

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1513

Chapter 1513

James removed the clothing and mask of the unconscious disciple of the Gu Sect and wore them. Then, he began searching for the abducted martial artists in the underground temple without any fear of his identity being uncovered.

After searching for some time, he realized that the underground palace was huge. The deeper it was, the more heavily guarded it was. Even he did not dare recklessly infiltrate the area.

“Argh!”

“Release me!”

“You b*stards!”

James could vaguely hear the screams of agony from a distance away. Looking in the direction in front of him, he had a feeling that was the research laboratory. As he came here to save the abducted martial artists and to destroy the research laboratory, he did not act recklessly but instead left silently.

James believed his movements to be surreptitious. However, his every action was monitored by the Gu Sect.

“Mhm.”

A smile crept up on Lucjan’s face, and he said, “He has taken the bait. Now, we wait.”

At that moment, James had left the underground palace surreptitiously and met up with Jackson and the others.

Upon his return, Jackson asked, “What’s the situation inside?”

James told him honestly, “It’s crowded with disciples of the Gu Sect. However, the abducted martial artists are also in there. The Gu Sect must have been in the process of injecting Gu venom into their bodies. As we’re running out of time, we should carry out our rescue operation at once.”

“But how?”

Jackson’s expression turned grim, and he said, “There must be traps lying in wait for us in there. If we simply barge in recklessly, we will fall into their traps.”

“We’ll fight to the end!”

An ancient martial artist brandished his sword, “What is there to be afraid of? There are so many of us here. Not only that, we have the leadership of James Caden. Even if Lucjan Owen shows up, we will tear him to pieces!”

James fell silent.

Although he had scouted the area a moment ago, he was unsure what was inside. Even so, he planned to charge in right away.

He looked at the martial artists behind him and said, “Everyone, danger awaits us the moment we step foot inside. We may not leave this place alive. I hope that you reconsider your decision.”

“I have a clear conscience!”

“To be able to die for a righteous cause is worth it!”

“Give the order, James!”

The ancient martial artists were righteous people. They lived for the sake of preserving peace in the ancient martial world. To them, some things were more important than even their lives.

“Good.”

James pulled out the Blade of Justice.

Swish!

The sword left its sheath, and it radiated a golden light. The Sword Energy exuded at that instant made the martial artists around James stagger backward.

“What a weapon...”

Jackson looked at the Blade of Justice in James’ hand and exclaimed, “As expected of the Primordial Sword forged by King Quavon.”

Delainey had told Jackson about the grinding process of the Blade of Justice. However, he had never witnessed it before.

Now, he could not help but exclaim.

James raised the Blade of Justice in his hand and looked at the entrance, yelling, “Charge!”

“Charge!” they roared.

James charged toward the entrance, and the martial artists behind him all brandished their swords and followed after him.

The powerful aura they exuded shook the earth.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1514

Chapter 1514

“Charge!” they roared.

Under James’ leadership, the martial artists charged.

Swish!

Sword Energy was used to destroy the surveillance camera of the underground palace’s entrance.

In the underground palace...

The men monitoring the surveillance camera stood up and yelled, “Q-Quick, report to the higher-ups that the surveillance camera has been destroyed.”

After hearing of the situation, he immediately gave the order, “Charge at the enemy all at once. You’re only allowed to retreat and lure them in once you have suffered great casualties. Don’t worry, your families will be treated well.”

Hearing that, Lucjan’s subordinates all brandished their weapons.

At that moment, James and the others had charged through the entrance. Upon entering the entrance, fully-armed men fired their machine guns in their direction.

Rat-tat-tat!

James, who was in the lead, swung his sword, and terrifying Sword Energy burst forth. Like a laser beam, all the fully-armed men standing in James’ way collapsed to the ground. Their limbs were severed, and some even had their waists chopped in half.

Meanwhile, James completely deflected the flying bullets.

After defeating the soldiers with no cultivation base, the disciples of the Gu Sect appeared. However, they stood no chance against James and the others. James and the others defeated them with ease and ventured further deeper into the passageway. Since James had been in the underground palace just a moment ago, he had a rough idea of where the abducted ancient martial artists were located. Meanwhile, the Gu Sect disciples were also retreating in the same direction as James was heading in.

Boom!

After James and his gang entered the passageway, a deafening sound came from the back.

They turned and realized that a stone wall had blocked the path behind them. Some turned back and pushed the stone wall. However, it did not budge at all.

“Oh no, we’ve fallen into a trap.”

Their faces paled.

James hurriedly catalyzed True Energy and slashed the Blade of Justice at the stone wall with tremendous force. Powerful Sword Energy burst forth and struck the stone wall. However, it merely made a slight dent in the wall.

“Hahaha!”

A burst of laughter boomed.

Everyone turned their heads and looked for the source.

In the distance, two people could be found standing on high ground. One was Lucjan while the other was an elderly man wearing a green robe with the word ‘Zayden’ carved on it.

“You’ve kept me waiting, James.”

Lucjan looked at James and the martial artists of the ancient martial world with a mischievous grin on his face.

“It’d be a shame to kill you. However, since you insisted on making my life difficult, I have no choice but to get rid of you. I will first capture you and lure the others here. After killing you, I will inject Gu venom into your body and control you.”

“Lucjan...” James’ face darkened, and he said coldly, “You will not leave this place alive.”

Holding the Blade of Justice in his hand, he charged violently toward Lucjan. Meanwhile, Lucjan hastily retreated. By the time James arrived at Lucjan’s location, he was already gone without a trace. Just as he was about to give chase, unusual changes occurred in the surroundings.

This was an underground palace around 1000 square meters in area. Steel plates suddenly emerged from the surrounding walls.

Boom!

Just as James was dazed by the changes, a loud noise reverberated throughout the underground palace.

James turned his head and realized that the passageway further ahead was blocked by a stone wall.

“Oh no.”

At that moment, James had a bad feeling.

He knew that this place would be full of traps. However, to save the abducted martial artists and annihilate the Gu Sect, he came nonetheless.

He hurriedly retreated and met up with Jackson and the others.

Wearing a grim expression, Jackson said, “The way back has been blocked.”

Crack!

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1515

Chapter 1515

A noise echoed throughout the underground palace.

“What’s that noise?”

Distraught, everyone scanned their surroundings.

At that moment, tiny holes appeared on the steel plates. Then, a strange and unpleasant odor permeated the air.

James’ face darkened as he yelled, “Hold your breath, everyone! This is poisonous gas!”

Everyone held their breaths.

Soon, the poisonous gas filled the entire underground palace.

Swish!

An arrow was fired.

James raised his hand and slashed the Blade of Justice in his hand, which accurately slashed the incoming arrow into two.

Swish!

One arrow... Two arrows... Ten arrows...

More and more arrows were fired from all sides.

The trapped martial artists pulled out their swords and deflected the arrows. Although the arrows were fired at great speed, they managed to react in time and dodge the arrows. So, the arrows could not deal any effective damage to them.

However, at that moment, a tiny steel wire suddenly came from nowhere. Then, steel wires began striking the martial artists from all sides at great speeds.

Unable to dodge in time, a martial artist's arm was severed.

"Damn it!" James cursed.

Then, he raised the Blade of Justice and performed the Thirteen Heavenly Swords to their perfection. Thirteen waves of Sword Energy sliced at the steel wires. However, the steel wires seemed to be made of extremely solid material. Not even the Sword Energy of James' Thirteen Heavenly Swords could slice them.

In just a short amount of time, the ancient martial artists who came along with James began suffering great casualties.

In a room in the underground palace...

Seeing the desperate state James and the others were in, Lucjan burst into a peal of laughter.

Ezekiel who was beside him stroked his beard and said smilingly, "The Thousand-Machinery Formation is ever-changing and unpredictable. This is only just the beginning. If they still can't comprehend the secret of the formation, they'll be trapped inside until they die of exhaustion."

At the same time, James continued dodging the attacks. As he had to be on alert for any incoming arrow projectiles while taking care to evade the steel wires which would appear out of nowhere, he was in a rather compromising position.

Swish!

“You’ve kept me waiting, James.”

Swish!

Sword Energy burst forth and struck the stone wall in the distance. However, his Sword Energy could not deal any effective damage to the stone wall.

Just as James was busy evading the projectiles, a huge web suddenly fell from above. Unable to dodge in time, an ancient martial artist was ensnared. The more he struggled, the tighter the web became. In just a short amount of time, he was completely immobilized. Then, a passageway appeared below him, and he fell into the depths. The passageway was sealed shut immediately after.

Soon, more and more ancient martial artists were trapped and fell into the depths.

"James, this is the Thousand-Machinery Formation!"

Jackson's voice came from afar.

Upon hearing this, James momentarily froze before asking, "What is the Thousand-Machinery Formation?"

"It is a formation created by Lazarus Zayden, a renowned tactician and strategist of the Three Kingdoms Period. It is created specifically to deal with extremely powerful martial artists. Legend has it that this formation has a thousand different forms. Even a legendary martial artist would be trapped inside if he doesn't know the secret behind the formation."

Jackson's attention was diverted. At that moment, he was ensnared by the web. As a seventh-rank grandmaster, he catalyzed True Energy in the hopes of breaking free, but no matter how hard he tried, the web did not budge at all. In an instant, the ground below him gave way, and he also fell into the depths. "Mr. Cabral!"

James rushed toward him in vain. He was too late.

At that moment, only he remained in the underground palace. Everyone else had been captured.

"Damn it!" James cursed.

He knew that this place would be full of traps. However, he did not expect it to be the terrifying Thousand- Machinery Formation.

“What should I do?” James panicked.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1516

Chapter 1516

To James' consternation, everyone else had been captured. Not only did he fail to save the abducted martial artists, but he also lost everyone he brought along.

He swiftly pulled his phone out. However, before he could call for help, a steel wire instantly sliced his phone into two.

Panicking, he even dropped the Blade of Justice onto the ground. Immediately, the passageway beneath the Blade of Justice gave way and swiftly sealed shut.

“Damn it all!”

James' face darkened.

Immediately, he catalyzed the Invincible Body Siddhi.

His skin turned bronze in color, and a glimmering bronze halo could be vaguely seen radiating from his body. This was a sign of the Invincible Body Siddhi's peak form.

At that moment, James' True Heavenly Yang Energy flowed throughout his body and permeated his limbs. Clank!

An arrow struck him, and a clear sound could be heard. Though the arrow was fired with great force, it could not penetrate James' Invincible Body Siddhi.

At the same time...

Upon seeing James' Invincible Body Siddhi, Lucjan stood up and exclaimed while wearing a grim expression, “What is this? How is it so terrifying?”

He looked at Ezekiel and asked, “You're more knowledgeable than I am. Do you know what martial art this is?”

Ezekiel fixed his gaze on the monitor screen.

“The Invincible Body Siddhi...”

After a while, he uttered those words.

“What the hell is that?” Lucjan asked puzzledly.

He never heard of this martial art before.

“What is the Invincible Body Siddhi? What are its origins?”

“This is a long story...” Taking a deep breath, Ezekiel said, “I saw it in the records of my family’s ancient text. This is a martial art from a thousand years ago. It originated around 1300 years ago.”

“Tell me more about it.”

Ezekiel continued, “A millennium ago, the Prince of Orchid Mountain was the most powerful individual of his time. However, before his age, there was a void.”

“A void?” Lucjan asked puzzledly, “What do you mean?”

Ezekiel explained, “The era before the Prince of Orchid Mountain was a prosperous one. There were even ninth-rank grandmasters at that time. However, something happened and caused a void. In the span of a hundred years, no powerful martial artist emerged from the Martial Heaven Continent until the rise of the Prince of Orchid Mountain.

“Have you ever heard of the Prince of Orchid Mountain’s master?”

Lucjan asked, “No, who was he?”

Ezekiel explained, “I don’t know his name either. Legend has it that a person called the Demon once guided the Prince of Orchid Mountain. The man called the Demon once appeared in Medical Valley and seemed to have some sort of connection with it.”

“Is the Demon that powerful? Was he the one who passed down the Invincible Body Siddhi?”

“No...” Ezekiel shook his head and said, “The Demon’s signature martial art skill was Demonic Breath while his martial art was Murderous Energy. They were created by the Demon to counter the Siddhi.”

“Are you perhaps referring to James’ Invincible Body Siddhi?”

Ezekiel nodded and continued, “Yes. Meanwhile, the one who created the Invincible Body Siddhi was a powerful martial artist who was trained in the art of medicine.”

However, these events occurred a millennium ago. Records of the Martial Heaven Continent in the ancient text only began from the era of the Prince of Orchid Mountain. Few knew anything of the past prior to that period.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1517

Chapter 1517

Whether it be the Invincible Body Siddhi or Murderous Energy, they were created by figures who existed prior to the era of the Prince of Orchid Mountain.

There were no records of them in the ancient text. Though the Zaydens were a powerful and influential family, records were few and far in between. He did not know the specifics either.

Taking a deep breath, Ezekiel continued, "If James truly received the inheritance of the figures of a millennium ago, he must have Crucifier on him."

"Crucifier?"

Lucjan was lost in thought. He knew that James had some silver needles which he frequently used, but he did not pay much attention to them.

He asked, "What is Crucifier?"

"I'm not sure either. After all, I've only seen bits and pieces of its information in my family's ancient text. I only know that it can bring the dead back to life."

Upon hearing this, Lucjan looked at James, who was desperately trying to avoid the projectiles of the Thousand-Machinery Formation. Then, a hint of greed and avarice flashed across his face. "I never expected him to have so many treasures in his possession. No, I can't allow him to die just yet. I'll have to interrogate him about the treasures he has."

At that moment, a disciple of the Gu Sect walked over to them with a sword and knelt, saying, "Sir, this is James' weapon."

Lucjan took the Blade of Justice and waved it, "This is a good sword."

Ezekiel said, "Let me see."

Lucjan gave him the sword.

Upon scrutinizing the Blade of Justice, a bright smile crept up on Ezekiel's face, and he said, "T-This is the Primordial Sword forged by King Quavon!"

“Primordial Sword? Is it powerful?” Lucjan asked.

“Of course!” Ezekiel explained, “This sword is forged with Ascenium Steel and possesses unbelievable powers. In my family’s ancient text, it is said that this sword comes with the First Sword Art. Once you comprehend the First Sword Art, the true power of the Primordial Sword will be unleashed. For example, you can easily defeat a ninth-rank grandmaster with this sword as an eighth-rank grandmaster.”

Upon hearing this, Lucjan’s face lit up. “Really?”

Ezekiel said, “This information was passed down by my ancestors. I don’t know the specifics myself.”

“In that case, where is the First Sword Art?”

“The First Sword Art disappeared alongside King Quavon’s demise. If I’m not mistaken, it should be inside King Quavon’s Mausoleum.”

Upon hearing this, an idea emerged in Lucjan’s mind. He planned to head to King Quavon’s Mausoleum and search for the First Sword Art after resolving this matter.

Then, the two began discussing the history of a millennium ago.

Meanwhile, James was trapped in the Thousand-Machinery Formation.

The traps were simply too numerous. Even though James was temporarily unscathed due to the Invincible Body Siddhi, he was in a tough spot. If not for the Invincible Body Siddhi, he would not even have survived this long.

At that moment, the steel wires underwent some changes.

They began crossing and intersecting and created a steel web. As the gap was only a few centimeters apart, James could not evade the attack. Backed into a corner, he catalyzed True Energy and struck.

Majestic True Heavenly Energy struck the steel web. However, nothing came out of it. Even though James’ True Energy was terrifyingly strong, it could not destroy the steel web.

James grabbed a steel wire in desperation. However, his hand was instantly pierced. No matter how hard he tried tugging at the web, it simply would not budge. He was gradually confined to a small limited space. In the end, he was trapped.

Seeing this, he performed the Invincible Body Siddhi to its fullest extent to prevent the steel web from trapping him in place.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1518

Chapter 1518

James was backed to a corner by the steel web. As the web slowly contracted, he found himself confined in a space that slowly diminished in size. James catalyzed True Energy and struck the web. However, the web was extremely durable. After being pushed away by James' True Energy, it slowly contracted once more and trapped James firmly inside.

Though James had the Invincible Body Siddhi, the bronze halo on the surface of his skin was already showing cracks. The steel wire was now in contact with his body.

A vein popped out in his neck, and he performed the Invincible Body Siddhi in its peak form. No matter how bizarre the steel wire was, it could not trap him inside.

"Curse you!" James roared, and power exploded from within his body. The web immediately shattered.

This scene was captured by the surveillance camera.

Upon seeing this, Ezekiel said praisingly, "Not bad... As expected of the Invincible Body Siddhi... It was able to shatter my Thousand-Machinery Web. However, this is only just the beginning. I'm curious to see how long more he can last."

James could finally have a brief respite after shattering the Thousand-Machinery Web. He wiped off the sweat on his forehead and scanned his surroundings.

He was surrounded by stone walls on all sides. Previously, he could not destroy them even using the Sword Energy of the Thirteen Heavenly Swords.

James did not understand anything about Magic Circles or their theories and principles. He headed toward the blocked passageway with caution. Then, he catalyzed True Heavenly Energy and struck with all his might.

Boom!

Powerful force struck the wall. In that instant, the earth shook.

However, the wall was unscathed.

"Damn it, what the hell is this wall made of? Why can't I destroy it no matter how hard I try?"

James was getting anxious. Apart from him, everyone else had been captured. He had to find the exit as soon as possible and save them all, or else their lives could be in danger. He was here to save the abducted martial artists. Even if he could not accomplish his objective, he should at least bring those he brought alongside him back home safely.

As he contemplated how to make his escape, he could vaguely hear the sound of cogwheels coming from somewhere.

Then, the iron door before him opened, and stone figures armed with swords charged in.

Meanwhile, in the other room...

Ezekiel said smilingly, "These stone figures were specially created to defeat powerful martial artists."

Lucjan looked at the eighteen stone figures through the monitor screen. He was puzzled, 'How did these stone figures move?'

As if sensing the confusion in Lucjan's mind, Ezekiel said while smiling, "They are created through the combination of ancient engineering and high technology. In essence, they are robots. However, they are fundamentally different in many regards. Just sit back and watch the show."

"Mhm." Lucjan nodded his head.

As the stone figures charged at James, the earth seemed to shudder. Seeing this, James unconsciously staggered backward. However, as he accidentally stepped into the underground palace, the Magic Circle was activated once more, and countless arrows were fired toward him.

James catalyzed the Invincible Body Siddhi and deflect the arrows.

At that moment, the eighteen stone figures charged at him.

James wanted to seize the opportunity and charge out of the iron door. However, almost immediately, the iron door slammed shut.

A stone figure came swinging with its stone sword.

Unafraid, James raised his hand and blocked the attack. At that moment, he felt a terrifying pressure. Unable to withstand it, he hurriedly stepped back and dodged the attack. At the same time, he struck the stone figure with his palm.

The stone figure staggered backward. However, its body was unscathed.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1519

Chapter 1519

James was stunned. As an eighth-rank grandmaster, a single blow from his fist would flatten even a mountain. Now, however, the stone figure was completely unscathed. What were the stone figures made of?

While he was lost in contemplation, the other stone figures launched their attacks. Their positioning allowed them to attack James from all sides. Though James utilized all of his strength to meet them in battle, he could only push them away and not destroy them.”

“Damn it!”

While he was distracted, his back was struck by the stone sword. Even with the Invincible Body Siddhi shielding his body, he could feel the weight of a mountain crushing his back. At that moment, the Blood Energy inside his body churned.

“F*ck all this!” James cursed and swiftly dodged the attack.

Meanwhile, upon witnessing this scene from the monitor screen, Lucjan burst into a peal of laughter.” Your Thousand-Machinery Formation is truly formidable.”

“Of course!” Wearing a smug look on his face, Ezekiel said, “This is a signature martial art skill passed down from my ancestors. By combining high technology, the might of the Thousand-Machinery Formation has reached even greater heights. This is the Eighteen Golems Formation, one of the changes of the Thousand-Machinery Formation. Even if James could defeat them all, there will be more terrifying things awaiting him at the back.”

Lucjan said smilingly, “Even an eighth-rank grandmaster stands no chance against this.”

“Just sit back, relax, and enjoy the show.”

The two simply sat back and watched the show.

Meanwhile, James was in a deadly struggle for his life. Without the Blade of Justice, he could not perform the Thirteen Heavenly Swords. Only the Blithe Fist of Abomination remained. However, as he had not gained great insight into the Blithe Fist of Abomination, he only learned the first two fists.

Boom!

Powerful True Energy struck a stone figure, which was immediately sent flying and smashed into the wall. Then, it collapsed to the ground. However, the body remained intact. It simply stood up and charged toward James once more.

James' expression turned grim.

Though he knew that this place would be full of traps, he had greatly underestimated Lucjan.

At that moment, a steel wire fell from his sleeves. It was Crucifier.

Holding the steel wire in his hand, he swiftly appeared behind a stone figure and wrapped the wire around its neck. Then, he pulled with great force. The stone figure, which could not be shattered by True Energy, instantly had its head severed by Crucifier's steel wire.

Only after severing the head of the stone figure could James peak into the interior of the machinery. He could see many integrated circuits and even some circuit boards.

"I guess only Crucifier would never fail me." A grin crept up on his face.

Then, he struck. In less than a minute, all eighteen stone figures were shattered into tiny pieces on the ground.

Upon seeing this, Ezekiel was enraged. He roared, "You b*stard, these are stone figures that I took a long time to make!"

Just as James breathed a sigh of relief, the Thousand-Machinery Formation changed once more. He could once again hear the sound of cogwheels.

Before he could even react, a mirror suddenly appeared on the stone wall. In an instant, rows of mirrors filled the stone wall. Then, a ray of light appeared on the stone. With its appearance, the mirror began reflecting the light, which illuminated the entire underground palace. Blinded by the light, James immediately shut his eyes. Even so, he could feel the harsh glare of the light.

Buzz...

Just as he shut his eyes, a buzzing sound came from his surroundings. The sound messed with his sense of hearing.

He tried opening his eyes to have a rough understanding of the situation. However, the harsh glare of the light almost blinded him.

Then, a spear struck his back from nowhere. Even with the Invincible Body Siddhi, he staggered backward upon being stuck by the terrifying force.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1520

Under the harsh glare of the radiance, James could not open his eyes. Meanwhile, the buzzing sound coming from his surroundings was affecting his concentration. At that moment, he could not see the situation around him.

Then, a spear struck his back. As the spear was launched with great power, he was still somewhat affected even though he was uninjured.

Upon seeing this, Lucjan suddenly stood up.

“What are you trying to do?” Ezekiel asked.

Lucjan’s face darkened. “James is too strong. I’ll go there personally and finish him off. Otherwise, something unexpected might happen.”

Lucjan knew this was the perfect opportunity to subdue James. Once James broke the formation again, things would quickly become troublesome.

As he said that, he turned to leave. When he arrived at the area James was in, he put on an eye mask that could block out the harsh glare of the light.

At that moment, James was contemplating the countermeasures while trying to dodge the projectiles. Now, the only option he had was to break the mirrors as soon as possible. With that idea in mind, he swiftly charged toward the stone wall.

Just as he was about to charge toward the stone wall, he sensed a dangerous aura and hurriedly dodged in time. Then, a sword landed in the area where he was in.

He hurriedly opened and shut his eyes. In that brief instant, he had a glimpse of Lucjan who was wearing an eye mask. Meanwhile, the sword Lucjan was holding in his hand was the Blade of Justice.

“Hmph... You have pretty good reflexes.”

Lucjan laughed.

His laughter boomed throughout the underground palace. Somehow, an unknown device meant to enhance one’s volume must have been planted in the surroundings. Even an almost inaudible sound would have a great impact on James. Thus, Lucjan’s voice struck him like a roar of thunder, and he began bleeding from his ear.

“I will tear you to pieces, Lucjan!”

James clenched his fists and struck.

However, how would he strike Lucjan in the situation he was in?

Lucjan made his way to James' back in the blink of an eye and struck with his sword.

James could sense the sword's movement. However, it was too late.

The Blade of Justice pierced his body. Even though he was unscathed, the powerful force made his Blood Energy boil, and he vomited a mouthful of blood. Staggering backward, he smashed into the stone wall.

A smile crept up on James' face. Then, he raised his arm and struck the mirror with his fist.

Crack!

The mirror shattered.

James catalyzed True Energy and ran full speed ahead, dodging Lucjan's attacks while striking the mirrors.

"Damn it!"

Lucjan cursed as he pursued James.

His speed was comparable to James'.

All James wanted was to shatter the mirrors. Once the blinding light was gone, he could see his surroundings clearly.

After such a long period of fierce battle, his True Energy had been severely depleted, and his movements were becoming duller.

Lucjan swung his sword.

James could only be on the receiving end of the sword. The bronze halo enveloping his body had already been destroyed. The Blade of Justice only left an indiscernible mark on his body. However, Lucjan's strength was immense. Even if James was unscathed on the outside, he was injured on the inside. By the time James finished smashing the mirrors, he had suffered grave internal injuries.

At that moment, he opened his eyes and looked at Lucjan in the distance. Wiping off the blood trace on his lips, his expression darkened.

"Lucjan, this is the end for you."

In the blink of an eye, he appeared before Lucjan and struck him in the chest. Lucjan was immediately sent flying.
