

Genius 2471

Chapter 2471

Although protected by the Great Curtain Sky Giant Claw.

But under Li Jiange's terrifying attack.

The black-robed servant girl was still shaken back.

After her feet landed on two drag marks that were about half a foot deep and about twenty metres long.

Only then did she stabilize her figure.

"It's too strong!"

Wiping a handful of blood from the corner of her mouth, the black robe could not help but lament.

This supreme secret technique of his own, the Great Curtain Sky.

Not only was it extremely strong in attack, it was also a top-notch existence in defence.

Yet this Jiange Li had shaken himself out of his internal injuries with just one move.

Just as he was filled with shock.

On the other side, Li Jiange still maintained this bowing stance, only the corners of his mouth were slightly hooked up.

"Not bad strength, to be able to block my Scorching Shadow Kill."

"However, with this next move, I don't know if you'll be able to hold it."

The words fell.

His figure flickered once again, arriving in front of the Black Robe in the blink of an eye.

His face changed, and the black-robed attendant hurriedly controlled the Curtain Sky Giant Claw once again to block in front of himself.

"The same move, and you want to block me twice?"

Sword Technique, Blazing Brahma Heaven!

As Jiange Li swung his sword once again, the originally biting sword Qi behind him instantly returned to his body.

And his aura at this moment was like a balloon that had inflated to the extreme, threatening to explode at any moment.

Seeing this scene.

Xuan Yuan Ming, who was overseeing the match at the side, could not help but blush.

He then hurriedly called out anxiously.

“Quick, this kid, he’s going crazy.”

Hearing this, the surrounding guardian elders instantly tensed up as well.

One after another, they pulled their status and attention to full value.

Boom!

A violent sound instantly swept out towards.

All those present covered their ears, but even so, their eardrums were still painfully shaken.

When they looked up, the ring was wrapped in dust.

It was impossible to see what was going on inside.

As for the contestants who were closer to the ring, they sensed the terrifying aftershocks spreading.

They immediately stood up from their seats.

They then dodged behind them at a great speed.

Only after they had reached safety did they dodge.

Only then did they look back with frightened eyes.

However, at that moment, the core elders of the Martial Alliance had already made their moves.

With the combined action of two and two, the terrifying aftershocks were sealed within the ring.

It was just that the dust that filled the sky had caused them to create a great crime.

“Cough cough cough!

Cough cough .....

The dust shot up to the clouds.

Suddenly, there was a burst of coughing sounds.

Then several elders also rushed out from the dust.

Only at this moment, covered in dust, they looked a bit downcast.

“This brat, has he gone mad.”

“P*ssed off at the old man.”

“Blah blah blah, causing the old man to eat a mouthful of dirt.”

For a while, voices of blame rang out.

Only, the smiles, if any, on everyone’s faces.

They had already revealed their true thoughts completely.

And in the midst of the dusty sky.

The maid's black robe had already been shattered by the biting sword qi.

As for the clothes underneath the black robe, they were also in tattered strips at this time.

The white skin, which was originally white, was now covered in blood and dust.

As for the top of his head, it was even cloaked and covered in stains.

And under the serious injury, the aura was lost.

Those giant claws of the curtain of heaven also quickly burrowed back into his body.

It was only then that the arms, which had been as thin as demolition, slowly began to flush and coagulate.

However just as she struggled to get up.

Behind her throat, a long sword was quietly revealed.

"You've lost!"

Li Jiange said calmly.

Yet all that responded to him was the sound of an ear-piercing scream.

Seeing the black robe wrapping its hands around his chest.

Only then did Jiange Li react.

The other party was a girl after all, and the scattered strips of cloth on top of her body were no different from being naked.

With an embarrassed face, he withdrew his long sword.

Chapter 2472

What was happening in the dusty sky was unknown to all those present.

The only thing they saw was that the Japanese player suddenly let out a scream.

Then, wrapped in Li Jiange's trench coat, he ran out of it in a panic.

This scene caused the crowd to be instantly baffled.

"Er ..... , what happened?"

"How do I know, do I have perspective eyes."

"Do you think they could be in there, you know?"

“I know you ha sell pie, just that Japanese p*ssy that looks like that, sent to you, you get down.”

Said his finger in the direction.

His companion looked up.

He saw the Japanese player, covered in blood, stained and draped with hair.

It gave him an instant chill to look at, let alone think anything else.

“Whatever, let’s just win.”

Before Xuan Yuan Ming, the temporary referee, could pronounce the result of the match.

A huge cheering sound suddenly came from the scene.

“We won, we won completely and utterly, zero against the Japanese.”

“Good job Martial Union!”

The deafening cheers were accompanied by the sound of cheering.

The dust above the ring also slowly dispersed.

Compared to his opponent’s downcast appearance.

At this moment, Li Jiange still had that cloudy and breezy look, and as for the Blazing Sword in his hand, it had already been retrieved from its scabbard.

“In this match, Jiange Li wins!”

After the result of the match was read out.

Xuan Yuan Ming walked directly to Li Jiange’s side.

“Brat, don’t you know how to control the force?

The martial arts stage we’ve built with great difficulty has been ruined by you like this.”

Said Xuanyuan Ming and pointed behind him.

The originally good Vajra Rock martial arts stage had already collapsed by a large margin.

On the other side, countless cracks and crevices had also appeared due to the huge impact.

Scratching his head, Li Jiange smiled nervously.

“Grand Elder, it’s not like you don’t know.

During these five years of training in the Far North, I have had to face the kind of enemies I have.”

“I’ve gotten used to using this wide open stance.

I can’t change over for a while.”

Of course this was just a mere figure of speech on his part.

From the bottom of his heart, he also had this other purpose, but it was just inconvenient to say so.

“Be careful in future, if not for our timely reaction.

I don’t know how many casualties you would have caused with this match.”

Faced with the Grand Elder’s admonition.

Li Jiange’s face was serious as he stated.

“Thank you, Grand Elder, don’t worry, I will pay attention next time.”

Of course that was not what he had in mind.

If I didn’t have these big brothers overseeing the battle, I wouldn’t dare to come like this!

And then Xuan Yuan Ming forced a smile and cautioned him a few more times.

The main message was that he should not be overly proud, that he should be open-minded and learn, and that there are people outside the world.

Only after that did Xuanyuan Ming leave with a happy heart.

As for Nie Kongming’s group of elders, they also arrived in front of Li Jiange with gratified faces.

“Good boy, you have great talent, well done.

The future of China is all yours youngsters.”

After saying that, he raised his hand and patted the latter’s shoulder with force.

It immediately caused Li Jiange to grimace in pain.

And Nie Kongming’s commendation was just the beginning.

All the core group of elders supervising the battle behind them took over one after another.

One by one, they took turns to click on him, just a flurry of praise.

Finally, they patted him on the shoulder in relief.

Maybe the elders were just a bit heavy handed because they were so excited.

That’s right.

With that thought, Li Jiange rubbed his sore shoulder and walked out of the ring.

Amongst the departing core group of elders, whispers were quietly heard.

“You guys are no good, you hit so lightly!”

“Lightly? Are you kidding me? I used dark energy.

His shoulder will be red and swollen for a week.”

“That’s a good idea, let him return the favour.”

With laughter, the crowd slowly made their way back to the elders' table.

The post-match matters were naturally left to Nie Kongming.

Chapter 2473

As the battle came to an end.

The jubilant spectators slowly dispersed.

The participants on the Chinese side still had to wait for the next arrangements to be made for the change of the Martial Union.

As for the Japanese side, they returned to their stronghold in despair.

The only one left behind was Hachiman.

There was no other reason.

The forty islands that he had lost still needed to be handed over.

The miserable black-robed attendant on the other side was now kneeling in front of Kamino's body.

"My subordinate has done a bad job, please punish me, my Lord."

Kaminai, who had been keeping her eyes closed, slowly opened her eyes.

"You have let me down."

"Incantations, martial arts, divine weapons, secret techniques, there is nothing I have less of you."

Staring at the serving girl in front of her.

Kamino seemed to see through the other's mind in general.

"Don't think it's because your opponent is too strong.

After all, it's just that you yourself are too weak."

As soon as the words left his mouth, he raised his hand.

The black robe only felt a sharp pain coming from her cheek, and then her entire body was slapped away.

After rolling on the ground several times in a row, she scrambled to her feet.

And then respectfully pressed her forehead to the ground again and knelt in front of her Lord's body.

"Remember, you are just a low-breeding b*tch born secretly to that b*tchy maid and an outsider.

If I hadn't intervened back then, you would have been dipped to death within the water tank."

"Next time, if you let me down, it will be more than just a slap on the wrist."

“Get lost!”

After hearing his master’s words.

The black robe respectfully withdrew from the room and went off to heal his wounds alone.

After disciplining his subordinate.

Kamino’s slender fingers then started tapping the coffee table quickly.

After waiting for the message from Ryuuken Hyakuza.

She rose straight to her feet.

But before, Ryuukage Hyakuza could say anything to dissuade her.

Kamino then spoke up.

“Don’t worry, I know the bigger picture is important.

Lin Mo has this too much attention on Lin Mo nowadays.

Otherwise, yesterday, I wouldn’t have sent my subordinates to make a move to test it out.”

“Even if that man in the green cloaked hat is not on Lin Mo, there will be others on him.

I’m just going to test the bottom line of the Martial Alliance.”

“Don’t worry, I’m not stupid, I’m just looking for Lin Mo to talk to.”

With that, Kamino disappeared within the room.

It was late into the night.

After his injuries were stabilised.

Lin Mo was then transferred to the side of the medical hall under the name of the Medical Alliance.

The quiet healing area seemed extraordinarily secluded.

Occasionally, light footsteps would pa*s by in the corridor.

Lin Mo, who had been sleeping, involuntarily twitched his nose.

And finally, his eyes snapped open.

“Vertigo incense?”

After lowering than a sentence, he suddenly glanced at the remaining light.

At this moment, on the window, by the curtain that was being blown by the wind, there was actually a black shadow sitting.

With the dim light from the corridor, he couldn’t see the other party’s appearance at all.

His nerves tightened, and Lin Mo directly reached out to feel for his Tai Ah.

And at this time, the visitor also suddenly spoke.

“No need to be nervous, I’m just looking for you to have a few words.

If I were to add blackness with you, I wouldn’t have waited for you to wake up.”

Hearing these words.

Lin Mo also felt that there was a bit of truth to it.

He then also relaxed and twisted around to turn on the light inside the hospital bed.

At this time, he finally got a clear view of the visitor.

The first thing that caught his eyes was the proud figure of the woman.

The pair of long, slender legs, although covered by a long, high-cut skirt.

But with the woman’s constant shaking, her white thighs were hidden in plain sight.

The slender waist, the proud bosom, coupled with that exquisite face.

Lin Mo’s eyes suddenly froze for a short while.

Only instantly did they clear up.

“Charm technique?”

Accompanied by his opening his mouth, he asked.

The woman sitting by the bed, also slowly stood up.

“Not bad, willpower to hear firmness.

Meet, little lady Kamino.”

“There are some things that I would like to find out from Mr. Lin.

I wonder, is it convenient for Mr. Lin now.”

At this moment, Lin Mo looked at the little caretaker on the ground who had been put down by the enchanting incense, and shrugged helplessly.

“Miss Kamino, in this situation nowadays, is it not up to you to decide whether it’s convenient or not!”

Hearing this.

Kamineo pursed her lips and smiled, Lin Mo was very happy with this “Miss” call.

Chapter 2474

“Little brother, since I have chosen this soft way of approaching you with my enquiry.

I hope you will also be honest with me can you?”

Hearing the other party's question.

Lin Mo nodded in confusion, although he didn't know what this person's purpose was.

But a Japanese p*ssy and a martial arts practitioner was definitely not a good person.

"Very well, I just want to know, when you fought with Tuo Bailey.

The final steal .... Where did that winning move come from?"

Originally she was going to say sneak attack, but she felt a bit inadequate, so she switched to a different way of saying it.

"Are you talking about the flying needle technique?"

With that, she stretched out her uninjured palm, and a flying needle, glowing black, hovered steadily in the palm of her hand.

At this time, Kamino's originally calm face suddenly showed a strong fluctuation.

In her eyes, a faint killing intent was even emitted.

Only this flash of killing intent flashed and was quickly concealed by him.

"Yes, yes, this is it.

Little brother, where did this flying needle come from, can you tell us in detail."

Frowning, Lin Mo pretended to ponder for a moment.

And only then did he speak with a straight face.

"This, ah, was given to me by the Grand Elder of the Medical Union, Elder Nie, after the Medical Saint Competition back then.

As the new Medical Saint, this is the reward."

Before he could finish, Kamino heard the abnormality between Lin Mo's words.

The Healing Saint Competition had already pa*sed for some time.

If Lin Mo had received the Doktor Nine Needles from which time.

It was impossible to hide such a reserve card and not use it when he was besieged by the Togokahn as well as the Abe family.

This means that the night before last, the person who saved Lin Mo was most likely someone from the Dokuro family.

Or had this extraordinary relationship with the Dokuro family.

And the Nine Needles of Dokuro should have been given to Lin Mo at that time.

The Nine Needles of the Dokuro family was the most precious treasure of the Dokuro family.

How could it be given to an unrelated person.

If Lin Mo had known what Kamino was thinking at that moment, he would have been shocked.

She knew the whole story in more detail than she did.

And at this moment, Kamino still kept the smile on her face, but there was a little more coldness in her eyes.

“Medical Saint Lin, you’re not being honest.”

“If that’s the case, I’ll have to use a little trick.”

As he said this once, he slowly walked towards Lin Mo.

The palm that was slowly raised was bubbling with a faint black light.

And Lin Mo, who was on the sickbed row, was so unconcerned with Kamino’s threat that he just shook his head helplessly.

“Eh, to be honest, it’s surprising that you don’t believe me too.

Are you Yin-Yang master family people that suspicious?”

At these words, Kamino couldn’t help but give a start to the movement in her hands.

“The Yin-Yang master family, you knew who I was from the start?”

At this point, she suddenly realized that she seemed to have been teased by Lin Mo.

“Of course, damsel, are you looking down on, me, someone Lin.

At least I’m also a medical saint of China, as well as the head of the Martial Alliance branch hall.

Don’t you know how loud a name like Kamenai is?”

“Just kidding, old demon woman.”

Hearing that name.

Kamino’s original smile instantly disappeared.

She didn’t know how much work she had put in to keep her current young appearance.

At the same time, she hated the word ‘old witch’ the most.

The ward was filled with a strong murderous aura.

However, this murderous aura came and went quickly.

In a mere moment, it dissipated again.

After a brief burst of anger.

Kamino immediately realised that something was wrong.

This Lin Mo's words seemed to be a little extraordinarily deliberate.

"Mr. Lin, you seem to be deliberately trying to provoke me."

With that said Kamino went to the side of the hospital bed and slowly sat down.

Stretching out her long, slender fingers.

Bringing this nail to slowly scratch across Lin Mo's cheek.

Chapter 2475

By now Kamino's sudden anger had disappeared.

"You're not being nice, I've come here with good intentions.

You're making people sad."

If a normal person of his age were to act like a little girl.

Lin Mo would have just avoided it.

However, when he thought about the fact that the Kamino in front of him, despite her young and delicate face, was actually hundreds of years old.

He couldn't help but feel a bad chill.

"Elders, I can't stand it, come and help me!"

It was in resisting the feeling of disgust that came from his heart.

Lin Mo was ultimately unable to hold on to the end.

Yet along with this voice of his.

Kamino felt a sudden surge in her heart.

The cold hairs all over her body also exploded in this instant.

Within the ward, on top of the originally empty sofa, several old men appeared quietly.

"I told you, it's not that easy to lure this old woman out."

"You've waited all night for nothing."

"That's right, the concealment formation that I so brazenly received has been set up for nothing."

While Xuan Yuan Ming was leading several Martial Union elders, he was spouting off to himself.

Outside the window, a figure suddenly burst in.

"You guys can have some fun.

I've been out in the cold wind all night.

Phew, it's freezing me to death."

With that, Nie Kongming shook his body, picked up the hot tea on the table and drank it directly with a gentle blow.

And the little nurse, who was originally unconscious on the ground, suddenly popped up since.

"This pretending to be a woman, I won't do it even if it kills me next time."

With that, he tore off the disguise mask on his face and removed a bang of disguise.

"Elder Nie, you need to add floor heating to this floor of your medical hall.

It's freezing old me to death."

After regaining his original appearance.

This old man also walked over to, Nie Kongming's side and drank hot tea with him.

As for Kamino, who was on the other side, she became a transparent person.

Of course, at this moment, she also completely understood.

Everything that had happened before was just a trap.

I didn't expect that this group of old Japanese people would be able to fish for law enforcement.

If she hadn't been able to suppress her anger just now and made a move against Lin Mo.

It was likely that she would have been within the dungeon of the Martial Union by now.

Thinking of this, she couldn't help but feel cold sweat on her back.

These old C*nts!

It was also when she was slightly dazed that Xuanyuan Ming suddenly spoke up.

"Kamino, count yourself lucky this time.

But there will be a next time when you dare to do something untoward to a person from my country, China.

Don't blame me for not giving face to your Yin Yang family."

At this moment, Kamino also slowly stood up from the hospital bed.

"Grand Elder, what kind of words are these.

My junior is merely thinking that little friend Lin was injured by someone of my Japanese peers.

With a guilty conscience, I have just come to pay a visit to little friend Lin."

"Since there are elders from the Martial Union present, I am relieved.

I'll leave now."

With that, she twisted her fat a*s and intended to leave.

Only when she was about to open the door.

Instantly, her body trembled.

By the time he tried to turn around to defend himself, it was already too late.

A shadow of a palm strike had already lined up heavily on his back.

“This is the punishment for the day before yesterday, when your Japanese man performed the a*sa*sination.

Remember, there is no next time!”

Said Xuanyuan Ming with a glance, and a biting murderous intent instantly enveloped Kamino in it.

“My junior understands!”

After wiping away the blood from the corner of her mouth.

Kaminai then clutched her chest and fled from this place.

This time, it was her carelessness after all.

Originally, she had thought that the Martial Alliance was busy with their affairs.

There was no time to care about Lin Mo’s side.

To her surprise, she didn’t know if these Martial Union elders had nothing better to do.

Not only did they care, but even the few elders of the Martial Union with the strongest force were all present.

Chapter 2476

What was even more abominable was this.

This group of elders from the Martial Union had even brought along the Dao Sect’s concealment array discs to conceal their own scent.

And they also disguised themselves and hid their forms.

In order to get Lin Mo to speak out and anger himself, and wait until the moment he struck out at him.

To take her, Kamino, down completely.

With a heart full of resentment.

Kaminai finally rushed back to the stronghold.

After a quick step to her room.

She hurriedly fetched a potion to treat her internal injuries.

Immediately afterwards, she crossed her legs and began to heal her wounds.

After a long time, he finally spurted out a mouthful of dark black blood before his face looked better.

It was night.

Kamino summoned Ryujin Hyakusho again.

“My lord, you are wounded.”

Seeing Kamino, who looked slightly depressed.

Ryuukage Hyakuza asked with concern.

At that moment the former just waved her time indifferently.

“No matter, it’s just a few minor injuries.”

After saying that, Kamino’s face also looked serious.

“I have two important things here that I need you to do.”

“One, include Li Jiange in the same list of China’s must-kill geniuses as Lin Mo.

Their War God of the Kingdom of China has been dragging our Kingdom of God down for over twenty years.”

“Both of these two have their potential to take over, and they should definitely not be allowed to grow its up.”

“Especially this Lin Mo, I suspect that he has a lot of connections with the Doku family.

You should pay extra attention to Lin Mo’s movements during this period.

But if anyone suspicious comes into contact with him, make sure to report it in time.”

After recording the matters one by one.

Liu Ying Bai Zhan bowed and withdrew, and then two important pieces of information and arrangements were passed back to the Japanese country as quickly as possible.

On the other side.

After the failure of the “fishing expedition”.

Several of the elders left with a slight disappointment.

They couldn’t get a grip.

They couldn’t do anything about it, they could only punish him a little.

At this moment, only Lin Mo and the two bigwigs from the Martial Alliance were left in the ward.

“Lin Mo. During this next period of time, you must pay attention to your own safety.”

“I suspect that that Kamenai has already suspected you.”

Seeing Lin Mo's puzzled face.

Xuan Yuan Ming then patiently explained.

"There's no way that lame excuse of yours could have fooled this Kamino.

Judging from this woman's reaction.

She should have guessed out the time for you to obtain this Doktor Nine Needles."

"And their entire Japanese nation has a deep hatred with the head of the Dokuro family.

So going forward you must ask him to bite the bullet on this claim."

"The Nine Needles of Doktor is the reward given to you by the Medical Alliance, do you understand?"

Hearing the question.

Lin Mo nodded his head to show that he understood.

Of course he also noticed the loophole between the Grand Elder's words at the same time.

"Grand Elder, do you know the person who gave this gift of needles?"

From the inside.

Lin Mo also wanted to know the identity of this life-saving benefactor, the person who had saved his life, healed his wounds, and presented him with a divine weapon.

If he had the chance, Lin Mo would naturally want to thank him personally.

Of course for the relationship between the two sides.

Lin Mo did not dare to make more suspicions.

At this moment, Xuanyuan Ming only shook his head indifferently.

"It's true that we know each other.

Since he doesn't want to talk about it, he also has his hardships.

You shouldn't expect to be able to get anything out of me.

When the time is ripe, you will naturally you will know.

There's no need to rush."

"By the way, speaking of which.

Speaking of which, there are some things I want to talk to you about."

"This first one is the transfer of your appointment."

Said Xuanyuan Ming, then winked towards Nie Kongming at the side.

The latter understood and walked directly in front of Lin Mo.

“First of all, the first generation of the ‘Walking Corpse’ virus vaccine is already in the stage of mass production.

You have a huge contribution to make in this.”

“Therefore, on the side of the Medical Alliance, we have decided to officially appoint you to the position of Elder of the Medical Alliance, ranking in the House of Elders.

The main thing is that your level of medical skills is also sufficient to hold this position.”

Chapter 2477

After explaining the appointment of the Medical Alliance.

Nie Kongming added.

“Of course, at your current age, it’s a bit shocking to serve as an elder of the Medical Union.

Plus, all the surrounding countries are now staring at us.

That’s why this appointment is something we won’t be making public for now.”

Nodding his head.

Lin Mo also expressed his understanding.

The dual dao of medicine and martial arts was the main manifestation of a country’s comprehensive strength.

If other countries, especially the Japanese, were to learn of this.

They would definitely be watching Lin Mo with the intention of assassinating him.

It was easy to hide behind a gun, but it was hard to defend against an arrow.

Nie Kongming’s approach was actually protecting Lin Mo’s safety.

“As for the second point, it is about your posting arrangement in the Martial Union.”

“The ‘corporal punishment’ training method you implemented in the War Hall has been cited by the War Hall.

In addition to your performance in the Martial Union Competition, you have been promoted to the Martial Union.”

“On the side of the Martial Union, you are promoted to the rank of Battle Hall Instructor.

In addition, you are officially appointed as the president of the Martial Union in South Vietnam and Hanoi provinces.”

After saying that, Nie Kongming pulled out three appointment letters from his arms!

One as a Medical Union Elder, two as a Battle Hall Instructor, and three as Presidents of the two provinces.

At this moment, Lin Mo was also shocked to no small extent.

Wasn't this promotion a little too much.

The positions of elder and instructor were understandable to him.

After all, this was what he had earned in exchange for his contribution.

However, the positions of president of the Martial Union in South Vietnam and Hanoi provinces were a bit too much.

No!

As he thought about it, Lin Mo suddenly came to his senses.

"Elder Nie, is this South Vietnam and Hanoi under the Great Qu United Provinces?"

At this time, Nie Kongming was the one who nodded with a wicked smile on his face.

For a moment, Lin Mo's head instantly swelled.

This was a f*cking promotion.

This was a rhythm that would kill him.

"Elder Nie, you know that my body needs a long time to recover.

And then, the Martial Union's replacement hasn't even finished yet.

I still need to prepare."

"Home ....."

Clickety-clack, ranting and raving for more than ten minutes.

All sorts of delaying words were said by Lin Mo.

And there was only one purpose.

He didn't want to go!

Da Qu United Province, under the name of China, was similar to a va*sal.

However, the nature of this Da Qu United Province was not much different from that of Miaojiang.

The mountains are continuous and the land is sparsely populated.

The only difference is that.

Although Miaojiang was remote, it was also within the structure of the Martial Alliance.

In contrast, this province is not only remote, but also extremely difficult to manage.

The local folk are tough and bloodthirsty.

And because of its unique geographical nature, it was almost the equivalent of a 'Three Regardless' zone.

To be the president of such a place?

It would be a bona fide commander.

In the face of Lin Mo's various excuses.

Xuan Yuan Ming suddenly grinned.

"If the sky is going to give a great task to a man, you must first suffer his heart.

As your strength continues to rise, your fame spreads day by day.

One day, you'll have to establish your own power and base."

"Of course if your ambition is, to be the Grand Elder of the Medical Union or the Martial Union.

Naturally, we would raise our hands in favour.

But are you willing to do so?"

"Plus, if you want to recreate the glory of the Lin family.

This is also an essential part of it."

A single word broke through.

After hearing the words of the Grand Elder, Lin Mo also woke up in this instant.

Yes!

No matter if one wanted to take revenge for the Lin Family, or to recreate the glory of the Lin Family.

This had to be done by first establishing one's own power.

Yet looking around.

All the major regions of the Chinese Kingdom were already occupied by the Ten Great Families as well as the Six Kings of the Chinese Kingdom.

Unless one intends to seize the tiger's mouth.

Otherwise, this Da Qu United Province was the best choice for him.

Thinking of this, Lin Mo's gaze also cleared up.

And seeing him in this state.

Nie Kongming couldn't help but secretly give a thumbs up towards Xuan Yuan Ming.

Ginger is still old and spicy.

The moment he opened his mouth, he had fooled Lin Mo into a daze.

Chapter 2478

The various strategic deployments of the Martial Union in the past few years have required a large number of manpower.

There was simply no way to divide up the manpower to overhaul the Great Qu United Province.

And Xuan Yuan Ming's plan was to let the young people with the most potential step forward.

On the one hand, they could train their management skills.

A talented person like Lin Mo.

Whether he wanted to establish his own family in the future.

Or to enter the core departments of the Medical and Martial Union.

This management ability was still essential.

On the other hand.

Let Lin Mo take the lead in reorganising the two provinces of South Vietnam and Hanoi.

If it succeeded.

If it succeeded, it would save a huge amount of manpower at the same time.

With the provinces of South Vietnam and Ha Noi as the centre, it would be possible to expand on all sides.

It is possible that the provinces of Da Qu will be completely reorganised.

So all in all.

This new attempt, whether Lin Mo succeeded or failed.

For the Martial Union, it was a plan that would do no harm but good, so why not do it.

After a short wait.

Lin Mo most after some consideration, he finally agreed to come down.

Of course, this time, the plan to rectify South Vietnam Province as well as Hanoi Province.

It was still only a private preliminary agreement between Nie Kongming and Xuanyuan Ming.

The specific detailed plan would still need to be discussed specifically by the Martial Union Elders' Council afterwards.

Only after some time would there be a clear message.

After both parties had reached an agreement on this matter.

The two elders went over with Lin Mo again the general course of the final battle between Li Jiange and the Black Robe.

He had not been able to witness this battle with his own eyes.

Lin Mo only felt some regret.

Nie Kongming had to prepare for the Martial Alliance Battle Hall's trainee instructors the next day.

After saying hello, he left.

At this moment, within the ward, only Lin Mo and Xuan Yuan Ming were left.

"Lin Mo, originally I thought I would explain some things to you later.

However, you've grown up too fast."

"Why don't I just explain it to you in advance?"

With that, Xuanyuan Ming handed Lin Mo a leather box.

Curious, Lin Mo directly opened it.

Only to see that inside, there was a metallic feeling pistol lying around.

Hmm?

"Grand Elder, what does this mean?"

A firearm was the highest restricted level heat weapon in China.

It also existed at the national level of combat readiness.

However, the only crime for those who have them in their private possession is death.

But within the Kingdom of China, a private user, regardless of the power behind the person, is punished by death.

It is not even possible for ordinary people to see it, let alone possess it.

And Xuan Yuan Ming, faced with Lin Mo's doubts, slowly opened his mouth to explain.

"In our country of China, the control of hot weapons is extremely strict.

So guns and the like, you rarely get to see them."

"But in the future, if there is a conflict with a foreign power.

Or in places like the high seas where there are no controls.

It is highly likely that such hot weapons will appear."

"So that's something you have to do in advance as a precaution.

Although with your current strength, this kind of small caliber pistol, can't cause on damage to you.

But heavy heat weapons, you still need to be on guard.”

After hearing Xuan Yuan Ming finish speaking.

Lin Mo also understood.

On the last trip to the high seas, I think there was also the deterrent control of Nangong Jingliu as well as Master Xue Wu.

Otherwise, that group of bottomless Japanese could not guarantee that they would have secretly used extremely lethal thermal weapons.

“Thank you, Grand Elder, for reminding Lin Mo of the province.”

Across the table, Xuan Yuan Ming gave a bashful smile.

“Hahaha, no need to be so polite.

This group of old men of ours have waited, with great difficulty, for your group of youngsters to grow up.

If they die midway, all our hard work will be wasted.”

“So you have to protect yourself, you have a lot of responsibility on your shoulders.

All right, it’s getting late, so get some rest.”

After the words fell.

With a shake of his figure, he disappeared directly into the spot.

Leaving behind a huge amount of information, waiting for Lin Mo to slowly analyse it and smooth it out.

Chapter 2479

With the help of the golden ointment.

The mutated ‘walker’ virus contained in his blood gave him the ability to recover beyond normal people.

After nearly a week of recuperation.

Lin Mo had almost recovered.

When he arrived at the martial arts arena, the battle for the 99 trainee instructors of the Battle Hall for the younger generation had already ended.

What was happening now was the campaign for the older generation of managers.

The election campaign was rather boring, using more of a selection process.

There was no bloodshed to speak of.

As for the recruitment activities for the ordinary members of the Martial Union and the trainees of the War Hall.

After watching for a while's, Lin Mo left.

He came to Villa Cloud Stream's Stream.

Before Lin Mo could enter, his mother-in-law hurriedly stopped him.

And then she began to greet Xu Jiangong.

"Old Xu, quickly Little Desert is back."

When she had finished.

Xu Jiangong came over with a large fire bowl and then placed it at the front door.

"Little Desert, quickly step over this!"

Seeing this scene.

Lin Mo instantly burst into cold sweat on his forehead.

"Mom and Dad, I just came out of the hospital, not out of squatting on a horn."

"Go, don't talk nonsense.

It's all more or less the same nature, just go to the bad luck."

Said Fang Hui then urged here Lin Mo to hurry up and step over the fire pit.

After coming to the living room.

His wife had already started setting up the tableware.

"You're back!

Our mother has prepared something delicious for you today."

Said Xu Hanxia, then pointed to the large table of delicacies slowly.

After a week at the medical school, he had been eating light meals every day.

The meals that his wife had brought in the middle of the day had all been confiscated.

Now Lin Mo had no oil left in his stomach alone.

Now that he saw so much delicious food, how could he possibly hold back.

Without saying a word, he was ready to reach out and steal the food.

Unfortunately, before he could do so.

His mother-in-law then walked over quickly and slapped the back of his hand.

"Go on, wash your hands first if you want to eat.

Don't you know that disease enters through the mouth?

You're still a doctor's saint, you even know this knowledge of hygiene."

Being reprimanded by his mother-in-law like this.

Lin Mo could only walk resentfully towards the washroom.

After everything was prepared.

The family gathered together and sat down at the table.

"Mom and Dad, how is the business at the congee shop now?

Is it still going well?"

Speaking of it.

The smiles on the faces of the two old men who came were also brighter.

"After you updated those secret recipes.

Our shop's business is even hotter than before, than before."

"Nowadays, your father and I are now planning to open branches."

Hearing this, Lin Mo also nodded reassuringly.

The Martial Union Change Event had lasted for a long time.

These few days were only the first round of the event.

"It's fine if the business is good.

If I'm not home anymore, you guys encounter anything.

You can go to my master, or Elder Nie.

I've already said hello on their side."

Ears heard Lin Mo's words.

Fang Hui instantly stopped her chopsticks.

Then her face slowly pulled down as well.

"You've only dared to rest for a few days.

Why are you going out again?"

At the side, his wife, hurriedly smiled and relieved his old mother's mood.

"Mom, now Lin Mo is namely the newly promoted Medical Saint.

He also has to participate in the Martial Union's competition."

Then her words.

Father-in-law also persuaded from the side.

“Yes, daughter-in-law.

Our little Desu is not what he used to be.

There are many big things that are waiting for him to handle.

You shouldn’t give him a hard time.”

Fang Hui first gave Xu Jiangong a blank look.

And then, after smashing her mouth, she said sullenly.

“It’s not because I’m sad about Xiao Mo.

Three days and two days of injuries.

This just came out of the hospital, and then you turn around and have to go running around again.”

Putting down his chopsticks, Lin Mo smiled lightly.

“Mom, it’s alright.

Fight more while you’re young.

That way our family can live a good life ah.”

Among the more complicated things, Lin Mo did not have the words to say.

It was better to enjoy this rare warmth now!

Chapter 2480

of the few days he stayed at home.

Lin Mo had been refining the Doklam Nine Needles, and according to the heart method.

This set of Xuan Iron Needles could be used not only to kill the enemy, but also to practice medicine and save people.

Apart from that, Lin Mo spent time with his wife and occasionally went to the congee shop to help out.

But more often than not, the help was just backwards.

Lin Mo’s fame was too great now.

With his handsome appearance, he instantly attracted a large number of little fans.

They were either taking pictures or signing autographs.

After a few times, the shop was surrounded by a lot of people.

His mother-in-law would not allow him to go to ‘Xia Mo Morning Tea’ anymore.

So, Lin Mo could only stay at home obediently and prepare for the subsequent arrangements.

“Young Master Lin, someone outside has sent you an invitation letter!

It says it’s an old friend of yours.”

Accepting the envelope from the nanny, Lin Mo opened it straight away.

“Did the other party say who it was?”

The former also just shook his head with a dumbfounded expression.

“The Nine Wells Tea House?”

As for the invitation, there was no information about the other party within.

“Alright, Aunt Mei I know.”

With his doubts, Lin Mo then just headed there.

The location of the teahouse was rather remote.

The customers, who were in twos and threes, were also of the older generation who were older and liked peace and quiet.

After walking to the first floor and pushing open the private tea room, there was a middle-aged man sitting inside.

There was a middle-aged man sitting inside.

After seeing the other party’s face.

Lin Mo frowned, he did not know this person.

Seeing him in this state.

The man suddenly picked up the cane on the side and stood up trembling.

“Ah, Doctor Lin Mo, you are truly a noble man who forgets things.

What’s the matter, you can’t even remember your old friend.”

With that, he raised his hand and slowly tore the skin off his face, revealing his true face.

“The Companions?”

As both sides stared at each other.

Lin Mo directly raised his hand and gripped the hilt of his sword, his killing aura surging around him.

On the other side, the Compa*s Sage was calmly shaking his head.

“Doctor Saint, why be so murderous.

Old friends haven’t seen each other for so long.

Why don't you sit down and have a chat, and after listening to the news I've brought you, it's not too late for you to make your move."

After saying that, Compa*s Sage made an inviting gesture while doing so.

And then he sat himself down and calmly began to make tea.

"I hope that this news of yours will buy you a little time to live."

At this moment, Lin Mo also withdrew his palm.

Since the compulsion daddy dared to go to the capital alone to find himself, he must have something to fall back on.

With this in mind, Lin Mo also sat down opposite to Zun Zong.

"Come, come, we haven't seen each other for a long time, we haven't expressed our feelings yet.

In lieu of tea, I congratulate little friend Lin on becoming the new Medical Saint of China."

At his gesture, Lin Mo didn't react much, just looked at him coldly.

The companions did not care either, and after holding the cup of tea and pa*sing it forward, he took it back.

After drinking it all in one go, he wiped his mouth again.

"Ha, good tea, it's true that the tea from Kyoto is still the most authentic."

For this series of his manipulations.

Lin Mo was slowly growing impatient as well.

"Compose Zun, what's the matter, just say it quickly.

If you just want my to watch you taste tea, I think it's almost over now."

"Of course, if you're purely just tired of living.

I wouldn't mind going to some trouble to pick your head off this one."

While being in the Canton Province.

This compulsion zun did not know how many times he wanted to bring himself to death.

Moreover, this person was one of the murderers who destroyed the Lin family back then.

Now that they had met again.

Lin Mo hated to take his life, so how could he possibly give the other party a good look.

And in the face of Lin Mo's cold words.

Compose Zun still leisurely poured out tea leaves.

"Doctor Sage Lin, don't be so angry.

I've come with good intentions to deliver news to you.

You are really chilling my heart by being like this."

"It's a waste of my hard work!

Don't you think so, Young Master Lin."
