

The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love

Chapter 20

What Douglas never expected was that the contract amount Prodigy Inc. could offer had increased by one third.

The reason lies in the adjustments made by Rosalynn. To perfectly present these adjustments, additional investment was necessary.

After leaving the meeting room, Douglas gave Rosalynn a thumbs up, "Secretary Tesdal, I am really impressed by you. Instead of staying in the president's office, why not come to our sales department?"

Before Rosalynn could speak, a vigorous voice came from behind. "Your Bane Corporation's sales department cannot be better than our Prodigy Inc., right?"

Everyone was taken aback and turned around.

Douglas wondered who would dare to come to him and try to steal his subordinates.

When he saw the visitor, he immediately softened. "President Mason! What brings you here?"

"It's

my company. Why can't I be here?" Wallace said, walking up to Rosalynn. "Ms. Tesdal, are you no longer working at Bane Corporation?"

"Yeah, I've already submitted my resignation letter." Rosalynn nodded.

Wallace looked amiable, which reminded Rosalynn of her grandpa.

"Perfect! I happen to be looking for a vice president for the planning department. Come join me!"

Everyone was shocked. A vice president?

Douglas was also anxious but didn't dare to blatantly compete with Wallace for Rosalynn. So, he could only stare at Rosalynn helplessly.

Rosalynn smiled gently, "Mr. Mason, I appreciate your kindness, but I'm not planning to stay in H City."

“Don’t rush to answer me; think about it when you get back. Even if you don’t stay in H City, Prodigy Inc. has branch offices all over the world. As long as you’re willing, you can work for me!” Wallace didn’t seem in a hurry, handing Rosalynn a personal business card.

“Alright, Mr. Mason, I will seriously consider it.” Rosalynn took the card.

Then, Wallace and his people entered the meeting room across the hall.

“Secretary Tesdal, are you leaving H City?” Alexis asked.

Though Alexis and Rosalynn had beef before, she had found it quite comfortable and enjoyable to work with her after just half a day. If Douglas really brought her into the team, she would agree without any hesitation.

Rosalynn made the decision just last night. She realized that her perspective of Wayne was too one-sided. Just in case, for the baby’s sake, she couldn’t continue to stay in H City

The Sales Department came back with triumph, and right away, Douglas wanted to celebrate

But...

“Before you all celebrate, we still have other issues to handle,” Rosalynn said calmly.

The joy of the crowd instantly froze.

Regarding the mole.

“Secretary Tesdal, since we’ve got the contract, let’s celebrate first! Trevor said with chuckle

I’m not participating at your sales department’s celebration, so let’s resolve this issue first so I can leave, Rosalynn said without any courtesy “Secretary Tesdal, since we’ve got the contract.. Alexis tried to say something.

“I know what you’re all thinking, you’re a united and loving family. Of course, no one wants to see traitors among you, Rosalynn swept her gaze over the crowd, her voice authoritative “Unfortunately, what you all shouldn’t have done was make me the scapegoat I won’t suffer the losses for no reason all by myself, and I must discover the traitor and punish them appropriately.”

Douglas’s expression turned grim.

To be honest, when the data issue came up, he had considered the problem came from inside. But if the problem came from the sales department, he would also be in trouble. Just then, someone suggested that Rosalynn provided the data, making it naturally possible that she might tampered with it So Douglas made the decision to make her the scapegoat “Secretary Tesdal, that data sheet has your signature on it! Trevor sneered. “Even the president said it’s your responsibility!”

Rosalynn glanced at him.

“Trevor, do you think you were so discreet that you left no evidence behind?”

*Rosalynn! You’re talking nonsense! Trevor immediately grew angry.

“Account 3467 at Unity Bank, that’s your mother’s account, isn’t it? Rosalynn asked one word at a time.

Trevor stiffened.

“Last month, on the 8th, 9th, and 11th, Mr. Frever from Visionary Group made six transfers to this account, totaling $3 million,” Rosalynn smiled. “Coincidentally, the 8th was the day I gave the data to Project Department.”

Visionary Group was the strongest competitor to Bane Corporation in the Prodigy Inc. project.
