Chapter 121 Arrogant Woman

“Playing chess? What do you mean?”

Mr. Walker looked confused. He thought ‘What is this? What does it have to do with chess?!’

“I played three games of chess with the village head there, that’s what I meant.”

Mr. Walker’s face became proud as he heard Leon.

“Mr. Millers, I thought you were going to talk about things, but I didn’t expect you to play chess!” Mr. Walker thought Leon was too playful.

Mr. Walker thought at the critical moment of competition between the two companies, he went to play chess and was not worthy to oversee Michelin Real Estate at all.

“What’s wrong with playing chess? Do you have a problem with that? Can you play three games of chess and win that piece of land smoothly?”

Leon glanced at Mr. Walker with indifferent eyes.

“Are you kidding me? What does it have to do with playing chess?”

Mr. Walker felt that he could not understand what Leon said.

“There is no need for me to explain the specific reason. You just need to know that the land in that village in the city has been taken and the planning will be carried out immediately. I want you to build it into the busiest area in the city in the future!”

Leon's aura was so powerful as he gave orders to Mr. Walker and he turned around without looking back.

Actually, as he said, he has no obligation to report to Mr. Walker. Leon was the real power at Michelin Real Estate. Seniority was no use to him. Leon depends on his ability to speak.

Shortly after Leon left, Liam came to Mr. Walker. As he looks at his expression, there was both surprise and shock.

"Dad, Mr. Millers did it! He really did it! The villagers have agreed to demolish the land and that piece of land will be developed by our company!"

"Is it true? Did he really said that he had gone to play chess with the village head?" Mr. Walker was confused about the relationship between playing chess and taking the land.

"It's impossible to know. Mr. Millers is very resourceful. We spent more than half a year on a problem that we could not solve. Mr. Millers only spent an hour playing chess and I must say, I didn't get the wrong guy!"

Liam was excited, as soon as Leon took over the company, he was surprised by how he handles the problem. As a fan, he fell to the ground with admiration.

"This." Mr. Walker was so shocked that he stopped talking for a moment.

"Oh, by the way, the villagers did not start the price on the ground but under the compensation standard given before, so our company has saved a lot of money."

The news of Liam undoubtedly shocked Mr. Walker again.

Mr. Walker's hands trembled a little, his eyes widened, and his face looked stunned.

“What? The demolition households are all stupid, what a surprise!”

“This is all thanks to Mr. Millers. Without him, not only we would not be able to take it, but there might also be a circumstance of starting prices for demolition households. I am really convinced of Mr. Millers!”

As he heard this, Mr. Walker questioned himself. “Is it true that I underestimate Leon? It only took him more than an hour to solve the problem that had plagued me for half a year. He had no choice but to accept it!”

Mr. Walker changed his view of Leon and those prejudices also dissipated. Mr. Walker was convinced of Leon's strength. Not everyone can convince an old businessman and ask his peers to do it. This time Leon will certainly be able to intimidate the employees of Michelin Real Estate.

Not long after, Belle sent the injured Bryant, to the intensive care unit of the first people's Hospital in the city. Bryant's spine was broken by a kick from Leon and there is a great possibility that the lower half of his body will become paralyzed.

“Who? Who did it? Let me know who did this or you will die!”

Belle went crazy and yelled outside the ward. She didn't know that her brother Bryant was scrapped by Leon. Just then, she got another piece of bad news that Michelin Real Estate has successfully taken down the piece of land in the village in the city and the demolition households did not bid the price. The news, like her brother's abandonment, was also a bolt from the blue.

“What the fuck?! What dirty tricks did Michelin Real Estate use? How could we not get in before them?” Belle picked up a thing and throws it in anger.

“Didn't we bring enough people? Are our guys are being pussy again?! Useless! A bunch of losers! I can't even handle this! My profit will be reduced by at least % 1 billion!”

The anger of Belle scared the assistant. Belle was indeed beautiful in terms of beauty, but her personality has some social demeanor. It is also possible that it has something to do with the powerful people behind her. Only if they were strong enough, she will be out of control.

“Ms. Young, Gian ran away with his staff and the contract will be terminated, and it is said that Gian met a terrible person and he was so scared that he left your brother.” The assistant bowed his head and whispered.

“A terrible man? It seems that my brother was beaten so badly because of this man!” Belle clenched her teeth with a ferocious expression.

“Ms. Young, it also said that Michelin Real Estate sent a young man to convince the demolition households, if it were not for him, we would have won it properly.” The assistant said.

“A man? Check it out for me right away and you're fired if you can't find it!”

Belle wondered ‘What kind of man did Michelin Real Estate use to break the deadlock for half a year and invigorate this game of chess?!’

However, at present, Belle was no longer in the mood to think about it, she must solve her problem with his younger brother, first. She needs the best doctor in the city to save her brother. The appointment with Dr. Ezra, Bella assured herself.

“Dean, you must do everything you can to bring my brother back. He must not be paralyzed!”

Dr. Ezra frowned and was embarrassed. “Ms. Young, your brother is badly hurt, his spine is broken, and he is very lucky not to die. What else do you want?”

“I don’t care! Bryant must stand up. I’ll give you how much money you want. If your hospital can’t cure him, I’ll raze this place to the ground!” Belle was so arrogant that she even warns to close the whole hospital.

Ezra frowned and sighed as he said, “To tell you the truth, there is nothing we can do about your brother’s condition or even the other hospital, Ms. Young, but there is someone who can give it a try.”

“Come on, who is it? I’ll make an offer!”

“This man is not a doctor in our hospital. he was employed in the research institute. It is really not easy to invite him to come and treat him.” Ezra and that friend haven’t seen each other for a month.

“If he refuses, give him 10 million dollars, it’s impossible not to come with such price!” Belle shows an air of a rich woman.

“I’ll try my best to invite him over, but Ms. Young, you mustn’t speak in the tone you use today, or your brother will be completely hopeless!” Ezra warned.

But Belle was still arrogant. “What’s wrong with my tone? If he can’t cure my brother, I will break him and his family into pieces!”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 122

Chapter 122 Are You Leon

This was the first time Ezra has ever met such a wild woman. Covered with social vulgarity, Ezra can’t help but wonder who was backing her up.

“Well, I’ll try to invite him over.”

Ezra does not want to offend Belle as he was worried that she would retaliate but also want to take this opportunity to get to know the rich woman. It wasn’t long before Ezra contacted Leon and asked him to come.

Now, Leon was busy. He has just won the piece of land in the village in the city, and a series of planning and development work was waiting for him to discuss with the senior management of the company. So, Leon found a reason to deal with it casually. However, Ezra begged Willy and Indra, to convince Leon. He does not know that the person he was trying to save was Bryant.

As a descendant of the divine doctor, he also has the benevolence of the doctor. If a patient can be cured, it can be regarded as a good deed. After arriving at the first people’s Hospital in the city, he came to the intensive care unit accompanied by Ezra.

Belle looked puzzled and stared at Leon up and down as if she had seen him somewhere before. In fact, Belle and Leon have not met in real life before, but she sent someone to investigate Leon during the period of Fairmont University.

“You are the doctor that Ezra mentioned. Hurry up and treat my brother. If you can’t cure him, don’t stay in Fairmont City!”

Belle was still arrogant and dared him to ask for help for medical treatment. Although Belle doesn’t recognize him, Leon already knew her. When he found out that the person to be treated was Bryant, he immediately refused the idea of treatment.

“No!” Leon responded decisively.

Although the divine doctor was handed down from person to person, the doctor also has a rule that do not save those who are extremely ferocious.

“You really have the nerve to refute me. Do you know how much influence I have in Fairmont ? ”

Belle’s arrogance threatened Leon but the problem was her brother became so miserable, thanks to Leon. The spine was broken by Leon and now it would be ironic to let him fix it.

“I can treat it if I want to but also I can’t help it if I don’t want to!” Leon was not afraid of Belle.

Ezra didn’t know what to do. He frowned and thought that Leon might be in trouble and he’s afraid that he might get involved.

After all, Belle was a cruel woman in Fairmont City.

“Leon, just do me a favor and treat Ms. Young’s brother as soon as possible.” Ezra hurriedly urged.

Before Leon could answer, Belle said angrily, “Ezra, I asked you to find a famous doctor, but you brought me a young man who didn’t know about anything. This is deliberately fooling me!”

“No, Ms. Young, listen to me. Leon’s medical skills are the highest in Fairmont City. Both of you should be kind to each other.” Ezra explains.

“No!” Leon’s answer was still firm. “I do have the ability to repair a broken spine, but I will never treat this man.”

Liana, the first female doctor in China, personally passed on Leon’s mysterious and superb medical skills. Although it cannot cure malignant cancer, it is not difficult to repair bones and muscles.

However, he knew very well Bryant’s conduct, this kind of person was still a waste and it was beneficial to society.

“Leon, you are embarrassing me!” Ezra believes that even if you don’t want to treat it, you should say politely that you can’t, and there’s no need to refuse so decisively.

“Am I embarrassing you? You are making it difficult for me! Not everyone can tell me what to do!”

If Leon hadn’t come to the hospital for the sake of his friends, he wouldn’t have put down so much work at hand. And as for his friend, Ezra did not understand enough. Since Leon does not want to treat him, there should be a natural reason, but Ezra would not understand, even worried that Leon would implicate him.

“Leon, Ms. Young is a big entrepreneur in Fairmont. She is currently the leading company in the industry. You should consider clearly that she’s not easy to be an enemy.” Ezra winked at Leon and motioned to Leon to be soft.

As he heard this, Leon sneered at the corners of his mouth. As long as Michelin Real Estate is in the industry, Bertholdt will not be the leading company in the real estate industry in Fairmont City.

Originally, Bertholdt could have had an impact this time, but how could his ruthless child beat Bertholdt back to its original shape as soon as he hit it?

“No matter how much you talk, your friends won’t be able to walk in the future. I’m not a tool you can use to get a big boss’ favor and I don’t need to do anything for them!”

Leon’s tone was very stiff. He came to the hospital as his friend, Ezra should not regard himself as too important. Ezra doesn’t understand that Leon should be so strong and direct. He regretted that he would not have gotten involved, or because he was too greedy and wanted to get to know Belle.

“Son of a bitch, you’re crazy! Wait for me and I will make you pay!” Belle’s eyebrows stood on end and her eyes seemed to be breathing fire.

“Why are you like your brother? Is there anything else that you can do aside from threatening people?” Leon couldn’t help sneering.

By this time, Belle understands. The young man in front of him was Leonard, who has a grudge against his brother.

“Your last name is Millers and your name is Leon?” Belle asked as her eyes widened.

“Yes, I’m the one you’re looking for.” Leon smiled faintly.

“Son of a bitch! You’re really want to die, aren’t you?” Belle swore, stretched out her newly manicured hands, and scratched Leon’s face.

Bang! Leon raised his hand and slapped Belle against the hallway wall. Ezra, on one side, trembled with fear and shouted in his heart ‘it’s over.’ Belle had her nose and mouth bleeding. Leon usually doesn’t hit women but this one was self-defense.

“Don’t you dare hit me! You’re dead!” Belle’s face, twisted and hideous, she looks weird.

“Redo your chin and nose, the prosthesis inside is almost exposed.” Leon couldn’t help laughing because Belle’s chin was crooked.

At this time, Belle was more eager to kill Leon, she spent 5 million dollars on her face when she went to South Korea last month. Then Leon turned around and left. Ezra was stunned by this scene. He knew Leon was not an irrational person, but he dares to hit Belle. He wondered if Leon has strong connections.

When Leon left the hospital, he went back to Michelin Real Estate to continue the meeting and discuss the development with the senior management of the company, trying to finish before the evening. There would be also a dinner in the evening but Rachel is in trouble and she asks Leon to come to the rescue.

When it comes to this matter, it is a bit difficult for Rachel to talk about it.

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 123

Chapter 123 People should be Aware

“My colleagues in the office insist on dragging me to see Mr. Walker in Fairmont City. I want you to come with me and pretend to be my boyfriend, otherwise, they won’t give up.”

Rachel was afraid to tell Leon in person or on the phone, she thought that texting can hide her nervousness and uneasiness. Besides, Leon was her ideal boyfriend, she just thought that she wasn’t good enough for Leon.

At that moment, Leon looked at the message sent by Rachel and smiled faintly.

“Silly girl.” He whispered.

Before eating in a western restaurant, Leon heard a female colleague of Rachel mention that her cousin knew Liam, and said she wanted to introduce Rachel.

Unexpectedly, it was really arranged for Rachel. It seems that the campus beauty of Fairmont University never changes as she entered the workplace.

Rachel did not work for a long time. With her high-quality appearance, she was inevitably pursued and introduced to a boyfriend. However, Rachel already has a desired goal in mind.

To maintain a relationship with colleagues, it was always reckless to refuse directly, so Rachel had to ask Leon to do her a favor.

At more than seven o’clock in the evening, Leon was wearing a gray casual hoodie as he walked into Harbor Restaurant.

Harbor Restaurant is the name of this hotel, and its grade can be called high-end in Fairmont City. When Leon arrived, Rachel's female colleague Nancy and her cousin were already seated.

As Leon sat down, Nancy and her cousin's eyes were full of disdain and seemed unhappy with the arrival of Leon. The last time, Nancy saw Leon was playing tricks on a male colleague and felt that Leon was capable, but today's situation was different.

The protagonist of the dinner is Liam, the young master of Michelin Real Estate. The strength of Family Walker in Fairmont City can rank in the top three. Master Liam was not only the only son of the city's largest real estate owner but also the owner of the city's super running club. Nancy and her cousin were meant to set up Liam and Rachel and the arrival of Leon seems to spoil the situation.

They believe that apart from the physical condition, Leon was nothing comparable to Mr. Liam Walker. So, Leon was like a big problem. They thought they could have taken this opportunity to curry favor with Master Liam, but the addition of a man out of thin air will certainly cause discomfort to Mr. Liam. Nancy winked at her cousin fearing that the matter would be messed up.

But at this time, Rachel first spoke, blushed, and said "You see, I told you, I have a boyfriend, this is my boyfriend Leon, Nancy you have met him already."

Rachel doesn't completely use Leon as a shield, she admires Leon. No matter how excellent this Mr. Walker and how illustrious the family background is, in the eyes of Rachel, Leon is irreplaceable.

“Rachel, I thought you were joking. It turns out you really have a boyfriend. I was kind enough to do bad things.” Nancy said.

If she really cared, she would not have asked her cousin to introduce Liam to Rachel. After all, when she was eating in a western restaurant, she clearly saw Rachel and Leon behaving vaguely. She just wants Rachel to get rid of Leon and fall in love with Liam. When Rachel gets close to Liam, a rich young man, she can get a lot of benefits in the future.

As for the relationship between Rachel and Leon, she doesn't care because she thought that Rachel and Leon would break up sooner or later. The longer a woman steps into society, the more realistic she will be. Rachel will gradually realize that money is real, and a beautiful woman like her should marry a rich man.

“Nancy, my boyfriend is here and we should leave.” Rachel wants to get out of this awkward place.

“I don't think you could leave like this; we have to meet and say sorry to Mr. Liam,” Nancy said.

When Rachel heard this, she was extremely displeased. Although she was a kind girl, this kind of request was too much for her. Her 'boyfriend' was sitting right next to her and yet he has to apologize to Liam as if he was the victim. Although Rachel doesn't know what Liam thinks, Nancy's excessive demands completely enraged her. Rachel also has principles and to worship money and material things were not her thing.

“I don't think it's necessary. It's too much to have a boyfriend on a blind date. If you ask me to apologize to Liam, I can't do it!” Rachel stands up and pulls Leon away.

However, Leon took his time and gently hooked Rachel's waist and motioned her to sit down.

"We're here already, let's just finish eating and then go."

If the other party is someone else, Leon will not meet anyone if he directly pulls Rachel away. However, he knew Liam, so he wants to know what he was up to.

Nancy's cousin disdainfully glances at Leon, sneered in her heart, and said, "Oh, this is the sorrow of the poor, to get a living he would lose his dignity, I thought he had anything extraordinary, it seems that he is just a timid and cowardly person, now Mr. Walker has a good chance."

"We'd better go. We won't have this meal." Rachel still doesn't feel right.

Although Leon was pretending to be her boyfriend, she has given her heart to Leon. Moreover, she also felt that she does not agree with the three values of Nancy and some of her ideas really cannot be agreed with and it would inevitably be awkward to sit together.

"It doesn't matter. Don't leave until you finish eating. These foods look good, besides, I haven't had dinner yet." Leon comforted. "I was so busy during the day that I really didn't bother to have dinner."

Nancy and her cousin looked at each other with a hint of mockery. Useless was the first impression of Nancy's cousin for Leon. She was relieved to see that Leon was so unbearable. Even the best people would be overshadowed by Mr. Walker, not to mention Leon.

Nancy's cousin, with her half-closed eyes, looked at Leon and asked "Where do you work, boy?"

“It’s not fixed yet, and it will change every once in a while,” Leon said.

There’s nothing wrong with that. Every other time, they have to take over a new company, and when all the obstacles of Michelin Real Estate are done, they have to take over a new company.

However, a sneer appeared on the corner of Nancy’s cousin’s mouth: “If young people don’t have a background, don’t be too high of yourself. First, find a unit to work in a down-to-earth manner for a few years. If you’re lucky, you can be a supervisor.”

“Supervisors doesn’t have to.” Leon smiled, and he didn’t even want to be chairman.

“Young people are just too reckless. If you can’t fight for your father, you can only accept your fate. You can’t be as rich and powerful as Mr. Walker. You might as well accept your fate as a clerk and still be able to support yourself.” Nancy’s cousin starts lecturing Leon.

Leon smiled

“It is said that life does not distinguish between high and low, but some people are born to be called young masters. People must believe in fate. Some things do not belong to you. Even if you have them now, they will not last long. People should know where they are.” This cousin of Nancy, with a mentoring attitude, thinks she sees through everything and lives more thoroughly than anyone else.

Leon took a sip of the wine and sneered: “You’re right, people really know themselves!”

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 124

Chapter 124 What does the Rich Looks Like

Post a picture on social media and buy some successful books. They will think you have read the whole world. Leon has seen a lot of such people. However, Nancy's cousin didn't know how stupid she was. She thought that even the words she utters would infuriate the inferiority complex of Leon and the more self-abased Leon was, the more fulfilling she feels.

"Mr. Walker hasn't come yet, how can you drink first? This is extremely disrespectful to Mr. Walker!"

No sooner had the red wine entered her throat than Nancy's cousin let out a shrill scream. Leon frowned uncomfortably. He likes to be quiet and hates harsh howls.

"I'm not drinking his wine. I'm drinking my own. What's wrong with a sip?" Leon hissed.

"If someone else is coming, of course, it doesn't matter, but he is Mr. Liam Walker. Have you heard me clearly? He is the young owner of Michelin Real Estate!" Nancy's cousin said in a commanding tone.

Nancy, on one side, echoed and said, "My cousin is right. Mr. Walker hasn't come yet. You just don't give him shame when you do this!"

As he heard this, Leon smiled. "Why should I give him shame? To be honest, if it wasn't for Liam, I wouldn't drink it first, because I know him much better than you do, and he wouldn't care!"

What Leon meant to say was that Liam didn't care at all, but even if he did, the two women wouldn't believe it.

“Brag about not making drafts. How can Mr. Walker know people like you? Some so many people flatter themselves. I’ve never seen such a thick-skinned person like you.”

Nancy’s cousin has been completely at loggerheads with Leon. She didn’t like Leon, in any way. Leon stopped paying attention to her and talked with Rachel. They talk about the recent work of Rachel, whether it went well or not. Leon knew Rachel very well. He knows that Rachel doesn’t want to rely on others for help in her work. He vaguely revealed that if Rachel wanted to change her job, he could help introduce her.

When Leon talks to Rachel, the more ambiguous her behavior was and the more uncomfortable it was for Nancy and her cousin. They were afraid that they would screw up the matchmaking of Rachel and Liam. Of course, they both agreed that as long as Mr. Walker appeared, ordinary people like Leon would feel ashamed. It would be great for both of them if Leon, could back down before Mr. Walker came.

“Although your life is not satisfactory right now, don’t give up on yourself. Judging from the way you dress, I feel that you have no pursuit.” Nancy’s cousin insinuated that Leon was improperly dressed.

“I don’t know what you mean. From what point can you see that I am not pursuing?” Leon means confused.

“It’s very simple. Judging from the way you dress? your hoodie is not formal at all. If you don’t even have a suit when you go out, how can you be successful?” Nancy’s cousin said.

“This is not a Michelin restaurant and there is no requirement for dining etiquette. Besides, do all rich people eat informal clothes? It’s only for insurance sellers.”

Leon has more to say than anyone else when it comes to what a rich person looks like in life. The rich people he met didn't have to wear a suit to eat as she said.

“What do you know? You are at the bottom of society, how can you understand the lifestyle of the rich? When Mr. Walker arrives, you will understand how big the gap between him and you!”

Nancy's cousin becomes more arrogant as Leon retorted, her eyebrows were about to pick up to the chandelier.

“I know better than you what Liam's life is like. He likes to go for a ride on an electric bike.” Leon said.

“Oh! Don't be ridiculous. Mr. Walker is the president of the Super running Club in Fairmont City. It's too easy for him to go for a ride in a supercar. How can you go to a civilian that rides an electric bike?” Nancy's cousin didn't believe it.

Leon didn't bother to explain too much. He just told each other that you can't imagine the happiness of the rich. For example, Leon himself will not stop riding an electric car because he is ashamed of himself, it's because he is confident enough that he does not have to rely on luxury cars to fill it.

However, Nancy's cousin was still adamant.

“Nonsense! I advise you to be careful about what you say. If Mr. Walker comes later and you still make up lies like this, there will be absolutely no good fruit to eat for you!”

Nancy also echoed. “My cousin is right, Mr. Walker will definitely come in a supercar, Ferrari or Lamborghini, how can he ride an electric car? Don’t talk nonsense!”

Leon smiled but didn’t say a word. He estimated that Nancy’s cousin didn’t know Liam very well and was only connected through multiple layers of relationships.

To please Liam, they even started the idea of Rachel, the workplace society was so sinister, Rachel this little white rabbit, really want to watch.

Just then, Nancy inadvertently looked out of the window.

“Oh, my God! What happened? Mr. Walker, he. He.” Nancy stuttered.

Nancy’s cousin asked curiously, “What happened to Mr. Walker, Nancy? Did he come on a Ferrari?”

“No, it’s an electric bike!” Nancy can tell the difference between a Ferrari and an electric bike.

“Nancy, you’re kidding me. With such an honorable status as Mr. Walker, luxury cars under 10 million can’t match him!”

Nancy shook her head disapprovingly. “Cousin, I really didn’t lie to you. I can’t believe it either. Look!” Nancy pointed out the window.

Her cousin hurriedly looked out of the window and saw that Liam was locking his bike at the door of the restaurant. He was worried about locking the remote-control lock and insisted on locking a manual lock on the front wheel with great care. Others may not understand this strange situation, but Liam himself knows that the electric bike was given to him by Mr. Millers.

Moreover, this bike has followed Mr. Millers' for four years. Once stained with the sweat of Mr. Millers' struggle. It used to carry Mr. Millers through the streets of the city. He was willing to uphold the will of Mr. Millers so that this spirit can be continued. The key point is that collecting a vehicle used by a ruthless son is very cost-effective for Liam. He was just the son of a rich family in Fairmont, and even the richest man in the city was not as rich as the illustrious brothers in Conrad City. Even so, he was lucky enough to get it.

At this time, Nancy and her cousin both opened their eyes wide and opened their mouths, as they look out of the window at the scene.

Leon's words were true, the impression of the personable Mr. Walker came on an electric bike.

These two relatives can't believe it!

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 125

Chapter 125 A Gift for an Old Friend

And these are no strangers to Leon. Ever since he came out of the supercar club and threw the electric bike to Liam that day, then Mr. Walker has become like this in Fairmont City.

"Mr. Walker, you. You're experiencing life, aren't you?" Nancy's cousin was almost humble to the ground as she faces Liam.

However, instead of talking to her or even look at her, Liam went straight to Leon. When Nancy and her cousin looked at the posture, they smelled a brawl fight and thought Mr. Walker was going to laugh at Leon.

However, the scene that they wanted to see did not happen. Instead of humiliating Leon, Liam looked a little flustered. He also just learned that the person he was introduced to, is the young lady of Leon's family. In fact, the choice of the young lady of the Millers' family has not been decided all the time, this is just Liam's guess. He knew that the nearest girl to walk with the big-time son was Rachel. He just learned that the person who was scheduled to go on a blind date with him was Rachel. This was a ruthless woman, even if he ate the guts of a leopard, he didn't dare to think of anything else.

Then Liam turned to stare at Nancy and her cousin, his were eyes cold. It was these two women who almost killed him!

"Mr. Walker, please have a seat."

Nancy's cousin was a little confused about the look in Liam's eyes, she thought that there was something wrong with the hospitality.

"Mr. Walker, I would like to introduce to you this is Rachel. Do you feel satisfied with her appearance and temperament?" With her humble posture, compared with the previous treatment of Leon, she seems to be a different person.

Unexpectedly, in exchange for a look of disgust in Liam's eyes. This is a deliberate attempt to sow discord between him and the person he was looking up to. Rachel was the future young lady of a big family, and he doesn't even dare to think about it.

Neither Nancy nor her cousin seemed to know what was going on in Liam's mind, let alone see the situation. They both agreed that it was Leon who appeared on the occasion and sat very close to Rachel, which caused Liam's displeasure.

Her cousin's plans to gain favor with Liam, by belittling Leon.

"Leon is a suitor of Rachel. He is crazy about Rachel, but it is only unrequited love. In his capacity, he doesn't even deserve to be a servant of Rachel. Only you, Mr. Walker, are worthy of a girl like Rachel in this city. You and Rachel, are a perfect match!"

This is her usual skill in the workplace, and she usually steps on one by one in front of her boss, believing that she has a strong ability to flatter herself.

Nancy was not satisfied with her cousin's statement but also handed over a word. "Mr. Walker, Leon is a stalker, pestering Rachel every day, this kind of person should quickly disappear, in his capacity, he should not appear in such an upscale restaurant!"

Rachel was so distressed to see Leon being so humiliated that she would not have asked Leon to help. Now, he may not be as strong as he used to be in the face of Mr. Walker,

But Leon is Leon, he will never change.

Leon's cold eyes shot at Nancy and her cousin and thought. 'It is these two bitches who should disappear!'

"I want these two bitches to disappear and never appear in front of me!"
Leon in his command voice.

This is an order, an order to Liam!

“Oh, my God! This guy is crazy! You don’t have the strength to learn from an overbearing president!”

“Ah, you’re killing me! Who do you think you are, you are nothing!”

The smug Nancy and her cousin laughed like pigs.

However, Liam looked flustered and frightened. These two nonsense, who do not know the depth of heaven and earth, are dragging him into the water.

“You two, get out of here! Do you want to wait for someone to drag you?!” Liam let out a roar at the two women.

“It should be Leon, Mr. Walker. He should be the one to get out! Are you mistaken? We are friends!”

“Mr. Walker, I’m Nancy! We have talked before. Don’t you remember me?”

Liam was angry but to be honest, he really doesn’t remember Nancy.

“Do I know you very well? I’ve seen a lot of people. What kind of person are you? Don’t take so highly of yourself and get out of here!”

Liam immediately called the security guard, they dragged Nancy and her cousin out and threw them at the door of the restaurant. After that, Liam had no time to catch his breath. he was worried and was still waiting for Leon to respond.

He knew that Leon might not punish him, but he was worried that it would affect his relationship with Leon.

If Leon's trust was affected because of this, it would be a great loss.

"The flies have been driven away. Sit down and have a few drinks."

Behind the suddenly calm sounded voice of Leon, Liam cannot be neglected, he quickly smiled.

At that moment, Rachel was so confused that she couldn't believe what was in front of her.

She can't believe Leon can command Liam around. Leon saw Rachel's doubts and explained with a chuckle. "This is my friend and you can call him Liam."

"Really?" Rachel was skeptical.

"Ask him if you don't believe me." Leon pointed to Liam.

"It's true that we are good friends and have been playing together since childhood. We didn't get together until high school." Liam also explained with a smile.

To be honest, he wished that he had grown up with Leon and could have known this man since childhood. His family background had to be an absolute rich family in Conrad City!

Obviously, Liam was far from qualified, but it is also an honor for him to pretend to be a good friend of Leon.

After listening to the explanation, Rachel finally believed it. The three of them were eating and chatting and the atmosphere became much more harmonious after two obnoxious flies were driven away.

While Rachel was halfway to the bathroom, Liam mentioned something to Leon.

“Mr. Millers’ quadrennial Fairmont Chamber of Commerce is coming soon. Is there anything you can do?”

“What’s so special about the chambers of commerce here?” Leon asked.

“It’s about exchanging business projects, expanding contacts, and looking for partners. When it comes to particularity, is Mr. Carter worth it from time to time?” Liam smiled awkwardly.

“Mr. Carter? Which one is the provincial capital The Carter in Fairmont City? I have heard about the provincial capital Family Carter,” Leon utters

Because fifteen years ago, the second son of Family Carter, the provincial capital, was once the pawn of a famous family in Conrad City, provoking the ruthless family, and launched a business competition, but was defeated by the ruthless family.

As a result, Family Carter lost most of its property. The initiator at that time was Family Carter’s second son, Alex Carter, who was forced to leave the provincial capital and settle in Fairmont.

“I don’t know about it, Mr. Millers, but Family Carter is very well-connected in Fairmont. Although he is not the richest, many people are afraid of his family. This is like the fame of old Mr. Indra, which cannot be exchanged for money.” Liam said.

“I’m sure I’ll go to the Chamber of Commerce. It’s just that, Alex has a son. What does it have to do with the Chamber of Commerce?” Leon said and took a sip of the red wine.

“Mr. Millers, you don’t know but this Alex still has a great influence in Fairmont. Almost all of them are the protagonists of the Chamber of Commerce. He has changed several wives but failed to have children. It is not easy for him to have a son in old age. This happens to coincide with the Chamber of Commerce and many enterprises in the city have prepared generous gifts for him. Do we Michelin Real Estate also mean?”

This can be regarded as a proposal of Liam and he also heard from Marcus that, The Parker and other enterprises are ready. However, Leon can’t prepare a gift for someone who has challenged his family.

“That old thing, does it match?”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 126

Chapter 126 Do You Have Health Insurance

Leon’s attitude utters just one word. “It’s a No!”

He doesn’t care about others, but his company will never prepare gifts for Alex. When Liam saw that Leon was so determined, he didn’t understand. In Fairmont City, the comprehensive strength of Family Carter can rank in the top three. Known as the Fairmont Big three with Family Danielle and Family Walker.

If you don’t give a gift, it’s like hitting Alex in the face on the spot. However, he obeyed orders, now that Mr. Millers has made a decision; it must make sense.

After dinner, Leon takes Rachel home. She was peeking at Leon all the way. She was more and more impressed by this man. Can the Michelin real estate Liam become small? This is understandable, but she is very confused as, why Liam looked at Leon's strange eyes, vaguely revealing respect.

"Have considered changing your job?" Leon asked suddenly.

"It may be considered that there are too many nosy colleagues in this work, so if I can have a better opportunity, it would be all right to go to the provincial capital." Rachel wants to exercise herself.

"Have you ever considered yourself being your own boss?" Leon asked again.

"This is too far away for me, and my ability is limited, my company might soon go bankrupt." Rachel shook her head gently.

"Is it all right for you to be the boss' wife?" Leon smiled.

"I. I don't have such a blessing. I want to improve myself now." Rachel blushed instantly.

The next morning, Leon came to Michelin Real Estate. After taking care of the matter at hand in the first half of the day, he has a rest in the afternoon.

"What have you done with Bertholdt, recently?" Leon asked Liam on the side.

"Nothing for the time being. Bertholdt failed to win the land and lost its vitality. This bidding directly determines Michelin's position as the leading company of the real estate industry in Fairmont City, and it is still very difficult for Bertholdt to surpass it.” Liam answered.

“This is not the result I wanted. I want Bertholdt Real Estate. I can never turn over in Fairmont City and directly destroy it!”

Only by thoroughly knocking down Bertholdt, a competitor, will Leon rest assured that the company will be handed over to the Walker instead of management. After all, other family businesses need to be taken over, and his family has not only set up a branch in Fairmont City but may leave Fairmont City after some time.

“If you want to bring down Bertholdt completely, you must have a partner to have the capacity, The Parker, but it is an appropriate choice, but neither side of the Parker wants to offend,” Liam mentioned The Parker.

“The Parker? It sounds familiar.” Leon said.

“That Marcus, who came to me that day was the young owner of The Parker. He had a good relationship with me, not very strong, but sometimes we would play golf together, but the boy was not strong-willed, so it was difficult to win him over.” Liam explains.

“It turned out to be him, but it doesn’t matter. No matter what method I use, I must let Bertholdt collapse completely before I go!” Leon has made up his mind.

Sitting not far away while drinking tea silently, Mr. Walker, heard Leon’s words, unexpectedly with some emotion. He thought that Leon had no ambition, but now he seems to have underestimated it. However, he was afraid it would be even more difficult to defeat Bertholdt as soon as possible, which is even more difficult than taking that piece of land in the village in the city.

Although Mr. Walker admires Leon's courage, he is not optimistic about it. Recently, Belle, president of Bertholdt was in a very low mood. Not only did the bidding fail, but his brother Bryant also became a waste. It is impossible to stand up again in this life when the elder sister wants to cut Leon into thousands of pieces.

If she knew that Michelin Real Estate's behind-the-scenes boss was Leon, she may be even more resentful.

In the intensive care unit of the hospital, Belle looked at his crippled brother and swore: "Bryant, I will avenge you! Since Leon has ruined my dearest, I will hire someone to ruin the one he loves most!"

In the afternoon, Leon went back to Beverly Hills to have a rest. After taking a nap, Liam asked him to go to the golf course.

"I haven't played golf for a long time. I haven't even touched a club since I came to Fairmont." Leon said.

The golf course is in the western suburb of Fairmont City. About half an hour later, Leon came to the stadium. Although the site looks very empty, the actual area was not very large, after all, Fairmont was not a first-tier city.

Just then, a golf ball flew head-on. Fortunately, Leon dodged in time and didn't let the golf ball hit him in the face. Since he didn't hit him in the face, he didn't pursue it. Leon only treats it as unintentional.

He was about to leave here to find the Liam rendezvous when a caddie in a hat drove a golf cart towards him. Leon saw that he must have come to pick up the ball, and he ignored it.

But the caddie stopped in front of Leon and blocked his way. After jumping out of the car, the caddie looked at the face and Leon, thought it was a strange face.

“Hey, have you seen the ball?” The caddy asked in a salty tone.

“Flying to the east,” Leon answered casually and was ready to leave. He was under no obligation to help the caddie find the ball.

“Nonsense! I just came from the east, and I didn’t see it. Did you hide it?” Said the caddy, frowning.

Hearing this, Leon couldn’t help laughing.

“You are so funny, who would be bored enough to hide the ball? You have to find the ball. What does it have to do with me?”

“It’s Ms. May’s imperial ball. It’s the most expensive golf ball in the city. If you hide it and sell it secretly, you can sell it for hundreds of thousands.” The caddy raised Ms. May’s eyebrows and seemed proud.

“It’s just a ball. It’s not a gilded golf club. Don’t be so classy. I’m not afraid of you.”

When Leon was in Conrad City, he had the most expensive golf club in the country. It was a birthday present from his father when he was ten years old. Big scene, he saw a lot, that Ms. May, is what evil he did not care but did not educate their own caddies, this is the fault of their master!

“Don’t brag! just one ball? It’s easy to say, that ball can cover your ten-year salary! And you’re the only one around here. If you didn’t steal it, can it just disappear?”

As he saw Leon with a strange face, the ball boy was sure that he is not a rich boy in this city, so his attitude towards him was very arrogant. If he were a familiar face like Liam and Marcus, he would not dare to be so presumptuous.

“The ball can’t be found because your master is poor in skill, and you are also incompetent as a caddy, you are unable to accurately judge the approximate scope of the ball.” Leon’s tone became serious.

“Don’t mess around! You stole the ball, you have to go to Ms. May and give an explanation, either pay for it or apologize!”

The attitude of the caddie was becoming more and more arrogant. Leon saw that the caddy not only despised him but also wanted to use him as a scapegoat so that he could be bailed out to his master.

“Don’t take yourself too seriously. No matter how good your master is, it has nothing to do with you. In fact, you just pick up the ball and call you a caddie. That’s all a compliment to you!”

“You little thief! Ms. May will never forgive you!” The caddy roared angrily into exasperation.

But at this time, Leon suddenly sneered and asked, “Do you have health insurance?”

“Oh, of course, I do. Ms. May has taken out full-body insurance for me. As her royal caddy, the benefits are more generous than you could have dreamed of!”

“Oh, that’s a lot easier.”

Leon swung the caddie away with a direct blow. Leon does not decide to use other means to deal with this kind of dog show of strength, but simply and rudely directly!

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 127

Chapter 127 Miss May

Leon left the place after he hammered the caddie with one punch. A small caddie dares to be so arrogant. He doesn’t even know where Ms. May comes from.

Leon soon found Liam to rendezvous with him. As they met, a man was standing beside Liam, who was Marcus, the young owner of The Parker. Leon only met Marcus once last time, and this meeting was similar to getting to know each other again.

Liam made a brief introduction, but he didn’t dare to arrange an identity for Leon without asking Leon’s consent.

“Mr. Parker is the young owner of The Parker. He is very good at golf. He can discuss it later.”

Listening to Liam’s introduction, Marcus felt a sense of superiority, but he didn’t show it.

Marcus and Gerald of Danielle Brothers were not quite the same, he belongs to the particularly clever kind, a lot of fancy intestines, but the personality was more pussy. When each of the three men grabbed their own golf clubs and was ready to play, Marcus glanced at Leon and found that his grip was a little rusty and looked like a novice.

Marcus could not help smiling contemptuously. In his eyes, people who can't play golf are not really high-class people. The billionaires he encountered in Fairmont City, although the ball skills are average, the grip movements are much more skillful than Leon.

At this point, Marcus came up with a plan.

Last time in Michelin Real Estate, it was precise because of Leon that Liam put it aside. He felt uncomfortable when he thought about it.

He is going to ridicule Leon, to give himself some words.

“Mr. Millers, let's talk about each other. How about the loser treats us to dinner?”

Marcus suddenly proposed.

Liam, on the side, sensed the smell of gunpowder emitted by Marcus and said, “Mr. Parker, I'll bet you that I haven't competed with you for a while to see if your skills have grown again.”

Liam is worried that Leon will lose. After all, he hasn't touched golf for four years. Coupled with Marcus's good skills, Leon has little chance of winning.

“No, no, Mr. Millers, and I have just met. We can get to know each other better when we play ball.” Marcus shook his head and rejected Liam.

Seeing that Marcus was determined to compete with Leon, Liam has no choice but to do so. However, as the challenged party, Leon was very straightforward “It doesn’t matter, it doesn’t matter to have a discussion, it doesn’t matter whether you win or lose, and a meal is not worth a lot of money.”

As he heard this, Marcus was secretly delighted. When he listened to Leon, he seemed to lack confidence, and he felt that he had almost no suspense about winning.

However, this was not the case. At first, Leon was a little rusty, but he soon regained 90% of his standard of living in Conrad City with the memory of his muscles. It’s like swimming. Once you understand the essence of it, it’s hard to forget. Whether it is a swing or hit the ball, Leon has played a master level.

Now, he looked at Marcus in a daze.

‘I thought he was a rookie, but he turned out to be a king!’ Marcus thought to himself.

After one game, Marcus lost badly, and the gap was too obvious.

Marcus was so embarrassed that he blushed and couldn’t wait to get into the hole.

“Mr. Millers, you are very good at golf! I take it, I really take it back! You can take part in the professional tour!”

Marcus blushed and gave Leon a thumbs up. He was a shrewd man, since he dares to take the initiative to challenge Leon, it shows that he has carefully considered but still misjudged him, which makes him start to re-examine Leon.

Originally, Liam, who was still worried about Leon, saw him beat Marcus to pieces, and he was sincerely happy.

At the same time, Leon also took it out on him because he lost miserably every time he played with Marcus.

“Marcus, you have finally met your match!” Liam smiled secretly.

Then Liam said to Marcus, “Mr. Parker, you must treat us to a big dinner tonight.”

Marcus’s face flushed and his face was covered with embarrassment but he forced a smile said “Good to say, I’ll take you to the McPort, where the little sisters in Casa are more delicious than the food, and the wine is good. I went there three times and got drunk.”

“I’m afraid we have to ask Mr. Millers for permission. He’s my boss. If you stay up too late at night, it will affect your work tomorrow.” Liam said with a smile.

“Boss?” Marcus asked doubtfully.

Liam surprised him with such a sudden remark. He did not expect that this man named Leon turned out to be the boss of Liam.

“Yes, Mr. Millers is sent by the group headquarters, and he is now the president of Michelin Real Estate, and he is more powerful than I am.” After careful consideration, Liam said it.

There’s nothing wrong with this, let alone expose Leon’s identity. Marcus’ face was solemn, and Leon realized that his previous behavior was a little provocative, and he thought of it as a bit frightened.

The chief executive of Michelin Real Estate must have more weight than the young owner of The Parker. If he had known the identity of Leon, he would not have done anything offensive.

He couldn't help thinking to himself in surprise: "No wonder Liam left me on the sidelines for him. It makes sense that he has more power than Liam, but there are not many rumors about this man."

"Let's go to McPort in the evening. I approved it." Leon said faintly.

As soon as Marcus looked at Leon's posture, he felt more and more uneasy, vaguely emitting a sense of courage, giving him a sense of pressure. He didn't know if it was a psychological hint but he could tell that Leon was not ordinary.

At this time, a group of people came furiously from the east. There were five of them, with a girl in a red dress in the middle. Two people were standing on either side of the girl, and Leon recognized one of them as the caddie he had punched away.

"What's the way from across the street? It's a little different to play golf in that suit." Liam took the lead in sighing.

"That's the bully of the golf course these days, it's Ms. May. She's arrogant and domineering!" Marcus seems to know something about this girl.

"It's her. I haven't heard of her for a while. She seems to have disappeared recently." Liam said.

"She went to college in the provincial capital and didn't come back until summer vacation, but I was also curious about what was going on when she was playing golf in a red dress.” Marcus shrugged, saying it was beyond his comprehension.

“I don’t understand that either. Maybe it’s a personal hobby, maybe it’s from her Society, promoting her culture.” Liam also curled his lips.

“there’s nothing wrong with promoting her clothing culture, but golf is a gentleman’s sport, and it has special clothes. It’s really against her to wear a skirt, but it’s also in line with her personality. She likes to do it.” Marcus said.

At this time, Leon listened to the conversation between Marcus and Liam and learned a little about Ms. May. The rude caddy before was a dog owned by Ms. May. Now seeing the other party coming angrily, Leon thought it was probably aimed at him.

The girl named May shouted in her mouth before she came up to her.

“Hello! Get out of my way, all three of you. I’ve requisitioned the whole stadium!”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 128

Chapter 128

Ms. May was very arrogant!

As soon as they meet, they must drive Leon and others to leave. Marcus was a little pussy, suddenly bowed his head and subconsciously stepped back, he seems to be very afraid of Ms. May.

Liam frowned, too, with a dignified look on his face, as if the other person were in a tricky way.

While Leon doesn't know much about Ms. May, just looking at her posture, it seems that she is the daughter of some big family. Different from Tabitha, Ms. May lacks a kind of nobility, even though she is dressed in native clothes and behaves like riffraff.

Tabitha is also bad-tempered but sometimes cute, and this Ms. May was very annoying.

“Are you deaf? I told you to piss off. I want to play ball and doesn't want to be disturbed!”

Ms. May has walked up to them but her mouth was not forgiving at all. With Marcus' head was bowing like this talking about May, but now it's completely wilted. Liam was not much better, still maintaining a dignified face as if facing an archenemy.

But at this time, Leon said directly. “With your personality, is it worthy of the Native suit you are wearing?”

Ms. May was shocked for a moment and her heart said who she was and dared to contradict the young lady.

“Who do you think you are, little caddy? How dare you accuse me?” Ms. May's words are more aggressive. Apparently, she mistook Leon for a caddy.

Also, at this moment, her so-called royal caddie jumped out and pointed at Leon and scolded, “Ms. May, this is the one who hit me. You must decide for me. He might hurt you as well.”

“It turns out that this is the thing. If you don't go to pick up the ball, you can't charge it here if you haven't seen a new face before!” Ms. May's eyebrows stood on end with a ferocious look on her face.

Tabitha was fierce and a little cute and coquettish, while this May was only fierce, just like he owes her money.

The word “disobedience and harmony” was the most appropriate for May, but it was awkward all over.

According to theory, the little girl who likes Native Clothes must be gentle and elegant without saying that she is knowledgeable and reasonable. But May, wearing this red native dress, not only did not add to her temperament but made her make a fool of herself.

Added to the “May” this antique flavor of the name, really does not accord with her own disposition.

Now, the caddie who has been taught by Leon has become very jumping.

“That’s it, what are you pretending to be? Get out of here!”

At the moment, Leon frowned, and his face turned cold. Liam felt Leon’s anger and said the caddie was finished.

Sure enough, the next moment, he saw the caddie was slapped in the face by Leon with broken teeth mixed with blood foam came out of the air. Then, the caddie staggered to the ground and spit out a mouthful of blood, his eyes were black, his ears were buzzing, and the whole man seemed to be dying.

Other people in the scene, except Liam, never thought that he would directly hit the caddy of Ms. May!

Ms. May was startled. Obviously, one second the caddie was on her side and the next second he was gone.

“How dare you hit my caddy even though you stole my royal golf ball?”
Ms. May pointed angrily at Leon. Her big eyes were popping out.

“Who wants your stupid ball? But yes, I indeed hit your caddy.” This sentence came out of Leon’s mouth, and it was so easy for him.

Instead, Marcus stood behind him with sweaty palms.

“Reckless! How reckless! Leon, do you know who is Ms. May? Do not look at the owner of this dog, you hit her caddy, it is tantamount to death, she has a very extreme personality!”

Marcus secretly regretted it in his heart. He felt that if he had warned Leon about Ms. May earlier, there would not have been a head-on conflict. He was mainly worried that he might get involved with Leon.

“Hitting my caddy is tantamount to hitting me in the face. I just told you to get off the golf course, but now, I’ve changed my mind. I’m going to turn you into a loser, or else I’m sorry for my expensive Native suit!”

Ms. May is very grumpy and difficult to mess with. Because of the superiority brought by her family background, when she returned to Fairmont City, she was much happier than the provincial capital.

“You should really take off this native suit, you don’t deserve it!” Leon said solemnly.

Native culture is the inheritance and dissemination of traditional culture and this May was just wearing it for show.

She thought she would be a fairy in natives, but she was still an overbearing girl.

“You are shame against the disseminator of Native culture. When we walk down the street in native clothes, it is you vulgar and ignorant people who cast a strange look at us. Ordinary people like you can only worship foreigners and fawn on foreigners. In your eyes, do you scoff at the traditional native clothes?” May retorted.

This is obviously taken out of context. Leon did not discriminate against Native clothing. On the contrary, his masters, whose daily clothes are retro native clothes, also let him wear native clothes for several years when they learned their skills.

Like May, Leon has seen a lot of people on the Internet and often gives people the label of “discrimination”. It discriminates against Native clothing, discriminates against rural people, and stands on the moral commanding heights, pointing and pointing.

“Your upbringing can’t really make you understand the true meaning of the native culture, and it doesn’t matter. After all, you can’t ask too much of ordinary people. It’s a good thing to be able to promote local, but if you wear natives and don’t pay attention to your words and deeds, you’re simply humiliating the local culture!”

“You don’t know anything about them, ball thieves. I’m the vice president of the Native Society, the highest university in the provincial capital. This young lady is wearing a dress worth more than % 100,000 and only this young lady’s family is worthy of this skirt. No matter what culture, this young lady can afford expensive Native clothes!”

Native culture, more importantly, lies in both internal and external training, rather than swearing, that kind of native is just for show.

“How can culture be measured by money?!”

Leon doesn't care about other people's clothes and meals, but he can't get used to it when he relies on local clothes to force him to put on a show.

"You are jealous, jealous that I can afford to wear such an expensive local suit, you are finished, as long as I give the order, my royal bodyguard can turn you into a waste!"

May thinks of herself as a princess, royal caddie, royal bodyguard, all kinds of imperial use.

At this time, Marcus had a chill on his back. He was particularly worried that Leon would affect him, so he whispered from behind, "I'll just say Mr. Walker, is almost fine. Although you are the chief executive of Michelin Real Estate, I'm afraid you don't know how deep the background of this May is! You are playing with fire!"

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 129

Chapter 129 Don't Mess with Me

Leon doesn't bother to talk to Marcus behind him and doesn't want to know the background of May.

But Marcus didn't stop.

"The strong dragon does not hold down the ground snake, the grandfather of May is the person that you and I can't annoy!"

"Oh, I see." Leon thought Marcus looks like a fly, which was so annoying that he reluctantly responded.

“As long as you know, I have to tell you that money is not enough for social status. You are the CEO of Michelin, but in Fairmont, money alone is not enough.”

Marcus was lecturing Leon again. Leon simply ignores it. He is seldom free. Now he just wants to play golf. The problem is that if he wants to continue to play, you must solve the problem with “May”.

When Leon wants to do something seriously, if it was maliciously hindered, then the other party should be careful, Leon would never make any concessions.

“I just want to play ball.” Leon looked at May and said seriously.

This is the last warning to May.

“Want to play ball? No way! You stole my ball worth more than a hundred thousand dollars and you’ve hurt my caddie. How would you calculate this account?” May was still arrogant in questioning.

“As compensation, I will correct my attitude and throw you off the golf course instead.” Leon’s tone barely fluctuated and it sounded as if he was narrating a fact.

When May heard this faint pretense and wanted to be taught a lesson, she was almost furious.

“Bodyguard, give him to me and get rid of his leg!” May’s voice was hissing and roaring was as ugly as a broken gong.

And the three big men around her set out quickly such as tigers down the hill and pounced on Leon. This was her grandfather’s professional bodyguard specially hired from the provincial capital. According to them, they claim to be very competent in business.

However, in front of Leon, it was like three tool people who were kicked by Leon as soon as they rushed up. These days, the family trial was also very hard, “cleaning up garbage” unexpectedly requires him to be ruthless to do it himself. He cleaned the so-called professional bodyguards with strong business ability, and then Leon looked carefully at May.

“Do you want to feel the feeling of flying? If you either you can quit now or I can let it go!”

Leon doesn't mean to find at fault, he just wants to play golf when he is free.

The three bodyguards were kicked by Leon, which made May unable to calm down. This is the first time she has been threatened!

“If you touch one of my hair, I'll make your whole family suffer when my grandfather waved his hand and you would disappear completely in Fairmont City! I'll sell all the women in your family to places of entertainment!”

May began to splash a female hooligan and full of dirty words. Like Tabitha, no matter how angry he is, he will not abuse Leon's family.

This May has completely touched the bottom line of Leon! Leon quickly reached forward with a big hand and scratched it at May's head. In an instant, May's long hair was uprooted, even the scalp was ripped off a large chunk. The bun, which was originally combed, is now in a mess.

May screamed like crazy and rolled all over the floor. And Leon looked at May coldly with a calm expression. May was just threatening Leon to not touch her hair, only to be turned bald by Leon.

“You’ve lost my patience, and this is the punishment you deserve!”
Leon’s eyes were cold, giving people a chill to the bone.

At this time, May could no longer hear what Leon was saying, and the pain in her head tore her heart and lung.

The sudden scene frightened Marcus, his lips trembling, and his whole body trembling.

“You’re in trouble, Leon. You’re in big trouble! You’re going to be killed by Ms. May’s grandfather! And I will also be affected by you today! Don’t you just scold your woman for a few words, but as for lying your hands on Ms. May? You should be generous!”

Leon turned his eyes and looked coldly at Marcus. He is the most disgusting person. A person who does not happen to himself but advises others to be generous. He is from a cruel family and does not allow others to insult him!

“What are you staring at? If you want people to be notable in front of them, they must suffer later. What if you let her scold your woman? you’re not really doing it!”

Marcus was outspoken, citing a bad example. Liam feels bad because, in his opinion, Marcus was no different from May and was even more disgusting than May.

This touches the bottom line of Leon and digs even deeper. He knew that once the ruthless son got angry, no one could stop him, and Marcus had no choice but to fend for himself.

Sure enough, Leon poked out a big hand and grabbed Marcus by the collar. Then, lift a foot and kick Marcus.

Then vaguely, you could hear a “patter”, like a raw egg falling to the ground and turning into a pool of water. It’s the sound of broken eggs!

Marcus fainted because of the pain, and his name will be changed in the future.

“My patience is untouchable! Do not insult my mother!”

Leon spoken word by word seriously which made Liam felt cold on his back. Today, Leon was a wet blanket. He just simply wants to play golf, but I encounter two uneducated things.

“I’m not in the mood to play anymore. Let’s go for a drink!”

Leon turned and walked off the court. Liam followed without saying a word. This is the ruthless son he knows, flesh and blood, strong and unrivaled!

To made May bald was to become a complete enemy with her family and all kinds of trouble will follow and after turning Marcus into enormous pain represents a formal tear of the face with The Parker, and the plan to woo The Parker will fall through, Michelin Real Estate has had another competitor in the industry since then.

However, Liam did not feel that there was anything wrong with what Leon had done. Although he couldn't help it, he put me in a dangerous situation, but this kind of situation, any man with blood, will not bear it!

This is the ruthless son that Liam worships, a real man. Instead of a coward who is afraid of wolves and tigers.

Liam follows Leon to the cooking hall. This is a retro pub with antique flavor, which only opened some time ago. It was supposed to be a treat for Marcus, but he was not good enough and went the wrong way.

The waiters in the cooking hall are all dressed in a unified local suit. In the era when there are many bars, they have their own characteristics. Leon was in a bad mood, so it was appropriate to come to this quiet pub for a few drinks.

He could have had a quiet drink, but he heard a loud noise coming from next door. The scene seemed to be very chaotic, and the sound of dishes smashing could be heard very clearly. This kind of wooden building and the sound insulation effect was general, the originally relaxed and once clean environment was disturbed.

Originally, Leon was angry but suddenly he heard a familiar voice, and instantly, his anger welled up in his heart.

Super Rich Man by kiang Chapter 130

Chapter 130 no one can change!

'Rachel!' Leon can tell this is the voice of Rachel!

He hurried to the next door. At this time, Rachel was forced into a corner by two middle-aged men.

“What’s the matter ? If I let you drink, you must drink ! If you don’t make me happy today, you’ll be dead!”

“The little beauty is quite stubborn and won’t let us get close at all. Ms. Young is so crappy that she sent us such a fierce horse!”

“You don’t understand. This woman looks like a virgin. Now that such resources are scarce, we are blessed tonight!”

“It seems that Ms. Young would like to make us happy!”

Rachel was forced into the corner of the box by the two middle-aged creepy men, afraid of resistance, constantly throwing out dishes to prevent each other’s touch. She already has someone in her heart, so she was not allowed to be touched by any other man, not even a hair.

All this is due to the head of the department of her work. She was supposed to accompany the department director to come to talk business, but the supervisor suddenly made an excuse to leave, left her alone, and locked the door before leaving.

What happened next was a scene in which she was forced to drink by the two middle-aged men and asked to sleep with her. Not much has seen the sinister Rachel, at this time has been in chaos, she only knew how to resist desperately, she does not let the other took a step closer.

She even prepared for the worst. As a last resort, she used broken pieces of porcelain to end their life!

“Little beauty, your supervisor has been bribed by Ms. Young, and the door has been locked before you leave. Just accept your fate and play with me all night. I will never treat you badly!” The middle-aged man said

“To tell you the truth, one of the investors in this retro pub is our boss, Ms. Young, as per her advice none of the staff in the pub would dare to come forward and there are bodyguards here watching the venue, and no one around here dares to offend us!”

It turns out that all of this was arranged by Belle. Belle made up Rachel to get back at Leon. Her goal was to destroy the people closest to Leon.

As these two middle-aged men are about to lay their hands on Rachel the door was kicked open.

Leon jumped into the room and stepped on the door and stared coldly at the two middle-aged men. Rachel saw Leon appear, tears instantly rolled down from her eyes, like a broken bead curtain and gargle down.

The two middle-aged men, with fierce eyes, looked at Leon angrily.

“Don’t you dare disturb us! Do you think you’ve lived long enough!”

“If you don’t go out this instant, our guards are watching this pub, including the surrounding shops, and you should get out of here!”

These two men are still shouting cruel words, but they do not know that they have caused a great disaster. Leon’s cold eyes looked at these two so-called social people with dragons and tigers. He doesn’t have to say much.

Ruthless family, rule 23: If you encounter bullying, with full of lust and want to do something wrong, you can break their tendons, pick its man balls, and lose all their children and grandchildren!

Leon kick two feet, all hit, accurate strike!

The next moment, they saw these two so-called social people in town fell to the ground and practiced “martial arts” in pain. From the foot of Leon, the speed was very fast, until the two men fell to the ground, they found that they had been scrapped.

Standing outside the door, Liam was shocked to see Leon so fast. Liam was very curious about how hard the ruthless son has experienced that he has become so strong.

At that moment, Leon came to Rachel and took her in his arms.

“Did these two touches you?” Leon looked at Rachel carefully.

If Rachel was touched even a little bit, Leon will impose a heavier punishment on them.

Rachel shook his head and said, “No, I was actually quite clever. As soon as I saw that they had bad intentions, I quickly fought. Fortunately, you came in time.”

When she said this, Rachel had not calmed down and she was still very scared, but she was much more secure when she was held by Leon.

“That’s good.” Leon caresses Rachel’s delicate little face.

He must make it clear that the people who dare to harm those closest to him in Fairmont must not be spared lightly! Today, it was two times in a row that his patience has been breached, and Leon’s anger cannot be dispelled.

May has been punished, and no matter what action that family behind her will take to retaliate, it is not something to consider now. Now, he must find out the mastermind who wants to hurt Rachel as soon as possible and it’s not hard for him to guess that it was Belle.

Leon thought that the next scene was not suitable for Rachel to experience with her own eyes, so she was taken to a safe place where she could not see what was happening in the pub.

Just then, Belle came uninvited and didn't seem to know what had just happened.

“Hey, take this Canon and post the high-definition video online after the accident. I want the whole network to know about this scandal!”

Belle's heart was as venomous as a snake and scorpion. She unexpectedly wanted to post that kind of thing to spread on the Internet.

This kind of behavior not only breaks the law but also devoid of human nature, corrupt morality and its heart can be punished.

However, Belle felt as if time stood still, and when she handed out the Canon EOSR, she found that the two men hired had already fainted on the ground. The scene made her shudder.

As a result, it made her goose-bumped.

“It's you!”

Leon's voice resounding was like ringing a giant bell, buzzing and exploding on top of Belle's head.

“Leonard! What are you doing here?!” Belle cried out in surprise.

Now, Belle was no stranger to Leon. She seems to have seen a ghost because the appearance of Leon made her feel very surprised. More importantly, her plan, which she thought was certain, failed.

“What a coincidence! If it hadn’t happened, your insane behavior would have succeeded, but luckily, I’ve come here to drink today, or I’ll regret it for the rest of my life!” Leon looked directly at Belle and looked at the disgusting face in front of him.

‘Even if you move more knives on your face or you can change your face, but you can’t wash that dirty and dark heart.’ Leon thought.

“Take it easy! Isn’t it just a woman? There are many women in the world!”

Belle glanced at her and seemed to think that Leon didn’t have the guts to do anything to her. after all, this is her turf. However, she far underestimated Leon.

If you violate the Leon, you will either die or be injured!

A vicious woman like Belle was simply social cancer, and there was no need to talk to her at all. No one can change what the ruthless young man decides.
