Chapter 61 Perfect male god

Tommy showed an air of idleness after the service.

“Well, I’ll bear the loss in the store. It’s only about one million dollars. Anyway, I haven’t spent all my pocket money this year. I’ve been sprinkled with water.”

Leon wanted to laugh when he saw Tommy showing off his wealth without any change in his heart.

This young master said nothing about more than nine billion dollars of pocket money this quarter. “Who gave you the courage to show off your wealth?”

“Since you can make up for the loss of our store so easily, I’ll give you a little more fun, eight hours a day on the construction site, and part-time my bodyguard. I must be on call when I want to use you.”

Bodyguards and so on, it doesn’t matter at all. Leon was just trying to use a dogleg. With his skills, he didn’t need anyone to protect him.

On hearing this, Tommy immediately exploded.

“What the heck? A fight? You!”

Tommy was going to say you were sick, but he didn’t say it because Dani’s eyes were staring at him.

Seeing Grandpa’s warning, Tommy said half a word and swallowed into his stomach.

“It’s easy to operate, and it’s very fast to get started. When you get to the construction site, you will be a natural.” Leon chuckles.

“You are not convinced, no problem, we play coquettish operation. You’re absolutely slutty!”

Right now, Tommy’s face was extremely ugly and constipated.

I thought it would only be done with monetary compensation, but as a result, there was corporal punishment!

Oh, my God, give me a break!

Tommy regretted unceasingly, smashed what store ah, this was to find them uncomfortable!

Seeing the unhappy look on Tommy’s face, Leon smiled faintly.

There will be a lot of hard life in the future, which he had nothing to do about it.

A minute later, Leon, Dani, and Tommy walked out of the store.

Let down the onlookers who liked to watch the play, Leon was safe and sound, the wind was light and the clouds were light.

Not only that, but you also saw Leon standing between Dani and Tommy when he came out.

Position can reflect a person’s status.

At first glance, it looks as if Dani’s family were accompanying Leon.

This will inevitably arouse people's discussion and arouse doubts in their minds.

“What the heck is this? Why is he all right?”

“It's strange. When did the Family Dani people become so kind?”

“The central position has made its debut, which was amazing!”

“Unexpectedly, he hasn't been picked up by Dani's family. This man has something!”

At this time, Rachel saw Leon walking out safe and sound, and his heart, which had hung up, finally fell.

Leon didn't stay much longer and was about to leave with Rachel.

Some things need to be taken care of next.

First, he had to go to Family Dani, to get % 20 million worth of pendants, and by the way, had a private chat with Dani about the handover. Family Dani now manages an industry that has other projects besides Fairmont Street.

Also, Leon promised to treat Indra's wife three days ago, and he had to keep his promise.

As for how Tabitha treats him, it had nothing to do with Carlo. At least Carlo was nice to him.

If you go to Danielle's house, you won't go with Dani, whose Hennessy snake GT, was still parked in a hidden position on Fairmont Street.

“See you later.”

Leon told Dani and left with Rachel.

Dani's brow stretched out and waited nervously for a week, but it was almost done, and his mood was relieved.

However, Tommy was different.

He looked at the distant figure of Leon, rolled his eyes, and thought secretly in his heart.

“Obviously, he was about the same age, so why should I call him Little Grandpa? Although I admire him on the surface, I will trip him behind his back. The girl next to him was nice. I haven't seen such a pure and lovely girl in a long time. I really want to taste it!”

On the way to pick up the car, the number of onlookers decreased gradually.

The current relationship between Leon and Rachel was like a future couple, only the window paper was not pierced.

Rachel admired Leon more. What she admired was not money, but Leon's personality, charm, and ability.

However, she has not thought about developing a romantic relationship with Leon, because she felt that she was not good enough, and then she will find ways to enrich herself.

When she has a skill, she will take the initiative to pursue Leon.

Who would have thought that the beautiful and beautiful campus beauty with excellent temperament thought that she was not qualified to pursue Leon now?

If a large number of admirers in the school knew, they will probably be angry enough to wield a knife from the palace.

As for Leon's feelings for Rachel, he wanted to protect her even from the slightest harm.

Leon's family also has a child bride, although there was no husband and wife, since childhood in a quilt roll, the several moles were clear.

Now he has grown into a virtuous wife, intelligent, virtuous, and versatile, helping Family the Millers family run the largest venture capital company in Italy and winning the favor of Leon's mother.

To choose in the future, it will take time to verify.

Leon hasn't thought that far.

He has always agreed with the saying 'that the road knows horsepower and sees the hearts of the people for a long time.'

Only when we have experienced ups and downs together, then we can witness true love.

What needs to be done now was to complete layer after layer of the trial task as soon as possible in order to trick the family's cousins.

The larger the family, the more people there are, and being in a relationship was much more complicated than it seems.

It won't be long before you get to the parking place.

Just then, the two suddenly heard someone shouting Rachel's name.

As soon as Rachel turned around, she turned her head in doubt and found that it was Martin, the student president of the university.

In fact, Martin was not only the student president, he also has famous, which the son of the president of Fairmont University.

This person in the Fairmont University, but a popular figure, quite popular, especially welcomed by girls.

Not only was he handsome and well-connected, but he also had good communication both inside and outside the school.

He was also very talented, can write very beautiful calligraphy. He was the great god of calligraphy on campus.

Speaking of Fairmont University, Gerald and Martin, have always been two extremes.

Gerald was the notorious bully of the school, while Martin was the most talented student of the school.

As for Leon, who has been unknown for four years, only “poor” and “rapist” can be remembered.

And Martin had a lot of female fans in the school, and even some boys admired him very much, which can be said to be the perfect male god on campus.

“Hello, Martin.”

Rachel didn't say much, but to politely say hello.

If it had been any other girl from Fairmont University, she would have had a heart in her eyes.

Martin gently raised the corners of his mouth, looked at Rachel and smiled, and said, “What a coincidence, I came here to buy a brush, there was a shop and the purple brush was the most authentic.”

After saying this, Martin glanced lightly at Leon and felt a little confused.

Why was Rachel shopping with this former rapist? Did they happen to meet like me?

However, this curiosity was only fleeting.

In Martin’s eyes, Leon was as light as air and cheap as dirt, which was not worth mentioning.

“Rachel, you’re about to graduate. Have you decided where to go? If you need it, I have a relationship on my side, and I can provide you with the opportunity. “

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 62

Chapter 62 The poor is naive

Right now, Rachel really needed an opportunity.

When she was in college, she worked part-time and lived frugally, so she managed to make it to graduation.

She wanted to have a good future so that all her hard work wouldn’t go to waste.

However, Rachel shook her head gently.

“Thank you, Martin, for your kindness. I intend to apply for a job on my own.”

Rachel has made up her mind that she had to rely on herself, even if she continued to work on a difficult road.

Although I majored in clinical medicine, I am not sure what I will be doing in the future.

Martin was slightly surprised to see Rachel refuse, “Are you sure you don’t need it? The opportunity is rare. You are very intelligent, and you can adapt to your post quickly. ”

“I’d rather not. I’d like to try it myself.” Rachel answered.

Usually, on campus, Martin had an understanding of Rachel, although not in the same class, Rachel was also a member of the student union.

Martin was not particularly surprised by Rachel’s refusal. He appreciated such a simple and persistent Rachel.

“It doesn’t matter, as soon as you figure it out, come to me immediately, and I’ll take care of everything for you.”

Martin was not only the son of the headmaster but also great talent in Fairmont and has established relationships with many enterprises.

I can see that Martin was interested in Rachel.

One was the school beauty, the other was the school genius, which was perhaps the best match in the eyes of university alumni.

However, Martin has not expressed this meaning to Rachel.

He was lofty, arrogant, with all kinds of halos, and wanted to find a life partner who was worthy of each other.

He likes the simplicity and beauty of Rachel, but it was obvious that Rachel's family background did not match his.

As the only son of the president of Fairmont University, Martin had a high sense of superiority.

Not only identity but also talent, he thinks that in Fairmont City, no one can match him except the Liam, of the Geller family.

Therefore, in choosing a mate, he attached great importance to each other's ability and unique appearance, which was the best choice for him to choose a mate.

In this situation, he was different from Leon.

Leon didn't care how good the other half was, because no matter how good the other half was, he can't be better than him.

Leon paid more attention to what was inside. If a girl has eyes full of him, true feelings will prevail.

"Rachel, let me drive you back to school."

Martin's confident invitation.

The president of his Maserati was parked not far away.

It is the dream of how many girls can be invited by his great talent, and the car was still imported millions of luxury cars.

However, something unexpected happened to Martin.

“No, I’ll go back with my classmate Leon. Thank you for your kindness.” Rachel shook his head.

Martin this time was difficult to calm down, Rachel unexpectedly refused his initiative!

This was different from the job opportunities offered just now because sending her back to school was just on the way. Martin thought that Rachel will not refuse this kind of effort.

However, the truth was that Rachel not only refused but also told Martin, to go back with Leon.

Such an answer made Martin so angry that his face suddenly darkened and seemed to be able to drip out water.

He almost doubted life.

Which of these many halos is not better than Leon, a notorious poor dog like Fairmont, the great genius of Fairmont, and the son of the headmaster?

“Even if Rachel was simple and kind, it was impossible not to see that I have a crush on her. My car is President Maserati. She must have never sat on it when she has grown up. Was it possible that you have wronged her when you walk with such a talented person like me?” Martin thought to himself.

Although Martin was different from Gerald as arrogant and domineering, he tends to hide that sense of superiority in his heart, even more, arrogant than Gerald in his heart.

Rachel has never been in the Maserati, but she has been in Leon's Hennessy Viper GT, which cannot be replaced by hundreds of Maserati because it was a limited edition and has a price but no market.

At the moment, Rachel did not know that Leon was driving here today, nor does Viper know that Viper that that was Leon's car, not a driver for a friend.

Despite this, she declined Martin politely.

Even if she squeezed the bus and subway with Leon, she felt comfortable and happy.

She liked Leon's low profile and connotation.

Low-key but not pussy, in case of performance was very strong, quite a sense of security.

The Martin in her eyes is different, although the person is also excellent in all aspects, it will give people a feeling that it is not easy to get along with, with a vaguely superior and domineering attitude.

"Classmate Rachel, did you run into Leon, too?"

The cold touch on Martin's face suddenly withdrew, raised the corners of his mouth, and changed the expression of a smile, without showing his displeasure.

"No, we made an appointment to go shopping together," Rachel answered truthfully.

Hearing this, it was even more difficult for Martin to accept.

What ?

Pure and lovely Rachel, went shopping with Leon, a notoriously poor dog!

Martin's face was a little taut, originally a fake smile, but now it was more dull and stiff.

"It seems that you have a good relationship. Are you guys in a relationship?" Martin asked gloomily.

"No. No, we're just friends. " Rachel explained quickly.

The main reason was that Rachel was worried that it will drive a wedge between her and Leon. After all, it was not sure whether Leon really had feelings for her. I am afraid that she will not be able to be a friend at that time.

In the next period, Rachel intended to recharge herself. Only if she becomes better then can she be worthy of Leon's knowledge.

However, this does make Martin mistakenly think that Rachel has no feeling for Leon, or even dislike it, otherwise he would not be in a hurry to explain.

"Oh, I told you, for four years in college, the only thing the whole school knew about a nameless poor dog was because he was suspected of rape. How could this kind of scum catch up with Rachel, because he was too kind and compassionate to the vulnerable groups?"

Martin took it for granted, but he didn't know that the limited edition Patek Philippe watch that Leon bought for Rachel would replace his proud Maserati president.

The poor are naive!

Leon can see that there was something small in Martin's heart.

Was I the one who captured the heart of the school beauty by money?
What I relied on were talent and temperament!

For four years, he was nameless and reticent, so poor that he delivered takeout part-time, framed by the school bully and betrayed by his brother, as miserable as he could be.

However, Rachel still kept in touch with him, never despised and never gave up, this was personality charm!

At this point, Martin directly ignored Leon as air and then raised the corners of his mouth to preach to Rachel.

“Rachel, let me take you back to school. You are not fit to associate with someone. If you are close to her, you will be black. If you are with the poor, your thinking will become poor, and your future and career will not improve.”

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 63

Chapter 63 As long as you are good, I will buy you a street

Martin can't hold on.

The humble person set up, but the words were so harsh.

Far from disagreeing with such cynicism, Rachel was angry.

Of course, she could tell that Martin was mocking Leon.

Still shook her head firmly and refused Martin's invitation again.

At this time, Leon showed a bitter look and shrugged helplessly.

"Yes, I'm so poor that I only have money left."

Rachel was amused by Leon, his mouth pursed and his eyebrows like a crescent moon.

Martin wanted to show off his Maserati president's car, but considering that it was too out of line, after all, he had always been a gentle and courteous talent at Fairmont University, so he forcibly held back.

However, Martin has never thought highly of Leon in his heart.

He didn't think Leon will pose a threat to him, even less than Gerald.

"Oh, those losers who can't do so like to have a bad mouth!"

Martin sneered with disdain, then turned around and added: "Rachel, let's see you at the graduation party. I hope you won't be with this loser next time."

With that, Martin held his head high, ready to leave.

However, what Martin doesn't know was that Leon really doesn't talk bad, and money was really just a word for Leon.

"Leaving after that?" Leon sneered.

Leon has never been a pussy, in order not to let his identity arouse suspicion prematurely so that he does not show his edge.

Dante is Ding, one yard to one yard!

Martin has such a mean mouth that Leon was not going to wait until the graduation party.

Before the hard dish at the graduation party, he gave Martin a taste of an appetizer.

Martin was also very arrogant, he did not look back, turned his back to Leon cold hum, “Vulgar words! The more incompetent people are, the lower their quality will be. Your provocative method is of no use to me. I have always been tolerant of others and will not argue with you!”

This Martin really has the nerve to say that he first ridiculed Leon, in rude language and now he was standing on the moral high ground pretending to be a civilized man.

Martin said that and left.

“Hey, I asked you a question. Are you just leaving after farting?”

There was no need for Leon to speak calmly towards hypocritical people.

At this time, Martin’s face twitched and his eyes were sharp and spicy, but only because his back was turned to the body, he went unnoticed.

Martin felt that he could not stay any longer, worried that he would not be able to hold back and quarrel with Leon, which would damage his image of being a modest and gentleman.

In particular, I feel that quarreling with a nameless little trash like Leon will make me look cheap.

At this time, Rachel also gently shook her head at Leon, indicating not to do anything rashly.

Martin was the son of the university president, and Rachel doesn't want Leon to have a grudge against Martin before graduation.

Leon nodded, not because he was afraid of Martin, but because he felt that hitting people was no longer a pleasure.

Today, I learned that both Tommy and Bryant use their fists to abuse food easily.

Leon was going to do something new and make it a little more difficult, otherwise, life will be too boring.

Tomorrow was the graduation thesis defense, how can we not give Martin some surprise?

Gently twist the middle finger and thumb of Leon's right hand.

In the twinkling of an eye, a tiny silver needle circled in front of Martin, flew into Martin's mouth, and nailed to the tongue with a track that could not be captured by the naked eye.

This is a green mango needle. The tip of the needle is quenched with anesthetic to seal the root of the tongue and exert its medicine half an hour later.

The accurate strike will not anesthetize the whole body, only the tongue so that it cannot make any sound within three days.

The green mango needle was a special skill of the divine doctor, which was originally used to treat people who have committed mania.

When the patient goes crazy, the patient's acupoints can be sealed with a green mango needle, so to avoid physical conflict when approaching the patient.

Now used to deal with sprinklers, the most effective.

Watching Martin's figure fade away, Leon smiled faintly at the corners of his mouth.

In this earthly experience, it is also helpful to study the skill, just now the flying needle technique is quite familiar.

"Rachel, came with me to pick up the car. We'll go to Family Dani, first and wait for me to get things done, and then we'll take you back to school." Leon said to Rachel.

"Leon, did you borrow the car?"

Rachel came differently from Leon, so she didn't know it before.

"Yes." Leon chuckles.

Rachel wanted to say something, but in the end, he didn't say anything.

She originally wanted to persuade Leon not to borrow the car, although he was the driver of the owner, if it is scratched, the repair is very expensive. Leon has already spent a lot of money today, and even if the money comes quickly now, it can't be wasted.

However, she felt that too much interference in Leon's life is inappropriate and is not qualified to point fingers.

Leon picked up the Hennessy snake GT and drove Rachel, in the direction of Danielle's house.

Few people know that Leon was the owner of Viper, except for Mr. Steven of the Bank of Italy and Liam of the Geller family.

Even Rachel thinks Leon was the driver, not the owner.

“Viper” galloped along the road, such as the wind like electricity, the effect of blowing up the street was a full score.

On the other hand, Rachel clenched her lips and kept her eyes closed all the time, afraid to look out of the window. Her little heart was beating wildly, and she was almost scared to death.

The life of the rich was so simple and boring.

What’s the point of racing on land? Leon preferred to drive a yacht on the sea rather than a supercar.

The roar of the Hennessy serpent GT skimmed across the road, leaving a black Maserati president behind.

Martin, the president of Maserati, certainly wouldn’t have thought it was Leon driving the Viper that made him look gray.

Even Martin has an envious look on his face and greedy eyes.

He clenched his teeth and thought to himself, “On my 60th birthday, I hope I can have such a limited- edition top luxury car!”

.....

Half an hour later, Leon came to Danielle to meet her.

Stefan, Dani’s son, was in the hospital with Jerry and was not at home.

Not wanting to waste time, Leon had a private conversation with Dani in the study as soon as he arrived at Dani’s house.

The handover was going very well, and now it depended on the performance of Danielle's people.

Especially Jerry and Tommy, the son of a bitch, Leon will convince them!

After talking about the handover, Dani gave Leon the lanolin white jade pendant sold at Christie's auction.

This pendant was worth 20 million dollars and was a delicate piece of jade.

Dani's filial piety, Leon accepted.

This pendant was just for Rachel as a gift.

On the day of the graduation party, Leon wanted Rachel to be the most glamorous one.

After coming out of Dani's house, Leon was going to send Rachel back to school, and then he will discuss with Cassandra about treating his wife.

Today, when I met Tabitha in the teahouse on Fairmont Street, she didn't mention it. It seems that the leprechaun still doesn't trust him.

Standing at the school gate, Leon took out a jade pendant, wrapped it around Rachel's smooth jade neck, and personally put it on her.

Rachel's face was covered with peach blossoms and her eyebrows were shy. She bowed her head and dared not look into Leon's eyes.

"It was very expensive, wasn't it?"

“it’s not too expensive, it’s just 2 million.”

In order not to surprise Rachel, Leon said only that it was 1/10 of the true value.

“it’s too expensive, so you might as well sell it. If you invest this money, I don’t feel at ease with 2 million pendants hanging around my neck.”

Unexpectedly, Rachel still thinks the gift was valuable.

In fact, Leon understood what Rachel meant, and it’s all for his own sake. Rachel didn’t know who he really was.

Leon pinched Rachel’s little face with a doting look on his face.

Not to mention the 20 million jade pendant, even if a street, a city, it can be!

“It doesn’t matter, there’s no hurry. You can prepare for the graduation thesis defense tomorrow.” Leon smiled.

“What about you? Why don’t we go to the library and read together?” Rachel asked with a red face.

“I have some things to take care of. You can wait for me tonight.” Leon said.

Thesis defense, with Leon’s IQ and professional ability, can give lectures directly to mentors.

Rachel was not forced to stay, she knew that Leon was not an ordinary person, there were still a lot of things to do.

This further strengthens Rachel's determination to try to catch up with Leon!

After saying goodbye to Rachel, Leon drove away from Fairmont University.

GT Hennessy Viper reappeared in Fairmont University many days later, almost the same as the previous times, and caused a sensation in the whole school.

However, Leon still kept a low profile and did not spend more time near the school.

Others only saw the cool car driving away, but it was difficult to recognize Leon in the driver's seat.

The owner of the car has always been a mystery!

It is speculated that the owner of the Hennessy viper GT was likely to be the car of the Liam of the Geller family in Fairmont City.

Liam runs the largest supercar club in Fairmont, so people think it was the most likely him.

Leon pretended to be poor for four years, and even if he drove an SUV, it will surprise Fairmont University alumni.

But not long after Leon left the university campus, he received a call from Cassandra.

Carlo was still polite and treated Leon as the heir of ancient medicine, but now he will keep a lower profile if he asks for Leon.

“Leon, where are you? I’ll pick you up. I live in Beverly Hills. I’m sure you’ve never been here before.”

Beverly Hills residence was the rich area of Fairmont City, where there are lots of villas and foreign houses, especially the lake view rooms facing the lake villas are the most luxurious.

Carlo predicted that Leon should have little contact with wealthy areas like Beverly Hills.

However, Leon has not only contacted but also the owner there, the real hidden boss who owns three lake-view houses.

“I know the place. I’ll go there by myself.” Leon answers Carlo.

I’m on my way home, so why bother Carlo to pick it up?

“Well, be safe on the way, mention my name when you go to the place, and the property staff will bring you over,” Indra said.

The service of the rich community was definitely different from that of the ordinary community. Every year, a lot of property fees are paid, and the service was a Filipino commission.

“Oh, by the way, the patient’s condition, I also need to ask her if she has any other diseases besides cervical spondylosis, so that I can go there with the medical equipment that may be used according to the condition you describe,” Leon said.

“In addition to cervical vertebra problems, my wife was also prone to insomnia. She can’t sleep at night and can’t sleep over and over again, probably because she was exhausted to take care of the new store for me.” Carlo explains.

“It’s not a big problem,” Leon said calmly.

“Leon is not as simple as you think. You’d better conclude a face-to-face treatment. You are dissatisfied with your saying that all the major hospitals in Fairmont City, and even invited famous doctors in the provincial capital, are not effective in treatment.”

When Carlo mentioned his wife’s illness, he was always in a sad mood.

When he came to Fairmont City, he opened five stores one after another, and the whole family went to war, busy.

His wife was busy and paid a lot.

Take the medicine prescribed by the doctors, the effect is not good, not only cannot play an immediate effect, and still insomnia after stopping the drug.

“Well, don’t panic.”

Leon was very calm.

Although the condition of Carlo’s wife has not yet been diagnosed, Leon’s treatment has always maintained a calm heart.

When Leon learned about the general condition of Carlo’s wife, he already knew which medical devices to prepare next.

Not much, commonly used ones are fine.

This kind of disease, whether it was small or not, is not an acute disease, but it has a chronic attack and is very excruciating.

Almost half an hour later, Leon came to Beverly Hills to Carlo's house.

Leon's villa was not far from Carlo's, and the villas in Leon occupy a superior location here.

The good charm here is really good. Leon had Mark Jay to teach the art of Fengshui, and he certainly won't choose the wrong place.

However, because Leon usually goes out early and returns late, he will practice turtle rest on the open-air balcony only when he has calculated the auspicious time.

It was precisely for this reason that it has become the most mysterious existence of the whole rich community.

When he reached Carlo's residence, under the guidance of the housekeeper, he entered Carlo's study.

Indra stood up with a warm face and greeted the arrival of Leon with a smile.

"Leon, please have a seat."

Immediately, he called the babysitter at home to make tea.

Carlo to reflect the importance of Leon, especially with sweet mountain spring water, boiled to brew the highest specifications of rock tea.

Even the tea sets used for drinking tea were not ordinary products but were made by the master maker of pots.

Just then, Tabitha went into the study.

Tabitha glanced at Leon with a bad look, and then complained to Carlo, “Grandpa, why did you really bring him here?”

“Who did you look for, if you don’t talk to Leon? It’s not like I haven’t looked for other doctors. I’ve looked for all the doctors I know in the provincial capital and Fairmont City. Don’t you know the effect of their treatment? Your grandmother has insomnia every night, but her cervical vertebra still hurts badly. It’s an excruciating disease. Today, Leon can show that people treat us as friends. Don’t be rude.” Carlo responded with some displeasure.

“It’s because you’ve been kind to him. You’ve helped him so much before and after. How can he be ashamed if he doesn’t come?” Tabitha disagreed with Grandpa’s words.

Hearing this, Leon smiled faintly.

Yes, Carlo helped him out several times, but if Carlo didn’t show up at that time, Leon would still be able to handle it.

“Tabitha, can’t talk nonsense. It was Leon who was kind to me. Without him, my old bones would have been reduced to ashes by now.” Carlo also remembered that day in the morgue, woke up to see the first person, this life will never forget.

“I have a classmate’s father, who was a famous doctor who specializes in both traditional Western medicine. I have already contacted him. I think he will be there soon.” Tabitha said.

“What’s his name?” Carlo asked.

“His name is Grandpa Davis Wood, which may not sound familiar to you. He has just returned from abroad. He is a doctor of Western medicine from the University of Pennsylvania in the United States. He has more than 20 years of clinical medical experience in private hospitals in the United States. He can be described as studying both traditional Chinese and Western medicine.” Tabitha said.

“Davis? Family Wood, which can be called a traditional Chinese medicine family in the provincial capital, is the benevolent hall of the coastal area.” Carlo guessed.

“Exactly, Grandpa, the descendant of Benevolence, there is no doubt about this strength.” Tabitha is a little smug.

As a native of the provincial capital, Indra certainly knows that Ren Xin Tang is very famous.

“I found a famous doctor in San Francisco and New York, but I failed to cure your grandmother’s insomnia and cervical spondylosis. San Francisco and New York were both as famous as this one. I don’t think he can do anything about it.”

In fact, Carlo is much wiser than Tabitha, not only not confused but also very clear-headed.

At this time, Tabitha seriously retorted, “Grandpa, he is different, he is a doctor from the University of Pennsylvania, but also has a kind-hearted heritage, resume and birth are quite eye-catching, unlike someone, a fraud!”

William's daughter was still sharp.

Tabitha and Leon were really like a pair of enemies, pinch as soon as they meet.

"Don't talk nonsense. Leon is not bad at all."

Carlo also has a headache for her granddaughter.

It was intended to match up the young couple, but it seemed that the granddaughter still has a strong opinion of Leon.

In the final analysis, it was because Leon was too rational that it has all kinds of doubts about Tabitha.

She had never seen anything she had not experienced, so she thought it was highly unlikely to exist.

As everyone knows, there are all kinds of wonders in the world.

Indra was very principled. Since he invited Leon here, he is sure to let him take care of it.

As for the Davis, invited my granddaughter Tabitha, "I'm sorry, just a little bit late."

"I am very disappointed with my grandfather. I think it is too risky for you to entrust Grandma's safety to him." Tabitha pouted her lips reluctantly.

"My precious granddaughter, I usually spoil you and love you, but there is no discussion today. Leon is so skilled that even the dean of Ezra agrees that he is really not inferior to that Davis.” Carlo looked at Tabitha carefully.

“Grandpa, who is Ezra? To put it bluntly, the medical conditions in Fairmont are far worse than those in our provincial capital. His approval does not mean anything. To put it bluntly, someone can only be valued by Ezra at this level.” Tabitha raised her face and argued that she was right.

She also aimed to get rid of Leon so that she doesn't have to worry about grandma taking risks.

Carlo frowned and panicked when he heard this.

The granddaughter has gone too far. Even if she questions others, there was no need to be so outspoken.

Now, Carlo was particularly worried that Leon will leave here in a rage, and was even more worried about losing Leon as a friend.

He hurriedly went to see Leon's face and was going to say something nice.

However, Leon sat as steady as a mountain, his face unchanged, unaffected by Tabitha's words.

It's not that Leon was willing to be humiliated, just because he doesn't take Tabitha seriously and treats her words like air.

“The adults are talking about things, and the children are interrupting. Even if you say all the words, it won't change anything. Go and play with the eggs at the same time.”

One yard to one yard, Carlo was fine and worth interacting with. Leon can't just throw away his sleeves and leave because of a few words from Tabitha.

If it was not for the sake of Carlo's face, but also treat a human. Being a doctor was not his full-time job, so there was no reason to be angry.

At first, I treated Jerry's eyes in the hospital to return a favor to Ezra. If I had known Jerry's character beforehand, Leon would never have given treatment.

Now Jerry was blind in one eye, and it was his fucking karma!

"You play with the egg! I'm not a girl!" Tabitha blushed with anger.

Leon was delighted to see Tabitha angry.

That's right. Girls can only be cute if they get angry.

At this time, Carlo, thought silently in his heart, "I didn't expect that Leon was so magnanimous that I was impressed. It was really a medical prodigy and a dragon and Phoenix among people. I like to deal with such young people. If he becomes my grandson-in-law in the future, I will have a bright future with the patron of my Williams Family."

It seemed that Carlo was very satisfied with Leon's performance, both in terms of medical quality and personality, which are deeply appreciated by him.

In fact, however, if the two families were married, it is Williams who will climb the ladder.

Leon doesn't have that idea for the time being.

However, many real celebrities are looking for his Millers Family's marriage. Take the pony, for example, in order to let his daughter, marry into the Millers, he even promised to give half of the game empire as a dowry.

What was so powerful about the provincial capital of the Williams Group? It is a listed company with a market capitalization of 50 billion, barely reaching the threshold of the top 200 in the world.

When the babysitter made the tea, Indra could not even drink the tea, so he said to Leon, "Leon, you are my honored guest. I leave my wife's illness to you. I am relieved that I do not have to be influenced by others, in the Williams family, I am still in charge."

"All right, I'll get ready." Leon nodded.

When Tabitha saw that his grandfather insisted on letting Leon treat his grandmother, she became more and more out of breath. Across the air, she waved a small pink fist at Leon.

The Davis she invited was still on her way and will be persuasive only when someone comes.

Leon, on the other hand, glanced lightly and didn't bother to talk to her at all.

After a pulse check, it didn't take much time for Leon to find out where the focus of Carlo's wife was.

Among them, cervical spondylosis was a complication, not the root cause, was caused by other diseases.

Leon first used acupuncture to give Carlo's wife acupuncture to treat various acupoints of the cervical vertebra.

Tabitha was more nervous than anyone else in the whole process.

She questioned Leon's medical skills, worried that it would aggravate her grandmother's illness and even endanger her life.

Tabitha herself was very contradictory. On the one hand, she wanted Leon to expose his frauds plot, and on the other hand, she hoped that Leon will not make any mistakes, because one mistake will harm Grandma.

She was engrossed in every detail of Leon, even though she knew nothing about needling.

There was a faint smile on the corner of Leon's mouth.

"I said, can you read it? Do you know what kind of acupoint this was? I'm telling you, it's called the classic acupoint, and you're not afraid to fall out even if you stare so wide. "

Tabitha was flushed and angry, wanted to stretch out the manicure she had just done yesterday and scratch Leon's face a few times.

"Hello! Please pay attention to the needles and don't be distracted! "

Tabitha said angrily.

"I have my own limits. I don't need you to remind me. Go play with the balls!"

Leon has already made up his mind, and his needling technique was steady and fine, and he can handle it easily.

Carlo calmly watched him.

He rested assured with Leon's works.

He felt that since Leon could save him from dying, it should not be a problem to treat his wife now.

Leon finished the needling in less than ten minutes.

Unlike other traditional western medicine, Leon uses the stunts of divine medicine.

There was no need for multiple courses of treatment, one course of acupuncture can be effective.

"Well, cervical spondylosis will not happen again."

Leon said and put away the acupuncture tools.

"That's it?" Tabitha looked puzzled.

"Of course, cervical spondylosis will not happen again, but then I will clear the focus for her. This cervical spondylosis is a complication caused by the focus."

Take out the pen and paper, and Leon writes down a prescription.

"Take a dose of the decoction according to this prescription, and the disease will be cured after three days."

Leon has been used by Jason and Christian in this prescription.

It's just that the dose this time is different from that last time.

Tabitha quickly grabbed the prescription, looked at the strange names of Western herbal medicine, and only knew the latter two flavors.

“Euphorbia, ice water, shrub, treatment for the cold disease, morning glory, Croton, what’s going on? Why is there Croton? You want to hurt my grandmother!”

Tabitha was furious and had a ferocious expression on her face.

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 66

Chapter 66 This is a laxative

“What’s so surprising about that? Many things can be used in medicine, such as centipedes, earthworms, dandelions, and dog-tail grass, all of which can be used as medicine.”

Leon calmly said, “Croton hot, taste pungent, phlegm, water, insecticidal, purging cold accumulation, customs clearance, although there is a small poison, but cannot deny its medicinal value.”

“Don’t think I don’t know. It’s often mentioned in martial arts movies that Croton is used as a laxative, you quack!” Tabitha accused.

“If you cast pearls before swine, you know nothing about medicine!” Leon’s tone grew colder and colder.

The magical doctor was handed down from person to person, and he was called a quack, but he was really drunk.

If you hadn’t experienced, Williams family in this earthly world, you wouldn’t have had a chance to get Leon at all.

At this time, Carlo said roundly, “There is no need to make a noise. I believe Leon, is a drug. We can’t deny its other medical value just because Croton is a laxative. Tabitha, you are not as professional as Leon.”

“Grandpa, you trust him too blindly. I admit that he has two skills, but his level is really limited. I don’t believe that so many doctors can solve the difficult and complicated diseases that can’t be cured by doctors.”

Now Tabitha has an anxious look on her face and was particularly concerned about her grandmother’s safety.

It can be accepted if it can’t be cured, but if it becomes more and more serious, it will be irreparable!

“Blind? You underestimate your grandfather. I’m not confused. My mind can tell the pros and cons of the pros and cons. ”

After saying this, Carlo immediately called the housekeeper.

“Go and get the medicine at once. Just follow this prescription and hurry back!”

Carlo trusted Leon, very much. He refuted his own granddaughter and made a decisive decision.

Tabitha was very disappointed with her grandfather. She complained that her grandfather believed Leon who was not responsible for her grandmother’s health.

However, the Davis she invited has not yet arrived, and as a medical doctor, what she said was not convincing.

Before long, the housekeeper grabbed the medicine according to the prescription, and then the babysitter fried the medicine.

In the process, Leon sat calmly in place, quietly waiting for the babysitter to fry the medicine.

In fact, Carlo's heart is not without fluctuations.

He looks calm on the surface, but he was still a little flustered.

Although he trusted Leon, he could not guarantee that Leon would cure his wife's illness until the results came out.

These are two different things.

After all, he had gone to many doctors before, including several famous doctors in the provincial capital, but failed to achieve immediate results in the end.

And can Leon, really do it?

Carlo asked himself that he was not sure that Leon would be able to cure the disease, even if it was handed down by ancient doctors.

However, Carlo does believe that Leon will not make his wife's illness worse.

As for the quack in the words of the granddaughter, it is even more impossible.

My wife's illness has been going on for more than a month.

He advised his wife to have a rest many times, but his wife said that the new store had just opened and that she had to do it herself.

But insomnia at night, and busy during the day, such a continuous rotation, the body simply cannot bear.

If it goes on like this, your health will be in danger.

In the process of waiting for the decoction, both Carlo and Tabitha were suffering.

Just then, the Davis, invited by Tabitha finally came.

“Mr. Wood, please come in.” Tabitha greeted him warmly.

Davis was an uncle in his forties, about the same age as Tabitha’s father, with a short -split haircut and looks gentle and elegant.

“Mr. Williams is well, as well as Tabitha..”

Although Davis was a famous doctor invited by the provincial capital and returned gilded abroad, he is still very respectful when he saw Carlo.

It seems that the status of the Williams Family in the provincial capital has not been boasted.

Carlo nodded and treated Davis, with an ordinary heart. He could not snub Leon because of the arrival of Davis.

Tabitha, on the other hand, was very different. she excitedly pulls Davis to sit down and immediately asks the housekeeper to come and make tea.

“Don’t look out for Mr. Wood. Ms. Wood and I are classmates. When the summer vacation is over, I’ll go back to the provincial capital to play with her.”

Davis responded with a smile, then turned his eyes to Leon, who was sitting like a mountain.

He was a stranger to Leon and was curious about the identity Leon.

“Who is this?” Davis asked.

“Oh, he is a quack hired by my grandfather. He is good at juggling and juggling.” Tabitha sneered.

The arrival of Davis has made Tabitha full of confidence.

“Tabitha, do not be rude!” Carlo frowned and disliked the way.

Then Carlo said to Davis, “You don’t know anything about Dr. Wood. This is Dr. Leon whom I invited.”

Hearing this, Davis raised his eyebrow slightly and was very surprised.

He looked at Leon, at this time the biggest feeling, that is young!

In many industries, there will be capital allocation and seniority.

And the easiest way to judge seniority is to look at age.

Especially in the profession of doctors, it is reflected more incisively and vividly.

The older you are, the more senior and experienced you are.

When Davis first saw Leon, he didn’t connect Leon with the doctor Carlo had hired.

“How could Mr. Williams hire such a man? Look at the age is also an intern stage, it is too young!”

Davis sighed in his heart.

Of course, he would not speak his mind directly, but there was a flash of disdain in his eyes.

At this time, Tabitha brought over the prescription written by Leon.

“Mr. Wood, this is a prescription written by a quack. I feel like I just wrote it blindly. Do you have any problems?”

As soon as Davis took the prescription, he frowned and was quite shocked.

“It turned out to be a laxative!”

Davis did not shout it out directly. Having lived in his forties, he has experienced vanity fairs at home and abroad and is very slippery.

Davis does not intend to talk nonsense until he has determined the identity and origin of Leon.

If Leon was an apprentice of a famous doctor, it won't do any good to offend him.

Davis believed that keeping your mouth shut and knowing how to take the helm in the face of the wind and cling to relationships in this industry is more important than the level of medical skills.

“This prescription is interesting. I wonder what this Dr. Millers was doing?” Davis asked tentatively.

Before Leon could answer, Tabitha, said, “Mr. Wood, he is a medical student who is about to graduate at Fairmont University, he is less than a few years older than me.”

“No way!” Davis shook his head in shock.

Davis originally thought that since it could be invited by Carlos, it must at least be a degree from the provincial university. Although Fairmont University is also good, it is still inferior after all.

“Of course, he was relying on the routine of running around, specializing in fooling the elderly, and my grandfather has been tricked.” Tabitha is adamant.

Originally, her attitude towards Leon has changed, but when she saw that Croton was the poison in the pharmacy opened by Leon, all kinds of doubts and prejudices came again.

Davis basically found out the identity of Leon, and a stone fell to the ground in his heart.

If you are a famous doctor, I may stand up for you, but you are only a fresh graduate, what reason do I have to be afraid of offending you?

He thought silently in his heart, and then Davis said, “I guarantee on my reputation that this is a laxative prescription. After taking it, I will run away with diarrhea. This is a violation of medical ethics.”

As soon as Davis’s voice fell, Carlo’s heart thumped!

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 67

Chapter 67 True and false quacks

Is it really a laxative?

At this moment, Carlo’s face became dignified.

My wife was already in such bad health that if she took laxatives again, will she still be able to bear it ?

A lot of doubts, haunting my mind.

Carlo looked at Leon's indifferent expression, he told himself in his heart that, he must not jump to conclusions before the truth comes out.

"Leon, I'm sure you won't do anything that violates medical ethics, but is this prescription really a laxative?"

Carlo will not think that Leon was a quack just because of Davis's words, Even if he was confused, was Ezra also confused ?

The level of Ezra was a little worse than that of famous doctors in the provincial capital, but there was no ambiguity in knowing people and judging people.

"Yes, it's a laxative." Leon nodded.

"How dare you hurt my grandmother and play with my grandmother's life?" The anger in Tabitha Williams's heart ignited instantly.

She had long questioned Leon's medical skills, and at this moment focused on the outbreak.

Carlo was also shocked and puzzled and frowned at Leon.

Leon saved his life. He wouldn't ask Leon as Tabitha Williams did, but he had to get to the bottom of it.

As for Davis, he chuckled in his heart, saying that this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. With such a quack as the groundwork, his rescue seemed to carry a lot of weight.

Leon sensed that the atmosphere at the scene was dignified, especially the ferocious look in the eyes of Tabitha Williams, a dwarf, who wanted to tear him up immediately.

“It’s a laxative, so what? since I dare to prescribe a prescription, I’m 100% sure that you won’t be disappointed.”

At this time, Leon’s tone was bland and relaxed.

He won the true biography of Liana, the first female doctor in Italy, how could he trample on medical ethics at will and treat patients more seriously than any other doctor.

The reason for the relaxed performance was that this difficult and complicated disease that baffles all doctors was only a minor problem in his view.

Mortals are hypocritical, treating diseases with laxatives, similar to attacking poison with poison.

Carlo finally had some confidence when he saw Leon’s calm posture.

“I believe you.”

When Tabitha Williams heard her grandfather say this, she went crazy.

“Grandpa, it’s definitely a laxative, so why are you defending him? Isn’t grandma’s body less important than this quack?”

At this time, Davis also incited the flames “Mr. Williams, I think you’d better be cautious, although this laxative was not highly toxic, diarrhea was also very harmful to the body, but also I ask Mr. Williams to think twice.”

“From a vulgar and humble point of view, it is one-third of the poison, and since I dare to use it, I will certainly cure the disease with medicine!” Leon’s eyes grew cold and he glanced at Davis.

This product was not a good thing because it falls to the bottom of a well.

“Oh, who gave you the courage? How dare you say that medicine can cure the disease? using a laxative as an antidote has proved that you are a quack, and now that you are so arrogant, it further proves that you are a boastful doctor scumbag!” Davis sneered.

“Ignorance!” In Leon’s eyes, Davis doesn’t even deserve to carry his shoes.

“I am ignorant? I tell you, I am a descendant of Benevolence Hall, and our family has a full history of traditional Western medicine for a hundred years!” Davis raised his head and his voice rose high-pitched.

Hearing this, Leon couldn’t help laughing.

Michael was s a descendant of the divine doctor. He once had a debate with several Western doctors in Benevolence Hall. “You are not even qualified to participate. These days, cats and dogs dare to call themselves a family of traditional Western medicine doctors?!”

“It’s a real failure that we haven’t reached the first-class level in the country in a hundred years.” Leon smiled faintly.

“You! you! You!” Davis was so angry that he stuttered.

And just then, the babysitter had fried the medicine.

Now Carlo was faced with a problem, that was, whether to give his wife the medicine prescribed by Leon.

In the end, Carlo chose to believe Leon, because Ezra once said that Leon is probably a descendant of ancient medicine.

The descendants of ancient doctors are extremely rare, as precious as giant pandas, and even if Herbalist is a time-honored brand, there is a certain gap between them.

To the admiration of Carlo, Leon never revealed his identity. If he shouted an ancient doctor descendant here, Davis would not even fart.

“I probably understand the intention of Leon. If you publicly reveal the identity of the descendants of ancient doctors now, it will bring trouble to yourself. At that time, many patients will come to seek medical advice, which will certainly affect their normal life.” Carlo thought to himself.

“Grandpa, now that I’ve invited Mr. Wood, why not let him feel the pulse of Grandma and feel her illness?” Tabitha Williams said.

“Yes, Mr. Williams, my Davis is not a famous holy hand of traditional Western medicine, but at least it is better than a hairy child.” Davis also said.

Now that Davis has spoken, Carlo thinks it’s time to let him have a try, but from the bottom of his heart, Carlo was still more inclined to Leon.

Before making this decision, however, Carlo needs to consult Leon.

“What do you think of Leon? It’s up to you to decide.”

What makes it difficult for Tabitha Williams and Davis to understand was that Carlo left the decision to Leon.

This undoubtedly shows how much importance Carlo attaches to Leon.

Leon nodded calmly and said, "I'm never afraid of a challenge. Let him have a try!"

Speaking of which, Davis was far from challenging his qualifications, and Davis's grandfather's generation may still be qualified.

Who asked the old man to let him experience the world? alas, he could crush the holy hand of traditional Western medicine, but he pretended to be a little doctor here.

Davis was so surprised that he couldn't hide his excitement.

"Oh, the balance of opportunity, tilt to me again, boy, this was the opportunity you gave me!"

After a sneer in the heart, Davis immediately adjusted his mood, from the villain to tender and gentle, with a smile on the corners of his mouth and gentle eyes.

This was the experience that Davis has gained in the medical profession for more than 20 years if you want to mix well, you can't lose your acting skills!

People who were gentle and elegant were more likely to set up the image of traditional doctors.

"For generations of Traditional doctors in Herbalist, they did not want to compete with others, but doctors are based on treating diseases and saving lives, and the patient is heaven. Even if there are thousands of difficulties and dangers ahead, I still have to go to see and treat them.”

What he said, one by one, almost made himself a saint.

“What a lot of nonsense. Hurry up.” Leon said bluntly that he looked down on such hypocrites most.

Davis disdainfully glanced at Leon and then went to diagnose Carlo’s wife.

The pulse of Carlo’s wife shows that it was indeed complicated. Although it was not an acute disease, it was difficult to cure it quickly.

Davis wrote down a prescription and confidently handed it to Carlo.

He felt that although this prescription could not cure the disease, it was at least a hundred times stronger than the laxative prescription of that boy Leon.

“Mr. Williams, this was a good prescription for me. After 20 courses of treatment, Ms. Williams can be cured. Remember to keep a good grasp of the temperature of the medicinal soup. It should not be too high or too low. 37 degrees is the most appropriate.”

Carlo took the prescription, looked at it carefully, and gradually frowned.

Because this prescription was almost the same as that of Thomas and Jerry.

Even the temperature requirements for medicine soup are almost the same.

This makes Carlo deeply doubt that this was a recipe for maintaining stability!

The so-called prescription for maintaining stability means that you can't eat a dead person but you can't cure a disease, just like a tonic.

The reason why there was a special requirement for the temperature of the medicine soup was an excuse to shirk the responsibility in the future.

The temperature of medicinal soup was the most difficult to control, and it does not have much to do with the medicinal properties, but if it does not work, the doctor can excuse it by saying that the temperature was not well mastered.

Also, 20 courses of treatment, the number of days was too long, which was more conducive to doctors to find reasons to shirk.

Having been fooled by Thomas and Jerry, Carlo couldn't be fooled for the third time.

In a fit of anger, Carlo tore the prescription in half!

This move shocked both Davis and Tabitha Williams.

Davis can't figure it out, this prescription was much better than Leon's prescription, why not tear Leon's, but tear his?!

More to his surprise, Carlo immediately turned to his wife and took Leon's medicinal soup.

Carlo would rather take a risk than let his wife drink those stabilizing prescriptions.

If there was no cure, it was said that there was no cure, so there was no need to delay the patient.

The key to this recipe for maintaining stability was not harmless, it was a third of the poison, take so many courses of tonics, it was strange not to hurt the liver and kidneys!

When Tabitha Williams saw his grandfather doing this, he was very dissatisfied and said, “Grandpa, why are you doing this?”

Davis also showed a very aggrieved expression: “Yes, Mr. Williams, was there something wrong with my prescription?” It’s not good to just tear it up. You have to explain it!”

“The biggest problem with your prescription was to maintain stability. Like Thomas and Jerry, you will be perfunctory. My old woman was on the verge of other illnesses when she takes the tonics prescribed by your doctors.”

“But, Mr. Williams, how can you be sure that this kid’s prescription was better than mine? he’s a laxative!” Davis pointed to Leon unconvinced.

Just then, Carlo’s wife suddenly felt unwell.

She pinched her brow tightly, her forehead sweating and sharp pain in her abdomen.

Apparently, it was Leon’s laxative attack!

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 68

“What happened to Grandma?!”

Tabitha Williams immediately reacted with an angry look on his face.

“Leon, if something happens to my grandma, I’m not done with you!”

“Grandma! Grandma! ”

Tabitha Williams cried with a cry.

At this time, Carlo also panicked and hurriedly grabbed his wife’s hand, looking anxious and flustered.

And Davis, only knows to gloat, Dark and Light said strangely “It seemed dangerous that Ms. Williams took laxatives obviously she’s poisoned, unfortunately, it could have been avoided, how could it have gone so far?”

“Don’t be sarcastic, it’s just diarrhea,” Leon said to Davis in a cold voice.

Although Western herbal medicine on this prescription is the same as that given to Jason and Christian, it was quite different in dosage.

Leon controls the dose very well, but to the same extent as having a bad stomach, it was not food poisoning.

Leon was sure of this.

Superb medical skills were not only reflected in the use of drugs but also very important for the control of drug dosage.

“It’s not just diarrhea, I’m afraid. This is to pull the body out!” Davis sneered.

“Nonsense! This was a laxative, and diarrhea was a normal phenomenon!” Leon was good at using strange recipes, and Davis hasn’t figured it out yet.

“A quack is a quack, and he’s still messing around. Do you dare to bet?”

“Davis’s face was insidious.

” What do you want to bet on?”

“Just bet on whether Ms. Williams will recover after three days. If you lose, eat the dregs!”

Davis thought that since he was sure of winning, he would gamble harder and let the young man suffer.

“Are you sure?”

“Of course! Mr. Williams testified!”

There was a smug smile on Davis’s face, and he was already making up for the painful expression of Leon’s medicine crumbs in his head.

“Good!”

Leon should come down.

Later, Leon said to Carlo, “By the way, Mr. Williams, doesn’t have to take Ms. Williams to the hospital. Diarrhea is under control. You can rest at home for three days”

Leon does not recommend going to the hospital. After all, it was not the same route. He was worried that if he goes to the hospital, there will be both transfusions and injections, and Ms. William’s body will not be able to handle it.

Carlo hesitated a little, but nodded and followed Leon's instructions.

Tabitha Williams, on the other hand, has a strong objection.

"Grandpa and grandma are like this. it's obvious that laxatives have worked. If you don't go to the hospital, the situation will be very dangerous!"

Hearing her granddaughter's persuasion, Carlo hesitated again.

"Believe me, three days later, the medicine will definitely cure the disease!" Leon's eyes are incomparably firm.

As a descendant of a magical doctor, it would be a failure if you don't even have that kind of self-confidence.

Carlo saw that Leon made a guarantee, and combined with the character of Leon before, thought that this person could be trusted.

"Good! I believe you! Do as you say!"

At this point, Tabitha Williams could suffocate.

She felt as if her grandfather had changed and become unreasonable.

"Leonard! What kind of ecstasy soup did you give my grandfather? Since I realized that my grandfather has been obedient to you, you are really good at brainwashing!"

"Ms. Williams, don't blame your grandfather, this kid is not good at medicine, but he is very good at mind play." Davis was pretending to be a nice guy.

Tabitha Williams turned around and said to Davis apologetically, “I’m sorry Uncle he made you come here in vain.”

“What’s the big deal, it doesn’t matter. In fact, I was invited by others when I came here. I came here first because of your relationship with my daughter.” Davis was so sweet.

This time, when he came to Fairmont from the provincial capital, he did receive an invitation from a family other than the Williams family, but definitely not because of the relationship between Tabitha Williams and his daughter who were classmates, but in order to curry favor with Williams family, and want to climb the ladder.

He was kind-hearted and wanted to find Williams’s family as a patron. If he can become a private doctor of the Williams family, it will be beneficial to the development of Herbalist in the provincial capital.

“Mr. Wood is elegant, but the people in our provincial capital are different.” Tabitha Williams was a little moved.

“If you can’t become the provincial capital, there must be a reason. the quality of people in the provincial capital is much higher than that in Fairmont city. take the atmosphere of the medical profession as an example, there will never be doctors who are good at brainwashing in the provincial capital. our doctors speak entirely on their own medical skills.” Davis said strangely.

“I don’t think you’re from the provincial capital. You’re from Daly City. There are so many murals!” Leon said coldly: “before the results come out, what you are saying now is farting!”

“The result? Oh, it’s obvious that you’re going to this drug residue. Ms. Williams has been to the bathroom three times, all thanks to your laxative!” Davis was cynical.

“Laxatives can also cure diseases, but with your medical attainments, you won’t understand at all!” In Leon’s eyes, there was a faint twinkle of invincibility.

“I really laugh off my teeth. I have eaten more salt than you have ever eaten!”

“I see. You are foolish to eat salt!” Leon sneered.

“You! What did you say? Say it again!” Davis flushed with anger.

“I said that you eat salt foolishly, prescribe a prescription for maintaining stability, and still think that you are superior to others. You are being poisoned by salt.”

“Boy! We’ll see. I’ll see you in three days!”

Davis was so angry that he almost fainted, but he really couldn’t come up with a good cure, and he was powerless to retort.

In his heart, he scolded Leon for his ignorance and laughed at Carlo for being ungrateful.

“No matter how you say Michael’s stabilizing prescription, it’s better than that kid’s laxative. Carlo, an old thing, doesn’t know what’s right or wrong, and he’s out of his head!”

Malagobi in his heart, smiling on the surface, still had to look at Carlo’s face and dared not confront Carlo face to face.

He felt weird, and it was strange that Carlo should listen to that boy.

But he does not know that the grace of saving lives will never be forgotten. Leon and Carlo have a long-lived friendship, and what was he ?

.....

In the evening, Leon returned to Fairmont University from Williams Family.

Tomorrow was the graduation thesis defense, Leon himself was not a problem, he decided to help Rachel.

The two walked on the university campus and went for a walk to the library.

Rachel was easy to be shy and doesn't talk much, but her big clear eyes seemed to be full of Leon.

In the eyes of others, they looked very much like a couple.

However, the relationship between the two was not valued by the students.

Basically, it was believed that Leon was too poor and that Rachel falling in love with him was like a flower planted in cow dung.

However, many students do not know that Leon was already a colleague with Willy, a well-known professor in the school.

As an exception, entering the Institute of traditional Western Medicine Pharmacology in Fairmont City was a height that cannot be reached by the students of the whole school.

Leon doesn't like to show off his wealth, but he also crushed the whole school by his own ability.

He's the real hidden boss!

The three-day defense of the graduation thesis will be carried out as scheduled.

With the help of Leon, Rachel did a great job and passed at one time.

The biggest surprise in this graduation thesis defense was Martin, the son of the headmaster.

Martin was speechless and flabbergasted, and he was embarrassed, which worried Principal George.

Finally, he relied on his father's influence at school, Martin stammered out his thesis defense on the third day.

For the sudden aphasia, Martin did not think of it as a "small gift" from Leon, because in his eyes, Leon is just a small potato.

Martin was in no hurry about the rumors that Leon and Rachel are having an affair at school. He will officially let Rachel be his woman on the day of the graduation party.

At this point, Leon received a call from Carlo.

During the call, I could tell that Carlo was very happy and invited Leon to his villa. There was good news for Leon.

You don't have to guess, Leon knows what it was.

He's going to put the dregs in Davis's mouth with his own hands!

Super Rich Man by Kiang Chapter 69

Chapter 69 Michael is also a blessing in disguise.

After finishing the call with Carlo, Leon was in no hurry to start.

Instead, he practiced meditation on the balcony, running turtles to rest.

It's only two steps downstairs to the villa in Carlo. It's like visiting.

The lake breeze was coming, and Leon takes advantage of this good opportunity to pay close attention to practice.

It was half an hour before Leon left for the Williams Family villa.

Carlo was happy to welcome Leon, and Ms. Williams was in good health, but he doesn't see Tabitha Williams.

Early in the morning, Tabitha Williams ran out of the house.

She felt that Leon had cured her grandmother's illness, which made her very embarrassed, and didn't know how to deal with it.

Even, she wondered if Leon was really good at medicine and was misunderstood by her.

However, this time Leon treated her grandmother with laxatives, which she really disagreed with. She felt that it was no different from the local heroes who traveled around the country.

Carlo behaves very differently from Tabitha Williams. He has always regarded Leon as an important person in his life.

Leon first saved his life, and now he has cured his wife's illness, which was his great savior.

"Leon, my wife is now in good spirits. She slept soundly last night. The symptoms of insomnia were swept away. She also had a good appetite during the day. She ate two bowls of rice." Carlo said with a happy look on his face.

"Yes, I can see that Ms. Williams looks good." Leon nodded.

Everything was under Leon's control, so he was at peace.

"Oh, by the way, Leon, what kind of pharmacology are you using? This is the first time I've heard that laxatives can cure diseases, and to tell you the truth, I was very scared at the beginning." Carlo was still scared when he thinks about it.

In this regard, Leon smiled faintly and said: "Ms. Williams' continuous work every day, simply cannot be idle, psychological pressure, as long as letting her diarrhea, exhaustion, a good rest in bed for a few days, can cure the disease."

In fact, the pharmacology of this was very simple.

However, many doctors like to follow the rules, and the medical theories and prescriptions that have not been recorded in medical books were considered to be unreasonable.

In the treatment of diseases in traditional Western medicine, we should pay attention to taking advantage of the situation and prescribe the right medicine, sometimes we don't have to stick to conventions.

"This. This." Carlo, who learned the truth, looked confused.

He felt that his values were about to collapse!

“Don’t be surprised. Just like today’s office workers, they feel tired during the day, insomnia and anxiety at night, and they feel sick all over, but they can’t find anything when they go to the hospital for an examination. In fact, they just can’t get any rest. Even if they sit and lie down, the heart can’t relax, it’s too tight for a long time, and it’s no wonder the body can bear it.”

Leon explains it this way.

“When you run and have diarrhea, you are weak, so you stop, right?” Carlo said.

“Yes, Ms. Williams is overworked. It has been going on for a long time, only to calm her down. Moreover, these herbs of mine are not only beneficial to diarrhea, but also can detoxify and break accumulation, and use water to kill insects.”

Carlo almost understood the meaning of Leonard’s words, but still felt that the treatment was really strange.

“Listening to Jun’s words and reading ten years’ books for nothing, it was really clairvoyant after such a little bit of Leon!” Carlo appreciates the strange and even ruthless use of Leon’s drugs.

“You know, other traditional Western medicine, the road is not so coquettish.”

“I’m flattered. I’m just good at grasping the ‘degree’ in it. According to the physique of Ms. Williams, it varies from person to person and takes advantage of the situation. I pay special attention to the control of the dose, otherwise, the threat of this laxative is also very great.”

Leon said easily, this is just his self-deprecation, traditional Western medicine can really accurately grasp the weight, so that watertight people, there will not be more than ten people.

If you can do it, you will be qualified to challenge the divine doctor Harold and conduct a pharmacological debate.

And Leon, was the guardian of the last Benevolence Hall, he helped the female doctor Liana, defend the name of Harold “Divine Doctor”.

When I think of Master Ben, Leon flashes a trace of melancholy in his eyebrows and eyes.

I haven’t seen the doctor for four years. I don’t know which mountain she went to pick the elixir.

Carlo admires Leon and sighs in his heart that meeting Leon, was the biggest opportunity in his life, and Williams Family will be saved in the future.

“It’s time for Leon, to keep his bet. Davis will be here soon.” Carlo said.

“I’m afraid this man won’t come, but he lose, he’ll have to eat the dregs of medicine, and He’ll be gone a long time ago.” Leon wants to put the dregs into Davis’s mouth, but Davis doesn’t look like a man of his word.

“Don’t worry, I told him he won, he will come, and soon.” Carlo smiled.

Leon understood and immediately smiled and said, “Mr. Williams, you’re a little bad.”

“I hate people who fish for fame most in my life. Davis’s medical skills are mediocre, but he likes to pretend to be a big name. I just want to teach him a lesson today. In order to prevent him from running away, I'll do a little trick, heh heh." Carlo replied with a smile.

"Good! I'll put the dregs in his mouth later!" Leon and Carlo hit it off.

.....

In the living room of the Williams Family villa, Davis had just sat down with uncontrollable joy on his face.

He secretly exclaimed: "Fortunately, there is a fool to cover my back, he is such a foil, and then it is not difficult to establish a relationship with Williams Family!"

However, the next moment, Carlo unexpectedly said directly: "Dr. Wood, you lost, you must keep the bet!"

Hearing this, Davis was stunned.

"No, what's going on? Mr. Williams, didn't I win?"

"My wife has now returned to normal, and the symptoms of insomnia and anxiety have been eliminated, so you have lost!" Carlo said seriously.

Now, Davis understood that he had been played by a partnership.

"No way! That laxative prescription is impossible to cure!" Davis was emotional.

Leon glanced at Davis and sneered: "Of course, people with salt poisoning will not understand the beauty of the prescription. Running diarrhea does lead to weakness, but it can make Ms. Williams stop and rest and get the body back to normal. This contains the way of yin and yang in traditional Western medicine, the cathode is yang, and the virtual pole is real.”

“Bullshit! You are such a rat, you are talking nonsense!” Davis pointed angrily at Leon.

However, the next moment, he was pinched by Leon by the throat.

A whole bag of drug dregs, mouthful by mouthful, all forced into it.

“How does it taste?” An evil smile appeared at the corners of Leon’s mouth.

Davis does not have the strength to answer, his mind was now filled with a strong smell of drug dregs.

I can’t spit it out, and I can’t swallow it!

Disgusting!

Finally, Davis walked awkwardly out of William’s Family villa.

As he walked, he cursed Leon and Carlo, and expressed his vengeance and vows not to be a man.

Back to the hotel, after washing, Davis went straight to the Moon Bay Villa District.

When he came to Fairmont this time, he was invited by his sister Bryant.

Recently, Bryant's sister, who presided over the construction project of Fairmont amusement park, also worked continuously all day, and the situation was similar to that of Ms. Williams.

Davis used to be in the provincial capital, and she was also an old acquaintance.

Seeing that William's family thigh was hopeless, Davis had no choice but to go to another one.

And he also wants to use the power of Bryant's sister to get back at Carlo and Leon.

As soon as he arrived at the residence of Bryant and his sister, Davis offered his sincerity.

"Ms. Park, you have fatigue, insomnia, and anxiety disorders. I have an original prescription that can be cured by taking it."

After coming out of Williams Family, Davis recalled what Leon had said and thought that the laxative prescription could really achieve a wonderful effect.

Now, he directly plagiarized Leon's prescription and applied it to Ms. Park.

is Dr. Wood really wonderful? If Dr. Wood can quickly cure my insomnia and anxiety, I will be grateful!" Ms. Park promises.

There was an insidious smile in Davis's heart: Oh, this was a blessing in disguise. That kid was so stupid that he explained the medicine in detail to me. What a fool!

“Ms. Park, don’t worry, I only need three days to cure you,!”

“Three days? Are you serious?”

Ms. Park was eager to get her body back to health. Recently, the construction schedule was so tight that she needs to keep an eye on the site.

And she wants to be at her best during this time. Only in this way can she please her lover.

At the moment, Davis patted his chest and promised: “A gentleman’s word is irrevocable, and three days is enough!”

“Good! I also asked Dr. Wood to treat me as soon as possible. When I get better, I will certainly have my thanks again.” Ms. Park was overjoyed.

So Davis wrote down Leon’s prescription.

“This is my original prescription, which has cured many patients. With this ingenuity, you can even apply for a patent. Ms. Park can rest assured to take it.”

Davis was really a “talent”, boasting this said a set of does not blush, even he is particularly quick to believe!

As soon as Ms. Park heard this, and combined with the benevolence behind Davis, she did not even think about it and nodded immediately.

“Dr. Wood is really a wonderful doctor, and all I want is the effect of medicine to cure the disease!” Ms. Young gave a thumbs up to Davis.”

Then Bryant came over.

“Sister, I have something to talk to you about.”

Bryant’s sister Belle Young, frowned when she saw the color on her brother’s face and seemed to have a shoe print.

“Bryant, what’s the matter with you?”

Bryant hasn’t told her sister about the beating since the Fairmont Street teahouse.

First, my sister was too busy, so she was free to see a doctor today.

Second, she felt ashamed, usually arrogant and domineering, but beaten, very loose face.

But in the end, he didn’t stop. If he didn’t ask his sister for help, he would still be abused by Leon if he relied on his own strength.

Seeing his younger brother like this, Belle suddenly realized that things were not simple, so he planned to send Davis away.

“Dr. Wood, that’s all for today. I’ll take the medicine according to your prescription. You can also get back to the hotel early and call me if you have anything to do.”

“Ms. Park, I bid you goodbye, remember what I said, after frying medicine, take it with warm water it will absolutely cure the disease.”

Davis graciously instructed, then turned away.

He just waited three days later, Belle went to the hotel in person and came to the hotel to say thank you.

Davis, Belle went away with a dignified expression and looked at his brother with a distressed look on his face.

“Bryant, come on, what’s going on? who did this to you?”

“Sister, I don’t know, but I remember that face, and I won’t forget it for the rest of my life!” Bryant’s face was as gloomy as water.

“Good! Just remember, when we meet again, I will make him kneel and apologize to you!” Belle loves his brother very much.

The atmosphere was dignified, but Belle couldn’t help laughing when he noticed the big shoe marks on his brother’s face.

“I said, Bryant, who are you looking for to get that shoe print on your face? It’s quite fashionable. Is it popular with facial tattoos recently? The day before yesterday, I attended a meeting of the city chamber of commerce and found that a young man in Family Dani had a slap tattooed on his face.”

Belle smiled.

She thinks that today’s young people are pursuing things too far ahead of schedule. They just tattooed their faces. They even tattooed their palms and shoe prints. This is too abstract.

Bryant doesn’t know what Master Danielle Family does. All he knows is that his face is not tattooed at all, but that he was trampled by Leon.

I didn't pay attention to it that day, but when I got back, I found that the mark of this big shoe could not be washed off and could not be wiped off, but embedded in the face.

It's like having a dog skin ointment on his face, and he can't even get rid of it so that he's almost autistic.

“Sister, it's not a tattoo, it's all the kid's fault, it's a shoe print!”

Next, Bryant complained to her sister again.

Hearing what happened to her brother, Belle was even more distressed and vowed to avenge her brother.

“Bryant, you can rest assured that my sister will investigate that man and make him pay a heavy price!”

However, he almost died before Belle could get revenge.

She took the medicine prescribed by Davis, vomited and had diarrhea, and ran all day, leaving it all over the room.

In the end, he was taken to the hospital and ICU, was almost killed.

Unlike Ms. Williams, Belle has been in ICU for half a month and has not yet fully recovered, so he has enteritis.

This was the same as Leon's classmate Christian, only lighter than Christian.

This not only delayed the construction period but also left a sequela, Belle almost regretted to death.

Davis came to the hospital ward to visit Belle. He didn't know that Belle almost fell on the toilet and could not wake up. He thought that Belle was more delicate than the old lady.

"It seems that Ms. Park still needs more exercise. His physique is too poor. I planned to get up in three days. I didn't expect to rest and recuperate for half a month. During this period, I couldn't even get through to the phone."

"Shut up! I almost died at your hands! This is not a cure! This is murder!" Belle really wants to give Davis an enema so that he can experience the taste of dung all over the house.

"No way, Ms. Park, you can't joke like that." Davis felt aggrieved, which was a far cry from the gentleness of the last time we met.

"Pretending to be confused, it's all because of your laxative! You almost killed me!"

Today, the construction of the amusement park had been delayed and lost a lot of money.

And Davis can be depressed, Belle's condition was obviously the same as Ms. Williams, how the difference between this prescription, unexpectedly so big.

As Leon said, Davis simply doesn't understand the subtlety of this.

This laxative prescription was risky unless you have a good understanding of traditional Western medicine.

Davis wrote down all the prescriptions, even a few bills of money, but ignored the person's physique.

One's physique cannot be measured simply by age. Even though Belle was young, her body was weak and her stomach was weak. If he cannot vary from person to person and prescribe the right medicine to the case, something will definitely happen.

“Get out! Get out of here! I'm going to sue you! Sue your benevolence hall!” Belle roared angrily.

Davis was so scared that he sat paralyzed on the floor, and this lawsuit also involved Herbalist, making it difficult to explain to the elders of the family.

At this time, Leon was “inspecting the work” at the construction site.

According to the previous punishment of the main characters of, Danielle's Family, they were sent to work.

Leon came to the construction site where Tommy carried the bars and saw Tommy naked and tanned.

Originally also body fat, after half a month of training, lost a lot of weight.

Half a month ago, he was not obedient to Leon, but now he was thoroughly tamed.

If you move one less brick and lift one less pole every day, you will be poked by Leon, and then you will become incontinent.

He didn't know the exact acupoint at which he was poked, but he was so scared that he had changed 20 pairs of trousers in the first half of the month.

Today, the bricks at the construction site are particularly hot, and the ice cola at the commissary across the road was his dream out of reach.

Suddenly, he received a phone call from Martin.

Martin relies on his father's relationship, and several big boys in Fairmont City, are also familiar with each other and have a good friendship.

“Little Grandpa, can I take this?”

The once arrogant and domineering young master Danielle Family now has to ask for instructions when he answers the phone. I'm afraid no one will believe it.

Leon nodded and said nothing.

Tommy gingerly connected the phone and heard Martin's smug laughter.

“Hey, hey, Tommy, I'm going to have a graduation party tomorrow. I'm going to dry it up. Help me come to town, and then I'll get you some little sisters for entertainment.”

‘entertainment? It doesn't exist!’

Over the past half a month, the biggest entertainment was to play poker with the uncle on the construction site and fight the landlord!
