

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky

Chapter 256

Chapter 256

“That’s impossible! Leon definitely won’t betray me. He’s not the type of person to do that!” Iris said coldly, quickly tossing away her doubts.

Most of the company’s recent incredible developments were thanks to Leon. Leon was loyally contributing so much to the company, so she could not doubt Leon like that!

Leon even saved her life before. He had a great character. If she did not even trust Leon, then who else could she trust?

“Miss Young, you mustn’t let your guard down! Leon doesn’t have anything right now, so he’s forced to rely on you. Once he succeeds thanks to you, he might end up betraying you...” Ashwin did not give up as he spoke, but he was stopped by Iris before he could finish.

“Stop it!”

“Ashwin, I’ll ignore your insults to Leon this time since you’ve contributed a lot to the company these two yours, but don’t do it again!”

“Alright, go back to work!” Iris berated with a cold look on her face.

She always faced the business world coldly. Her business skills were not ordinary, so she could tell who was right and who was wrong!

She would not believe in Ashwin’s slander!

“That...” Ashwin had a dark look on his face, and he was very reluctant, but still left after excusing himself.

He walked out of the office, and a sinister smile appeared on his face.

He already knew that Leon was brought into the company by Iris, and knew that Iris trusted Leon a lot. It would not be easy to destroy their relationship.

However, he did not care. He deliberately said all of that earlier to plant a seed in Iris’s heart.

Iris might not trust him in the meantime, but as long as Leon did anything wrong in the future, he would continue adding oil to the fire. He believed that Iris would come to his side one day.

The business world was like a battlefield!

Leon was too inexperienced to fight him!

The next few days, Leon threw himself into producing the cosmetics.

Since the problem with the spirit dew was solved, and the Shear Group supplied their materials in time, the production at the factory went very well.

In just a few days, the first batch of products were done and sent to the Wick Group.

The Wick Group put those products into the market, and it went very well. The news started to spread, and their products did not only greatly increase in popularity, but also lead to a lot of mass buying. Eventually, the supply could not keep up with the demand.

With that, Elegante Group stormed into the high-end cosmetics market and took up quite a lot of the market shares. As their profits rose, their orders soared as well. The company was rapidly developing!

On a Saturday, Leon gave Janice a call, inviting her out for a meal.

Ever since they met in the hotel, Janice had a lot of things she wanted to talk about Leon.

She immediately accepted Leon’s invitation.

At a high-end restaurant in the city, Janice arrived not too long after Leon did.

Looking at Janice, Leon felt quite amazed.

Janice looked like she purposely dressed up well. She had light makeup on, and was incredibly radiant. She looked even more beautiful than last time.

She was in a fitting shirt and a short skirt. Around her beautiful legs were a pair of flesh-colored stockings. Her beautiful figure was incredibly evident.
