The Secret Heir Return To Wealth And Love Chapter 511

Chapter 511

“Did you find out who that bastard is? Rosalynn suddenly looked up, her expression turning fierce. “All of Wayne’s recent outings have been to the temple for mourning. When he drove and hit me, obviously he was aiming at me...” _ _

” Mrs . Jared, we’re looking into it. So far , the car is reported stolen , and as for that guy , we got his appearance from airport security footage . We haven’t identified it yet, but... this kind of ruthless killing method seems like something of the dark.

web _ ”

“I don’t care about these things! I want to know who the murderer is ! Rosalynn clenched her teeth. _

If something happened to Wayne today, she would kill this person!

At this moment, there was a chaotic sound of footsteps. _

Rosalynn instinctively looked up and frowned.

“Where’s Wayne? Maddie asked aloud as she saw Rosalynn..

“Ms. Fuller, please relax a bit. Olivia, who was supporting Maddie, had been crying so much that her eyes were red and swollen. _

“When did you two get together? Rosalynn scoffed.

It made sense that Olivia would come here. Her obsession with Wayne wouldn’t fade overnight, but bringing Maddie felt suspicious.

If she came, there could only be one reason...

“Mrs. Jared, this is Wayne’s mom! Olivia choked. _ “Obviously, she is going to come since Wayne had such a big accident. What did you do to piss someone off because Wayne got involved in it? If something happens to him, can you have the responsibility? ”

“Olivia, how do you know it was me who upset someone? Rosalynn caught some key words accurately.

It was always like this : the more desperate , the better she captured the doubts of the details . _ _ _ _ _

“Something like this had never happened to Wayne in all these years. Who else could it be? Olivia challenged . _

Rosalynn miró a Maddie .

She chuckled, “Olivia, did you forget? She was in another car accident earlier and turned into a vegetable. It seems... it happened after Natalie started handing over her power to him. Then someone dumped Wayne, who was still a vegetable, and married into the R Country royal family, all posh and proud. ”

Chapter 511

“That car accident was an accident! ”

Maddie was nervous when she was exposed in the act. _

” Oh really ? Rosalynn scoffed. “Maddie, do you really think Wayne doesn’t know anything? He might also think about when his attitude towards you changed drastically. _ ”

Wayne’s life was on the line, and these two women came looking for trouble. Rosalynn no longer cared what others thought.

Maddie's face turned pale with anger. It was true that she had orchestrated the car accident years ago. But she was her mother, how could she really want her child to die? Her intention was to leave Wayne with a disability, so he couldn't compete with her for the company. However, she never expected a planned car accident to turn into a series of major accidents. Wayne was nearly killed instantly and it took a considerable amount of money to save his life.

At that moment, she was relieved. But after learning the truth, she wished she could go back in time, remove Wayne's oxygen tube, and let him die right then and there. If she had died, old Mrs. Silverman would have been devastated and she would not have lived much longer.

Silverman Group would have been within Maddie's reach!

"Stop talking nonsense! Maddie scoffed. "I am Wayne's mother, her immediate family. I do not welcome you here, so go away! "

Rosalynn completely ignored her. Her bodyguards, as well as Wayne's bodyguards, stood menacingly at Rosalynn's side.

" What are you doing ? she asked. _

Chapter 512

Olivia frowned grimly.

He never expected that the organization of assassins he hired to kill Rosalynn would not care about the lives of innocent people.

Now, Rosalynn was fine, but Wayne...

Olivia was so furious that she gritted her teeth, wishing she could take a knife and cut Rosalynn to pieces!

"Before Wayne wakes up, nobody's going to chase me away," Rosalynn said, word for word. "I don't care what you're up to, but just give up. You will not succeed. "

" Bitch ! "

Maddie's eyes were about to roll out with anger.

At that moment, footsteps were heard from the elevator.

” Baby ! ”

Paige’s voice came before her figure appeared.

Rosalynn’s cold, terrifying expression finally softened.

She looked up and Paige was running towards her. _ _

” My God ! My God ! ”

Paige was stunned to see Rosalynn like this.

” What are you waiting for ? _ Go check your wounds and treat them! Paige was on the verge of urgent tears. Why is there so much blood? Where are you hurt? ”

“I’m fine,” Rosalynn shook her head.

At that moment, Maddie exclaimed in surprise: “Baillie? ”

“Mrs. Fuller. Baillie nodded slightly. _

“You are here at the perfect time, help me! This woman should take responsibility for your brother’s critical situation, and she has now called so many strong men to hurt me! ”

Maddie was about to break down and cry. _

Olivia’s face became even more gloomy...

” Be quiet ! ”

Paige turned her head towards Maddie, yelling angrily.

” Look ! Just look ! Maddie pointed at Paige, looking even more aggrieved.

Chapter 512

Baillie ignored her drama, however, walking to Paige’s side and patting her head gently, “Honey, keep your voice down, we’re at the hospital. ”

” Dear ? Maddie was so shocked that her jaw almost dropped.

Next, Baillie, in front of Maddie’s house, said to Rosalynn, “Ms. Jared, let Paige come with you to have your injuries checked and treated. I will stay here ”

” I’m fine . Rosalynn shook her head.

How could he leave ? How dare he leave ?

When Wayne wakes up, he'll definitely be looking for her. _ _

"Wayne will worry when he sees you like this," Baillie comforted her. "At least check for internal injuries. _ If Wayne is fine but something happens to you, then... " _

"Okay, okay, listen to her. _ _ What will I do if something happens to you? _ Cory just called me, he already knows about this..."

Rosalynn came to her senses, asking in surprise. _ _

"How did you find out? _ "

"It's already trending online. Lots of people took photos at the scene, and you and Wayne got caught up in them..." Paige squeezed her hand, "Hilaria is already at the airport, she's terrified too. Do you have to get her wounds treated, get checked out and change your clothes, or do you want to scare them to death? _ _ "

"Baillie, please stay here, tell her I'll be back soon if she wakes up," Rosalynn looked at Baillie, pleading huskily. _

"Fine," Baillie agreed.

Rosalynn's knee ached badly as she stood up, but she endured the pain and didn't let out a sound.

Chapter 513

He looked around the operating room, then looked at the shocked Maddie and the grumpy Olivia: "This is the first and last time I'm warning you guys. Don't try to fool around, Wayne could let it slide since you were his mother and saved his life earlier, but I won't! "

Maddie and Olivia looked at her, but neither dared to say anything.

Rosalynn then left with Paige.

After the others left, Maddie ran to Baillie: "Baillie, when did you marry someone like her? Your parents know ? "

"Yes, they have been renovating the old house for the past few days. As soon as I'm done, I'll take her back to meet her. _ "

Baillie wasn't lying about this.

In fact, the situation was even more exaggerated.

Take Baillie's elegant mother as an example.

She insisted that she had gained five or six pounds over the vacation and that she should lose the extra weight before her daughter-in-law returned, so as not to make a bad first impression.

Baillie's seemingly cool-headed dad recently started working out and even asked Baillie about Paige's preferences.

He removed the flowers from the garden and planted the plants that Paige liked. The older members of the family were no exception; they said that they were preparing for a reunion gift and engaged in a friendly competition.

Her father even risked taking secret photos of Maddie's reunion gift. Although the box was not large, it contained valuable antiques, each one of them priceless.

Regarding Baillie's early marriage, the Scott family expressed unanimous joy. They were relieved to learn that Baillie was actually gay.

"She doesn't come from any influential background! Maddie exclaimed in shock. "Marrying a woman like her wouldn't help you at all!"

"Ms. Fuller, while it may be offensive, I have to say that your values are really distorted," Baillie replied. "When a man from the Scott family marries, he marries the person he loves, regardless of his origin, because he did not matter."

Maddie was so angry that her lips trembled. Little did she know that Baillie had more infuriating words for her.

"Besides, who said my wife has no criminal record? She looked at Maddie. "Her friend is the sole heiress of the Jared family. She cherishes my wife like a treasure, isn't that considered a bottom?"

"The Jared family? Maddie looked at Olivia.

"She is the daughter of Hilaria's second son."

"Gabiella Jared? Maddie's eyes were about to bulge. She had admired this young woman from a distance from her and had been trying to find a way to contact her, hoping for some kind of collaboration with Gabiella Jared.

“Yes,” Olivia nodded.

Hate surged in Maddie’s heart and she slumped into a chair.

Baillie really didn’t want to communicate with Maddie, so she sat across from her, pulled out her phone, and sent Paige a text.

“Don’t worry, just be careful when you walk, don’t fall. ”

When they got there earlier, Paige was running in a hurry and almost fell. _

Paige didn’t answer, probably because she was busy. _

While waiting for the check up, Rosalynn called Cory and Hilaria separately to let them know she was fine. _ _

Hilaria seemed stable.

“Okay, I’m at the airport, I’ll be there tonight. ”

” GOOD . ”

Cory, on the other hand, was not calm. _

“Mommy, I saw you bleeding! Cory was very worried, this was the most excited Rosalynn had seen him since her birth, “Where did you get injured? It hurts ? ”

“Baby, mommy is fine! Rosalynn gently reassured him. _

17:50

“I’ll be there with my sister soon, you have to wait for me, okay? Cory choked out. _ _

Rosalynn’s heart was about to break.

“Okay, mommy will wait for you. _ —said Rosalynn in a low voice.

Cory was silent for a few seconds, then asked, “What about him? ”

Rosalynn hesitated for a moment.

“Does it look like you’re not in good shape from the news? _

Cory continued.

“She’s still in the operating room, but she should be fine,” Rosalynn assured her.

” Yeah ! Cory’s voice was even more breathy.

“My sweet boy, don’t cry,” Rosalynn comforted him. “Your sister will freak out if she sees you cry. _ _ ”

“Okay,” Cory replied.

At that point, it was Rosalynn’s turn to be examined.

“Mommy is going to have a checkup now. _ _ Behave yourself and stay with Grandma Hilaria. ”

“Okay~”

Paige took Rosalynn’s phone and comforted Cory some more, then waited outside the exam room.

Rosalynn’s exam went through the express lane, so the results came out quickly.

“Minor internal bleeding! Paige yelled, tears streaming down her face. “Why didn’t you come over for a checkup right away?!” ”

“The doctor said I’ll be fine resting. _ ”

“Your knee is broken too!” that

Rosalynn’s injuries were treated and she changed into clean clothes.

Although she looked less disheveled, she was still weak.

After that, he went back to the operating room on his IV drip.

Coincidentally, the team of lawyers Maddie found had just arrived.

Due to her broken leg, Rosalynn was sitting in a wheelchair, pushed

Seeing so many people suddenly arrive, Rosalynn’s expression darkened.

” How’s it going ? Bailey asked.

“I’ll tell you later,” Paige replied, not wanting those annoying people to hear about her precious’s injuries.

“What are you all here for? Rosalynn looked at the bodyguards with a poker face.

They also did not know what they had done wrong.

“Who allowed these random people to stay? Rosalynn asked, emphasizing each word.

Maddie’s face looked uncomfortable.

“I called them here. _ I am Wayne’s guardian...”

“Get them all out of here! Rosalynn impatiently interrupted without waiting for Maddie to finish!

“Young lady, you and President Silverman only have a romantic relationship, right? The only person who can ask people to leave here is President Silverman’s mother, Mrs. Fuller...”

The man who seemed to be the leader of the legal team adjusted his glasses and said calmly.

Gabriella, don’t think I don’t know! You know Wayne might not make it, right? So you’re trying to get rid of me in a hurry! He wants to take advantage of the situation and keep my son’s assets, right? Maddie yelled _with a twisted expression. ” Do not even think about it ! He is not married ! He does not have kids ! Without will ! His father and I are the only heirs to him! That includes Natalie’s antiques and jewelry; You won’t get any of it! ”

Rosalynn looked at Maddie and then smiled downcast eyes.

“Very good,” he applauded. _ _ “I’ll make sure to show him this side of you when Wayne wakes up. _ _ ”

Maddie clenched her teeth in anger.

“Get them out of here. _ —Ordered Rosalynn again.

Maddie refused to leave.

Then Rosalynn suddenly said, “Maddie, if you’re so mad, why don’t you go public with that incident? ”

Chapter 515

According to Rosalynn’s understanding of Maddie, she was the kind of person who would argue in a heartbeat.

Natalie’s scheming had completely ruined Maddie’s chance of having a child of her own.

So he hated Wayne with a passion.

However, very few people knew about it.

The media and the Silverman family still thought of the two as mother and son.

When the Silverman Group and the Bane Corporation had a son bioterrorist.

the headlines hinted at the animosity between them.

confrontation

he

It meant that not only had Natalie and Wayne hidden this fact well, but Maddie had, too.

Natalie's reason for doing so was to protect the reputation of Wayne and the Silverman family. But what about Maddie?

First, eliminate the idea of protecting the Silverman family and Wayne.

The only other reason left was...

Maddie wanted to keep her reputation. _

To have raised a child only to discover that it was not biologically hers would be a tremendous shame.

She had always boasted of her son's talent, which drew jealousy and disdain from others.

If she admitted that he was not her son, those who had envied her would surely mock her once they learned the truth.

So Maddie swallowed her pride.

Maddie's eyes widened and she instinctively looked nervously at the people around her.

Then she glared at Rosalynn. _ " Be quiet ! "

"Get lost," Rosalynn replied with a slight curve of her thin lips. "If I get angry, I won't care about anyone's reputation. You do not believe me? Test it. _ _ "

” Mrs . Jared, I understand his noble status, but I shouldn’t talk to elders like that about him! What happened to your upbringing as a member of the Jared family? Olivia spoke in a solemn tone. _

Rosalynn scoffed, “Hilaria will be here tonight. If you want to know , ask him face to face . _ _ _ _ ”

Chapter 515

Olivia’s expression immediately turned nasty. No matter how important Olivia was as a princess, she still had to show respect and deference when Hilaria visited the royal family.

“Aunt...” Olivia had a pleading look on her face as she looked at Maddie.

Olivia was well aware that Maddie was ruthless. Now that Wayne’s life hung in the balance, Olivia believed that she would not give up and leave for Wayne’s sake.

inheritance _

But unexpectedly...

“Gabriella, just wait! ”

Maddie gritted her teeth and spat out this threat. She motioned to the stunned lawyer’s representative.

Without looking back at Olivia, she walked away.

Coming to her senses, Olivia hurried after her.

Feeling exhausted, Rosalynn called Wayne’s bodyguard, “Keep an eye on things there and don’t let anyone bother you before Wayne wakes up. ”

” Understood . ”

The bodyguard left with a serious expression on his face.

Olivia followed Maddie to the elevator.

“Ms. Fuller, if you leave like this and something happens to Wayne, Gabriella will definitely mess with the inheritance! ”

As soon as Olivia finished speaking, Maddie, whose anger was still simmering, slapped Olivia across the face.

Olivia’s ears were ringing non-stop.

Her memories go back to seven years ago when she found out about Wayne's relationship with her. Without saying a word, Maddie slapped her in public.

Chapter 516

"You knew she was the heir to the Jared family, so why didn't you tell me before you called me? Maddie scolded her angrily: "Olivia, do you still hold a grudge against me for what happened then? _ So you did this on purpose, to make me look like a fool in front of her, right? "

"Ms. Fuller, I didn't! Olivia's eyes filled with tears and her cheek began to swell. "If I wanted to screw you over, why would I bother telling you to come to the hospital? _ _ _ _ You could have let Gabriella take all of Wayne's stuff, isn't that an even better way to get even? "

Maddie looked cruel, but the malice in her eyes had lessened.

"I don't want to be in the same place as that person. _ _ Once Wayne is no longer alive , I will go there with my team immediately ! And I will also get in touch with other people ! Hmph! What about the Jared family? This territory belongs to the Silverman family! "

Maddie seemed to have forgotten that the current Silverman family had already been absorbed by the Bane Corporation.

Olivia remained silent.

She had a vague feeling that there was something important hidden in the recent conversation between Gabriella and Maddie. Maddie seemed frightened by this matter and she had agreed to go.

What could have scared Maddie so much?

The two arrived at the cafe on the first floor. _ _

Maddie was still upset, and seeing Olivia's submissive attitude, she said indignantly, "Olivia, you're quite attractive, you know? You had Wayne completely in love, and it's been five or six years since Rosalynn's death. Why didn't you already have a baby? _ Are you wrong or something ?"

Olivia's face turned pale.

Maddie raised an eyebrow: "Or did Wayne never touch you? "

Olivia bit her lip: "He can never forget Mrs. Tesdal. "

"Poor girl. Maddie sneered,

Then he looked at Olivia's stomach and suddenly seemed to have an idea.

If Wayne was dead...

Wouldn't having a child make it more convenient to inherit the inheritance?

Even if he wasn't dead, considering Gabriella's strong personality, if Olivia had

Chapter 516

Wayne's daughter, she definitely couldn't take it and broke up with Wayne. _

In that case, Wayne would lose a strong supporter and gain a powerful enemy...

Maddie thought it was a good idea.

"Olivia, can you bear to let a woman who looks like Rosalynn take away everything that was supposed to be yours? Maddie reached over and placed her hand over Olivia's, her eyes widening with temptation.

"What can I do if I can't stand it? _ It's my fault..." Olivia's eyes filled with tears, a look of disappointment on her face.

"What if I have a way for you to conceive Wayne's child? Maddie asked, every word deliberate.

Olivia looked stunned, "Are you suggesting something deceptive?"

"Misleading? I don't get involved in that stuff," Maddie bragged, "After Wayne turned into a vegetable after the accident, Natalie and I were worried that he might die. So we had the doctors collect some of his sperm and keep it frozen. It should still be viable. "

Olivia bowed her head and fell silent.

Seeing her reaction, Maddie continued, "However, if you're not up for it, that's fine too. I can find another woman. _ "

" I am willing ! Olivia responded quickly. She_she She looked up to the upper deck and said, "Auntie, you know I've always had feelings for Wayne. _ _ If I can have a child for him , of course , I am ready ! "

"I'll take you for a medical examination later. If all goes well , we will arrange IVF as soon as possible , " Maddie said , feeling excited at the idea .

Olivia nodded obediently and continued to thank Maddie.

Maddie lowered her eyelids, hiding her scorn and cold smile.

This woman was really a fool.

Did she really think she would be allowed to conceive a child with Wayne? _ _

Maddie had no intention of using Olivia's eggs.

Chapter 517

Chapter 517

Holding a cup of water, Olivia suppressed the ecstasy in her heart. She had been planning to have Wayne's child for a while, but Wayne was always too cautious. He lived alone in the apartment where Rosalynn once resided. Even when he was on business trips and staying in hotels, he always had bodyguards outside her door.

Once, she went with Wayne to an art show. She had prepared in advance to drug him that night, share his bed, and take some of his semen. In case she couldn't get pregnant, she could still opt for in vitro fertilization. She had never expected her plans to be ruined by... > a child. _

Now, she knew that Maddie had what she wanted. Initially, she planned to slowly get closer to Maddie, win her favor, and, once she was pregnant, find a way to get rid of Maddie. After all, Wayne loved children so much. Since as long as she got pregnant, Wayne would certainly stay with her for life, even if it was for the child's sake. Unexpectedly, as soon as he received the news, something happened today. _

Surprisingly, Maddie also willingly brought up this matter. If Wayne were to pass away unluckily, having a child with him would also guarantee his status and wealth. _ Olivia wiped the tears from the corners of her eyes and faked a look of heartbroken despair.

Seeing this scene made Maddie even more convinced of her choice. Olivia, who loved Wayne so much, would no doubt agree to having Wayne's child. So how could she control this child to get the rights to Bane Corporation and Silverman Group?? After considering it, she decided to follow Natalie's example.

As soon as the child was born, he would immediately take it away. _ _ _ _ Afterwards, even if Olivia wanted to fight, all she had to do was deny that the child was hers. After all, running a DNA test and the like was useless. The two were secretly conspiring.

Wayne's surgery continued until the sky turned dark. During the operation, Baillie went to inquire about the situation. The wound was difficult to clean and the internal injuries were severe. _ _ An explosion from such a short distance, even Rosalynn, whom he had always been protecting, had minor internal injuries, let alone Wayne, who protected himself with her body.

After firing Olivia and Maddie, Rosalynn rarely spoke. She just sat there quietly, taking her medicine on time, changing her IV drip quickly, and even managed to eat a little food at night. Just after ten o'clock, Wayne was finally ejected. _from the operating room and sent to the ICU. _ _ _

"As long as he survives tonight, the critical period can be considered past," said the chief physician wearily. "The patient's will to survive is very strong. He really wants to live. _"

Rosalynn leaned against the window, looking through the thick glass into the room. Wayne's current state was truly pitiful. His head was wrapped in gauze, his face covered in scars, and he wore a breathing mask, looking shabby.

Chapter 517

Rosalynn's mind seemed to be contemplating something, but she could never comprehend those thoughts. Over and over, she was left with a single sentence: "Wayne, you must hold on, you must wake up! _ _"

Paige was constantly anxious. After she and Baillie dismissed the head doctor, she nervously began to mutter to Baillie, "She must wake up. _ _ What worries me the most now is whether her wound to her head will leave sequelae. How to become stupid... or what if he loses his memory? What if he lost his memory and turned into the annoying Wayne he used to be?"

Hearing this, Rosalynn didn't react. Even if she lost her memory, it wouldn't matter as long as she survived. _ _ _ _
