The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 71

“I’ll be frank with you, Mister Wolf. Your two imperial greens are pure and transparent, which makes them incredibly valuable. Such items are a rarity on the market, so I can’t give you an estimate of the specific market price. If you intend to sell it, we are willing to pay nine million for it!” Kai said in a heartbeat. Top-quality jadeite such as imperial greens was very hard to come by, and if their store was able to obtain one, they could turn it into the store’s good luck charm! The only fly in the ointment was the small size of that imperial green, and it was cut in half by Leon at the center. If it was whole, it would have been more valuable!

“But...” Leon was stunned. He never dreamed that the jadeite which he assumed to be pe a-greens were extremely precious and rare imperial greens! Before Leon could answer, a voice suddenly called out from behind, “I’ll give you ten million!” An old man in his 70s entered the shop along with several well-dressed bodyguards.

The old man was full of vitality despite his old age and had an almost majestic aura when he walked. At a glance, one could see that he spent all his life at the top of the food chain, as evidenced by the imposing grandeur that he exuded. “What?”

“Ten million?” Brody and Marilyn were both dumbfounded. They earlier deemed Leon a fool and ridiculed him to their heart’s content. It was a rather amusing twist of fate in the end because they were the ones who were the true fools! They wondered just what kind of luck Leon had to obtain those imperial greens- which were worth tens of millions-with his last cut! If Leon sold it, he would earn more than nine million without lifting a finger!

That Leon would be so lucky came as a big slap to them, and it was almost as if they could feel their faces getting swollen! Although the total assets of Sullivan Enterprises were as high as 50 million, most of them were in real estate.

One could say that ten million was no small amount for Brody! His expression became the sourest it had ever been, and he felt beyond deflated. If he knew that the raw jade stone contained an imperial green, he could have just bid several hundred more and it would finally belong to him! It was such a shame that he found out about it too late!

Even Marilyn's family was only a smallish-medium enterprise, with total assets valued at barely over ten million. One could well imagine how she felt when the person whom she considered a loser would make more than nine million in the blink of an eye!

"I don't suppose there's anyone here who would want to bid higher than me?"—The old man glanced across the audience and his aura was so fierce that no one dared to look him in the eye.

Kai was overwhelmed with shock. He instantly recognized the old man and bowed respectfully, saying, "I didn't know that you'd grace our store with your visit, Elder Shear. We apologize for not making arrangements to welcome you. Please excuse us..."

"Elder Shear?"

"The patriarch of the Shears? One of Springfield City's four powerful families!" The onlookers were startled to find out who he was! The Shears were one of the oldest powerful families in Springfield City. In many aspects, their influence was comparable to Youngs', and both formed one of Springfield City's four powerful families. Compared to the other three, however, the Shears were the most low-key of them all, and Elder Shear—whose first name was Benedict—rarely appeared in public. However, many of the people there were well-informed individuals from the upper class. Some of them have seen Benedict before, and they immediately recognized who that old man was! The four families' influence within Springfield City was deeply rooted in history, spanning business, politics, and the military. As the head of the Shears, Benedict was a highly respected man often viewed as a powerful figure that was above all others. The whole of Springfield City was said to tremble with every step that he took! After getting over their small fright that resulted from the confirmation that it was indeed Benedict Shear, everyone turned to look at him with respect and awe. Benedict walked to Leon and asked with a smile on his face, "My friend, I do quite l like your imperial greens, and I'm willing to bid ten million for them. Will you be willing to sell them to me?"

THE EX-HUSBAND'S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 71

Leon was incredibly hesitant. He had neither heard of the Shears before nor had any knowledge of who the four major families were, but he could tell from everyone's reaction that the individual in front of him was not just your average old man. His ten million bid was no doubt a very high price that far exceeded his expectations. One could not fault Leon for being swayed somewhat.

However, he planned to use that jade to create an Energy Convergence Circle, and if he sold those two imperial greens to Benedict, it would be very difficult for him to find one that was more suitable.

"I'm sorry, sir. They're not for sale. I need them." Leon smiled apologetically. Benedict seemed disappointed and pressed further, "Are you sure you can't sell them? We can always negotiate the price."

"I guess I can sell you one piece if you want them, but I would like to keep the other piece to myself," Leon hesitated.

He needed only one piece to use as the focal point of the circle, so it was fine to sell the other piece to the old man.

"These two pieces aren't that big, so I'm afraid one piece might not be enough. To be honest, I was drawn to these imperial greens because I wanted to carve a pair of bracelets for my wife. It wasn't easy for our marriage to get to this point today. Our golden wedding anniversary is in another few days. It'll be a celebration to commemorate our fiftieth year as husband and wife. I wanted to give her a pair of the best jadeite bracelets as a gift, and as a token of gratitude for her companionship..." Benedict said that with an impassioned look, and it was obvious that he loved his wife deeply.

"Your marriage is one to be admired, sir." Leon was touched. He believed that the most romantic occasion in one's life was to find a partner who could love him as much as he loved her, then have kids with them and grow old together!

Benedict's story touched his heart greatly.

Being an orphan from a young age meant that Leon had little to no chance of experiencing familial love. Once upon a time, his greatest wish was to protect his wife, love her, and spend the rest of his life together with her. Alas, the great almighty played him like a fiddle, for he never received any reward for his hard work and was even kicked out of the house after his wife cheated on him! If he did not run into Iris and inherited his ancestor's memories by chance, he would have continued to live on the streets. "But I digress..." Benedict smiled awkwardly, sorted out his thoughts, and said earnestly, "My friend, I do insist on these two imperial greens. Perhaps you'll be willing to part with them if I top up another five million?" "No, you don't raise the price! I'll sell it to you since you like it so much," Leon said, albeit somewhat reluctantly. He did not need imperial greens to set up his Energy Convergence Circle and could always replace it with clear jadeite. The effect might be a little more inferior than that of imperial greens, but he believed that it would not be affected that much. Upon considering Benedict's sincerity, he finally handed over the two pieces. "Wonderful. Thank you very much..." Benedict was overjoyed, but at the same time grateful and appreciative of Leon's actions. After all, Leon reluctantly parted with the imperial greens without capitalizing on the opportunity to raise the price exorbitantly. It was rare for most people to have that kind of mentality, and he had plenty of admiration for Leon's character. "My friend, since you were kind enough not to take advantage of the situation by increasing the price, I find it prudent to return your kindness! I have a suggestion for you. Since you wanted a piece for yourself, I'm guessing that you were planning to craft it into some sort of ornament or jewelry. Since these two pieces are more than enough for a pair of bracelets, I'd think that the remaining material will still be sufficient to be made into several small trinkets. If there's anything you wish to craft, please do feel free to tell me. I'll gift one to you as a show of gratitude," Benedict offered with a smile.

THE EX-HUSBAND'S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 72

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 73

Leon waved his hands repeatedly to respectfully decline Benedict's kindness.

"I must insist! If you take something as rare and precious as this imperial green and carve it into a piece of women's jewelry, it's almost certain to win their hearts..."

Benedict grinned knowingly and gave Leon a little wink as if to say, 'I know what you want them for.'

As someone who experienced a lot of things in life, he assumed that Leon's intention was to have them crafted into jewelry and given to a current or potential girlfriend. After all, no one would have thought that Leon had some other purpose.

Leon was initially still adamant about refusing but was eventually swayed by the old man. He scratched his head somewhat embarrassedly and said, "Sir, I'd like to ask for a necklace if it's possible..." "Not a problem!" Benedict let out a chuckle.

If those two imperial greens were carved into two jade bracelets, the middle that had to be hollowed out was enough to make two necklace pendants, a couple of earrings, and some other small pieces of jewelry.

Leon's request was not excessive, for he had only requested a necklace.

Benedict transferred ten million dollars to Leon right away and asked for Leon's phone number so he could give the necklace to Leon once it was ready.

The atmosphere inside the store became lively again after Benedict left.

Everyone was awestruck at Leon's luck, and they all looked at him with envy!

The most jealous of them all were none other than Brody and Marilyn!

Leon effortlessly made more than nine million, but that was not all. He even succeeded in taking the opportunity to establish a relationship with Benedict Shear! His luck was shooting through the roof!

After witnessing that incident, the two of them finally came to understand how a loser like Leon could get to know Iris!

The process of feeling spiritual energy from raw jadestone was very draining, and since Leon already had the money, he might as well save his time and effort by buying a finished product made of clear jadeite!

While he was busy perusing, he saw Brody looking at some raw jade stones again. A smile appeared on his face and he stepped forward. || “Five hundred thousand from me!” Brody raised the number plate in his hand.

He came here because he wanted to buy a larger piece of jade with which he could send to a craftsman and have a figure carved for his grandfather. With only two pieces of fine jade in good condition left, he would not get his hands on any if he did not make a bid. Moreover, he was still feeling irked after Leon managed to get those imperial greens. He felt that his luck was just as good as Leon, so there was no reason why he would not be able to get it if Leon could.

“I’ll pay six hundred thousand!” Leon walked over and said nonchalantly.

Still seething from the way Brody forced him into spending way more than he originally intended to, Leon decided that it would not do him justice if he did not return the favor!

“You...” Smoke was practically coming out of Brody’s nostrils! Although one should rightly mind one’s own business and not try to hijack another person’s purchase, Leon felt that it was not that big of a deal to take revenge on Brody for trying to sabotage him earlier. He shot Leon a fierce glare and said, “Seven hundred thousand!

“Eight hundred thousand!” Leon continued to increase the price.

“Nine hundred thousand!” Brody said, gritting his teeth. Without even a moment’s hesitation, Leon said, “One million dollars!” In a fit of rage, Brody came to the sudden realization that Leon might be trying to get revenge on him!

Even so, he could not bring himself to concede to Leon. After all, Leon only managed to obtain the imperial greens and earn more than nine million because Brody did not increase his bid to 1.3 million! If he conceded that piece to Leon and the latter ended up with yet another rare item, he would probably die of anger! Brody was still hesitating when everyone around him began discussing among themselves. “Whoa, these two guys are at it again! There might just be something good in that raw jadestone!” “Highly likely, yes!” Chapter 7 33/3 “That young man never took an interest in any of the stones before, but the one that he had his eyes on turned out to be an imperial green! That kind of exceptional judgment must mean that he's an expert when it comes to speculating on raw stones! Perhaps he has a vision or something!" "Yeah! If he's bidding on this, it might just turn out to be something really valuable!" After hearing everyone's comments, several merchants began to calculate the chances. Although the probability of finding imperial green jadeite was not very high, the odds of getting clear jadeite was still relatively decent!

THE EX-HUSBAND'S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 73

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 74

"I'll pay 1.1 million! One of the tycoons were itching to make a bid.

"1.2 million!" Another rich person could not hold back anymore and join in.

Brody could feel his insides churn. All he wanted was to buy the stone, but it seemed to have turned into an all-out bidding war! He considered whether or not to just give up on buying it, but now that all the other rich people were jumping on the bandwagon, he did not hesitate anymore and immediately increase the price. "I'll pay 1.3 million!"

"I'll do better. 1.4 million!" Leon raised the price again.

Leon's decisiveness led many of the rich people who participated in the auction to become more confident. "1.5 million from me!" 1.6 million!"

Brody's eyes turned red and lost his mind completely. "I'll pay 1.7 million!"

"Then I'll offer to buy it for 1.8 million!" Leon said calmly. "1.83 million!"

"1.85 million!" "1.88 million!"

The other rich people increased the price one after another, but because the asking price was too high, they had some doubts and did not dare to increase it by too large an amount.

"2 million then! I'll pay 2 million!" Brody roared. It was already a bit difficult for him to bear such a high price!

"Fine, you win! I won't try to raise the price anymore!" Leon smiled and gave up on increasing the price altogether.

Those rich tycoons became hesitant. They only bid because Leon was bidding, but with Leon giving up completely, their confidence was all but lost.

After all, the price of that raw jadestone soared to outrageous proportions. If the jadeite contained within was not at least clear jadeite or better, it would result in a certain loss without any profit. Such a risk was too huge, and one they were not prepared to take.

After mulling over it for a moment, several of those tycoons chose to pull out.

“Weren’t you trying to be a show-off, Leon? What’s wrong? Are you chickening out?” Brody laughed mockingly and shot Leon a condescending look with disdain-filled eyes.

He was pissed at Leon ever since the latter obtained the imperial greens and became the center of attention. Having finally beat Leon in the bidding price, he felt an almost victorious sense of pride in himself!

“You’re right, I conceded! I’m not as stupid as you are. Wouldn’t I be such a fool if I spent all that money and ended up with nothing?” Leon grinned mockingly.

“You...” Brody’s expression changed. He knew that Leon was taunting him in a roundabout way and snorted coldly, “You should keep your mouth shut if you don’t have anything good to say. Who do you think you are anyway? You act as if you have x-ray vision. What a joke!”

“Yeah! Don’t get so full of yourself just because you got those imperial greens. You were just lucky! My husband’s luck might just be better than yours, and he’ll get an even bigger imperial green!” Marilyn sneered and did not show any weakness.

“Oh? I’m curious to see whether you’d even be able to get any imperial greens!” Leon jibed and did not bother to argue with Brody.

“Take my card!” Brody paid the money and signaled the staff to cut on the spot. As the two staff began to cut it, all that was contained inside was merely gravel and nothing else. “Again!” Brody’s expression changed dramatically, and he was no longer as confident as he was at the beginning. A few more cuts later, there was still nothing inside. “Nothing!” “The young man was right! There’s nothing!” Everyone was taken aback and immediately looked at Leon with surprise. They finally understood that Leon might have earlier discerned that there wasChapter 74nothing of value within that piece of raw jade stone. As a result, h e deliberately raised the price to try and trick Brody to take revenge against Brody for earlier! Brody's face turned ashen and h e was unable to keep his cool any longer.

THE EX-HUSBAND'S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 74

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 75

"I'll do it myself!" Brody gritted his teeth and walked over just as Leon did earlier.
The remaining volume of that raw jade stone was still enough for it to be cut a few more times, but due to his impatience, he immediately used the mac hine to cut the stone right down the middle.

A glowing green light emerged at once! "There is it! There's the green!"

"Goodness me! It's not an imperial green, is it?"

"Didn't that young man say that there was nothing inside? Was he wrong?"

It was a thoroughly jawdropping sight, for no one thought that there would be another imperial green!

"Darling! You did it! It's an imperial green, and it's so much bigger too! We hit the jackpot!"

Marilyn was so overjoyed that she rushed up, wrapped her arms around Brody's neck, and kissed him several times.

"Hahaha... Didn't you say there wouldn't be anything inside, Leon? Open your du mb eyes and have a load of this!" Brody burst into laughter. He had a smug look and was as pretentious as pretentious could be!

Leon was stunned. His main point was to get one over Brody, so he did not use any of his extraordinary senses because they were too energy-consuming.
However, it scarcely occurred to him that Brody would be so lucky as to get an im perial green!

Given their rarity and preciousness, it was truly remarkable that two pieces appeared in a row. It was just too difficult to believe! "Imperial green, my foot!"

"That's clearly what you call a dry green! Who said it was an imperial green?"

Several stone speculators scoffed at the remark that it was an imperial green and stopped short of cackling out loud.

Imperial greens were extremely rare, so it was normal for people to not know wh at they looked like until they saw the ones Leon obtained.

However, dry greens were much more common, and any person who could not identify them should just give themselves a couple of slaps in the face!

“The color is completely wrong because it’s more of a mossy green. There’s also a lot of rough impurities in it and the transparency is particularly poor...”

“This is, without a doubt, a dry green. And, I might add, it’s a somewhat low-quality dry green. There’s no way this could be an imperial green!”

The seasoned speculators had some knowledge and experience. It took them only a few glances to determine that Brody got some dry greens! “This...”

Brody and Marilyn were both dumbfounded.

As laymen, they never once thought that the green jadeite was some kind of dry green instead of an imperial green! The smiles of excitement and joy turned stiff.

“Does it matter if it’s a dry green? It’s similar enough to imperial green, so it has to be just as valuable!” Marilyn asserted with a straight face.

“Valuable? Don’t be stupid.” “Dry greens are of low quality, and the better dragonscale jadeites might sell for about several thousand!

” “The quality of this one is just horrendous, though. I don’t even think it’s dragonscale. No one’s going to buy it even if you sell it for a few hundred!” Everyone sneered and looked at Marilyn like a fool. Marilyn made a big joke of herself and her face turned red. Her only wish right then was to crawl into a hole and burrow in it. “But that’s... Impossible...” It was such a shocking blow to Brody that he stumbled and almost fell headfirst. Leon sold a piece of imperial green, and in the process, earned about nine million and even got to establish a connection with the Shears’ patriarch. By contrast, he spent two million only to get a useless dry green and the most inferior one at that! To make things worse, he became a laughingstock! The emotional damage that Brody received then was truly unimaginable!

THE EX-HUSBAND’S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 75

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 76

“Congratulations, Mister Sullivan! You spent all that money only on a dry green! I can never be as rich as you!” Leon remarked sarcastically and looked at Brody as if the latter was a fool. “Why you...”

Brody was fuming, for he finally understood that he fell for Leon's trick. He stared at Leon with a fiery gaze and said, “It's all your fault, Wolf. How dare you raise your bid and dupe me...”

“What of it? What's stopping me from duping you when you did the same to me?”

Leon sneered after giving Brody a taste of his own medicine. What he did not expect, however, was that Brody's luck would be so terrible as to get only some worthless dry greens. In that respect, Brody had only himself to blame for being so unlucky!

“I'm going to kill you for making me spend so much money!” Brody exploded with rage and rushed toward Leon like a madman.

“Control yourself! This is not the place for you to run amok!” Kai warned sternly.

As soon as he spoke, the scar-faced man from earlier and several other guards reacted within the blink of an eye. They rushed forward and surrounded Brody in a half-circle.

Things would almost certainly end badly for Brody if he so much as dared to take half a step forward! After seeing the fierce face of that scar-faced man, Brody could not help himself from trembling and halting his footsteps.

“How shameless can he be?” “He was the one who tricked the young man first, forcing him to pay almost twice the original price. And now he's getting pissed because that guy retaliated?” “Yeah! The cheek of him to get mad at another person's unreasonable behavior when he was the one who started it! What kind of hypocritical logic is that?”

“Best not to play these kinds of games if you can't afford to pay for the consequences. It's embarrassing that he finds it okay to dupe someone but can't stand it when he gets duped in return!”

Everyone sneered while glancing contemptuously at Brody.

“Aren't you going to save what little dignity you have left now that things have come to this point? I'd lower my head and get the hell out of here if I were you! Don't you feel embarrassed at all?” Leon sneered and repeated w hat Brody said to him earlier almost word-for-word! “How dare you.....”

Brody’s face turned red. A burst of blood surged up in his chest and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

“You’ve got some balls, Leon! This isn’t over. I’ll get back at you someday! Just wait!” Brody gritted his teeth and threatened Leon before leaving embarrassedly with Marilyn.

Leon snorted fiercely as he watched Brody and Marilyn flee the scene.

Even though Iris taught Brody a lesson on his behalf at the Civil Records Office, it was not a show of his ability because he depended on a woman’s help.

However, things were different at Prospera Jade—he relied on his ability to exact his revenge, and it was no surprise that he was in an unprecedentedly buoyant mood!

Leon then returned his bid card and took back his 70,000-dollar deposit.

At the moment, there was still one piece of fine raw jade stone left, along with tens of thousands of ordinary, poor-colored raw jade stones piled on the ground.

There might well be some white jadeite or clear jadeite hidden somewhere in those piles, but he would have collapsed from exhaustion if he were to sense them all one by one! He could still engage in some small bids with the use of his spiritual energy, but it was not at all realistic to rely on the stone speculating to make a fortune! Besides, he was not that greedy of a person either. After leaving the area, Leon quickly came to the area on the left where the finished jade products were sold. There were some made of imperial greens, but the vast majority were made of clears. Leon carefully selected those that he needed and ended up spending about two million to get a clear jadeite tablet. The tablet was a high-quality product made of intricatelypatterned clear jadeite. The spiritual energy contained within it was strong and pure, quite like the imperial green. Chapter 763/3 he obtained earlier. It was more than sufficient to set up his Energy Convergence Circle. In addition to the jade tablet to be used as the center of the circle, another 18 ordinary jades were needed to arrange the Energy Convergence Circle.

THE EX-HUSBAND'S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 76

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 77

The requirements for that sort of ordinary jade were not as demanding as that for the core. At the very least, it had to be pea-green jadeites worth several thousand dollars. As Leon was not at all short on money, he spent about nine hundred thousand or so to buy those 18 pieces of finished white jadeite and then packed them all together with him. After leaving the store, Leon walked toward the place where he parked his motorcycle. Within moments, he saw Brody and Marilyn approaching him menacingly with their two bodyguards.

"You're finally out, Leon. I've been waiting for you for ages!" Brody had a violent look on his face and a malicious smile on the corner of his mouth.

"What are you going to do, Brody?" Leon's face sank and he had a bad feeling.

"What do you think?"

"The other day's incident at the Civil Records Office and today's incident at the jade store are two scores that you and I are settling right here!" Brody grinned coldly. With a wave of his hand, his two bodyguards rushed forward and surrounded Leon. "Just you two? I'm afraid you're no match for me!" Leon glanced coldly at Brody and silently put down his bag full of jade.

"Haha... Is there something wrong with your brain? Did you forget that my bodyguards beat you to a pulp in the Civil Records Office? You must be kidding yourself if you think you're no match for me!" Brody pointed at Leon's nose. He then cackled like a madman, as if he heard the funniest joke in the world! The two bodyguards also smiled in disdain and had a look of contempt on their faces. Both of them were professional bodyguards, and they generally had no problem dealing with five or even six people!

Leon, on the other hand, was just an ordinary person. He was previously beaten badly by the two of them and had no power to fight back at all.

In their eyes, Leon dug his grave by challenging them only a few days after his injuries healed and he forgot the pain that was inflicted on him!

"It's only been a few days since I last saw you, and I must say your bragging skill have improved quite a bit even though you don't have anything else going for you!" Marilyn sneered, she really could not understand where a loser like Leon would gain that kind of confidence and courage!

"I'm not the same person I once was. The past is the past, and the present is the present! This is your last chance though. If you leave now, I'll just pretend as if nothing happened. But if you refuse my courtesy, then do excuse me if I go all out on you!" Leon said calmly.

Having turned into a practitioner, he had enough strength to crack stone tablets and split rocks in half. Two ordinary bodyguards were nothing to him!

The only catch was that he could not provoke the wealthy Sullivans, as he did not want to have any head-on conflict with Brody, at least not for the time being.

Nevertheless, that did not mean he would just let himself be pushed around if Brody insisted on causing him trouble!"Oh? Then show us what you've got! Break this kid's legs for me! I'll bear whatever consequences as long as you don't kill him!"

Brody sneered and gave his order."We got beat up the other day because of you, so we're getting payback today and by beating you up to ten times harder!"The two bodyguards grinned menacingly and rushed violently toward Leon.They, along with Brody, were severely beaten by Iris's bodyguards several days ago at the Civil Records Office.The two of them blamed it all on Leon, and they spared no mercy as they attacked Leon's vital points!"Beat him up! Kill that son-of-ab*tch and show him just how powerful we are!" Marilyn said with a violent look on her face.Rather than pity Leon on account of him being her ex-husband, Marilyn felt that it was a shameful stain on her life!

THE EX-HUSBAND'S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 77

The Ex-Husband's Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 78 As soon as Marilyn said that, Leon delivered a thumping kick to one of the bodyguards in front of him.

The crisp sound of cracking bones could be heard, and the bodyguard spurted out a mouthful of blood. His body was sent flying back about three or four meters away and fell heavily to the ground.

The bodyguard felt as if his bones were crumbling apart, and he groaned miserably because he was in so much pain.

At least five or six of his ribs were broken, and he could not get up from the ground! At that point, the other bodyguard attacked Leon and punched him in the face. Leon turned around, grabbed the fist, and grasped his opponent's arm before giving it a hard twist. A click was heard, and the opponent let out a blood-curdling scream as his arm broke due to the forceful twist.

Then, Leon clasped the bodyguard's shoulder and seized the chance to give the opponent a shoulder throw. He then took one step forward, put his foot on his opponent's chest, and exuded a condescendingly awe-inspiring and intimidating presence.

Upon seeing what happened, both Brody and Marilyn were dumbfounded. Neither of them could ever dream that Leon—whom they deemed a loser—would take less than three seconds to knock down two very highly skilled bodyguards! They could not believe what was going on, and they were convinced that they had to be dreaming!

Brody and Marilyn could not even laugh anymore. They glanced blankly at each other and saw the look in each other's eyes!

“How... How's this possible...”

The two bodyguards who collapsed on the ground were also terror-stricken and unable to believe what was happening to them.

They just gave Leon a good beating several days ago, and back then, he was like a little helpless puppy who was unable to resist. Fast forward to a few days later, the two of them were reduced to mere ants in front of Leon, who inflicted serious injury on them with only two moves! Chapter 75 2/2 They could not believe what was happening!

The two of them gulped hard and were reeling in fear from Leon's powerful strength! “It's your turn now, Brody!” An expressionless Leon took several slow steps toward Brody. “W–w–what are you... Whoa there... D–d–d– don’t come any closer...” Brody was horrified and retreated one step for every step Leon took. “Didn’t you say you wanted to break my legs? Well, I’m going to grant you wish and break both legs today!” Leon smiled coldly and a stern, sharp glimmer appeared in his eyes. He never intended to get into a head–on conflict with Brody, but Brody provoked him time and again. As if cucking him was not bad enough, Brody continued to persecute him repeatedly! It reached a point where Leon could no longer tolerate it! Since the animosity between both sides reached a point where neither could tolerate the other’s existence, there was no longer any need for Leon to show any courtesy! “I dare you to come at me! I’m warning you: the Sullivans are not to be messed with. If you so much as lay a finger on me, I swear to God that I’ll never let you get away with this...” Brody scolded with a stern look. “Whether or not you’ll let me get away with this in the future is not my concern, because right now, I have no intention of letting you get away with what you did to me!” Leon sneered and kicked Brody’s knee fiercely. Following the crisp crack of Brody’s bones, he let out a shrill scream and fell to the ground with a thud. “Now for the other leg!” Leon raised his foot, aimed it toward Brody’s other leg, and felt the sweet taste of revenge in his heart! “Leon, stop! How dare you hurt my husband! I’ll take you on myself!” Marilyn roared like a madwoman and charged aggressively toward Leon. Leon reacted quickly and slapped Marilyn hard on the face, knocking her to the ground.

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 79

“I’ve lived with your family for three years, Marilyn. Even if hadn’t done anything that deserves credit, I have at least worked hard for you. But the way you’re treating me makes me feel that you don’t have a conscience at all! This slap is my way of getting even with you! From now on, our relationship will be completely cut off!” Leon’s eyes were cold and stern, and his expression was more indifferent than anger.

In his mind, he drew a clear line with Marilyn, and from then on, the two of them would become strangers who had nothing to do with each other! “How could you...”

Marilyn was stunned. She covered her aching cheeks and looked at Leon in disbelief.

There used to be a time when Leon was beaten and berated by the Mansons in addition to living a life that was worse than that of a dog.

At long last, however, Marilyn finally understood that Leon’s patience was not a sign of weakness. Once that ruthless spark in him was ignited, he could trample both her and Brody under his feet without batting an eye!

“Your grandfather has treated me like one of his own for three years, Marilyn, and I’m only letting you off the hook today for his sake! You and I will walk separate paths from now onward, and I promise that things will be much worse for you if you try to mess with me again!” Leon snorted coldly and stepped forward to pick up his bag of jade. After that, he turned around and left without looking back again.

“Just wait, Leon! I’ll make you pay for this!” Brody let out a hoarse, enraged roar as he watched Leon’s figure drifting further and further away. There was a profound hatefulness and resentment in his eyes.

It was already more than ten o’clock at night by the time Leon came home to Dragonbay Villas.

At this time, Jenny just made dinner, and she was eating with Iris in the kitchen.

“Leon! I thought you got off work earlier than I did? Why did you come back so late?” Iris asked curiously. “Oh, I needed to buy some stuff.”

Leon smiled, walked up to Iris, and sat down next to her. “Why are you having dinner Chapter 79 eating so late?”

“I just came back after working overtime at the company...” Iris replied curtly.

“Is it for that project again?” Leon quickly understood. 2/2

Iris worked overtime until past nine the previous night, and her overtime hours extended to nearly ten that night, which just goes to show that cooperation was very important to the company! “Yeah. There isn’t much time left to discuss it, and we need to prepare some of the frameworks and make several decisions as soon as possible in the next few days...” Iris was a little absent-minded, apparently still worried about it. “What exactly is this project about? Could you tell me more about it?” Leon hesitated for a while and could not resist asking her about it. He asked Iris about it the previous night, but Iris did not tell him what it was at the time. “It’s ... Ah, never mind. The company will be holding a high-level meeting tomorrow, so do tag along with Gracie and attend. You’ll find out more when the time comes, Iris said after pondering for a moment. It involved various aspects that made it a little tedious for her to explain it to Leon. “Sure.” Leon smiled happily. That Iris allowed him to participate in the company’s high-level meeting so quickly was something of a sign of trust in him, which made him feel rather happy. “It’s just a meeting. Why are you happy?” Iris rolled her eyes at Leon, but his joy seemed to rub off on her and she could not help but burst out laughing. Her smile was undeniably charming and as beautiful as a hundred flowers in full bloom. Iris knew that Leon was lacking in the business department and so probably could not help her much, and she never really planned to let Leon attend such high-level meetings so soon. Despite that, she could see from his persistent questions that he cared about her and wanted to do his part to help the company.

THE EX-HUSBAND’S REVENGE BY DRAGONSKY CHAPTER 79

The Ex-Husband’s Revenge By Dragonsky Chapter 80 It was only after pondering it for a brief moment that Iris decided to let Leon participate in the meeting, since his presence there would not affect them much.

After dinner, Iris went back to her room and had some rest.

Like the previous night, Leon quietly went to the top of the mountain out back and brought the jade with him. He took them out, laid them out according to the set pattern, and planted all 18 pieces of white jadeites in the soil. The Energy Convergence Circle was soon set up.

The next step was to activate the core of the circle, which in turn activated the circle as w ell.

Everything would seem just as usual if the core was not activated, and no one would be able to find the mystery that was hidden there. Leon then walked to the core and sat crossed-legged on the ground. He then took out the last piece of clear jadeite tablet and placed it at the circle's core. A gust of cold wind blew, and as soon as the Energy Convergence Circle was activated, the spiritual energy on the top of the mountain formed a small cyclone that gathered into the circle within seconds and surged into Leon's body.

As he began his refinement within the circle, the effect and speed turned out to be more than three times faster than the previous night.

Leon needed more than two hours to complete one cycle, but the circle reduced it to just over half an hour. Furthermore, the Energy Convergence Circle was nourishing his body as well as the jadeite tablet at the circle's core.

Unbeknownst to him, the ancient jade pendant he wore on his chest was also being nourished by the spiritual energy! Such was the sheer powerful effects of the Energy Convergence Circle!

After some time, Leon's body vibrated and his refinement level successfully broke through the bottleneck in the initial stage of energy refinement, and he reached the middle stage with the help of the Energy Convergence Circle, Leon was not in a hurry to verify it though. He continued to refine and reinforce his refinement stage, and it was not until after five o'clock in the morning of the next day that he called it a day and stood up. "Phew....." Leon exhaled a drawn-out breath and smiled. The effect of the Energy Convergence Circle was even better than he imagined. It did not only help him break through to the middle stage of energy refinement, but also spurred it to within reaching distance of later stage energy refinement.

"This Energy Convergence Circle was incredibly effective! I managed to absorb most of the energy on this mountaintop in less than a night! I might need to reduce my refinement time in the future and avoid spending the whole night here!" Leon lamented.

The flowers, plants, and trees on the mountain can generate spiritual energy, but the speed of energy generation could not keep up with the speed of his absorption. If he wanted to maintain some sort of balance, he needed to limit his use of the Energy Convergence Circle to about two or three hours a day. “Rushing isn’t going to do any good. I’ll refine my energy slowly from now on, since it’s not the future. Impatience won’t be conducive to energy refinement.” An excited Leon retrieved the clear jadeite tablet from the core of the circle and descended down the mountain. As for the 18 pieces of white jadeite that he already buried, he did not have to worry about them being discovered or destroyed since no one usually went up to the top of the mountain anyway. Besides, even if anyone did find the place, the ‘key’ to activating the circle was still with him.

Upon reaching the company, Leon just parked his motorcycle in the parking lot when the door of the car next to him swung open. A pair of slender, well-proportioned, long legs stepped out of the car on high heels. Those legs were incredibly beautiful and appeared rather familiar to him. Leon looked up and saw that it was none other than Ariel. “It’s again, Leon! Why is a man like you driving a women’s motorcycle? Can’t you buy a new car?” Ariel glanced at Leon with contempt. Her tone, however, was much gentler than previously and was more of a teasing remark than one of ridicule. “I don’t have a driver’s license...” Chapter 80 Leon sniggered to himself and thought, ‘A woman like me will never know what wonderful things I get to experience when riding a motorcycle!’
