jess, was elated. She hurriedly pointed the camera at Iris, and the fans started to give her more and more.

Jess had a vibrant smile on her face. She quickly walked in front of Iris and gave a friendly greeting, “Hello, I’m Jess. I’m a travel streamer. You look so pretty. Can I take a picture with you?”

“That...” Iris did not like interacting with strangers, but the other girl seemed to be very friendly and did not seem to have any bad intentions.

She hesitated for a moment before forcing out a nod in the end.

After the two of them took a photo, the camera zoomed in. The fans got a close-up look and found Iris even more beautiful close up.

“Jess, I’ll send you some money first. Please ask this beautiful girl what her name is. If you manage to get any of her contact methods, I’ll give you more!” “Same here. If you get her contact method, I’ll send you a lot of money!”

The fans in the chat were incredibly excited as they discussed things, and various donations started to pop up on the stream! Jess started to get even more excited. Just the gifts from the last few minutes were about to match her income for the past few days. A lot of fans were even talking about giving more as long as she got Iris’ contact.

Everything totaled up might even beat her monthly income!

“Hey, what’s your name?” “My fans like you. Could you say hello to everyone and drop your contact?” Jess said with a smile. “I’m sorry, I’m not interested!”

Iris shook her head. Just taking a photo with that girl was her limit. Her contact was personal. It was something she could not tell anyone else.

Jess’s smile froze, but she refused to relent as she said, “It’s rare for my fans to like someone so much. You don’t have to reject them...”

“That’s right, just tell everyone your contact. We just want to be friends. It won’t be bad for you at all,” The man next to Jess hurriedly said as he shot an exciting look at Iris. Someone who looked as amazing as Iris was a sight to behold.

Just being able to meet her that day was incredibly rare. He wanted to get her contact. That way, he might be able to have a beautiful romance in private!

“I’ve already made it very clear. I’m not interested!” Iris frowned as she started to look annoyed. “Please, you just look a bit prettier than usual. Why are you acting so high and mighty?!” Jess started to panic. If Iris was not willing to give out her contact, she would lose a lot of money. She started to get a bit angry. “There’s no room for negotiations!” Iris’ face turned cold as she got up to leave, not wanting to deal with them anymore. "Hey, don't be in such a hurry to leave. We can talk about this..." Jess and the guy were not willing to let up at all. The two of them hurriedly chased after Iris. Leon happened to have just bought the ice cream at that moment. He happened to see a young couple pestering Iris, which triggered his anger as he rushed forward to shield Iris behind him. "Who are you two? What do you want?!" "Get lost!" Leon said angrily. He looked incredibly impressive. He seemed like he would start fighting at any moment. The other two froze at the sight. Both of them took a few steps back. "Sir, don't misunderstand. We were just asking for her contact. We weren't trying to do anything else."

The man had an apologetic smile on.

"That's right, we weren't trying to do anything to her. Why are you being so fierce?!" Just coldly snorted, clearly not intimidated.

Even though Leon was taller than the guy, Leon was quite skinny. He did not look as well built as the guy at all. If Leon wanted to fight, he would not be able to beat the man. So, she had nothing to be afraid of! "I don't care if you were trying to do anything or not. Just leave!"

"If you pester Iris again, then don't blame me for being rude!" Leon said angrily, still not relenting.

"Leon, it's fine. They don't have any ill intentions. We should just leave," Iris pulled at Leon's arm and said.

At that moment, Leon seemed incredibly handsome as he protected her. He looked very manly. She felt a sweet feeling in her heart at that. Leon nodded and shot the two of them a look of warning before he turned around and left with Iris.

"Crap!"

"All that money has gone up in smoke!" Looking at Leon and Iris leave, Jess stamped her feet on the ground angrily, but there was nothing she could do.

"That's right!"

"That guy doesn't look that good, and he's not as buff as me either. I don't know how he got so lucky to find such a pretty girlfriend!”

The man’s face was full of envy. He mistook Leon for Iris’s boyfriend, which left a sour taste in his heart.

The fans looking at the broadcast were more or less the same as well. Even though Leon had a masculine look about him, he was still a huge difference from how much of a goddess Iris was. The goddess was apparently already taken and looked like a flower on top of a pile of manure.

As the fans lamented how lucky Leon was, they started to feel jealousy and envy toward Leon as well. “You’re just all talk!” “He was acting so arrogantly just now. Why didn’t you just teach him a lesson?!”

“Just look at you. Were you scared by him?!” Jess glared at the man angrily.

“I was not scared. I just didn’t know what to do at the time...”

“If I see him again, I’ll definitely knock the teeth out of his mouth!” The man’s face reddened as he realized that he was definitely taken aback by Leon’s aura just now. At the same time, he could not help but feel embarrassed and angry. He even told himself in his heart that he would definitely find a way to gain back his dignity if he ever met Leon again. He would let that girl see how strong and manly he was as well! As they left the more packed areas of the mountain, Leona and Iris walked up the stairs. “Iris, it’s pretty hot today. Have some ice cream to cool down,” Leon gave one of the two ice creams he bought earlier to Iris. Iris accepted it and elegantly took a small bite. “How does it taste? Is it any good?” Leon asked expectantly, looking like a child waiting for his reward. “Yes, it’s not too sweet.

It’s vanilla flavored, which I like,” Iris let out a faint smile. “As long as you like it,” Leona was ecstatic. It was as if he was willing to do anything as long as he got a word of praise from Iris. “Can you stop being so dramatic?!” Iris could not help but laugh, amused by Leon’s expression. She was always incredibly cold and serious in the company, acting as the famous frosty president of Springfield City’s business world.

For some reason, ever since she met Leon, she started to smile more and more.

It was probably Leon's sunny disposition that was slowly soothing the loneliness in her heart.

It was also possibly because she treated Leon as a good friend like she treated Ariel. In front of Leon, she could drop her act, and live very freely and honestly!

Hiking was something incredibly exhausting. In truth, most tourists gathered at the foot of the mountain. Not many of them were willing to hike up.

There were just some couples and a few young adults in groups. There were incredibly few figures on the stairs. It was much quieter than on the foot of the mountain. Leon and Iris hiked up the mountain, laughing as they talked. They did not notice the four figures sneakily following behind them at all.

In the middle of the mountain, there was an open field. There were a few pavilions built there for the tourists to rest and admire the view. That was the border for most hikers. The way up was incredibly steep, and not easy for ordinary people to climb.

Most tourists would stop there, sitting at the pavilions to look down at the scenery. They could have a complete view of the bottom of the mountain.

"Iris, are we going to continue up?" Leon asked.

"Oh, let's continue! I heard that the clouds and the mist make for an amazing sight on the top of the mountain. I want to see what it's like," Iris said after some hesitation. The origin of the name Mistcloud mountain came from the breathtaking sights on the top of the mountain. It was an incredibly rare and beautiful sight.

It was just that the way to the top was too steep. It was not just hard to hike up, but there were a lot of dangers as well. Usually, the scenic area restricted anyone from going up to the top. The way up was only opened at the end of the year when there were a lot of tourists. They would hire professional guides to bring up tourists after taking all the necessary precautions.

Iris heard about the top of the mountain before, but she did not know that it was only open at the end of the year. Otherwise, there was no way she would have made that suggestion. Even Iris did not know anything about it, so there was no way Leon would.

“Since you want to take a look up there, then let’s continue,” Leon said with a smile. The two of them did not rest for a single moment. They continued walking up the stairs, not noticing a sign that said no entry behind one of the pavilions. The two of them continued for a while before they heard footsteps behind them. At that moment, there were no other guests around them. The two of them finally noticed something was wrong. When they turned around to look, they saw four young men following them with cold smiles on their faces. Those four young men were not random people but were the group outside the scenic area that was in the Cadillac. “It’s them!” Iris was surprised, immediately recognizing them. Leon was surprised as well. After thinking about it, he immediately knew that they probably followed the two of them. “Brat, I bet you never expected us to meet again so soon!” the man in the earrings sneered as he shot his companions a look. They quickly hurried over. In truth, they already saw Leon and Iris at the foot of the mountain. It was just that there were too many people around for them to do anything. As their luck would have it, Leon and Iris chose to go toward the top, where there were no other guests at all. They had nothing else to worry about! “This isn’t good!” “Leon, let’s run!”

Iris’s heart sank. She knew that the group did not have good intentions. He hurriedly pulled Leon’s arm and ran toward the top. However, she was in too much of a panic. Her foot slipped on the step, and she staggered before she fell toward the stone steps.

“Iris, careful!” Leon was shocked. Thankfully, he was quick as he reached out and grabbed Iris’s soft and delicate waist, pulling her into his arms.

“It hurts...” Iris shouted out in pain. The slip twisted her ankle, and a stabbing pain shot from her foot. It hurt so much that she almost shed tears. up “Iris, are you okay? Where are you hurt?” Leon’s expression changed as he hurriedly held Iris out from his arms and anxiously checked on Iris’s condition.

“I think I sprained my ankle...” Iris’s face was pale. She bit her lips to withstand the pain.

“Despicable!” Leon was furious. He suddenly shot a sharp look at the four men.

If Iris was not startled by them, she would not have sprained her ankle.

It was as simple as that. It did not matter if they planned for it or not, there was no way he would let them off easily! However, it was not the time for him to settle their debts. To stop Iris from getting hurt again, he hurriedly picked Iris up into a princess carry. After that, he jumped off the steps as Iris shouted out in surprise. He ran toward the little forest by the path.

“You’re trying to run?” “It won’t be that easy!” The man with the earrings sneered as he called his men to give chase.

Both sides of the stone path were surrounded by dense trees, forming little forests.

Even though the ground was steep, there was a lot of empty ground behind the trees. There was a lot of soft grass there as well. Comparatively, it was much safer than the bare stone steps.

When he reached an empty spot, Leon put Iris down carefully, worried that he would hurt her.

At that moment, the four men already caught up. They surrounded Leon and Iris.

“Brat, aren’t you good at running?”

“Let’s see where you can run to now!” The man in the earrings let out a laugh as he looked at Leon in amusement. It was like a cat toying with a mouse.

Before Leon could answer, Iris shouted, “What are you trying to do?!”

“What are we doing? What do you think?!”

“This guy was rude to us outside, so we’re planning on teaching him a lesson today. I’ll teach him that there are some people he should never offend!” The man in the earrings said with a cold laugh. “Please, with just you guys? You don’t even have the right to teach me a lesson!” Leon looked at them in disdain. “You’re about to die, but you’re still being so stubborn!” “Brat, since you want to die, we’ll grant you your wish today!” The man in the earrings was furious as he motioned to his companions to attack. “Hold it!” “I’m warning you! This is a lawful society. If you dare to pull anything, I’ll call the cops!” Iris pulled out her phone and shouted at them with a stern expression. “Haha...” All of them were

He was amused by Iris's words. All of them started to laugh out loud. "Girl, are you joking?" "We're in the mountains. Do you think your phone even has any reception?!" "Also, we're not idiots here. Even if you have reception on your phone, do you think we'd give you the chance to call the cops?!" The man in the earrings said mockingly. "That..."

– Iris lowered her head and looked at her phone. It clearly said that there was no internet or reception. She was thoroughly stunned by that.

She thought that she would be able to use the police to threaten the other side, but she never expected that there would be no access to the internet or reception at all. How was she supposed to call the police?! "W— what are you trying to do?" "If you want money, I can give you money. As long as you give me a number, I'll do my best to get you that money," Iris took a deep breath, trying her best to calm herself.

"How could a little girl like you have any money?!"

"We don't care about what little you have!"

The man with the earrings let out a disdainful laugh. He saw Iris on that motorcycle. The two of them were too poor to even afford a car. It would already be impressive if their assets were in the thousands. How could he care about that little amount of money?

"However, it's not like you can't protect this guy! As long as you agree to one thing, we'll not touch him at all!" The man in the earrings added with a sinister smile.

"What's the condition?" Iris asked.

"My brothers and I have been very lonely all these years. You're so pretty, we like you!" The man in the earrings let out a sinister smile, baring his fangs.

There was no way Iris could tolerate that. Her eyes darkened, and her anger soared. "Shut up!"

"How dare you insult Iris like that? I'll kill you!" Leon exploded in anger. His eyes reddened, wanting nothing more than to rip that man apart.

However, his arms were held tightly by Iris. He was worried that Iris would get hurt again, so he did not dare to force his way out, "Iris, let me go. I'm going to beat up that filthy mouth of his right now!"

"Brat, just accept our kindness!"

"If you're sick of living, we don't mind killing you right here!"

"Of course, don't think that we wouldn't dare to kill you!"

"We've been through a lot of bloodshed!" "There's no one here anyway. Even if we kill the both of you, there won't be any traces or clues left behind as long as we bury you behind the mountain!" The man sneered.

He did not do anything to Leon because he was planning on using Leon to threaten Iris. Otherwise, there was no way he would even bother talking to Leon with the attitude Leon showed him. He would have killed Leon on the spot!

"You're right, this is a good place for killing! Iris, please let me go." Leon spoke with murderous intent. It was the first time he was truly angry in his life. All of them had to die! Even though Iris was not his girlfriend, he could not allow anyone else to taint Iris for some reason. It was something he held firmly in his heart! "Leon, don't be reckless! They have more men. You're no match for them!" Iris was incredibly worried. After that, she whispered to Leon, "Just listen to me. Run down the mountain right now. Run as far as you can. Just leave me... "How could I do that?!" "There's no way I can just leave you behind!" Leon rejected it firmly. Even if his life was actually in danger, there was no way he would leave Iris behind and run away himself, let alone face those minnows.

THE EX-HUSBAND'S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 119

"Can you not act so stupidly?!"

Iris glared at Leon before she whispered, "Just think about it. As long as you're able to escape and contact the police or my family immediately, they wouldn't dare to do anything to me!"

Iris was someone who went through a lot of danger. Even during such a precarious situation, she was still incredibly calm. Her thoughts were very clear as well.

She knew that the situation was very bad for Leon and her. As long as Leon could d run away, there was no way the other four would dare to touch her unless they did not care about living anymore!

“Alright, I’ll listen to you. Let me go first...” Leon slowly calmed down after being scolded like that. He did not calm down because he thought about how he would run away but rather thinking how he would get Iris to let go of his arm.

Iris thought he was serious, and she used one hand to hold onto a tree beside her while she let go of Leon’s arm with another.

Her foot was already sprained earlier, so there was no way for her to run. All she could do was place her hopes on Leon!

“You’re all going to die now!” Leon no longer had any reservations and started to charge forward like a wild horse. Each step he took was thunderous as he quickly moved toward the group. “Leon, you... idiot!” Iris almost went crazy.

She hoped that Leon would be able to run, but Leon instead decided to attack them. Was he not just looking for death?! “You’re just wishing for death now!”

“Come, let’s deal with this guy first!”

The man with the earrings was thoroughly angered. A small knife appeared in his hand at some point. He rushed forward and stabbed it right at Leon’s heart.

Leon was shocked. He might be strong, but his physical body could not hold up against a knife. So, he hurriedly pulled his kick back.

Taking the chance, the three other men waved their knives and rushed at Leon as well. “Leon, careful!” “Just run!”

Iris cried out, her eyes were full of hopelessness.

It was one against four. She knew that there was no way Leon would manage to beat them. The thugs even had sharp weapons on them.

If Leon was done for, then there was no hope for her either!

At the very least, she would not be able to escape being humiliated! Her hopelessness was obvious at that moment!

Bang! Leon was already ready. His right fist shot out and hit the man with the earrings squarely on the face, right at the mouth. After a cry of agony, the man’s face was smashed. His teeth flew out along with his blood, and he collapsed right onto the ground, no longer moving. “Next!”

Leon avoided a stab coming from behind. He grabbed the man's arm and twisted it. The sound of bone cracking could be heard. The man let out a cry as his arm was snapped by Leon. Leon grabbed the knife as well. After that, Leon stabbed forward with the knife, stabbing right into one of the thugs' leg. The thug cried out in pain as he staggered and fell to the ground. The pain caused him to faint on the spot. Only one thug was left. Before he could react, Leon let out a kick and hit him right in the chest. The thug spat out a mouthful of blood and flew a few meters away. He slammed into the tree before falling to the ground.
