Married at First Sight Chapter 2332-Zachary went upstairs.

As soon as he opened the door and entered, he heard Serenity vomiting from the bathroom.

Without exception, as long as she woke up, she would throw up in the bathroom soon.

“Serenity.”

Zachary quickly walked into the bathroom, walked up to Serenity’s back, and patted her on the back distressedly, “Every day is no exception. He vomits as soon as he wakes up. This little guy loves to torment people too much.”

Probably a naughty little guy.

“Pregnancy reactions vary from person to person. It doesn’t mean that those who suffer from morning sickness are children who love to torment others.” After Serenity vomited, she rinsed the sink, Zachary brought a tissue to wipe her mouth, and she spoke for the baby in her belly.

Zachary: “I can’t wait to have morning sickness for you.”

Serenity: “If you can help me with morning sickness, you can give birth to a baby by yourself, and save us women from childbearing.”

Zachary was speechless.

He helped Serenity out.

After sitting down on the sofa in the room, he went to pour Serenity a glass of warm water, and said, “Evan is here. He’s here to see grandma.”

Grandma May lived here, and those uncles often came to visit the elderly. Serenity was used to seeing uncles every day.

Zachary: “The main reason is to let grandma take back the mission, so that he doesn’t have to go after his wife.”

Serenity said with a smile, “It’s just whimsical, it’s just beyond my control.”

“That’s what I said too.” Zachary kissed his beloved wife on the face. He took a sip, said: “Seren, we are indeed a husband and wife, and we all say the same thing.”

Then, he told Serenity about the dream Evan had, so that Serenity could eat melons more comprehensively.

Serenity: “Could Evan be reborn? Or is his future wife reborn, and now his red luan star is moving, so he keeps dreaming? I have seen such plots in many rebirth novels.”

Zachary: “... When did you start reading novels?”

“The bookstore I run doesn’t like reading novels like Jasmine does. Every time Jasmine reads a novel, she tells me about the contents of the book, so I remember them.”

Zachary said: “It is impossible for people to be reborn, who can be reborn? Novels are all fiction, and they cannot be taken as real. Rebirth and rebirth—you have to die to be born. Evan is so big that there have been several accidents, and all the accidents have happened but were not life-threatening.”

“Never even passed out.” Zachary added a sentence.

He smiled and touched his beloved wife’s head again, “What’s this head thinking?”

“That’s what I said, and I don’t believe in rebirth. When a person dies like a lamp goes out, how can there be a chance to start again? So We should cherish the present, cherish our own lives, and don’t think that we can be reincarnated after death.”

“Whether you can be reincarnated after death, who knows, everyone who knows is dead.”

Zachary didn’t believe in ghosts and gods at first, That is, the master subverted his worldview.

“I think the other half of Evan is wearing a human skin mask, and the photo grandma gave to Evan is the real face of the other party, and what Evan sees in his dream is the woman wearing a human skin mask.”

“Evan investigates slowly; it belongs to his story; we are just spectators.”

Serenity drank half a cup of warm water, then stood up, “I’ll wash it first.”

Zachary got up, followed her into the bathroom, watched her wash, worried that she would vomit again while washing.
