

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1561

Chapter 1561

“Deep in an underground cavern in Mount Littleroot, there’s a map left behind by our forefather. It contains the layout of the booby traps within King Quavon’s Mausoleum.

“In the past, our ancestors also had a hand in constructing King Quavon’s Mausoleum.

Unfortunately, our forefather ended up being buried alive within it. However, he knew of his fate and secretly sent out the mausoleum’s layout after it was successfully built.

“If our ancestor was telling the truth, the Primordial Sword and First Sword Art manual are buried within King Quavon’s Mausoleum.

“This is our family’s biggest secret, and only one family member in each generation can know of this information.

“My time is almost up, so I wanted to pass it on to you.

If you have the chance, you must go to the underground cavern in Mount Littleroot and find the floor plan of King Quavon’s Mausoleum that our forefather left behind.

You’ll need to then use it to find the Primordial Sword and acquire the First Sword Art.

“I’m leaving the Blithes in your capable hands.”

After he finished speaking, Winston suddenly raised his hand.

A powerful force gathered in his old and wrinkled palm.

The force suddenly lifted Donovan off the ground.

He felt a powerful True Energy flowing into him from the palm that Winston placed on his forehead.

“Grand Patriarch, you... what’re you doing?”

“Since my time has come, I can’t let my cultivation base go to waste.

Our family also has another signature martial art technique called Energy Redirection, which allows us to transfer our cultivation to our descendants.

“I’m passing on the True Energy I’ve gathered during my lifetime to you. I hope you don’t disappoint me. Our family’s future depends on you.”

Winston's words drifted into his ears.

"Remember, our family's signature martial art techniques are stored in the holy site located downwind of the mountain.

Although you're the patriarch, you've never been permitted entry before this.

After I pass, you may enter the holy site freely. All our family's martial art techniques are the best in the world. If you can master even one, it'll be enough to conquer the world..."

Winston's voice gradually grew weaker.

The True Energy from his body also became weaker.

After an hour or so, he was on the brink of death.

At that moment, Donovan felt a potent energy coursing in his body, and it felt like he was about to burst.

He sat on the ground and adjusted himself to fully absorb Winston's True Energy.

A day later, he managed to completely absorb Winston's True Energy.

In doing so, he had successfully entered the median of the eighth rank.

After he had absorbed the energy, he hurriedly stood up to support Winston who was seated beside him in a lotus position with his head hung limply.

However, Winston had already lost all traces of life.

Thump.

Winston's body immediately fell to the ground.

"Grand Patriarch, I won't let you down!

"I must find the floorplan left behind by our ancestor and acquire the Primordial Sword and First Sword Art within King Quavon's Mausoleum. I'll definitely lead the Blithes to great heights and make us the mightiest family in this world."

Donovan knelt on the ground and made a vow to the now-deceased elder.

Then, he shouted, "Our Grand Patriarch has left us. Prepare an honorable burial!"

His voice reverberated throughout Mount Littleroot.

Soon, other members of the Blithes appeared.

The family members rushed over and kneeled together upon seeing Winston's lifeless body on the ground.

Donovan left hastily to make funeral arrangements and prepare a coffin for Winston.

The Blithes family appointed a funeral officiant for Winston's funeral.

They held a low-key funeral and did not publicly disclose Winston's passing.

While the Blithes were holding Winston's funeral, an uninvited guest suddenly appeared in Mount Littleroot.

It was Tobias.

Tobias had come for one person- Winston.

He planned to absorb Winston's cultivation base to raise his strength to a higher level.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1562

Chapter 1562

Western Border, Mount Littleroot.

A man who looked to be in his 40s walked toward the base of the mountain.

The person was dressed in fashionable, modern clothing.

He also carried a long sword on his back.

The presence of the long sword was jarring and stood out over his entire outfit.

"Who's there?"

As soon as Tobias showed up, he was stopped by the Blithes' guards.

The guards immediately pointed their guns at the approaching Tobias.

"This place is Mount Littleroot. Outsiders are not allowed, so leave quickly. Otherwise..."

Tobias looked at the Blithes' guards and his lips raised into a faint smile.

He lost to the Blithes' paragon in the past.

For 20 long years, he had been brooding over the defeat.

He had always been afraid of the Blithe Fist of Abomination. Back when James was captured, he did not dare to oppose them directly and only sent Maxine to check on the situation.

This has changed now. He was no longer afraid of the Blithes.

He walked toward the guards casually.

Looking at the men before him, a sinister smile crept on his face, and he unsheathed the long sword he carried on his back.

He drew the long sword out of its scabbard in one fluid motion.

Before the guards could process what had happened, Tobias had already dashed halfway up the mountain. They did not even see him draw his sword.

All of a sudden, the guards at the mountain-foot collapsed into a pool of blood on the ground.

He sheathed the long sword back in its scabbard.

Then, he ascended the mountain step by step.

Meanwhile, a funeral was being held at the top of the mountain.

Tobias' sudden appearance caught the attention of the Blithes' martial artists.

Donovan, dressed in black clothing, walked out, and his face immediately hardened upon seeing Tobias. He immediately shouted, "How dare you trespass into the Blithes' territory? You must have a death wish!"

Then, he immediately felt intense energy sweep toward him.

Despite having reached the median of the eighth rank, he still felt suffocated by the energy.

At that moment, he realized the person before him was a powerful martial artist.

The man standing before him was no ordinary person.

Despite reaching the middle phase of the eighth rank, he knew he was clearly outmatched.

His expression and demeanor immediately shifted. He wore a bright smile and asked, "Who might you be? What's the purpose of your visit to the Blithes of Mount Littleroot today?"

Tobias looked at Donovan, who was dressed in black sackcloth, and he smirked, saying, "Long time no see, Donovan."

"W-Who are you?"

Donovan stared at Tobias with fear.

He looked intently at the mysterious visitor but could not recognize the man before him.

"Tobias Caden."

Tobias parted his lips and announced his name.

Hearing that it was Tobias, the Blithe family members, especially Donovan, were immediately on their guard. The Blithes had an unresolved feud with the Cadens.

Some time ago, the Blithes had even persecuted the Cadens.

"Y-You're Tobias?"

Donovan was shocked.

He could not believe the man before him, that looked about the same age as himself, was really Tobias Caden.

"Yeah, it's me. Is Winston in Mount Littleroot?" Tobias asked calmly.

Donovan took a deep breath.

He had no doubts that the person before him was Tobias.

Donovan had heard of the events in Malgudi half a month ago.

Although he was not present, everything that transpired spread throughout the martial world.

He knew Tobias had snatched Bennett's Spirit Turtle core and absorbed James' True Energy. On top of that, he also absorbed the energy of other strong martial artists.

Right now, he had guessed that Tobias had already refined the True Energy he absorbed from his victims.

Donovan pointed at the coffin in the main hall and replied sorrowfully, "O-Our Grand Patriarch has passed on."

"What?" Tobias narrowed his eyes.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1563

Chapter 1563

His body flickered and in an instant, he appeared in the main hall.

He raised his hand and thrust it forward.

The powerful Palm Energy crashed into the coffin.

The coffin was immediately reduced to splinters.

Winston's corpse rolled onto the floor and came into full view of the people present.

Upon seeing this scene, the Blithe family members turned wrathful.

"Tobias, you've gone too far!"

One of the family members drew his sword.

Tobias raised his hand again and unleashed Palm Energy toward him.

The man that drew his sword was sent flying and slammed hard into the ground. A pool of blood formed under him, and he never got up again.

Donovan clenched his fists at the scene before him.

However, he swallowed down the rage boiling in his heart.

Tobias was furious when he saw Winston's corpse on the ground. He screeched, "Damn it! Why didn't you wait for me!"

He unsheathed his long sword and repeatedly hacked away at Winston's body.

Winston's cold, lifeless body was mutilated and dismembered.

Seeing Tobias desecrate the corpse of their elder, the Blithe family members were outraged.

Despite their fury, they did not dare to interrupt Tobias' after what had happened to their family member.

Even Donovan was unwilling to stand up against Tobias because he felt inferior in strength.

“Since Winston is dead, there’s no need for the Blithes to exist any longer!”

Tobias was enraged that he had wasted his time and effort to travel all the way to Mount Littleroot.

Fear gripped Donovan’s heart upon hearing his words.

He kneeled on the ground and pleaded, “Tobias... no, Mr. Tobias, please find it in your heart to spare the Blithes. We’re willing to hand over our signature martial art technique, the Blithe Fist of Abomination.

“Furthermore, I, Donovan Blithe, will be your dog from now onward.

“Woof, woof!”

While groveling, Donovan even barked a few times.

“Master, please spare my family. I’ll obey your every order.”

To live, Donovan even forsook his dignity.

Donovan knew he could not defeat Tobias with his current strength.

He had obtained Winston’s True Energy, and his cultivation base had improved significantly.

Not to mention, he also learned their family secret.

With enough time, he could find the floor plan of King Quavon’s Mausoleum. Using that, he could acquire the Primordial Sword and First Sword Art.

After doing so, even if it did not improve his strength greatly, it should at least be enough to defeat Tobias.

Seeing Donovan kneeling, the other family members of the Blithes also kneeled on the ground.

Tobias looked at Donovan prostrating on the ground and thought to himself.

‘Donovan has quite a strong cultivation base. If I could absorb his True Energy, my strength would surely increase a considerable amount.

'However, the Blithes are a massive family who holds much influence. It'll be a pity for them to be annihilated so pathetically.

'Rather than destroying them, it'll be better to use them as pawns for the time being and pave the way for my future plans.' reasoned Tobias.

After contemplating for a while, Tobias said, "You had better keep to the words you uttered today, Donovan. I'll give you a gruesome death if you dare to disobey me."

Tobias let his threat loom over the Blithes and vanished from everyone's sight like a phantom.

After Tobias left, Donovan sighed in relief.

He sat on the ground and looked at the desecrated corpse. Veins bulged on his face from the indignation he felt, and he had a terrifying expression. Gritting his teeth, he hissed, "Tobias, you'll pay a hundredfold in the future for the humiliation you subjected us to today."

"Grand Patriarch, I'm sorry for being so useless. You imparted all your True Energy to me, yet I'm still no match for Tobias.

"Don't worry. I'll definitely enter King Quavon's Mausoleum and find both the Primordial Sword and First Sword Art. I'll learn the greatest sword technique and avenge you."

While the ordeal in the Blithes' territory was taking place, Thea meditated in seclusion at Celestial Sect's headquarters.

She was dressed in a black dress. Her long hair had turned grayish white, and her eyes were a dark crimson.

Cold Energy emanated from her body menacingly.

The energy was abnormal and would immediately make another person shudder from the eeriness.

Bzzt! Bzzt! Bzzt!

81 needles floated around her body.

Each of them shone with an ominous, black light.

Thea waved her hands, and the eighty-one needles burst forward.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1564

Chapter 1564

The 81 black needles flew through the air like lasers, piercing through the cultivation room's walls.

The cultivation room was enclosed in solid rock.

However, the black needles easily passed through the black rocks.

A few microscopic holes were left in the rock.

Soon, the black needles flew back into the room and returned to Thea's hand as a black steel wire.

The steel wire was a weapon called Exalter.

Thea had been absorbing the Spirit Turtle blood's power during her closed-door meditation. She felt the effect of the Spirit Turtle's blood more keenly in her current mentally unhinged state. It was stronger than it had been previously.

At the same time, she had also been trying to decipher the teachings in the Book of Malice.

The strength of Exalter combined with Murderous Energy was nothing short of foreboding.

However, she had not grasped the technique completely and thus, was unable to utilize the full power of Exalter.

Right now, Exalter could only be seen as a powerful hidden weapon. It was still not strong enough to be a weapon of destruction.

She had been meditating in seclusion, and a few days passed in the blink of an eye.

"Sect Leader."

A masked man in black pushed open the door to the cultivation room and walked inside. He knelt on one knee, lowered his head, and reported respectfully, "Sect Leader, it's almost time."

Hearing this, Thea stopped cultivating.

She drew in her True Energy.

Her crimson pupils gradually returned to normal.

Thea still had an elegant appearance. Her long, white hair gave her a different type of allure.

However, her porcelain face held no trace of emotion, giving her the impression of an ice queen.

She slowly stood up.

The kneeling disciple reported to her, "Tomorrow is the day of the duel between you and Tobias. It's already three in the morning. You should arrive at Mt. Thunder Pass by noon if you hurry there now."

Thea did not respond and left the cultivation room holding her hands behind her back.

Meanwhile, Mt. Thunder Pass...

James had waited at Mt. Thunder Pass for the entire week.

The week flew by and at dawn, it would be the day that Thea and Thomas dueled to the death.

Neither Thea nor Tobias had shown up yet, but many other martial artists from various sects had already arrived.

These people were here to watch the fight.

Thea being Celestial Sect's leader was the most widely discussed news right now.

Everyone came to see whether Thea was really Celestial Sect's leader.

The martial artists immediately noticed James upon arriving on Mt. Thunder Pass.

He had been sitting in a lotus position for a few days.

For the past few days, he remained motionless like a statue.

Everyone was convinced that Celestial Sect's leader was really Thea.

Otherwise, James would not be waiting on Mt. Thunder Pass.

However, they were perplexed at his presence because it was rumored that Tobias absorbed James' cultivation base in Malgudi. How could he have been sitting here for the past few days without eating or drinking?

Ordinary people could not survive without consuming anything for consecutive days.

Only a powerful martial artist could go maintain themselves for such an extended period without ingesting anything.

"Dad."

In the distance, a man and woman stood together.

The woman wore a white dress, and her long hair flowed down her scalp like a waterfall.

She looked at James, sitting ahead of them with his eyes closed. She said worriedly, "Mr. Caden had been sitting here for several days. Do you think he's alright?"

The young woman that spoke was Delainey.

Jackson shook his head while looking at James and said, "I don't know what exactly happened, but judging from the current situation, it must have been something important."

"You're right about that. Something did indeed happen."

A voice came from behind them.

Following the voice, an elegant young man dressed in a white robe appeared.

He had long hair that was half black and half white.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1565

Chapter 1565

"My lord."

Seeing the person that approached, Jackson greeted him respectfully.

"It's a pleasure to meet you, Omniscient Deity."

Delainey also greeted the man politely.

The person that appeared was none other than the neutral party of the ancient martial world, Jade Sect's leader, more commonly known as the Omniscient Deity.

Each generation of Jade Sect's leader inherits the title of Omniscient Deity.

Jackson asked, "What exactly has happened, Lord Omniscient?"

The Omniscient Deity looked at James sitting in a lotus position on the ground and sighed. He replied, "This is a matter only concerning the Cadens."

Delainey looked at the Omniscient Deity.

She knew the man in front of her was the leader of the Jade Sect.

Jade Sect's intelligence network was spread all over the world.

Their intelligence channels were established thousands of years ago and have evolved into massive networks. There was nothing in the world that could get past the Jade Sect.

"Stop beating around the bush, Lord Omniscient. Just tell me."

Delainey was dying to figure out what had happened.

However, the Omniscient Deity remained silent.

The information he possessed was astounding and could cause a massive uproar if it was revealed.

"Be patient. Perhaps the truth will reveal itself soon." Omniscient Deity spoke cryptically.

Unable to retort, Delainey asked, "Then, what about Mr. Caden's current strength?"

The Omniscient Deity replied, "He practiced the Nine Scriptures of Ordeals and is an unrivaled man. He may not be invincible as he is currently, but there aren't many people in Sol who can stand against him." "What's the Nine Scriptures of Ordeals?"

Delainey was puzzled at the unfamiliar term.

She had read about almost every martial art that existed in the world.

Even if she had not read about it, she was sure she would hear about it from somewhere.

However, the Nine Scriptures of Ordeals was a foreign term to her.

The Omniscient Deity said, "The story of the Nine Scriptures of Ordeals is a long one, dating back a thousand years ago."

He began to speak of events that transpired a thousand years ago.

He talked about Polaris and the grudge between him and the Prince of Orchid Mountain.

After hearing the stories, Delainey gasped in realization.

“What an amazing martial art technique.”

“Haha!”

The Omniscient Deity chuckled and said, “The world’s mysteries are far beyond your ability to comprehend them. The calamity a thousand years ago will repeat itself once more. The slaughtering of the Spirit Turtle in the Snow Cavern marked the beginning of chaos.”

“The calamity a thousand years ago?”

Even Jackson was puzzled and asked, “What catastrophe?”

The Omniscient Deity replied, “Initially, I thought the calamity was brought upon us because of the Spirit Turtle’s blood. However, I had a feeling that there was more to it. I specifically looked into ancient books and learned a lot in that period. I discovered some secrets after researching the Prince of Orchid Mountain, the Cadens, and the Blood Race.”

“The beginning of the calamity started with the Spirit Turtle, and this also marked the start of Thea’s misfortune.”

“Apart from the Spirit Turtle, there is also a dragon, phoenix, and qilin.

“The Four Mythical Beasts are comprised of these four mythical creatures, and each of them possesses tremendous strength.

“It’s the will of the heavens and a fate we are bound to.”

The Omniscient Deity’s words were esoteric.

Even Mount Thunder Sect’s leader, Jackson, could not comprehend his words.

Delainey was even more confused.

The Omniscient Deity continued, “If there is a start to a calamity, there must also be a person to put an end to it. The person that will resolve Thea’s tribulation is James. The person destined to end the other three catastrophes has not yet appeared. What’s certain is the future is full of various possibilities and as such, is unpredictable. Everything is up to the inner workings of fate.”

Jackson could not help asking, “I know of the Spirit Turtle, but what do you mean when you mention the other beasts?”

The Omniscient Deity briefly explained the origins of the dragon, phoenix, and qilin.

The powerhouses who slaughtered the Dragon were led by the Blood Race more than a thousand years ago.

The men who slaughtered the phoenix were Finnegan and King Quavon’s subordinates.

As for the people who slaughtered the Kylin, it was his ancestors of the Jade Sect.

In the annals of history, the slaying of the phoenix happened first, taking place more than 2300 years ago.

The slaughtering of the qilin subsequently happened 1800 years ago.

The dragon was slain the third and the event dated back about 1300 years ago.

The Spirit Turtle was the last to be killed and it happened exactly 1000 years ago.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1566

Chapter 1566

All this talk about calamity was extremely hard to believe.

Jackson did not quite believe it, and neither did Delainey.

“Huff.”

The Omniscient Deity sighed.

Hell was about to break loose, and chaos would befall them.

He could not predict what would happen or if the situation would get out of control.

The sky gradually grew lighter.

The crowd at the peak of Mt. Thunder Pass increased.

After dawn, more than 30 people appeared on top of Mt. Thunder Pass.

The 30 onlookers were all prominent figures in the ancient martial world. They were all curious to watch the battle and witness the strength of the Celestial Sect's leader. Moreover, they wanted to know Tobias' strength and rank after absorbing the True Energy of James and other martial artists.

The sun gradually rose.

Soon, it was already ten in the morning.

At a little over ten, a man slowly approached the base of Mt. Thunder Pass.

He was dressed in a suit and carried a long sword with him.

Although he looked like he was moving slowly, he traveled halfway up the mountain with just a few steps. After a few more steps, he appeared on top of the mountain.

His afterimage on the mountainside disappeared when he reached the mountaintop.

"He's here!"

"Tobias is here!"

"Tsk, tsk. He's not going to go down so easily. He already looks so much younger. I wonder what rank he has reached?"

A huge commotion broke when Tobias appeared.

Plenty of people gathered around.

After Tobias appeared, he cast his gaze over everyone who had come to the area.

He smiled faintly.

Compared to when he was Malgudi, he was much stronger now.

He was not afraid of anyone.

Meanwhile, a white pigeon flew over to The Omniscient Deity.

The Omniscient Deity raised his hand, and the pigeon landed on it.

He untied the note wrapped around the pigeon's leg and unfurled it to read its contents.

After reading the note, his expression suddenly changed.

Standing beside him, Jackson asked, "What's the matter?"

The Omniscient Deity said, "There has been news that something big has happened in the ancient martial world in the past few days."

"What happened?" asked Delainey.

The Omniscient Deity confided, "Martial artists from Sylvan Sect, Heaven and Earth Sect, and Five Swirling Blades Sect have suddenly died. It seems they died gruesomely and their corpses were shriveled and dried when they were found. It seems their Blood Essence had been drained from them. This started happening a week ago."

Hearing this, both Jackson and Delainey's expressions became grim.

The two looked at Tobias, who had appeared at Mt. Thunder Pass.

Jackson muttered quietly, "Could it have been done by Tobias?"

"It's possible."

Taking a deep breath, the Omniscient Deity said gravely, "If that's the case, it'll be hard to predict the outcome of this battle."

"Omniscient Deity. What kind of martial art technique had Tobias practiced? How is it possible for him to absorb other people's True Energy? I've never heard of such a technique before."

The Omniscient Deity thought for a while before replying hesitantly, "If I'm not wrong, he must've learned the Great Law of Absorption."

"The Great Law of Absorption? Where's that from?" asked Jackson.

"It's a martial art technique that has existed for more than a thousand years. There aren't any detailed records about it, even in Jade Sect. Only brief mentions of it exist. Apparently, it was created before the time of the Prince of Orchid Mountain. It's a forsaken period in history, and very little is recorded about it."

"That's horrifying." Delainey wore an appalled expression.

At that moment, James gradually opened his eyes.

His gaze was drawn toward Tobias, who had appeared.

Tobias was slightly taken aback to see James.

He had already absorbed James' True Energy and disabled him.

How was it possible for him to appear on Mt. Thunder Pass?

Tobias said darkly, "You're harder to kill than a weed, James. I heard Celestial Sect's leader is Thea. Since Thea hasn't shown up yet, I'll kill you first, and deal with her later."

Tobias' face bore a murderous look.

He walked toward James slowly.

James continued sitting on the ground motionless as if he was part of the mountain.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, a figure flitted and appeared in front of James.

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1567

Chapter 1567

"Are you going to try to stop me, Callan?"

Tobias looked at Callan, who had suddenly appeared before him. He narrowed his eyes, and said, "If that's the case, I'll take you out first. I'd like to see how far you've cultivated the Decimation of Immortality."

With one hand behind his back, Callan made a taunting gesture with his other hand and said calmly, "You can strike."

At that moment, James slowly got up.

"Callan, this is a family matter. You don't need to interfere."

Callan turned around and looked at James worriedly. He asked, "James, what about your condition?"

James gently dismissed his worries with a wave and said, "I'm alright."

"Didn't he drain you of your True Energy?"

James smiled mysteriously and said, "Who told you one can't recover their strength after having their True Energy taken away from them?"

Seeing the confident smile on James' face, Callan heaved a sigh of relief. He walked away and stood some distance from the battlefield, keeping his eyes on Tobias and James.

James stood on the top of the mountain serenely.

Meanwhile, Tobias was seething inside.

He did not expect James to appear on the mountain.

“Die!”

Tobias bellowed and drew the long sword on his back.

“How dare you lay a hand on my man?!”

As soon as Tobias unsheathed his sword, a feminine shout boomed around the mountain.

Rumble!

The ground trembled, and the entire Mt. Thunder Pass felt like it was about to collapse as the sound echoed around them.

The onlookers at Mt. Thunder Pass struggled to keep their balance.

Those with a weaker cultivation base fell to the ground.

“W-What strong energy!”

Many were shocked.

Following the sound, a figure sped toward them from a distance.

The person descended from the sky and firmly landed on Mt. Thunder Pass.

The woman wore a black dress and held a long black sword in her hand.

Her long black hair had already turned white.

It was none other than Thea.

After Thea finished her closed-door meditation, she learned that her identity had been exposed.

This is why she decided to show up without her mask and reveal her identity.

Her appearance caused an instant uproar.

“It’s really Thea!”

“The rumors were true. Celestial Sect’s leader is actually Thea Callahan!”

“Tsk, tsk! I never expected the infamous leader of Celestial Sect to be James’ woman.”

Everyone was surprised to see the face of the Celestial Sect’s leader with their own eyes.

Even Jackson and Delainey were shocked.

“Thea?” Callan was also shocked by Thea’s appearance.

He murmured thoughtfully, “She hid her talents well. Who would’ve thought the lady at James’ side was one of the strongest martial artists in the world? Who could’ve guessed that the leader of the Celestial Sect that almost completely dominated the ancient martial world was Thea?”

James looked at Thea, who had appeared.

He felt an intense regret the moment her white hair caught his eye.

She was a delicate woman but was forced to endure so many hardships.

“Thea,” he called out to her.

Thea turned around and looked at James. Seeing that he was safe and sound, tears rolled down her face.

She found a pile of butchered limbs in his bed and thought James was dead.

She lost all reason at that moment and was resolved to kill.

The Spirit Turtle’s blood stirred up within her and she suffered an Energy Deviation.

After returning to Celestial Sect’s headquarters, she began to absorb the power of the Spirit Turtle’s blood. When she was close to absorbing all of it, she sent a letter of challenge to Tobias.

She did not know who had killed James, but she knew that Tobias had stolen James’ True Energy.

Thea wanted to avenge James.

She would start with Tobias, then set her sights on Lucjan.

Anyone who had stood against James had to die.

However, James appeared in front of her. He was unharmed, hale, and healthy.

“Honey, let me first dispose of Tobias.” Thea was slightly choked up at their reunion.

Immediately, she pulled out the Malevolent Sword.

The sword gleamed dangerously, and a gush of strong energy emitted from it instantly.

James slowly walked toward Thea and convinced her. “That won’t be necessary. I’ll do it myself.”

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 1568

Chapter 1568

Women should be cherished and loved.

They should not be handling dangerous weapons like swords and guns.

Ever since James learned of Thea’s true identity, he immediately knew she had done so many things to help him in secret.

His heart was moved when he thought about the amount of concern Thea had for him.

However, she would not have to any longer.

He did not want Thea to have to pick up a sword to fight ever again.

“Step back, Honey. I’ll get rid of Tobias today!”

Thea’s energy was intense and strong.

The Malevolent Sword in her hand emitted a terrifying light.

She was beautiful at that moment.

However, her beautiful face also held no warmth in its expression.

She glared at Tobias. With a flash, she appeared before him and drove her sword forward.

“You must really want to die.”

Tobias’ face darkened.

He quickly raised his sword to block the attack.

Clank!

Tobias' sword collided with the Malevolent Sword.

An illusory sword swung out from the Malevolent Sword and slashed at Tobias' sword. Then, it fell toward the ground.

Crack!

The illusory sword from the Malevolent Sword plunged into the ground and caused the mountain to tremble.

The mountain showed signs of collapsing.

"What incredible power!"

The onlookers were shocked and retreated one after another, quickly moving away from the battleground. Tobias felt the force pressing down on him, and he almost lost grip of his sword.

He also had a renowned sword.

Clang!

However, it was easily sliced in half.

He frantically took a few steps backward.

Thea was also blasted by the recoil of the impact and had to take a few steps back.

After exchanging their first blow, the two summoned forth True Energy, which was almost on par with one another.

Unfortunately, Tobias' sword was inferior to the Malevolent Sword.

James was pleased to see that Thea's sword was powerful, but at the same time, he felt guilt-stricken.

That frail woman had grown to such a terrifying extent in such a short time.

What did she go through during this period?

James could not imagine how tough it must have been on her.

Tobias looked at the broken sword in his hand, and he glowered at Thea. Holding onto his broken sword, he quickly retreated a hundred meters away. The broken sword radiated with a bright light, and Sword Energy manifested.

Thirteen Snow Energies formed instantly.

“Strike!”

He pointed his broken sword forward.

The Thirteen Sword Energies charged at Thea.

Thea leaped 100 meters into the air and waved the Malevolent Sword. A 100-meter Sword Light appeared and rushed at the Thirteen Sword Energies with oppressive might.

Tobias' thirteen Sword Energies were shattered instantly.

Many of the onlookers watched with their mouths agape.

The Thirteen Heavenly Swords was known as the best sword technique in the world.

However, the powerful Thirteen Sword Energies that Tobias unleashed was deflected effortlessly.

After Thea swung her sword, she quickly charged at Tobias and appeared in front of him. She thrust the Malevolent Sword at Tobias' vital points.

Tobias' expression became more serious.

For the past few days, he had been running around absorbing many martial artists' True Energy. He had already ascended the Fifth Stair of the Skyward Stairway.

Tobias thought he would be invincible after reaching the Fifth Stair.

He never expected Thea to be this strong.

Thea had grown much stronger than when she was in Malgudi.

James watched the fight from a distance.

He did not immediately take action because he wanted to see how strong Thea had become.

Judging by the power of Thea's sword and their energies, he roughly estimated both their strength.

Both of them had likely ascended the Fifth Stair of the Skyward Stairway.

After coming to that conclusion, James had a solemn expression.

They both were absurdly powerful.

Chapter 1569

It had only been a short while since they last met, but Tobias had already grown significantly stronger.

It seemed he had absorbed many people's True Energy during this time, which allowed his strength to increase exponentially.

"Die!"

Tobias' heart was filled with nothing but hatred and bloodlust.

Thea was too strong and was a larger threat to him than even Thomas. She was the biggest roadblock on his quest to conquer the world.

He was determined to kill her.

After he bellowed, a powerful energy erupted from his body, and he launched an attack.

The battle intensified.

The two exchanged hundreds of moves in mere moments.

Although it was hard to see who would come out on top, James could sense Thea's energy slowly seeping away.

In the distance, Thomas also secretly watched the battle.

Seeing Thea's energy weakening, he frowned and murmured, "What's going on? Isn't Thea supposed to get stronger as she fights? Why is her energy suddenly weakening during the fight?"

"Could she have already absorbed all of the Spirit Turtle's blood and turned its power into her own? Is this her power's limit without the additional boost from the Spirit Turtle?"

Thomas analyzed the situation.

He felt it was highly likely.

The Spirit Turtle's blood fed on negative emotions to unleash great power.

Now that Thea had absorbed almost all of the Spirit Turtle's blood, it had become part of her cultivation base. Therefore, she could no longer borrow its power to enhance her True Energy.

"She's around the Fifth Stair of the Skyward Stairway. Not bad."

Thomas had a satisfied look on his face.

He was pleased with Thea's current strength.

With time, it would be easy for her to become a ninth-ranked grandmaster.

After James watched the fight for a while, he vaguely understood the extent of Thea's strength and could no longer stand back as he watched her take on Tobias.

He could not let Thea continue to fight Tobias.

This was not some schoolyard brawl.

It concerned her very survival.

One careless move and she would end up dead.

Bang!

Thea and Tobias collided once more.

Both of them were blasted away by the tremendous shock wave.

At that moment, James seized the opportunity and charged into the battlefield. He appeared in front of Thea and held her hand.

"What're you doing here? Get back now" Thea reprimanded him.

She thought James would not confront Tobias even if he had regained some of his True Energy. She was so sure that things would end up badly for him if he were caught up on the battlefield.

Thea was worried, so she criticized him.

After scolding him, her expression softened, and she said gently, "Honey, you should leave first. I'll surely kill him."

Thea was confident because her True Demonic Energy had strengthened to a terrifying extent.

The Murderous Energy she cultivated was also even more powerful.

Her Murderous Energy was invincible and would make killing Tobias a piece of cake.

James pulled Thea back and gently shook his head at her, saying, "Thea, step back. I'll take care of it."

"Nonsense! Do you know how strong Tobias is?"

While they were arguing, Tobias seized the opportunity.

He charged forward with his sword.

A Sword Energy materialized and hurled itself at James.

"Careful..."

Thea sensed the impending attack and shouted to warn him.

James calmly raised his hand and thrust his palm forward. A mighty burst of True Energy rushed forward at the incoming Sword Energy.

Boom!

His True Heavenly Energy caused the Sword Energy to explode and shatter instantly.

The next moment, James had already appeared behind Tobias and slammed his hand on Tobias' back. James' movements were lightning-fast.

Before Tobias could react, he was already hit in the back by James' palm attack.

The attack caused his Blood Energy to churn which made him vomit blood. He staggered, and almost fell to the ground.

"What the-?"

Thea was completely dumbfounded after seeing James attack.

Chapter 1570

James moved with blinding speed.

Tobias was unable to counter his attack.

James was too strong.

His strength was enough to cause Tobias to vomit blood.

Everyone was shocked to see James attack Tobias.

Tobias' strength was public knowledge and he had become one of the most terrifying existences in Sol.

There were not many people who could stand against him in Sol.

Moreover, it was rumored that Tobias had absorbed James' True Energy. It had only been slightly over half a month since it happened. Everyone was confused as to how James had regained his strength.

In actuality, James' speed was not that much faster than Tobias'.

James' current rank was at the borderline of the Skyward Stair's Sixth Stair.

Tobias had also ascended the Fifth Stair.

There was not much of a difference between their ranks.

However, Tobias was careless.

At that moment, he only expected that Thea would be a threat to him and never thought that James' strength had recovered. What's more, he never expected James to be stronger than before.

He was injured because of his blunder.

Tobias almost crashed into the ground.

However, he righted himself and wiped the blood off the corner of his lips. He tightly held on to his broken sword and snarled, "Die!!!"

After shouting, he lunged at James.

He raised the broken sword in his hand and aimed it at James.

Tobias was attacking at his greatest speed.

He appeared in front of James instantly and aimed his broken sword at James' vital points.

Before the broken sword struck James, Sword Energy had materialized.

The ground in front of James crumbled.

Boom!

The rocks around James could not withstand the intense force from the Sword Energy and exploded, causing the rubble to be tossed into the air.

At that moment, the skin of James' body took on a bronze color.

When his skin changed, an Energy Wall formed on his body's surface. The wall emitted a blinding light and seemed to be about five centimeters thick.

This was the ultimate manifestation of the Invincible Body Siddhi's powers.

The higher one's cultivation, the stronger the Invincible Body Siddhi.

James had ascended to the peak of the Fifth Stair and was approaching the Sixth Stair. Moreover, his True Nine Ordeals Energy was unrivaled.

His True Energy also took the form of True Heavenly Yang Energy.

Previously, his Energy Wall was in its initial stage when he reached the eighth rank.

Now, his Energy Wall was about five centimeters thick.

Clank!!!

Tobias' sword slashed at the copper-colored Energy Wall.

Clank! Clank! Clank!

The remnants of the sword broke down further as it continued to collide with the Energy Wall.

Tobias' dropped his sword hilt and thrust his palm at James.

A terrifying force swept forward and slammed into the copper-colored Energy Wall.

Unfortunately, his attacks did not cause any damage to James. However, he himself was blasted back by the recoil of the impact.

His hand felt numb and like it was about to break.

"What the hell is this strength...?"

Tobias' blood ran cold.

He had ascended the Fifth Stair of the Skyward Stairway. However, not only could he not put a scratch on James after going all out, but the force jolted his body, sending large gushes of blood out of his throat.

“W-What kind of martial art technique is that? It’s absurd.”

“James is invincible.”

“With such defenses, no one will be capable of putting a dent in his bronze body.”

Those watching the battle from afar were shocked.

Thomas had a satisfied smirk on his face as he watched the battle unfold. He smiled and murmured, “The Invincible Body Siddhi is a formidable technique. No wonder it’s considered the martial art technique with the best defensive power for thousands of years. I wonder if James’ Invincible Body Siddhi has a greater defense or if Thea’s Murderous Energy has a more destructive strength.”

Callan sighed in relief while watching the battle. He muttered softly, “It seems James must have had another great encounter in the past half month. His strength has improved significantly, and there aren’t many people who can stand as his equal.”

He was shocked by the strength James had displayed in the fight.

At that moment, Callan considered himself inferior to James.

He might be unable to defeat James even if he duplicated himself.

Tobias was still going all out on the battlefield but could not hurt James.

He knew James’ current strength was nothing short of powerful.

In addition, Thea, who was beside him, also had strength that was on par with his own.

He would surely take a grievous injury if he continued the fight.

Tobias had practiced the Great Law of Absorption and as such had unlocked much of his potential. As long as he remained hidden and continued to absorb other people’s energy, he would become the greatest martial artist sooner or later.

Right then, he considered fleeing the battle.
