

Genius 2301

Chapter 2301

“Are we not afraid of you, do you still want to be an enemy to all our guests?”

Even if you are a disciple of the Bai family, even if you are a new generation of medical saints, so what.

The land of Kyoto is not for you to do whatever you like.”

With an angry shout.

Within the crowd, multiple places responded to the sound.

“Junior, you are too rampant.”

“Although our Xie family is not strong.

But if we are scared by a hairy boy like you you don’t dare to speak out.

In the future, how can I, Xie Wang Baihe, still mix in this Kyoto.

How can my Xie Family still gain a foothold in Kyoto.”

At this moment, this representative of the Xie family slowly walked out of the crowd.

And his words were filled with the suspicion of provocation.

Sure enough.

As his words fell, some of the people who were originally planning to wait and see, slowly had the slightest intention to move.

After all, they were all dignitaries, and when it came to matters of face, that was a big deal.

Lin Mo could only secretly sweat.

It seemed that there was really no shortage of stupid people in this world.

With just a few words, they could provoke the impulse in their hearts.

Too young.

However, at this moment, Lin Mo didn’t have such an idle mind to pay attention to these people.

“Master, did you take note of those few people just now?”

At this moment, Elder Bai also seemed to have some understanding of what this closed-door disciple of his meant.

After waving his hand, he then slowly replied.

“Don’t worry, Master is not yet so old that his eyes are dizzy.”

With this, Lin Mo stopped paying attention to the guest group’s side.

Since most of the rats had already been found out.

Next, all that was needed was to pry open the mouth of this rumour-monger.

The matter would be settled.

“State your name!”

When Lin Mo opened his mouth, the other party’s eyes were listless as he replied.

“Shimoyama Haruna.”

When he gave his name.

The crowd was surprised that this person was actually a Japanese.

How did this kind of person manage to blend into the banquet?

One must know that what Elder Bai hated most was the Japanese.

Of course, while being shocked at this man’s identity.

Many people naturally had their minds set on this kind of elixir.

The potential market for such a miraculous elixir was huge.

As for Lin Mo, he continued to ask, “Who ordered you to come to the scene and cause trouble? Give a clear account of what happened before and after.”

“Our Golden Blade Sect’s Vice Sect said that it was you, who killed our Golden Blade Envoy.

This is an undying feud.

So let’s talk to”

At this moment, the attention of the crowd was all focused on this Shimoyama Haruna.

They simply did not notice the cold mane that suddenly rose.

“Be careful!”

With a reminder from Elder Bai.

Lin Mo subconsciously dodged his body.

However, the target of that dark weapon was not aimed at him.

By the time Lin Mo settled his stance.

He only saw the two tiny wounds on Shimoyama Haruna’s brow and heart, which were slowly dripping with blood.

As for the person himself, he was already too dead to die.

“What do you mean, surnamed Xie?”

At such a close distance.

Trying to see who had struck was already clear to see.

With Lin Mo's questioning.

As for Xie Baihe, he pretended to be indifferent and clapped his hands.

"Medical Sage Lin, this kind of Japanese spy is not worthy of death.

Why do you need to talk nonsense with it.

If it's too late, it's better to kill it and be done with it."

Lin Mo smiled disdainfully.

"What, of the Xie family, are you afraid that this person will give you up?"

"Sage Doctor Lin, rice can be eaten carelessly, but words cannot be spoken carelessly.

We, the Xie family, are good people who love our country and abide by the law.

And we have even more respect for the Bai family.

You can't slander me with empty words!"

At this moment, Xie Baihe naturally had his backbone when he said this.

Since the only person who knew, Ueyama Shimo Haruna, was dead.

The other minions were just cannon fodder.

If he wanted to get any useful information out of them, he was simply delusional.

"Surnamed Xie, have you forgotten that I have more than one True Speech Pill."

After saying that, Lin Mo then raised his eyebrows towards the other party with an evil smile on his face.

Chapter 2302

"Lin Mo, you, you dare, I am a direct descendant of the Xie family.

If you dare to touch me, my Xie family, will never give up."

The manic words were merely a sign of a weak heart.

Looking at the other party's panic-stricken appearance.

Lin Mo shook his head disdainfully.

"Cut it out, just scaring you! Look at you, you're so scared!"

He didn't care much about this Xie Baihe.

Just by the fact that he had just struck and killed this Japanese rumour monger.

That was enough to prove that this group of Japanese had infiltrated the banquet and must have had something to do with the Xie family.

As for this Xie Baihe, even if he was really taken down.

The Xie family would still put all the blame on him when the time came.

It would not hurt the root of the Xie family's big tree.

Of course, there were still long days ahead, so Lin Mo did not have to worry about not having this opportunity in the future.

At this point in time.

If the guests have not come to their senses then they are really stupid.

The Xie family, as one of the most important families in Kyoto, had not wanted to move.

It has fallen to such a level.

Looking for cooperation with whom is not good, but to find this group of Japanese.

Although there were many people present, there were indeed competing interests with the Bai family.

They were also secretly targeting the Bai family.

But in any case, they would not want to be as self-serving as the Xie family.

And as for, the death of Yamash*ta Haruna.

Just because Lin Mo didn't pursue it, didn't mean that the old man wouldn't pursue it.

"Xie Baihe is it?"

"Who gave you the courage to strike and kill in my Bai family?"

But as Old Man Bai's words fell.

I only saw him, slowly taking a step forward.

The opposite side of Xie Baihe was like a thousand heavy mountains pressing down on his body.

For a moment, he only felt as if his internal organs were being squeezed together by a huge force.

A feeling of suffocation ensued.

His face was red and his tears were rolling around in his eyes.

There was a pleading look in his eyes.

At this moment, he finally recalled the terror of the old man of the Bai family.

This was one of the two tigers of Kyoto, the White Tiger of Extreme Destruction.

"Go back and tell your Xie Qianshan that this isn't over."

After retracting his surrounding aura, Elder Bai's right arm waved.

Xie Baihe's entire person, like a chicken at the same time, was directly lifted out of the hall by an invisible force.

As for the other people above the scene, they were also secretly relieved at this moment.

Although the terrifying aura pressure was not directed at them.

But the mere aftermath made them unusually uncomfortable.

"I'm sorry, gentlemen.

This lack of attention has allowed a few rats to slip in.

Let the banquet end here, forgive me for my poor hospitality."

With Elder Bai's order to expel the guests.

Everyone said.

"Elder Bai, please don't, please don't.

We are honoured to be able to come to a banquet hosted by you personally, Elder Bai."

"Medical Sage Lin, thoughtful and skillful."

"Master Bai, you have a discerning eye, not only is Doctor Lin highly skilled in medicine.

His martial arts attainment is also not shallow, congratulations to Elder Bai on his happy pupil."

Along with the crowd, there was a burst of flattering voices.

Finally, there was someone who could not resist the impulse inside.

"Doctor Lin, do you still have that True Word Pill on hand?

Our Spring Orchid Chain Pharmacy, is willing to buy it at a high price."

With these words.

The others also pricked up their ears.

And Lin Mo only smiled sarcastically.

"Sorry, this kind of elixir, because of the scarcity of medicinal materials.

I'm sorry that Lin Mo's stock is limited."

He had just followed the wind to denigrate the Bai family, and now had the latter's cheek to ask for the pills.

How could Lin Mo agree and sell such an elixir to them.

The crowd had already expected such an outcome though.

However, when Lin Mo spoke out and refused, the crowd could not help but sigh with regret.

If they could have taken the distribution rights of such an elixir, it would have been difficult not to get rich.

Chapter 2303

Expectations were dashed, plus the Bai family said they were inviting them to the banquet.

In reality, wasn't it just Elder Bai, trying to show off how outstanding his disciples were.

To prove his own discerning eye for accepting disciples?

"Elder Bai, today's incident was rash on our part, we will come to our door to make amends in the coming day.

We will leave today."

One by one, the crowd began to leave.

The guests were fading away.

Of course, they had secretly kept an eye on the Xie family.

As one of the top ten families in Kyoto.

But they were secretly having an affair with the Japanese.

What a disgrace.

On the other hand.

Those few companions of Chun Nai wanted to follow the crowd and slip away quietly.

However, before they could walk out of the gate.

Lin Mo had already stopped in front of them.

"I said, did I let you guys go?"

As soon as they saw Lin Mo blocking the way, they then looked at the murderous Bai family crowd.

These few Japanese who had infiltrated the banquet were secretly screaming in dismay.

If it wasn't for that Xie's boastful words.

He said that this time, Lin Mo's celebration banquet would become a joke.

They wouldn't have revealed their identities so early.

Now it was fine.

It was true that the celebration party had been ruined by a few people.

But what about them?

After waiting for a while.

Ji Qianjun, who had received the news, then arrived at the scene with a team of Martial Union's enforcers.

"Take care of this side of things first!"

After saying that, Elder Bai then turned his gaze to White-Faced Lang.

"I see that you're getting more and more mixed up back there.

Why are you even hooking up with the Japanese for a while now?

Unworthy thing!"

At this comment from Elder Bai.

First, Bai Mianlang's face darkened.

Originally, he had only negotiated with the Xie family for this plan to ruin Lin Mo's celebration feast.

Of course this was also mainly because Lin Mo was Elder Bai's favoured disciple.

As long as he could trip up the Bai family and only let could make Elder Bai unhappy.

Then he, Bai Mianlang, would be comfortable.

What he didn't expect was that this old dog Xie Qianshan had secretly colluded so deeply with the Japanese.

Thinking like this, White-faced Lang spoke up and said.

"What does it matter to you whether I can become a weapon or not?

Humph, let's go!"

Looking at the other party's departing figure.

The Tai Ah in Lin Mo's hand slowly trembled.

After Old Bai beside him felt the killing aura around him, he only smiled calmly.

Then only then did he say.

"You don't care about this person.

He is now among the Martial Alliance and has a big man as his guarantee.

It's you who will lose out if you go up against him again now."

Seeing that Lin Mo was still unmoved.

Elder Bai knew to himself that this disciple was trying to defend his face.

"Eh, this is what Master owes him.

If the Martial Alliance meets, if it's possible..."

At this point, Elder Bai stopped talking again.

"Eh, forget it.

Let everything go with the flow."

Seeing Master Xiao Li's haggard appearance.

Lin Mo instantly calmed down.

Ever since he had known Elder Bai.

The impression that Master gave Lin Mo had always been stubborn, rigid, and the appearance of a fierce tiger ambling through the forest.

Especially after his body had recovered.

Although his character was much gentler, the fierce tiger lay with his heart and chest.

And now, with a sigh of relief from his master.

Suddenly, Lin Mo noticed that his master's back had suddenly become much more stooped.

After taking a deep breath.

Lin Mo calmed his mood down, and the murderous aura around him all dissipated at this time.

"Yes, my disciple understands!"

"Good, it's good to understand!"

Forget it, let's not mention him, it's annoying to talk about it too much."

Speaking of this, Elder Bai also changed the topic.

"By the way, how did you know, the identity of this Yamash*ta Haruna Japanese?"

At this time, Lin Mo was embarra*sed and scratched his head.

"Actually, my disciple doesn't know, I just see him acting strangely.

It's not that there aren't people in Kyoto who have the guts to denigrate the Bai family to their faces, but it's certainly not one of theirs.

So the disciple thought of giving him a True Speech Pill, and wouldn't everything come out."

After hearing Lin Mo's explanation.

The Japanese crowd, who had already been apprehended at the side, directly stared at him with wide eyes.

This

We are out of luck, to have met such an unorthodox crowd.

As long as you suspect, just feed a truthful pill!!!

With their heads hanging, several people were pressed back into the Martial Union by Ji Qianjun.

Chapter 2304

This was the end of the banquet.

Lin Mo was taken to the ancestral hall of the Bai family by Old Master Bai.

“When I was young, I was also a young man who was full of vigour and enthusiasm.”

Lin Mo, seeing his master, was in a somewhat low mood and did not answer.

He just quietly watched as Elder Bai lit the three sticks of incense in his hand.

Wisps of light smoke echoed around.

“Back then, my brother Bai Lingyun and I were known as the twin stars of Kyoto.

At that time, even those experts of the same generation from the Nalan family.

They were all overpowered by my two brothers, too.”

Listening to the old man’s slow elaboration.

Lin Mo also gradually understood the past events.

Back then, the twin stars of the Bai family, the eldest son Bai Lingfeng and the second son Bai Lingyun.

In terms of martial arts, they had almost dominated that era.

They were young men who had the greatest ambition in the world.

It was difficult to meet a rival in China.

The youngest brother, Bai Lingfeng, turned his attention to foreign countries.

He intended to travel around the world and meet with other experts of his generation.

At the same time, he hoped to test his own strength and also to improve his martial arts attainment through constant fighting.

The two brothers then set out to test their strength and to test their skills.

So, the two brothers set out on a long journey.

However, they were not even halfway through their journey.

They were suddenly confronted by a fatal attack.

Although the opponents were not strong, they were outnumbered.

After a long struggle, the two brothers killed numerous enemies.

But they were also exhausted by their physical strength and were showing signs of fatigue.

In the end, in order to protect their elder brother Bai Lingfeng, his younger brother Bai Lingyun sacrificed his life to break the back for the former.

Since then, one of the twin stars of the Bai family has fallen.

The other, too, fled back to the Bai family with a heavy burden.

The White Face, who had experienced the pain of losing his father, had completely changed his heart.

Not only did he believe that his eldest uncle had killed his father.

He was even bent on killing Bai Lingfeng to avenge his father's death.

Hearing this, Lin Mo also could not help but interject and ask.

"Master, did you later identify the identity of that attacker?"

At the mention of this matter, the aura around Elder Bai's body also became bitterly cold.

There were no words.

He simply pulled out a six-pronged dart from his bosom.

With a mere glance, Lin Mo recognised the origin of this object.

Japanese, a sa sin ninja special concealed weapon, shuriken.

At this time, Lin Mo finally understood.

Why did his master have such a great hatred for the Japanese.

"This matter, I will explain it to you, just keep it in your heart.

Do not tell it to outsiders."

Hearing Elder Bai's admonition.

Lin Mo couldn't help but be puzzled.

Since there was such a misunderstanding here, why didn't he explain it clearly to this White-Faced Lang.

Blood is thicker than water.

One side was the eldest uncle and the other was the nephew.

As long as there is a misunderstanding, it can always be explained.

And it seemed that Elder Bai also saw Lin Mo's doubts and then explained to himself.

"This child, Bai Mianlang, is not like you who knows how to hold back and know how to build up afterwards.

If I explain this matter clearly to him.

With his character, he will definitely fight to the death with that Japanese country."

“In China, as long as he doesn’t do anything unconscionable.

I can still save his life, but if it comes to the Japanese country.”

Speaking at this point, Elder Bai stopped speaking.

As for Lin Mo, he also understood what his master meant.

It was just that Elder Bai was worried that his nephew with seek revenge on the Japanese forces and end up following his own father’s footsteps.

Therefore, this old man, Bai, preferred to bear all of this on his own, rather than explain it clearly.

“This is what I owe them both, father and son!”

After saying that, Old Man Bai sighed deeply.

And Lin Mo walked forward in order to divert Elder Bai’s attention.

Just as he was planning, to fetch incense to pay respects to this deceased senior uncle.

Elder Bai suddenly stopped him.

“Time, it’s late, you should go back and rest first.”

This move, too, made Doubt puzzled.

But since it was his master’s wish, he could only obediently comply.

After Lin Mo had left.

Old Bai stood outside the compound for a long time, watching the back of his disciple, bewildered.

It was only when Uncle Shou fetched his coat and put it on him.

Only then did Elder Bai come back to his senses.

“Master, since you have already spoken out on this matter.

Why don’t you tell it to the end!”

At this moment, Old Man Bai was still in deep thought with his eyes.

But this distant night, he muttered.

“The grudge of our previous generation shouldn’t be left to the younger generation to bear.

Moreover, Lin Mo is surnamed Lin after all.

It was ultimately my fault back then, and I shouldn’t have involved him in this.”

“They youngsters have their own paths to walk, their own everything they need to carry.

Those of us who have half a foot in the coffin.

Let's not add to their burdens."

Beside him, Uncle Shou also nodded his head.

It was just that he still had doubts in his heart.

"Master, is this Lin Mo really going to be stronger than that White-Faced Lang?"

Above the banquet, he had already come into head-to-head contact with White-Faced Lang.

Although there was no hand-to-hand combat.

But the other party was already considered an expert at the top of the hierarchy just by that majestic aura.

As for Lin Mo, Shou Bo was in Shou Bo's opinion.

Since we met until now, this young man seemed to have not changed at all.

"That's why I said that this beloved disciple of mine is better at hiding his clumsiness than White-Faced Lang.

Normally, he hides himself all the time, disguising himself as a harmless person.

But when you've seen his real strength, you'll know."

"I don't know how this kid cultivates.

Every time we meet, his strength changes drastically.

Moreover, that divine weapon in his hand, even I faintly detect a hint of danger."

Speaking of this, Elder Bai's face, too, gradually became serious.

Such a speed of martial dao advancement that was beyond normal people, even he, Old Man Bai, could not help but be staggered.

On the other side.

Lin Mo was on his way back.

His heart was also full of doubts.

After the old man had told him about the past, he seemed to have something to say.

But it had been cut off in the middle.

And originally, he wanted to pay respect to his deceased uncle.

It was also stopped by the master.

It was as if he didn't want to let himself have any interactions with him.

This also indicated that the master must have known something, but was unwilling to talk to him.

"Forget it, since I can't figure it out, I don't want to think about it!"

After shaking his head off.

Lin Mo simply stopped dwelling on it and drove the Prince of Hai Cheng's sports car towards Hui Chun Hall in a hurry.

.....

The conversation was divided into two ends.

The white faced man's side.

After disgusting Lin Mo's celebration feast.

He then came to Nangong Jingliu's side as well.

"What's wrong, looking at you like this, I guess the plan failed!"

Just as soon as White-Faced Lang entered the door.

Fifth Master Xue then said with a teasing smile.

"Fifth Master, you guessed wrong! Our plan was a success.

Lin Mo's celebration feast was ruined completely by us."

Of course, if it wasn't for the appearance of the Japanese group.

White-faced Lang wouldn't have been so nostalgic at this point.

"Young man, you are thinking too simply.

Do you really think that the old man of the White Family will just have a celebration party for Lin Mo?

What he wants is to make Lin Mo's reputation known."

"So, the bigger this celebration feast is, the more successful he will be.

Have you not noticed?

This Lin Mo, has slowly started to enter, the sight of the top bra*s in Kyoto."

Saying that, Master Xue Wu smiled faintly, then he picked up the tea set in his hands and began to clean it patiently.

The white-faced Lang, who was already in a depressed mood, after the other party explained so much.

His face then became even more gloomy.

I didn't expect that this old immortal would be so heavy-hearted.

Of course, this was also related to his own over-eagerness to get what he wanted.

It was just the thought that now he had the advantage of joining the Martial Union.

That old thing didn't dare to do anything to him.

So he let his guard down a little and fell straight into the other party's trap

He thought that he would need to calm down afterwards.

Thinking of this.

White-faced Lang took a deep breath.

After adjusting his mind, he looked into the thick night and began to make his calculations later.

Chapter 2306

Early the next morning.

At the sound of his wife's urging.

Lin Mo's sleepy eyes were forcibly awakened.

His wife and parents-in-law had been negotiating for so many days.

Finally, the location of the shop had to be chosen.

And today was the day to look at the property.

The location of the shop is at the junction of Xijing Street and the commercial area.

With the office building at the back and the pedestrianised shopping street at the front.

The location is naturally a good place to do business.

Of course, the price is also very high.

For a small shop of less than 20 square feet, the annual rent is no less than 300,000 yuan.

As for the shop Lin Mo was looking at today, it was a two-storey restaurant.

The owner was planning to go abroad to continue to make up for the shortfall in his capital chain.

So he offered this relatively valuable restaurant building under his name.

By the time Lin Mo arrived and waited for his party, the place was already full of people.

There were already some people who had arrived in twos and threes and started to visit and assess the price.

The area of the restaurant is not big, less than a hundred square feet.

It's the ancient style of decoration that is so refreshing.

The ground floor is simply furnished, mainly with the kitchen and front counter ordering.

The rest of the place and the first floor are all dining areas.

After a brief stroll around.

Lin Mo also felt that it was good.

After discussing with his mother-in-law, if the price was right, he would buy it.

“Mom and Dad, you guys watch it first.

I’ll go and talk to the owner about the price!”

Said Lin Mo, and left alone.

When he arrived at the owner’s side of the restaurant.

Someone was already negotiating the price.

When Lin Mo approached.

He only saw an oily, formal dressed man who was boasting about it.

“Boss Cai, it’s not that we’re deliberately trying to suppress the prices.

The decoration style of this restaurant of yours has been completely set.

After we take it, we’ll have to completely redecorate it.”

“You also know how expensive the renovation is now.

A price of thirty million is indeed too high.

How about this, fifteen million. We’ll sign the contract on the spot.”

The price was cut down in general.

This boss, surnamed Cai, was naturally anxious.

“Manager Jiang, there are no such price cuts from you guys.

Even if the renovation costs were higher, this restaurant of mine would cost at most two to three million and that would be more than enough.

There’s no need for that, more than ten million.”

And at this time, Manager Jiang, who was still smiling, suddenly pulled down his face.

“What, are you looking down on me, Jiang?

To take this restaurant of yours, how could I possibly spend just a few million on renovation.

Or are you looking down on our General Manager Cao’s strength.”

And when this Manager Jiang advanced General Cao this time.

The hotel owner was instantly full of tears.

“Manager Jiang, naturally I don’t dare that meaning.

It’s just that this price you’ve hit is really too low.

I this , , , , ”

Before the other party could finish, Manager Jiang waved his hand.

“Alright, just say whether it’s for sale or not.

You have to know that as long as I open my mouth.

Within the same line, it is guaranteed that no one will dare to take over your restaurant.”

“Moreover, I heard that Boss Cai, is rather short of money recently, right.

If you can’t get rid of the restaurant as soon as possible.

You’ll lose more than just the fifteen hundred.”

The restaurant owner didn’t expect the other party to be so sinister.

But what he had to admit was that this manager did have the power.

He had the huge Cao Group at his back.

As long as this man surnamed Jiang said something, other people within the industry would naturally give him this face as well.

When the time comes, it will be 15 million, and the fraction of 5 million may not even be sold.

The other industries under his own name are having capital chain problems.

If there is no new capital injection, the only result is to close down.

When he thought of this, his eyes were red with frustration.

But he had to bow his head under the eaves of the house.

After gritting his teeth.

The hotel owner clenched his fist fiercely.

But then let go again.

“Eh, I...”

Just as he was about to agree, Lin Mo spoke up.

Chapter 2307

“Wait a minute!

Are you sort of forcing yourself to buy it?”

Although Lin Mo also had his eye on this tavern

But if it was a normal transaction, first come, first served.

He naturally wouldn’t have spoken out to stop it.

But this manager, surnamed Jiang, was using his power to pressurise and force the other party to lower the price.

This was something he could not stand to see.

Originally, Jiang was full of complacency.

It was his intention to frantically press the price.

When the time came, he offered the company the original price of $30 million.

After the deal was done, he would take out five million to smooth the way and still have ten million in his pocket.

Seeing that the plan was about to succeed, the owner of the restaurant also intended to agree.

Suddenly, a stranger was about to give up.

This manager Jiang was naturally furious.

And after he saw Lin Mo in his outfit, he suddenly snorted with laughter.

“I say, Boss Cai, this place of yours is getting worse with age.

If I remember correctly, this restaurant of yours is a place that specialises in serving high-end people, right?

Now that the restaurant is for sale, all kinds of cats and dogs can come in?”

As he said that, Manager Jiang glanced at Lin Mo with disdain and then stopped paying attention.

It seemed that he didn't care about a poor young man like Lin Mo.

“You're buying by force.”

When Lin Mo's face was calm, he mentioned this matter again.

Manager Jiang also darkened his face.

“Forced to buy and sell?

You're right, I'm buying and selling by force, what can you do to me.

If you have the guts, buy it.”

“The original price is $30 million, not even that I look down on you.

You're so poor, you can't even get three grand out of it.

How dare you meddle with things like this?”

At this moment, Lin Mo also lit up.

He didn't care much about this manager Jiang's mocking words.

It was just a mad dog barking madly.

“What if I can take it out!

Wouldn't I get the qualification to buy it?”

And after hearing Lin Mo's query.

Manager Jiang burst into laughter.

“Hahahaha, I'm laughing my a*s off.

Even a poor man like you dares to make a big speech.”

“Fine, fine, fine, as long as then you have thirty million.

You can just buy this restaurant.

When the time comes, I'll give you another ten million to make up for it.

No, no, no, let's give you a supplement of twenty million.”

Manager Jiang had been in society for so many years.

What he had cultivated was a pair of eyes that could recognise ordinary people.

He could tell a poor person from a rich person at a glance.

Not to mention Lin Mo's roadside stall outfit.

He could tell that Lin Mo was not a member of the upper cla*s by his temperament alone.

“Of course, if you can't take it out.

I won't make it difficult for you, just kowtow and admit your mistake.

It's a deal.”

The pros and cons were all said by him, not giving Lin Mo the chance to agree or refuse at all.

Even if the tavern owner wanted to say something to stop it, there was simply no room to intervene.

As for Lin Mo, he didn't hesitate at this point.

After all, the other party was so polite and generous that he was too embarra*sed to refuse.

“That's good, Boss Cai, isn't it.

This restaurant is very good, and I won't take advantage of you.

Thirty-five million, I'll take it.”

Said Lin Mo, pulling out, what Song Zhilan had given him earlier was a bank card.

It said that it was the dividends from Cloud Creation Spray.

Although it was not clear how much money was inside.

But with Song Zhilan's solemn appearance.

I thought it was an amount of over a hundred million.

“Che, pretending!”

Manager Jiang couldn't help but spit out a sentence when he saw Lin Mo's look of lack of confidence.

At this moment's already thought of the scene where Lin Mo would kowtow to her and admit his mistake later.

But at this very moment.

On the restaurant owner's side, however, there was a sudden sound of money transfer arriving.

“Drop! The account has arrived at thirty million yuan!”

And this mechanical sound was like a slap in the face, heavily thrown at Manager Jiang's face.

“Impossible, absolutely impossible.

How can you, a poor man, have so much money.

You and must be in cahoots to cheat me!”

Or, Manager Jiang then rushed to, in front of Lin Mo.

Only when his eyes fell on the card swipe machine.

Looking at the display, the long string of numbers.

His pupils couldn't help but shrink.

“Ten... Ten billion!”

Chapter 2308

Lin Mo himself did not expect that there would be so much money inside this card.

After asking about it, Song Zhilan only said that it was just a dividend from the profits of Cloud Creation Spray.

She then hung up the phone after dealing with business.

“Manager Jiang, the 20 million you have, when will it arrive?”

After putting back the phone.

Lin Mo asked with a smile on his face.

At this time, the most embarrassed person on the scene was Manager Jiang.

Thinking about the boast he had just made, he couldn't help but have his face turned red.

“That's not possible.

With a poor man like you, how can you possibly get your hands on so much money.

This card, you can't have stolen it!"

It seemed that this was the only reason that could make his feel better.

Lin Mo was also very speechless towards such a person.

"Manager Jiang, are you anxious about Shi Le Zhi?

If a black gold card of such a large amount is lost, don't you think the funds inside should be frozen at the first opportunity?

Also, even if I gave you this gold card, can you spend it?"

Two questions in quick succession directly blocked Manager Jiang's speechlessness.

In fact, this was all he knew, he just had a hard time accepting this fact for a while.

The restaurant owner at the side, seeing this defeated look on Manager Cai's face, was also secretly snickering.

Now that the restaurant had struck out, he naturally didn't need to fear this manager.

This was perhaps what evil had in store for him.

Seeing that the situation had developed to this point.

Manager Jiang was instantly furious.

As the manager of Cao's strategy department, he had never suffered this kind of nastiness before.

In his anger, he became furious.

With bloodshot eyes, he questioned menacingly.

"Kid, you are definitely going against me today, aren't you?

I hope you know what's right and wrong, having offended me, Jiang.

In the future, you won't be able to have any good days in this Kyoto."

At his threat, Lin Mo only smiled faintly.

"Manager Jiang, let's talk about the 20 million now."

What he, Lin Mo, was most unafraid of was the threatening words of others.

"You, good boy, you wait for me.

If you can successfully buy this restaurant today, I'll take your surname."

With that, he took out his mobile phone.

Looking at the stance it was obvious that he was going to shake people's rhythm.

"Hey, Mr. Cao.

Let's talk again, I'm over here at the restaurant now.

But I'm having a little trouble, there's a kid who doesn't see eye to eye with me all the time."

"I'm almost done talking here, and he's sticking his nose in."

"What? You want to come over? Okay, okay!"

After hanging up the phone.

Manager Jiang then sat down on the sofa to the side in triumph.

After his men lit a cigarette for him.

Manager Jiang talked about the ashes in his hand.

"Since you just want to die, it's not my fault.

Let's just sit down slowly, later our General Manager Cao will be here.

You take this time to think about your own way back."

Hearing this news, the hotel owner instantly put away his smiling face.

Especially when he learnt that the boss of Cao's group, was about to come to the scene for an interview in person.

This Cai boss was even more flustered.

"Little brother, we don't have a contract signed right now.

I suddenly don't want to sell, so I'd better return the money to you!"

However to this proposal of his.

Lin Mo directly shook his head and refused.

"Boss Cai, since the money has been paid, how can there be any reason to return it.

Let's just hurry up and sign the contract."

Seeing Lin Mo's newborn appearance, he was not afraid of the tiger.

The restaurant owner was also secretly anxious, and he first glanced at General Manager on the sofa.

Only then did he pull Lin Mo aside and spoke softly.

"Young man, why don't you have any eyesight at all.

Do you know that Cao's group, not only is it strong.

Moreover, it is said that this General Manager Cao is not very close to the Bai family."

"I don't think you look like a person from Kyoto either.

Take my advice, the water in Kyoto is very deep.

This General Manager Cao of the Cao Group is not something you can offend.”

Chapter 2309

As a bespoke version of the Rolls-Royce top-of-the-range car came to a halt.

Manager Jiang hurriedly stood up.

He eventually trotted all the way to the front of the car and waited respectfully for the arrival of their boss.

As the car door slowly opened.

A middle-aged man dressed in a practice suit stepped out of it.

His tall, upright body gave people an invisible sense of oppression.

Looking at his whole body, although he was dressed in ordinary clothes, he gave people a sense of wealth and nobility.

“What’s going on?”

Ever since yesterday, his own eldest uncle had been wantonly denigrated by White-Faced Lang.

Cao An’s mood had also been gloomy.

Plus, Seeing Heaven received another call from his men.

After learning that the restaurant’s acquisition project had failed.

Cao An was even more annoyed in his heart.

According to the previous strategic plan.

The restaurant was an important part of his own designated catering industry.

It was for this reason, to ensure that the acquisition process went smoothly.

He deliberately dispatched, the manager of the company’s strategy department, to personally negotiate.

Unexpectedly, there was still a mistake.

The manager, Jiang, who was on the side, after hearing Mr. Cao’s questioning.

Subconsciously, his gaze flickered.

Just after skimming a glance at Lin Mo in the room.

Manager Jiang gritted his teeth and complained.

“General Manager Cao, originally I have already discussed with the owner of this restaurant.

All that was missing was to sign the contract and pay the money, but suddenly some wild kid came out of nowhere.

He bid maliciously and offered thirty-five million dollars to buy the restaurant.”

After hearing his elaboration.

Cao An’s face instantly turned black.

He was already full of irritation, and now when he was provoked by Manager Jiang, it was like pouring oil on the fire.

“How dare you, I, Cao, have been in the Kyoto business circle for so many years.

It’s the first time I’ve met someone who dares to intercept our Cao Group’s plan.”

“Lead the way ahead, I’d like to meet the other party.”

As for Manager Jiang, it was also the first time he encountered such an angry scene from his own boss.

After shrinking his neck, he hurriedly stepped forward to lead the way.

Just a touch of excitement inexplicably surfaced on his face as he carried Cao An on his back.

The angrier General Cao was, wouldn’t that ungrateful brat end up worse off?

Let you offend me, someone from Jiang, and you’ll have your consequences later.

On the other hand.

Seeing that Mr. Cao was about to reach the scene.

The restaurant owner couldn’t help but panic.

Then he looked at Lin Mo’s unmoved face.

Boss Cai’s heart was even more anxious.

Had he known this, he would have rather sold the restaurant to Manager Jiang at a low price.

Now, not only did he put the other party on the spot.

He had even involved the boss of the Cao Group.

Just when Boss Cai was feeling restless inside.

Cao An also stepped into the room.

Seeing the other party’s gloomy face, Boss Cao even cried out in secret.

It was just that in such a situation today, he had to stiffen his head and go forward to apologise.

“Mr. Cao, I am extremely sorry.

It’s because I was blinded by money and I was not on the right track.

Let’s sign the contract for this restaurant at the negotiated price.”

However at this time.

Cao An did not pay attention to Yu the restaurant owner, instead he walked straight towards behind him.

Just as Manager Jiang was with full excitement, expecting Lin Mo to receive General Manager Cao's thunderous anger.

Cao An went straight forward and shook the latter's hands.

"Lin Mo, I didn't expect to meet you here."

Hmm????

What was this?

Why would the normally unsmiling General Manager Cao be so enthusiastic towards this strange young man.

Such a scene naturally also viewed the hotel owner at the side.

What was the identity of this young man?

Surprisingly, he was able to make the boss of the Cao Group personally bend down and shake his hand.

However, at this moment, Lin Mo did not smile in the face of Cao An who was full of enthusiasm.

"Uncle Cao, this forced buying and selling approach, is it something you arranged for this manager Jiang?"

Although it was said that the other party was Uncle Shou's nephew.

But if yes, the other party was using the Bai family as a backing to do something naughty.

He, Lin Mo, decided that he would not stand by idly.

Chapter 2310

At this moment, Cao An, seeing this look on Lin Mo's face, also looked stunned.

"What forced buying and selling?"

"What's going on here, Manager Jiang?"

Drunkenly, Cao An burst into a light sum.

Manager Jiang's feet directly went limp.

It was over!

But the matter had come to this, with Lin Mo and the restaurant owner present.

There was no room for him to lie.

In desperation, he could only give a full account of what had happened.

After hearing this, Cao An was so angry that his hair was almost straight.

I never thought that such a scum had appeared in the Cao Group that he managed.

Moreover, this manager Jiang even mocked Elder Bai's closed-door disciple as a poor man.

Just who had given him the courage.

At this time, the atmosphere of the entire room also instantly chilled down.

After sensing Mr. Cao's angry mood.

Manager Jiang immediately begged for mercy to.

"Mr. Cao, Mr. Cao, I was wrong, it's not right.

But I was also trying to save the company money, so I deliberately lowered the price.

I beg you to give me another chance."

Cao An looked coldly, how could such tricks to fool children fool him.

"Oh, saving money for the company?

A shop valued at thirty million dollars is being forced by you to buy and sell at a price of fifteen million.

You just want to embezzle the difference in price.

Don't use that kind of childish excuse to justify pole."

Cao An had revealed his secret in one word.

Manager Jiang's face became even more flustered.

"Mr. Cao, I really didn't.

Heaven and earth, I have done my duty for the company all these years.

How could I possibly do this corrupt thing, you have to believe me, Mr. Cao."

However the more he explained, the darker Cao An's face became.

"I originally thought that if you could honestly give an account.

Seeing that you have served the group for so many years, there is no merit but also hard work.

I could let you off the hook."

"But you surprisingly don't eat the wine, so I can only follow the process.

Secretary Fan, contact the Internal Audit Department for me.

Retrieve all of our manager Jiang's bank flow for the past year."

Cao An had been in society for so many years.

He had even occupied a place in the business circle in a dragon's den like Kyoto, so naturally he was particularly good at it.

Fifteen million was not a small amount.

Such a large difference in price would naturally need to be reported to the company.

However, the company had not received any news of its own affairs.

This means that there must be a ghost in it.

At this moment, the manager opposite, Jiang, heard Cao An's instructions.

His face instantly paled, and bean-sized cold sweat was pouring out in a steady stream.

"Mr. Cao, I was wrong, I was really wrong.

I shouldn't have gotten carried away with my wealth, I was just confused for a moment."

With that, he fell to his knees, frantically apologising and admitting his mistake.

But the more he did so, the more Cao An recoiled.

"Hmph, indisputable thing.

I've been getting worse and worse reviews of our Cao Group in the market for a long time.

So it's because of a 'good employee' like you."

"Fine, good for you.

Take this disgraceful thing back to me for examination."

After waiting for his men to pull the wretched Manager Jiang down.

Cao An gave the order again.

"Also inform the internal audit team and the audit team.

Check the flow of water of all the outside teams in the past two years.

But anyone who embezzles or takes bribes or does anything improper in the name of the group will be severely punished."

By the time his words fell.

A big storm within the Cao Group followed.

After finishing this side of the matter.

Cao An arched his hand towards Lin Mo.

"Mr. Lin, it is my mismanagement that has caused you trouble.

I will personally host a banquet to make amends when I finish taking care of the group's internal matters."

Having witnessed the whole thing.

Lin Mo generally understood the truth of the matter as well.

“Uncle Cao, there is no need for that, I misunderstood you.”

“No harm, no harm, this matter is mainly because of me as well.

Then I’ll go take care of the group’s business first on this side.

Farewell.”

With that, Cao An then also turned around and left.
