

Read Novel Married At First Sight Chapter 2259

Married at First Sight Chapter 2259-The aunt immediately stood in front of Liberty, preventing the drunk from staring at Liberty. Then she pretended to be chatting and asked Liberty, "Is the child's father coming back soon?"

Liberty replied: "Soon."

Hank would be discharged from the hospital after staying for a while longer.

It was true that he would come back soon, and of course he would not come back to her.

She and Hank had been divorced for a year.

The aunt teased Sonny again: "Miss your father?"

Sonny replied honestly: "I think so, my mother took me to see my father on weekends."

The aunt smiled: "You went to see your father on the weekend."

Sonny nodded vigorously.

Liberty knew that the aunt did it on purpose to let the drunk know that there was a man in her family, but the man was on a business trip, but he was about to come back from the business trip, so don't bother her.

After hearing this, the drunk man didn't say a word.

On the first floor, the elevator door opened, and the aunt hurriedly pulled Liberty and Sonny out of the elevator.

The drunk man stood there motionless, and when Liberty walked past him, he said in a low voice: "I've been looking for you all night, you're a divorced woman, I know it."

Liberty's expression changed dramatically.

It turned out that she was being targeted by a drunk.

Last night, Duncan's bodyguard escorted her upstairs. Because of the drunk, she got out of the elevator before reaching her floor.

She didn't expect the drunk man to look for her all night. He wanted to know which floor she really lived on?

He also knew that she was a divorced woman.

As soon as Liberty got out of the elevator, she picked up his son and quickly walked out of the building.

In fact, Dinshasa Community was considered a very safe community. Residents living here had never been stolen or robbed.

This drunk man was probably a normal man before he lost his love.

He hadn't done anything to Liberty now, probably because he thought that Liberty was a divorced woman and single, so he took aim at Liberty.

Even so, Liberty was also frightened.

On the way to send Sonny to the kindergarten, Liberty remembered what Duncan persuaded her last night.

Should she accept the house presented to her by Serenity and Zachary?

Living in the Hoxmoor villas, this kind of thing would never happen again, right?

"Mom."

Sonny, who was sitting on the child safety seat, suddenly asked Liberty.

"Mom, that uncle just said that he was looking for you all night. Do you know that uncle? That uncle smells very strong of alcohol."

Sonny didn't like the smell of wine.

Whether it's his uncle, Uncle Duncan, or Uncle Josh, they all looked clean and refreshed, and they rarely smelled of alcohol or cigarettes.

Sonny: "Mom, he's drunk. He looks at you just like Uncle Duncan looks at you."

Liberty: "..."

Sonny was very smart. Although he didn't understand what the drunk man said.

But he could feel the intensity of the other party looking at his mom.

Just like the way Uncle Duncan looked at his mom.

Liberty: "Sonny, do you want to move?"

Sonny: "Where?, that's my home. Mom, do you want to move?"

Married at First Sight Chapter 2259-The aunt immediately stood in front of Liberty, preventing the drunk from staring at Liberty. Then she pretended to be chatting and asked Liberty, "Is the child's father coming back soon?"

Liberty replied: "Soon."

Hank would be discharged from the hospital after staying for a while longer.

It was true that he would come back soon, and of course he would not come back to her.

She and Hank had been divorced for a year.

The aunt teased Sonny again: "Miss your father?"

Sonny replied honestly: "I think so, my mother took me to see my father on weekends."

The aunt smiled: "You went to see your father on the weekend."

Sonny nodded vigorously.

Liberty knew that the aunt did it on purpose to let the drunk know that there was a man in her family, but the man was on a business trip, but he was about to come back from the business trip, so don't bother her.

After hearing this, the drunk man didn't say a word.

On the first floor, the elevator door opened, and the aunt hurriedly pulled Liberty and Sonny out of the elevator.

The drunk man stood there motionless, and when Liberty walked past him, he said in a low voice: "I've been looking for you all night, you're a divorced woman, I know it."

Liberty's expression changed dramatically.

It turned out that she was being targeted by a drunk.

Last night, Duncan's bodyguard escorted her upstairs. Because of the drunk, she got out of the elevator before reaching her floor.

She didn't expect the drunk man to look for her all night. He wanted to know which floor she really lived on?

He also knew that she was a divorced woman.

As soon as Liberty got out of the elevator, she picked up his son and quickly walked out of the building.

In fact, Dinshasa Community was considered a very safe community. Residents living here had never been stolen or robbed.

This drunk man was probably a normal man before he lost his love.

He hadn't done anything to Liberty now, probably because he thought that Liberty was a divorced woman and single, so he took aim at Liberty.

Even so, Liberty was also frightened.

On the way to send Sonny to the kindergarten, Liberty remembered what Duncan persuaded her last night.

Should she accept the house presented to her by Serenity and Zachary?

Living in the Hoxmoor villas, this kind of thing would never happen again, right?

"Mom."

Sonny, who was sitting on the child safety seat, suddenly asked Liberty.

"Mom, that uncle just said that he was looking for you all night. Do you know that uncle? That uncle smells very strong of alcohol."

Sonny didn't like the smell of wine.

Whether it's his uncle, Uncle Duncan, or Uncle Josh, they all looked clean and refreshed, and they rarely smelled of alcohol or cigarettes.

Sonny: "Mom, he's drunk. He looks at you just like Uncle Duncan looks at you."

Liberty: "..."

Sonny was very smart. Although he didn't understand what the drunk man said.

But he could feel the intensity of the other party looking at his mom.

Just like the way Uncle Duncan looked at his mom.

Liberty: "Sonny, do you want to move?"

Sonny: "Where?, that's my home. Mom, do you want to move?"