If Ashwin found out that he overstepped and interfered with procurement as well, Ashwin would be furious!

“What exactly do you want to say? Why are you being so hesitant?!” Iris looked at Leon strangely, not understanding what Leon tried to do.

“I wanted to say that the Shear Group is the biggest provider of herbal medicines in Springfield City. We should look to work with them. There's no need to work with Life Pharmacy...” Leon mustered the courage to say.

up

Even though he did not like Ashwin that much, he still felt bad that he kept on overstepping and taking away Ashwin's responsibilities.

If Ashwin agreed to work with the Shear Group, he could just give Ashwin the contract he signed last night. Then, the contributions would be Ashwin's.

Then, he would not have overstepped, and he would be able to give Cynthia an explanation.

“You sure are putting things lightly! Even though working with the Shear Group is the best choice, we're a cosmetic company, not a medical or pharmaceutical company. We don't need that many herbal medicines. The Shear Group is the biggest supplier in Springfield City. They specialize in moving large quantities for the companies that need it. How could they bother with a small client like our company?!” Ashwin sneered, looking at Leon like an idiot.

The Shear Group controlled the biggest market share of herbal medicines in Springfield City and a few neighboring cities. They only supplied large quantities or served high-end customers. Their prices are comparatively lower, but they usually did not even care about million-dollar contracts.

Life Pharmacy was a smaller-scale operation and had a lot of smaller customers. Even though their prices were higher, Elegante's current needs meant they had to work with Life Pharmacy.

“There's nothing impossible about it! I talked to the Shears last night. They're willing to work with us!” Leon smiled slightly, he could already see how Ashwin would explode in anger.

Yet, he never expected that Ashwin was just stunned, not even showing any anger.

“What? You talked to the Shears? You must be kidding!” Ashwin said snidely.

Just like the Youngs, the Shears were also one of the four big families in Springfield City.

Even if the Youngs were the ones asking, the Shears might not even entertain them, let alone Leon!

He did not think that Leon was capable enough to make the Shears do anything!

“I'm not joking, I'm speaking the truth!” Leon said seriously.

“Please, do you think the Shears will work with us just because you said so? Who do you you think your family opened the Shear Group?” Ashwin smiled in disdain.

think you are? Do

After that, he seemed to think of something, “That's right, I almost forgot!”

“During the celebration banquet, Ariel said that the imperial green necklace was given to you by the Shears. It looks like you're quite close to them!

“Mister Wolf, are you a disciple of the Shears, or maybe even a part of the Shears? Why isn't your name Shear, then? How strange!” Ashwin's tone was incredibly strange. He was completely making a mockery of Leon.

“Mister Mercer, I might not be part of the Shears, but they did agree to work with us. We've even already signed the agreement,” Leon said calmly.

“Oh, is that so? Everyone knows how to brag, but you sure are amazing at it! Since you said the agreement's already signed, then take it out and show us! I want to know where you got your courage from!” Ashwin laughed.
