Chapter 41 Leon threatens to leave the Terror cartel.

Leon wouldn't wait to see Bethany so he drove to her house and it was Travis that answered the door.

Bethany was stunned to see him this early because she'd agreed that she'd meet up with him at their usual spot.

"Leon," she said with surprise smouldered in her tone.

Leon was utterly jealous that Travis was at her home so he asked "What's he doing here this early."

Bethany and Travis exchanged looks so Bethany crossed the distance between them and she wrapped her hands around Leon's neck "Travis came early to deliver some documents but he was on his way out."

Leon still found it hard to believe her words and it was evident on his expression so Travis said "ah yes anyway i better leave you love birds enjoy your morning," he left but he was burning with fury.

Chapter 42 Savage Cartel.

Hank was outraged at his son's words what in the world had gone wrong with him, he thought but he wasn't going to show his weakness in front of the crowd.

"Okay if its what you want then you can leave as far as i care but the moment you do so forget you are my son Leon and i mean it," blue veins were popping out his head.

"Your so selfish dad but no problem im leaving and im taking my boys with me."

Roshan was the first to stand up followed by Liam and by the time Hank knew it everybody except Raphael was up.

Seeing all his potential men leave by his son's side hurt him but he wasn't going to show his weakness infront of them.

Chapter 43 She became incoherent.

The next day, Bethany went over to Leon's place and what she saw dumbfounded her but it made her smile too though inwardly.

Putting on a hurt face she approached Leon "hon what in the world happened to you, who had the audacity to do this?"she said while checking his bruised face.

"It's really nothing to worry about."

"Hon you were injured and you're plainly saying it's nothing to worry about," she acted baffled at his words.

So she went ahead to bring the first aid kit to treat his wounds, after she was done she insisted that they needed to see the doctor though Leon was hesitant at first claiming that he wasn't really hurting.

During the examination Kyle kept stealing glances at Bethany and every time their eyes met a glint of light would spark between them causing Kyle to swallow hard.

Chapter 44 Long time friend.

Travis wouldn't take the pain he felt when he watched the woman he loved most cry out at this moment and he somehow found himself cry out as well so he hugged her tightly.

He coaxed her "it's okay Beth, cry it all out, my love."

She cried hysterically in his embrace and Travis decided to drive her away from the pain.

With her suggestion he drove off to the place that always brought her tranquillity it was by the river side.

Moving out of the car she told Travis she wanted to be alone for a while so she approached the shores and memories of Larissa and her playing in the water came flooding back.

A smile curved on her lips, she remembered how they would first jump in for a swim before actually delivering the orders to the different customers.

Chapter 45 Terror in the city.

"Oh Bethany, i didn't expect you this early, well sure who on earth would turn down a beauty like you," he said while gently placing a kiss on her cheek.

"Thank you Raphael, so how have you and your dad been well i had what Leon did and i should say i was petrified at the decision that he took, i mean why on earth would he do something as dreadful as that," she said meticulously and the look she displayed was one of utter surprise.

She knew she had to choose her words very scrupulously or else she would risk blowing up her cover in view of the fact that Raphael was quick-witted so she had to play her cards well.

Raphael let out a deep sigh "the damage has already been done and honestly there is nothing that can be done to change his mind."

Chapter 46 Terror in the city 2

Despite the anger that was boiling deep inside her she had to swallow it up, having Leon being suspicious of her was the last thing she wanted especially not at a time like this.

So she slowly managed to cool down "my love what I'm trying to say is innocent lives are being lost in this charade of yours."

"Charade, he laughed at her words, this isn't a charade Bethany the Savage cartel's hall mark and default strategy is brazen violence, we need to be tougher than anyone else and what better way to do it than terrorizing the city, besides i thought this wasn't a big deal to you why are you emotional all of a sudden," Leon asked with raised eyebrows.

Chapter 47 Seduction

The red deep V blackless mini dress left Leon mesmerized in a flood of things he wanted to do to her.

She knew the effect it had on him because he constantly kept stealing glances at her and she guessed right away that his pants were wet by now, though disgusting it was the only way to put out the burning fire between the cartels atleast for a while.

Leon wouldn't take it anymore so he crossed the distance between them and he got so close to her that she would feel his hot breath on her face.

"I've never seen you this resplendent before and you have no idea what i want to do to you now," he whispered in her ears and she could feel the desperacy in his tone causing her eyes to sweep down to the bulge in his pants.

Chapter 48 Why the sudden change of heart.

After the meeting, the two met up with Leon as they weren't content with all that he had addressed in the meeting.

"Why the sudden change of heart?" asked Roshan.

"Yeah man."

"Look guys do you trust me?" He asked intently.

"You know we do Leon."

"Good then quit with the doubts and questions and just do as i say, take it as us giving them the benefit of the doubt," he said and left them still bewildered with what had come up his mind.

Chapter 49 Atonement.

She rolled her big blue eyes and slowly massged her temples, Leon grew abit worried as to why she became silent suddenly.

"Beth my princess you there?"

"Ah...um... yes it's just that I'm not feeling that well," she lied with a low voice.

Leon got all anguished and it was evident with the way he rushed with his questions "what's wrong?"

"Nothing much it's just my time of the month so I'm feeling abit under the weather but there's no for you to worry."

Leon knew it was a very difficult time for women and so he suggested "well i guess I'll have to wait then, but do get enough rest and if it gets unbearable don't hesitate to call up Kyle." With that he hung up the phone after having their goodbyes said.

It was then that Kyle came up to mind so she got the phone and called him up .

Chapter 50 Stella.

It was full of so much love and care, Travis stopped when he noticed the salty taste in his mouth it was Bethany tearing.

So he pulled away from the kiss slowly and looked at her, the tears were now streaming like a river from her eyes.

Travis had been with her and grown to understand her deepest thoughts even without her expressing them, so he gently wiped the tears with the back of his hands and placed a kiss on her forehead whispering "its all gonna be fine my love we've got this" he kissed the tears away and hugged her tightly.

The saying that sometimes all we need in life is someone to hold you tight and kiss the pain away is truly authentic and Bethany did feel better after it all.
