Chapter 2311

“Hey boss! Stop gawking, hey boss!”

After nudging the bewildered restaurant owner.

The latter only came back to his senses after a long time from the shock he had just experienced.

“Mr. Lin, this .... This...”

Raising his hand, he pointed at Cao An’s back.

Boss Cai hadn’t calmed down for a moment and his speech was intermittent.

“Alright, Boss Cai, don’t pull this and that.

Let’s just sign the contract first.”

Being reminded by Lin Mo like this.

The tavern owner also instantly came back to his senses.

“Oh, yes, yes, yes, sign the contract, sign the contract.”

After saying that, he panicked and took out the transfer contract that he had prepared beforehand.

After both parties had signed the contract.

This “Kang De Restaurant” would completely belong to Lin Mo.

“Mr. Lin, I’ll leave this to you.

I have some important business to attend to, so I won’t stay any longer.

Mr. Lin, you go ahead.”

After saying that, the restaurant owner hurriedly left the place.

It wasn’t that he didn’t want to climb up and befriend Lin Mo.

Rather, the difference between the two sides was too great.

The Cao Group was one of the top financial empires in the land of Kyoto.

Although its form was low-key and did not like to show off.

Only someone like Boss Cai, who had been in the market for many years, would be able to understand the terror of the other side.

And it was the head of such a super financial empire who had to be polite and courteous in front of Lin Mo.

Such a person was not from the same world as himself.

It would be better to stay away.

Waiting for the restaurant owner to leave.

His wife, Xu Hanxia, sensing the commotion over here also came down from the first floor.

“What’s wrong, I think I just saw, well I think some big shot came over?”

“Oh, nothing, just people watching the tavern.

By the way, the title of the tavern has been taken down.”

Hearing this news, Xu Hanxia’s face lit up with joy.

“Wow, really?”

I was worried that I wouldn’t be able to grab it.

When we were just visiting, there were a number of people that had their hearts set on this other party.”

Lin Mo took out the contract and handed it to his wife.

“Then there’s still a lie, there’s still something I can’t do that I’ve stepped in to do?”

After the result of the contract, Xu Hanxia also pursed her lips and smiled.

“How can you brag so much about yourself!”

The matter of the shop was settled.

And the business was the morning tea shop.

This was also a sudden inspiration that came to Lin Mo when he was delivering breakfast porridge to his wife.

In the following days, Lin Mo also took advantage of his free time to develop a few flavours from his ancestors’ heritage.

He developed a few unique and nutritious breakfast dishes as an exclusive recipe for the morning tea shop.

And now, since the herb tea shop has been handled out of things not much.

The rest of the renovation, opening, and recruiting staff matters, leave it to the parents-in-law.

As for Lin Mo himself, he just went to the Medical Alliance Elders’ House.

“Elder Nie, is there any new progress on the project?”

Yesterday, the Elder Academy then sent someone to Lin Mo with the recent progress of the experiments.

“That’s right, there have indeed been new discoveries.

Follow me!”

After following Elder Nie to the laboratory.

On the wide monitor, various data was continuously pulsating.

“According to the previous, you parsed out the genetic composition.

After our special analysis and research, we cultivated the original solution of this virus.

This is the result of our latest experiment.”

As Elder Nie narrated.

The content on the screen also changed.

A researcher wearing a sealed isolation suit was seen.

He was carefully dropping the original virus solution into the vessel containing the blood.

And as the two fused with each other.

It seemed that there was an invisible force controlling the blood and making it flow.

At that moment, the test data also suddenly began to soar.

But this abnormality lasted for less than half a minute.

The blood returned to calm.

And those soaring data also began to fall back rapidly.

It kept dropping to, at first, about half of the initial level, before gradually stopping this downward momentum.

Chapter 2312

Morning.

Busy commuters drive off to another round of work.

Drivers stuck in traffic, looking anxiously at their wristwatches and honking frantically.

On the pavements, there were even more shoulders to rub together.

“My God, my God, I’m going to be late, I’m going to be late.”

There was still half an hour before the start of work.

Liu Dong ran towards the company in a panic.

However halfway to the office, he had suddenly stopped in his tracks.

“D*mn, I forgot to bring breakfast for the leader, I promised to come down yesterday.”

With a slap on his head, Liu Dong folded back up again.

“Eh? How come a new morning tea shop has opened here.

Wasn't it a high-end restaurant before?”

However, as it was close to work time, Liu Dong did not care to think much about it.

Since he could buy breakfast here and there, he had saved more than ten minutes of travelling.

It was only when he stepped into the shop and took a glance at the list of unit prices hanging in front of the ordering counter that he couldn't help but burst out.

“Holy sh*t, what kind of breakfast is this that you guys are buying that is so expensive?”

The Eight Treasure Congee that cost less than five dollars a serving outside, here just changed its name and surprisingly charged more than a hundred.

And the other types of congee were also about the same price.

On the other hand, Jing Yun Internet office building floor.

Inside the general manager's office.

Looking at his subordinate who was frowning and constantly rubbing his abdomen.

General Manager Chen asked in a caring manner.

“What's wrong, Little Meng?”

Is this another stomach bug you're having?”

Manager Meng also nodded his head.

“Can't help it, this is always staying up late to catch up on projects.

Irregular work and rest, and this stomach problem has never gotten better?”

After saying that, he couldn't help but yawn again.

Looking at his exhausted appearance.

Chen also shook his head helplessly.

“You can't do this, you're staying up late and skipping breakfast.

Even an iron body can't withstand this!”

Wiping the tears that flowed out of the corners of his eyes from yawning.

Manager Meng spat out tiredly.

“I can't eat breakfast, and this business district has to take half of the blame.

It's amazing that you can't even find a breakfast place in a place that's so big.”

“Come on, you should stop complaining.

We've got a lot of land over here, so who can afford to eat at a breakfast place.

Ten yuan for a meat bun, fifty yuan for a bowl of congee, do you want it?"

Listening to Mr. Chen's explanation.

Manager Meng also nodded in agreement.

"Eh, poor sickness.

I can't, I can't top it!

The investors will be here later, I'll take a nap first."

Without waiting for Mr. Chen's reply, Manager Meng went to lie down on top of the sofa and fell asleep.

On the other hand.

The other side.

Liu Dong finally clocked in five minutes before work.

After knocking on the door and getting a reply.

He then pushed the door and entered the general manager's office.

"General Manager Chen, is Manager Meng on your side?"

In front of the office desk, General Manager Chen after seeing the person who came.

After taking another look at the breakfast the other party was carrying in his hand, he then nudged his way towards the sofa.

Seeing Manager Meng, Liu Dong heartily put the breakfast in his hand, on top of the coffee table.

After that, he turned around and left.

This breakfast had cost him more than two hundred yuan.

If he wasn't in a hurry, he would rather run a long way.

It was a quarter of an hour later.

Manager Meng, who was asleep, was woken up by General Manager Chen.

"The investors will be here soon.

You should have some breakfast first to wake up."

As the most powerful backbone of his own staff.

Mr. Chen naturally cared for him.

As for the sleepy-eyed Manager Meng, he forced himself to get up.

After moving his body and bones a bit.

Only then did he turn his gaze and turn to the breakfast in front of him.

“This Xiao Liu is quite perceptive, knowing that I stayed up late working overtime, he also brought me morning tea to refresh my mind.”

With a pleased smile, he then quickly opened the box.

The next second the rich fragrance, instantly wafted throughout the office.

Especially the morning tea, the overflowing aroma was even more refreshing.

With a single sniff of the nose, the original feeling of exhaustion instantly dissipated.

Chapter 2313

After all, skipping breakfast has become a habit.

Instead, there was no hunger in the morning.

If it wasn't for the stomach discomfort, Manager Meng wouldn't have asked someone to bring breakfast.

However, smelling the fragrance emanating from the lunch box.

Mr. Chen couldn't help but swallow his saliva.

“Old Chen, why don't you have some first?”

Manager Meng looked at the other party's mouth-watering appearance, forcing himself to resist the hunger that arose from his heart, and graciously stated.

“You can forget it, I've had breakfast.”

Said Mr. Chen, and walked towards his desk.

Just as he turned around, he still couldn't help but glance at the eight-pot porridge on the coffee table.

Why could such an ordinary breakfast be made so appetizing.

Yet before he could sit down.

Behind him came, the sound of drinking congee bared and bared.

Coupled with the burst of fragrance in that room.

Mr. Chen finally couldn't hold back.

After dialing the phone number of the general manager's office, he summoned Liu Dong by name.

In less than ten minutes, with a rush of footsteps came the sound of.

Liu Dong once again ran out of the office building in a panic.

The conversation was divided into two parts.

Ever since Lin Mo had taken over the restaurant.

Mother-in-law then rushed to start the preparation of the morning tea shop.

In just a few days.

The building was completely transformed into a morning tea shop

And it was named 'Xia Mo Morning Tea'.

Today, as the first day of opening, the business in the shop seemed to be a bit dismal.

There were less than a dozen people in a fragmented manner.

"Hanxia, do you think we have set the price too high.

Why aren't people coming to this shop?"

Seeing that there were not many customers on the opening day.

Mother-in-law asked with some anxiety.

"Mom, just don't worry.

Lin Mo said, just these breakfasts that our family bought, they were carefully researched by him.

Together with the shop costs, this price is already the lowest."

"Moreover, you've tried our own kinds of porridge points.

Not only do they taste good, the medical effects are also strong.

Peace of mind!"

Although her daughter was telling the truth, Fang Hui was still a little anxious.

After all, not many customers had come to the shop in the past half a day, so it was natural that she had no confidence.

It was during this waiting process.

The time came to noon.

Mother-in-law had already given up by now.

It was already this time of the day, so there was no one left.

However, just as she was desperate, a large group of people in shirts, wearing shirts, were in the distance.

In the distance a large group, white collar workers in shirts and trousers, came in groups this way.

"Boss, what's that nourishing congee of yours, one for each person."

Seeing the sudden arrival of a hundred or so people.

Fang Hui couldn't help but froze in her tracks.

What was this, it was already lunchtime, and there were still so many people coming for congee?

“Mom, why are you still standing there, hurry up and serve them.”

Xu Hanxia reminded her of this.

Mother-in-law also instantly came back to her senses.

Immediately afterwards, “Xia Mo Morning Tea” was completely busy.

In the dining area, the group of customers were amazed after eating the food themselves.

“Wow, it’s true, I thought Manager Meng was bragging at first.

I didn’t expect that this shop’s rice porridge really has the effect of nourishing the stomach.”

“It’s true, my stomach acidity and bloating symptoms have been significantly reduced, it’s really amazing.”

“And the taste is so delicious, what kind of divine morning tea shop is this.”

On the other side, sitting at the main table, the duo of Manager Meng and General Manager Chen.

After enjoying the large bowl of rice congee.

Only then did General Manager Chen rub his stomach contentedly and ordered to.

“Liu Zheng, ask the boss to make a pot for each table, that whatever refreshing tea you brought me this morning.”

If he hadn’t experienced it himself, he wouldn’t have believed that there was such a refreshing drink in this world.

Like Manager Meng, who was still sleepy and sleepy-eyed, after a cup of it, his whole body was alive and well.

At the financing launch, he naturally performed perfectly.

This led to a smooth negotiation with the investor.

It can be said that this time, the success of the financing, enhance the tea also has a small amount of credit.

That’s why he brought all his staff to patronise ‘Xia Mo Morning Tea’.

Chapter 2314

It was busy until nearly two o’clock in the afternoon.

Only then did Xu Hanxia and Fang Hui send such a large group of customers away completely.

Originally, they should have left around one o’clock.

It was only after learning that the morning tea shop had other kinds of health congee.

The congee was a stomach-warming congee, a red dates and ginger congee, and a Xianmao Zhuang Yuan congee.

There are also all kinds of teas that regulate the body skills such as awakening tea, nourishing tea, and lung moistening tea.

Although the price ranges from a hundred yuan to thousands.

But when as the general manager of the group company.

Chen could not be ambiguous at all, almost all the categories, he ordered one for his own staff.

That's why it took so long to drag on.

After finishing packing up, mother-in-law Fang Hui tiredly hammered her sore arms.

Seeing him in this state, Xu Hanxia shook her head helplessly.

"Mum, let's hire some staff.

Otherwise, there will only be three of us plus Dad.

It's simply not enough to keep busy."

This suggestion was heard.

Fang Hui was also impressed.

It was true that three people could not cope with the work.

Plus, we were not the kind of family that did this kind of work before.

You know, her daughter was the head of the Xu Group.

It's not a good idea to be a waiter.

Thinking of this, mother-in-law also nodded in agreement.

However, she could not help but complain.

"Where's Lin Mo, ever since he took over this restaurant.

All day long, no one is around.

Hanxia, you have to keep an eye on him, as Kyoto is full of materialistic desires, there is no guarantee that he will change his mind that day."

Xu Hanxia didn't care much about such things.

The two of them had been together for so long, from the beginning, when their parents were in constant conflict with their husband.

At the back, the two elders gradually changed their attitude towards Lin Mo.

During this process, if Lin Mo had any thoughts, he would have changed his mind long ago.

There was no need to wait until Kyoto.

“Mom, don’t be so naive.

Lin Mo just isn’t that kind of person, his status is different now.

He naturally has his own things to keep busy with. Let’s not add to her worries.”

When Mother-in-law heard this, she instantly became unhappy.

“You’re throwing your elbow out.

Isn’t it for your own good for me to be a mother?”

Seeing that her mother was about to start her ranting mode.

Xu Hanxia hurriedly pulled away from the topic.

“Alright, mum!

I’ll definitely keep a good eye on Lin Mo from now on haha.”

“Alright, I’ll go find Dad.

Put up the job announcement for our side.

Recruit some more takeaway delivery staff by the way.”

Seeing her daughter bolt straight away, Fang Hui was also exasperated.

“This daughter of mine!”

Life was heading in a better direction after all.

Be it family, or emotions.

In this way, the “Xia Mo Morning Tea” opened its doors to great success and slowly began to enter the track.

As for Lin Mo’s side.

Naturally, he knew nothing about the morning tea shop.

During this period of time, he had been staying at the “Crouching Dragon” laboratory.

On one hand, he contributed a small amount of his own serum to the lab for research.

On the other hand, he was at the Elder’s House, frantically learning more about the recent times in the medical field.

The days were quite full.

That afternoon.

Elder Nie once again approached Lin Mo.

“The experiment has come to an end for now.

Regarding the serum, we already have the finished product of the first generation.

Although there are some side-effects, the damage is not too great.”

Lin Mo was naturally overjoyed at such a result.

As long as the serum was developed, this ‘walking corpse’ virus would not be that harmful to ordinary people.

“Elder Nie, I’ll go back first then.”

After putting down the copy of Introduction to Cytology in his hand, Lin Mo got up and said goodbye.

“Alright, you can go back first.

The Martial Union’s renewal event is about to begin.

During this period of time, you should hurry up and try to take this Martial Union crown as well.

When the time comes, the dual medical and martial arts crowns will make a legend that has never been seen before.”

Speaking of this, Nie Lao’s eyes also radiated, a little bit of light.

Chapter 2315

After leaving the laboratory.

Lin Mo’s first went to Nalan Mingzhu’s manor.

He had not seen Nan Bing’er for a long time.

The other party had obviously come out of an emotional slump as well.

“Brother Lin Mo, why are you here.”

Upon seeing Lin Mo, Nan Bing’er happily leapt directly onto the former’s shoulder.

“Didn’t I think of coming to see you?

How’s it going, are you still used to living over here?”

Being asked by Lin Mo like this.

Behind her back, Nan Bing’er also nodded happily.

“Mmmmmmmmm, auntie is very good to me.

It’s just that Auntie always doesn’t let me go out and sends a group of people to follow me every day, it’s so annoying.”

This Nangong Mingzhu was obviously trying to protect Nan Bing’er’s safety by doing this.

To this, Lin Mo didn’t say anything.

After all, it was fine for Nan Bing'er to be happy.

At her innocent age, she could just enjoy herself and have fun.

The grudges of the previous generation would be left to the previous generation to settle.

"Right, brother Lin Mo, wait for me for a moment, I'll go to the garden to find my aunt."

Said Nan Bing'er, and jumped down from Lin Mo's back with great enthusiasm.

Just before she could move, Lin Mo pulled him back.

"No need, I just came to see you today.

I'll be leaving soon."

When Lin Mo finished speaking.

Nan Bing'er instantly showed her disappointment.

"Ah, such a rush, I was thinking of treating you to a big meal."

"It's alright, let's wait for another time.

I'm relieved to see that you're still used to living here.

Alright, I have other things to attend to, so I'll see you next time."

With that, Lin Mo rubbed the top of Nan Bing'er's head.

The purpose of his visit today was to see Nan Bing'er for a while.

Seeing that the other party was living happily, he was naturally relieved.

This would be worthy of Nan Batian's trust.

Just as Lin Mo turned around.

But behind him, Nan Bing'er called out.

"Brother Lin Mo, if you see my father, please pass on a message for me.

Bing'er misses her father very much."

Hearing these words, Lin Mo's body suddenly trembled.

At this moment, he wanted to turn back, but was afraid of seeing the other party's sad face.

"Mm, I know.

If I see Uncle Nan, I will definitely help you convey it."

With those words, Lin Mo's then lifted his steps and left the place.

Having not seen Nan Baitian for a long time, Lin Mo actually had some worries in his heart.

According to the other party's character, he had already won the championship of the Medical Saint Competition.

Nanba Tian would definitely come to say goodbye in person.

Nowadays, however, they had not seen each other for a long time.

"Uncle Nan, I can help you now.

But where are you in person again?"

Glancing at the clouds in the sky, Lin Mo muttered a sentence.

Walking on the busy street.

Kyoto, which had just calmed down for a while after the Medical Saint Competition, was

It was once again bustling with activity.

People were coming and going, and martial arts experts from all walks of life were gradually thinking of Kyoto and starting to converge.

And unlike the Medical Saint Competition.

This time, the Martial Arts League was a new event.

It has attracted the attention of martial artists from all over the world.

Experts from all over the world have either arrived in Kyoto or are on their way to Kyoto.

And this time is also the time to reflect a country's strength.

During the reserve phase of the Grand Tournament, millions of military martial artists have already gathered in Kyoto.

From the start of this time period until the end.

A million military martial arts will guard the borders of Kyoto without leaving an inch.

As for the Martial Alliance, they are also out in full force.

All disturbances in the city are being investigated.

Even when they were walking on the streets, the Martial Union's inspection teams were everywhere.

As for Lin Mo's side.

After leaving the Nalan clan, he hurriedly rushed to the 'Xia Mo Morning Tea' shop.

But as he walked quickly.

He didn't even notice that there was a group of blue-eyed blondes around the corner ahead.

A group of blue-eyed, blonde, Australian martial artists strolled forward.

They collided head-on.

Lin Mo hurriedly pointed his toes and tilted his body.

He managed to avoid the sudden crowd that appeared around the corner.

“Sorry!”

After saying that and apologising, Lin Mo did not stay much longer and directly lifted his steps forward to leave.

Chapter 2316

Dennis Watt, the strongest martial arts genius of the Watt family, the top family in Australasia.

With a body of jiu-jitsu attainments, he has few rivals left among his peers within the land.

That’s why.

Dennis Watt has travelled with his family to Kyoto, China, to participate in the Grand Martial Arts Competition.

In order to make a breakthrough in his Jiu-Jitsu, he also wanted to improve his reputation by stepping on Chinese martial artists.

Of course, when he came to Kyoto for the first time, a visit was inevitable.

And as he was wandering around with his companion, Dennis Watt was close to being arrested.

The companion also came close, and was bumped into by a young man from China.

Such a thing, since it was only an accident, naturally did not require much reckoning on either side.

But the companion was taken aback and instantly showed his displeasure.

“Scared me, Dennis you guys wait for me here now for a moment.

I’ll go and teach him a lesson!”

With that the companion made to go after him, intending to get the other man in trouble.

However before he could take half a step out.

Behind him Dennis Watt called out to her.

“Cecilia, don’t be impulsive.

We’re in Chinese territory, don’t invite trouble for no reason.

Besides, the other party is also a master, probably no less powerful than you.”

Although the man was well concealed, he had just had a momentary encounter.

When he was dodging, he still exposed some of it.

Just that floating body technique, it was obvious that he was not a simple person.

As for Cecilia, she was clearly not convinced by Dennis' remark.

With a puff of anger, she stomped her foot, and her entire wavy curls were shaken with a tremble.

"Alright, just don't get angry.

Since the other party is also an expert of the younger generation.

We'll naturally meet them above the Grand Tournament, there's no rush now."

Hearing this, Cecilia's face only looked slightly better.

"Then, big brother Dennis, you have to help me teach him a good lesson when the time comes."

"Naturally no problem, how dare I disobey Miss Cecilia's orders.

When the time comes, you can make him break his arms and legs if you want."

With that said Danis raised his right hand and did a standard gentleman's salute.

Teased by him so much.

Cecilia also pursed her lips and laughed happily.

Those proud bosoms were even brought to tremble.

Dennis gulped at the sight.

"Brother Dennis, you are too cruel.

Just break his neck when the time comes.

That way he won't feel any pain."

"In the name of Miss Cecilia.

You really think a kind little princess."

With that Dennis picked up the other woman's jade hand and gently kissed the back of it.

There were two flowers in bloom, one for each.

Lin Mo was also unaware of everything that was happening in this room.

At this time, he was still in a fast rush.

After arriving at Xijing Street.

Two long queues of over a hundred metres directly scared Lin Mo.

And the end of this long queue was none other than the 'Xia Mo Morning Tea' shop.

"This business is too good!"

Before this, he had been able to guess that a morning tea shop that developed its own medicinal food category would have a good response in the market.

After all, there were so many working people, and the sub-healthy population naturally took up a huge proportion of the population.

What he just didn't expect was that the fever would be so high.

"There are so many rich people."

For the pricing of all the breakfast items in this shop, he was the one who was in charge of it.

After Lin Mo lamented, he walked forward along the line.

Only, when he had just bought into the shop.

After meeting with his wife, the expected joyful scene of reunion after a long time did not happen.

As soon as they touched heads, Xu Hanxia, who was busy and anxious, ordered directly.

"Honey, you're just in time.

Here are ten more takeaways to be delivered to the Taekwondo training room.

The order is all there if you have the address!"

Lin Mo: "....."

Where is the long time goodbye warmth?

Xu Hanxia, however, was oblivious to Lin Mo's aggrieved look.

"What are you still standing there for? The client is in a hurry."

Chapter 2317

Almost half a month had passed.

When they met again, Lin Mo was completely used as a takeaway boy.

Bitterly carrying two large bags of rice porridge, he also arrived at his destination, Gilt Taekwondo.

Before he even stepped into the training room.

A strong smell of hormones greeted him.

"Hello, Xia Mo morning tea delivery. Is anyone there, please?"

Although Lin Mo had shouted loud enough.

But put inside the training room.

The sound of banging and hitting trainers completely drowned out his shouting.

Seeing no one responding.

Lin Mo simply walked in.

Around the corner into the main room of the training room.

A middle-aged man with a black belt around his waist was supervising the trainees in front of him with a serious look on his face.

“Use your strength, what’s the point of being a p*ssy.

I’m talking about you, kicking your legs so low, practising wolf-proofing techniques.”

“What are you laughing at, a hundred high kicks each later.”

With a wail, the black belt instructor, directly in front of him, pulled a face.

“With that kind of attitude, how long will you have to practice before you achieve something.

It’s just a few side kicks, is it that hard?”

After saying that, the instructor lifted his belt and turned it sideways behind him.

He lifted his right foot and within a second, he kicked six times.

And just by listening, the sound of the whirring sound.

It was clear that this man was not only fast in his moves, but also powerful.

At this time, Lin Mo also stopped in his tracks.

He had rarely encountered such foreign renditions of martial arts.

Curious, he watched quietly for a while.

Taekwondo was simple and relied mainly on leg kung fu.

At its core, it is all about the word kick.

However, this simple word has evolved into a variety of attacks.

As the instructor finished his demonstration.

As the instructor finished his demonstration, the trainees let out a loud cheer of admiration.

Lin Mo looked at their eyes full of longing.

He could not help but smile at the corners of his mouth.

At the time, I thought that I also had such a strong feeling of longing for the martial arts.

But originally, this was a pure smile.

However, it was seen by a few trainees who suddenly noticed Lin Mo.

“What are you?”

Being shouted at by one of the cadets like that.

The scene, all the attention, was also focused on Lin Mo’s body.

“Oh, I’m Xia Mo Gra*s Tea, delivering this healthy porridge to you.”

With that said Lin Mo raised the takeaway above his hands.

However, when several trainees learnt of his identity.

An unkind and malicious look appeared on their faces at once.

“How dare you, a takeaway delivery man, mock us?”

At this moment, Lin Mo’s face was also full of speechlessness.

When did I mock you guys.

But the more Lin Mo kept quiet, the more the other party felt that he was weak-minded.

Seeing such a scene.

The black belt instructor also laughed before beckoning his hand, and then beckoning a trainee.

“Little brother, come, you give them a kick.

Let them know that since ancient times, folk produce masters.”

With that he had this trainee put on the training kick target.

And then the trainer walked over to, Lin Mo, and said softly.

“It’s alright, you don’t need to mind them.

These few little brats, they just have no place to vent their anger, so they target you.

You can just kick them later, I’ll make a joke, and the matter will be over.

I’ll give you a good review later.”

Compared to, say, the young and angry students, this coach was obviously much more reasonable.

Of course, this was just a way to get Lin Mo to be a punching bag for his students.

Lin Mo also knew the other party’s intentions.

However, he still nodded his head and agreed.

Afterwards, Lin Mo also walked forward and patted the cadet who had raised the target on his shoulder.

After checking the strength of the opponent’s body.

Lin Mo then carefully corrected this person’s posture of lifting the target.

“Bend your arm up a little more, this will prevent fractures.

Protect the joints with your left hand, so as to prevent misalignment of the joints.”

Chapter 2318

Watching Lin Mo correcting in a decent manner.

The other trainees in the training room couldn’t help but laugh out loud.

“Coach, look, being praised by you like this, people are going to go to heaven.”

“Yes, take a look at this stance, it’s quite an act.”

Listening to the taunts of the trainees.

The coach’s brow furrowed.

“If you want to watch, just watch properly.

You guys usually train and have the general motivation to watch the fun.

You would have graduated from me long ago.”

This third-degree black belt master in Taekwondo.

Just by taking a glance at the way Lin Mo corrected himself.

He knew then that this kid did have the goods.

Indeed, there was a problem with this person’s target lifting posture.

But in the coach’s opinion, a small physique like Lin Mo’s.

Even if he exerted all his strength, he would not be able to hurt him by kicking the target.

So he simply pretended that he didn’t see it.

What he didn’t expect was that the delivery boy had seen it too.

He was so reprimanded by the coach.

The other trainees also instantly quietened down, before shutting their mouths and preparing to watch Lin Mo’s joke.

On Lin Mo’s side, after correcting the posture of the target lifter, he then reassuredly took a few steps back.

“You haven’t eaten breakfast, have you?”

The original target lifter still had a disdainful face, only to be asked by Lin Mo so suddenly.

He was also baffled and subconsciously nodded his head honestly.

The next moment, he felt like his body was being loaded by a speeding truck.

The whole man, involuntarily, flew backwards.

As for the other people present, they did not see how Lin Mo struck.

He saw that his classmate flew straight up until he hit the soft wall in the training room.

Only then did the target lifter stop his body.

When he landed, he felt as if his chest cavity had been squeezed out.

For a moment, he could not breathe.

At the same time, a strong feeling of nausea rushed to his heart.

After dry heaving several times, he finally understood why the delivery boy had asked him if he had eaten breakfast.

Seeing this scene, the black belt coach also had a face of disbelief.

A kick that sent a strong adult man flying for more than ten metres?

Even he couldn't do that.

This takeaway boy was a beast on earth, right?

With the scene in a state of shock.

Lin Mo shrugged his shoulders and turned around to leave.

"I'm reining in the force, he might have a hard time for a while, but it's nothing major."

Do you hear, do people speak?

That's all he was doing?

Halfway down the road, Lin Mo stopped again.

"Coach, remember the five-star rating yo."

At this moment, the black belt coach could only nod in a mute manner.

Unexpectedly, the joking saying of 'experts in the folk' was so vividly displayed in front of him.

Was this really the takeaway boy?

And on the way back.

Lin Mo encountered three or two foreign personnel again.

By the aura emanating from their surroundings alone, one could tell that these people of his age were all extraordinary experts in martial arts.

"This year's Martial Union Conference seems to be extraordinarily lively.

I wonder, what kind of opponents will I meet?"

Thinking about this, Lin Mo couldn't help but feel a little anticipation.

Only after constant practical battles and high-intensity confrontations.

The more progress one could make in the martial arts, the greater the progress would be.

One could never be sure of one's own strength if one remained behind closed doors.

Back at the gra*s tea shop.

The long queue had been reduced by half.

The busiest phase had passed.

At this point, my wife and parents-in-law are finally free to rest for a while.

The rest could be left to the shop staff.

When she saw Lin Mo return, Xu Hanxia asked curiously.

“What did you do in their Taekwondo training room?”

They said that in the future, as long as it’s a takeaway delivered by you, they’ll refund the order.”

Lin Mo: “.....”

The mind was precisely narrow.

Chapter 2319

The territory of Miaojiang.

Between the layers of forest, all kinds of insects with poison flit back and forth.

On the ground, colourful poisonous snakes can be seen everywhere.

Even the frogs with their big bulging eyes have mucus on their bodies that can seal their throats with blood.

And it is in a place as dangerous as the Miao border.

A bell-like laughter spreads throughout the valley.

Against the warm sunlight.

A sturdy black panther crosses a deep stream three feet wide.

And on the back of the panther, the young girl is full of joy.

“Come on, Blacky! We’ll be there soon!”

As the young girl’s words fell, the black panther turned its neck spiritually.

Then it once again picked up the speed of its feet and darted between this dense forest.

As he arrived, all the animals around him retreated in good order.

When it reached its destination, the panther leapt into the air.

With the young girl on its back, it jumped straight over the wooden fence, which was more than ten metres high.

Once one person and one beast had landed lightly on the ground.

The young girl happily stroked the black panther’s huge head.

“Little Black is awesome, I’ll let Sister Uyna give you some meat and flesh later.”

Under the young girl’s stroking, the black panther also rubbed against her with a look of enjoyment, being extremely well-behaved.

As for the inhabitants of the cottage, they were not overly surprised by this.

After a quick glance at the panther, they went back to their work.

And not far away.

A silhouette dressed in animal clothes quickly rushed to the young girl’s side.

“Lord Compulsion Mother, you have finally returned.

The Seventy-two Cave Masters have been waiting for you for a long time.

Quickly, follow me over there!”

Seeing Uyna’s face full of anxiety.

Little Barbara spat out her tongue in embarrassment.

“Got it, let’s go over there now.

By the way, Sister Uyna, later on, please feed Little Black a piece of meat meat.

Mmmmmmmmm, it has to be such a big piece.”

With that Little Barbara stretched out her tender little arms and did an exaggerated hug.

Uyna saw his mischievous look and smiled dotingly.

“Alright, I know.”

With those words, she wanted to reach out and give the little barbarian’s pitiful face a squeeze.

This time just before she raised her hand.

The compulsion within her body then suddenly shrank, followed by a burrowing pain that surged up to her heart.

And at this moment, Uyna also woke up with a start.

The other party was the Miaojiang Mother of Companions, the queen of the entire companions.

She could not be touched by a servant girl like herself.

Thinking here, Uyna forced herself to endure the pain and replied with a smile.

“Don’t worry! I’ll make sure to feed Little Blackie well later.”

“Thank you, Sister Uyna!”

After saying that, Little Barbara left the place with a bounce and headed for the house at the top of the cottage.

Looking at her back.

Uyna was also overcome with emotion.

“I hope our Lord Compulsion Mother will always remain this innocent.”

At this moment he couldn't help but remember the fear that was dominated by the entire Miaojiang by the Compulsion Mother.

On the other hand, after waiting for Little Barbarian to arrive at the Great Walled Room.

The seventy-two cave masters in the hall had all arrived.

As Little Barbarian walked in, all of them stood up at the same time.

And then bent down in a neat and respectful manner.

“Greetings, Mother Compa*s.”

Seeing such a scene.

Little Barbarian was instead a little unhappy.

“Aiya, all the uncles and uncles.

How many times have I told you.

Everyone, don't be like this, Little Barbara is just a child.”

With that she puffed out her cheeks and was reluctantly taken by Uyna to sit right above her.

Sensing the kindness that came from the heart of the Mother of Companions.

The seventy-two cave masters and the various types of parasites within their bodies still trembled with excitement.

They felt the warmth surge up through their bodies.

Everyone present was elated.

This was the importance of the existence of Miao Frontier possessing a compulsion mother.

Just that moment, under the stimulation of the compulsion mother.

The growth of the parasites within the body was worth a week of hard work.

Miaojiang should be prosperous!

Chapter 2320

As the crowd sat down again.

Above the main hall, Little Barbara kicked her pink feet and asked curiously.

“Uncles and uncles, are you in such a hurry to summon me back today? Is there something going on?”

It was the late autumn season.

It was a good time for all kinds of wild fruits to ripen on the mountain.

In the past few days, Little Barbara had been nestled in the valley, gathering all kinds of wild fruits, and was so happy.

When she was called back so suddenly, she was naturally a little depressed.

And when Little Barbara's words fell.

In front of him, Ashina, the Silver Toad Cave Master, immediately got up and explained.

"Lord Ancient Tomb, the change of the Martial Union in Kyoto is about to begin.

We, Miaojiang, as, one of the four organizations of the Martial Union."

"In the past, we have been absent for several terms.

Now that you have returned, the Martial Union side has also sent an invitation some time ago.

It is time for us to show up again as well."

The Martial Alliance was constructed by the four sides of the forces.

They are the Daoist Sect, the Buddhist Sect, the Miao Frontier and the Martial Alliance Elders' Council.

Among them, the Daoist Sect and the Buddhist Sect do not ask about the mundane world, and the Miao Frontier is secluded from the world.

Naturally, the burden of managing the Martial Union is placed in the hands of the Elders' Council.

Of course, if the Martial Union encounters any important matters.

The representatives of the four parties must naturally be present.

For example, every year, the Martial Union is renewed.

The only problem is that over the years, Miaojiang has been ruled by the Compa*sionate Dignity due to the lack of a compa*sionate mother.

Although the Martial Alliance does not interfere in the affairs of the Miao border, it will not recognise the status of the Companions.

But it would not recognise the status of the Companions either.

Therefore, during these years, the representatives of Miaojiang have always been absent from the change of government.

Now it is different, the Mother of Companions has returned.

They, the Miao Frontier, could finally stand up straight and emerge with glory once again.

However, with Ashina's eyes full of light, she explained.

Little Barbara still had a puzzled look on her face.

She knew absolutely nothing about all this.

On the contrary, it was Uyna who looked aside with a flash of her gaze, and then said.

“Lord Compound Mother, haven’t you always had your heart set on Brother Lin Mo?

As long as we go to Kyoto this time, you will naturally be able to meet him!”

By the time her words fell.

Little Barbara immediately jumped down from the large chair.

She then excitedly ran to Uyina.

“Sister Uyina, is it true what you said?

I’ll be able to meet Brother Lin Mo after going to Kyoto?”

The crowd of cave masters couldn’t help but sweat at this scene.

My Miaojiang glory is still no match for that person called Lin Mo is it?

Zha Zhi Xin, my Lord Compound Mother.

After waiting for Uyna to nod with a serious face.

Little Barbara immediately perked up.

“Uncle Ashina, then let’s go to Kyoto for that whatever event!”

Although the reason for the departure was a bit solid.

But it always turned out to be good.

“And when do you plan to leave, Lord Compa*s Mother?”

Little Barbara first glanced at the group of elders present.

Only then did she bite her finger and ask tentatively.

“How about right now?”

After saying that, she then widened her big watery eyes, full of anticipation.

Generally speaking, since Mother Compa*s had already given her word, the crowd should follow it.

But if they were to leave now, it would definitely be too late.

If they were to visit the Martial Union again after so many years, they would naturally need to prepare properly.

“Lord Mother of Companions, if we leave now, it will be too late.

How about we prepare for three days before we set off?”

By the time Ashina finished speaking.

The other cave masters beside him hurriedly bumped him, and then glanced towards, Barbarian's side.

He saw that Barbara's eyes were already covered with water droplets.

Looking at it, Ashina could not help but feel a moment of panic.

"Er ....."

"Lord Compulsion Mother, then let's rest for a night before we set off again."

Hearing this, Little Barbarian then revealed a smiling face.

"Okay, then it's a deal, just tomorrow morning.

After saying that, Little Barbarian scurried out of the hall with a few leaps and bounds.

"Little Black!"

A black shadow flashed, after catching Little Barbarian, Black Panther scurried out.

"Let's go, let's prepare a gift for brother Lin Mo!"

Within the hall, only a clear breeze was left behind, along with the cave masters who were filled with resentment.

"Ashina, just one night to prepare, are you trying to force us to death?"
